Each of Holdings and each Subsidiary party hereto is an affiliate of the Company and will derive substantial benefits from the issuance of the Notes by the Company pursuant to the Indenture. In order to secure the payment of all principal of and interest and premium, if any, on the Notes, and the payment and performance of all other Obligations under the Indenture and all of the Grantors' obligations and liabilities hereunder and in connection herewith, each Grantor is willing to execute and deliver this Agreement. Accordingly, the parties hereto agree as follows:

"Domestic Subsidiary" means a Subsidiary of Holdings which owns a Principal Domestic Property and transacts substantially all of its business or maintains substantially all of its property within the United States, excluding its territories, possessions and Puerto Rico, but in any case excluding any Subsidiary which is engaged primarily in financing operations outside of the United States or in leasing personal property or financing inventory receivables or other property.

(i) any Intellectual Property whose pledge would result in the forfeiture of the Grantors' rights in such property including, without limitation, any Trademark applications filed in the USPTO on the basis of such Grantor's "intent-to-use" such Trademark, unless and until acceptable evidence of use of such Trademark has been filed with the USPTO pursuant to Section 1(c) or Section 1(d) of the Lanham Act (15 U.S.C. 1051, et seq.), to the extent that granting a lien in such Trademark application prior to such filing would adversely affect the enforceability or validity of such Trademark application;

(j) any General Intangible, Investment Property or other rights of a Grantor arising under any contract, lease, instrument, license or other document or any assets subject thereto if but only to the extent that and so long as the grant of a security interest therein would (x) constitute a violation or abandonment of, or render unenforceable, a valid and enforceable restriction in respect of such General Intangible, Investment Property or other such rights in favor of a third party or under any law, regulation, permit, order or decree of any Governmental Authority (for the avoidance of doubt, the restrictions described herein shall not include negative pledges or similar undertakings in favor of a lender or other financial counterparty), or (y) expressly give any other party in respect of any such contract, lease, instrument, license or other document, the right to terminate its obligations thereunder, provided, however, that the limitation set forth in this clause (i) shall not affect, limit, restrict or impair the grant by a Grantor of a security interest pursuant to this Agreement in any such Collateral to the extent that an otherwise applicable prohibition or restriction on such grant is rendered ineffective pursuant to Section 9-406, 9-407, 9-408 or 9-409 of the Uniform Commercial Code of any relevant jurisdiction or any other applicable law or principles of equity and provided, further, that, at such time as the condition causing the conditions in subclauses (x) and (y) of this clause (i) shall be remedied, whether by contract, change of law or otherwise, the contract, lease, instrument, license or other documents shall immediately cease to be an Excluded Asset, and any security interest that would otherwise be granted herein shall attach immediately to such contract, lease, instrument, license or other document, or to the extent severable, to any portion thereof that does not result in any of the conditions in (x) or (y) above;

(k) any assets the pledge of which is prohibited by law or by agreements containing anti-assignment clauses not overridden by the Uniform Commercial Code or other applicable law; and

(l) any asset with respect to which the Company has reasonably determined in writing that the costs of providing a security interest in such asset or perfection thereof is excessive in view of the benefits to be obtained by the Collateral Agent (but only to the extent that and for so long as any such asset is not subject to a Lien securing any other First Lien Obligations).

(b) the Pledged Equity and Pledged Debt (solely with respect to Pledged Debt issued by a Person other than the Company or a subsidiary of the Company, to the best of Holdings' and the Company's knowledge) have been duly and validly authorized and issued by the issuers thereof and (i) in the case of Pledged Equity, are fully paid and nonassessable and (ii) in the case of Pledged Debt (solely with respect to Pledged Debt issued by a Person other than the Company or a subsidiary of the Company, to the best of Holdings' and the Company's knowledge), are legal, valid and binding obligations of the issuers thereof;

(c) except for the security interests granted hereunder, each of the Grantors (i) is and, subject to any transfers made in compliance with the Indenture, will continue to be the direct owner, beneficially and of record, of the Pledged Securities indicated on Schedule I as owned by such Grantors, (ii) holds the same free and clear of all Liens, other than (A) Liens created by the Security Documents and (B) Liens expressly permitted pursuant to Section 4.12 of the Indenture, (iii) will make no assignment, pledge, hypothecation or transfer of, or create or permit to exist any security interest in or other Lien on, the Pledged Collateral, other than (A) Liens created by the Security Documents and (B) Liens expressly permitted pursuant to Section 4.12 of the Indenture, and (iv) will defend its title or interest thereto or therein against any and all Liens (other than the Liens permitted pursuant to this Section 2.03(c)), however arising, of all Persons whomsoever;

