

TravelStore renews with Sabre to support business growth amid the travel industry's recovery

September 2, 2020

SOUTHLAKE, Texas, Sept. 2, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Sabre Corporation (NASDAQ: SABR), a leading software and technology company that powers the global travel industry, and TravelStore, Inc., the largest independent travel management company in California, have extended their long-standing relationship and signed a new multi-year agreement, allowing TravelStore to continue accessing the comprehensive travel content within the Sabre GDS to shop, book and manage travel for customers. Additionally, TravelStore also benefits from Sabre Red 360, designed to help agents offer a greater experience and more personalization to travelers.

Founded in 1975, TravelStore is employee owned and an award-winning travel industry leader for business travel management services and luxury vacations. Travel Store offers a full complement of travel management services to both businesses and leisure travelers across the country and around the world.

"TravelStore has enjoyed more than 40 years of success with Sabre as our technology partner, helping us meet our company goals of providing the greatest choice and personalization when booking travel," said Brian Crawford, chief operating officer of TravelStore. "We have decided to continue our decades long partnership given their technology superiority, balanced approach to airline relationships, forward thinking on evolving business models and best in class account management."

As part of its unique culture, TravelStore is committed to providing best in class customer service to discerning travelers who appreciate the value of global connections. TravelStore partnered with Sabre to utilize its virtual payment solutions to help clients easily manage their hotel bookings by removing the stress from travelers who would normally need to pay for hotel bookings directly then seek reimbursement.

"We are thrilled to continue partnering with TravelStore and providing them with a balanced Sabre marketplace that includes the robust content that their travelers demand," said Roshan Mendis, chief commercial officer of Sabre Travel Solutions. "Sabre is deeply committed to delivering the content, reach and solutions that travel management companies like TravelStore need for their travelers."
