Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On July 1, 2015, Sabre Corporation (“Sabre”) completed the previously announced acquisition by its wholly-owned subsidiary, Sabre Technology Enterprises II Ltd. (“Purchaser”), of all of the shares (the “Shares”) of capital stock of Abacus International Pte Ltd (“Abacus”) held by Abacus International Holdings Ltd (“Seller”). The acquisition of the Shares was pursuant to the terms of a Share Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”), dated as of May 14, 2015, between Seller and Purchaser. Abacus is a Singapore-based business-to-business travel e-commerce provider that serves the Asia-Pacific region. Prior to its acquisition of the Shares, Purchaser owned approximately 35 percent of the outstanding shares of capital stock of Abacus. As a result of the acquisition, Purchaser owns all of the outstanding shares of Abacus, and Abacus is an indirect, wholly-owned subsidiary of Sabre. Abacus has entered into new long-term distribution agreements with owner carriers that own an interest in Seller.

The net cash consideration for the Shares was $411 million, which excludes the effect of a net working capital adjustment to be finalized after completion. Sabre funded the acquisition, including the working capital adjustment and cash acquired, with a combination of cash on hand, together with a $70 million draw on its revolving credit facility.

In addition, Abacus has entered into a definitive agreement to acquire the remaining interest in Abacus Distribution Systems (Hong Kong), a national marketing company in which Abacus currently owns a minority interest. Sabre expects to continue reviewing opportunities to acquire other national marketing companies in the Asia-Pacific region.

The description of the Purchase Agreement and the acquisition of the Shares is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copy of the Purchase Agreement, which was included as Exhibit 2.1 to Sabre’s Current Report on Form 8-K, filed on May 14, 2015.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD.

Sabre has issued a press release announcing the completion of the acquisition referred to in Item 2.01 above. A copy of the press release is furnished as Exhibit 99.1.

Note: Information in this report furnished pursuant to Item 7.01 and Exhibit 99.1 shall not be deemed to be “filed” for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or otherwise subject to the liabilities of that section. This report will not be deemed an admission as to the materiality of any information in the report that is required to be disclosed solely by Regulation FD.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements made in this Current Report on Form 8-K under Item 2.01 and Item 7.01 (including the press release referred to under Item 7.01 and furnished as Exhibit 99.1) that are not statements of historical or current facts constitute forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements relate to expectations, beliefs, projections, future plans and strategies, financing plans, future acquisitions and related activities, anticipated events or trends and similar expressions concerning matters that are not historical facts, such as statements regarding future acquisitions. In many cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terms such as “expects,” “may,” “will,” “should,” “plans,” “anticipates,” “believes,” “estimates,” “predicts,” “potential” or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology. The forward-looking statements are based on Sabre’s current expectations and assumptions regarding its business, the economy and other future conditions and are subject to risks, uncertainties and changes in circumstances that may cause events or our actual activities or results to differ significantly from those expressed in any forward-looking statement. Although Sabre believes that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, Sabre cannot guarantee future events, results, actions, levels of activity, performance or achievements. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Unless required by law, Sabre undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events after the date they are made. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated by the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to, those factors described in Part I, Item 1A, “Risk Factors” in Sabre’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Sabre completes acquisition of Abacus International

Leading GDS in Asia Pacific will enable accelerated global growth for Sabre

SOUTHLAKE, Texas, July 1, 2015 – Sabre Corporation (NASDAQ: SABR) today announced that it has completed the acquisition of Abacus International, the leading global distribution system (GDS) in the Asia-Pacific region.

“The addition of Abacus further strengthens Sabre’s leading position in the fast-growing Asia-Pacific region,” said Sabre President & CEO Tom Klein. “Our ability to combine Sabre’s strong global technology platform capabilities with Abacus’ deep local market expertise will provide Asia-Pacific airline, hospitality and travel agency customers with unprecedented innovation and service options. It also makes us an ideal technology partner for global customers seeking to grow and expand in Asia-Pacific.”

Abacus serves more than 100,000 travel agents across the Asia-Pacific region’s 59 markets and has both global and uniquely local relationships with airlines and hotels, including the leading portfolio of low-cost airline content and Chinese airline content. Sabre, which previously owned 35% of Abacus, acquired the remaining portion for net cash consideration of $411 million.

Separately, the acquisition includes new long-term distribution agreements between Sabre and the 11 Asian airlines that previously shared ownership of Abacus with Sabre.

The acquisition, including associated working capital adjustments and cash acquired, was financed through cash on hand, augmented by revolver borrowings of $70 million.

Sabre has also signed an agreement to acquire Abacus national marketing company, Abacus Distribution Systems (Hong Kong).

Sabre management will update financial guidance as it relates to the Abacus acquisition during the company’s next earnings conference call, which is scheduled for Tuesday, August 4, 2015.

Forward-looking statements

Certain statements in this release are forward-looking statements about trends, future events, uncertainties and our plans and expectations of what may happen in the future. Any statements that are not historical or current facts are forward-looking statements. In many cases, you can identify forward-looking statements by terms such as "will," "expect," "would," "estimates," "may," "potential" or the negative of these terms or other comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause Sabre's actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from any future results, performances or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. The potential risks and uncertainties include, among others, the closing and effects of the acquisition described in this release, dependency on transaction volumes in the global travel industry, particularly air travel transaction volumes, adverse global and regional economic and political conditions, dependence on maintaining and renewing contracts with customers and other counterparties, exposure to pricing pressure in the Travel Network business, dependence on relationships with travel buyers, changes affecting travel supplier customers, travel suppliers' usage of alternative distribution models, and competition in the travel distribution market and solutions markets. More information about potential risks and uncertainties that could affect our business and results of operations is included in Part I, Item 1A, "Risk Factors" in Sabre's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Although we believe that the expectations reflected in the forward-looking statements are reasonable, we cannot guarantee future events, results, actions, levels of activity, performance or achievements. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. Unless required by law, Sabre undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements to reflect circumstances or events after the date they are made.