(d) except for restrictions and limitations imposed by the Indenture or the Security Documents or securities laws generally and except as described in the Perfection Certificate, the Pledged Collateral is and will continue to be freely transferable and assignable, and none of the Pledged Collateral is or will be subject to any option, right of first refusal, shareholders agreement, charter or by-law provisions or contractual restriction of any nature that might prohibit, impair, delay or otherwise affect in any manner material and adverse to the Secured Parties the pledge of such Pledged Collateral hereunder, the sale or disposition thereof pursuant hereto or the exercise by the Collateral Agent of rights and remedies hereunder;

(e) each of the Grantors has the power and authority to pledge the Pledged Collateral pledged by it hereunder in the manner hereby done or contemplated;

(f) no consent or approval of any Governmental Authority, any securities exchange or any other Person was or is necessary to the validity of the pledge effected hereby (other than such as have been obtained and are in full force and effect);

(g) by virtue of the execution and delivery by the Grantors of this Agreement, when any Pledged Securities are delivered to the Collateral Agent in accordance with this Agreement, the Collateral Agent will obtain a legal, valid and perfected first priority lien upon and security interest in such Pledged Securities as security for the payment and performance of the Obligations, to the extent such perfection is governed by the Uniform Commercial Code subject to Liens expressly permitted pursuant to Section 4.12 of the Indenture; and

(h) the pledge effected hereby is effective to vest in the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, the rights of the Collateral Agent in the Pledged Collateral as set forth herein.

SECTION 2.04. Certification of Limited Liability Company and Limited Partnership Interests. Any limited liability company and any limited partnership controlled by any Grantor shall either (a) not have in its operative documents any provision that any Equity Interests in such limited liability company or such limited partnership be a security as defined under Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code, or (b) certificate any Equity Interests in any such limited liability company or such limited partnership. To the extent an interest in any limited liability company or limited partnership controlled by any Grantor and pledged under Section 2.01 is certificated or becomes certificated, each such certificate shall be delivered to the Collateral Agent, pursuant to Section 2.02(a) and such Grantor shall fulfill all other requirements under Section 2.02 applicable in respect thereof.

SECTION 2.05. Registration in Nominee Name; Denominations. If an Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, (a) the Collateral Agent, on behalf of the Secured Parties, shall have the right (in its sole and absolute discretion) to hold the Pledged Securities in its own name as pledgee, the name of its nominee (as pledgee or as sub-agent) or the name of the applicable Grantor, endorsed or assigned in blank or in favor of the Collateral Agent, and each Grantor will promptly give to the Collateral Agent copies of any notices or other communications received by it with respect to Pledged Securities registered in the name of such Grantor and (b) the Collateral Agent shall have the right to exchange the certificates representing Pledged Securities for certificates of smaller or larger denominations for any purpose consistent with this Agreement; provided, that the Collateral Agent shall give the Company prior notice of its intent to exercise such rights unless an Event of Default under paragraphs 8 or 9 of Section 6.01 of the Indenture shall have occurred and be continuing in which case no notice shall be required.

SECTION 2.06. Voting Rights; Dividends and Interest. (a) Unless and until an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing and the Collateral Agent shall have notified the Company that the rights of the Grantors under this Section 2.06 are being suspended:

(i) Each Grantor shall be entitled to exercise any and all voting and/or other consensual rights and powers inuring to an owner of Pledged Securities or any part thereof for any purpose consistent with the terms of the Indenture, this Agreement and the other Security Documents; provided that such rights and powers shall not be exercised in any manner, except as may be expressly permitted under the Indenture, this Agreement or the other Security Documents, that would materially and adversely affect the rights inuring to a holder of any Pledged Securities or the rights and remedies of any of the Collateral Agent or the other Secured Parties under the Indenture, this Agreement or any other Security Document or the ability of the Secured Parties to exercise the same.

(ii) The Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver to each Grantor, or cause to be executed and delivered to each Grantor, all such proxies, powers of attorney and other instruments as each Grantor may reasonably request in writing for the purpose of enabling such Grantor to exercise the voting and/or consensual rights and powers it is entitled to exercise pursuant to subparagraph (i) above.

(iii) Each Grantor shall be entitled to receive and retain any and all dividends, interest, principal and other distributions paid on or distributed in respect of the Pledged Securities to the extent and only to the extent that such dividends, interest, principal and other distributions are permitted by, and otherwise paid or distributed in accordance with, the terms and conditions of the Indenture, the Security Documents and applicable Laws; provided that any noncash (and non-cash equivalent) dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that would constitute Pledged Equity or Pledged Debt, whether resulting from a subdivision, combination or reclassification of the outstanding Equity Interests of the issuer of any Pledged Securities or received in exchange for Pledged Securities or any part thereof, or in redemption thereof, or as a result of any merger, consolidation, acquisition or other exchange of assets to which such issuer may be a party or otherwise, shall be and become part of the Pledged Collateral, and, if received by any Grantor, shall not be commingled by such Grantor with any of its other funds or property but shall be held separate and apart therefrom, shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties and shall be forthwith delivered to the Collateral Agent in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent).

(b) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after the Collateral Agent shall have notified the Company of the suspension of the rights of the Grantors under paragraph (a)(iii) of this Section 2.06, then all rights of any Grantor to dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that such Grantor is authorized to receive pursuant to paragraph (a)(iii) of this Section 2.06 shall cease, and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in the Collateral Agent, which shall have the sole and exclusive right and authority to receive and retain such dividends, interest, principal or other distributions. All dividends, interest, principal or other distributions received by any Grantor contrary to the provisions of this Section 2.06 shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Collateral Agent, shall be segregated from other property or funds of such Grantor and shall be forthwith delivered to the Collateral Agent upon demand in the same form as so received (with any necessary endorsement reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent). Any and all money and other property paid over to or received by the Collateral Agent pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph (b) shall be retained by the Collateral Agent in an account to be established by the Collateral Agent upon receipt of such money or other property and shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of Section 4.02 hereof. After all Events of Default have been cured or waived, the Collateral Agent shall promptly repay to each Grantor (without interest) all dividends, interest, principal or other distributions that such Grantor would otherwise be permitted to retain pursuant to the terms of paragraph (a)(iii) of this Section 2.06 and that remain in such account.

(c) Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, after the Collateral Agent shall have notified the Company of the suspension of the rights of the Grantors under paragraph (a)(i) of this Section 2.06, then all rights of any Grantor to exercise the voting and consensual rights and powers it is entitled to exercise pursuant to paragraph (a)(i) of this Section 2.06, and the obligations of the Collateral Agent under paragraph (a)(ii) of this Section 2.06, shall cease, and all such rights shall thereupon become vested in the Collateral Agent, which shall have the sole and exclusive right and authority to exercise such voting and consensual rights and powers; provided that, unless otherwise directed by Holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the then outstanding Notes, the Collateral Agent shall have the right from time to time following and during the continuance of an Event of Default to permit the Grantors to exercise such rights at the discretion of the Collateral Agent. After all Events of Default have been cured or waived, each Grantor shall have the exclusive right to exercise the voting and/or consensual rights and powers that such Grantor would otherwise be entitled to exercise pursuant to the terms of paragraph (a)(i) of this Section 2.06.

(d) Any notice given by the Collateral Agent to the Company suspending the rights of the Grantors under paragraph (a) of this Section 2.06 (i) shall be given in writing, (ii) may be given with respect to one or more of the Grantors at the same or different times and (iii) may suspend the rights of the Grantors under paragraph (a)(i) or paragraph (a)(iii) of this Section 2.06 in part without suspending all such rights (as specified by the Collateral Agent in its sole and absolute discretion) and without waiving or otherwise affecting the Collateral Agent's rights to give additional notices from time to time suspending other rights so long as an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing.

SECTION 2.07. Collateral Agent Not a Partner or Limited Liability Company Member. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to make the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party liable as a member of any limited liability company or as a partner of any partnership and neither the Collateral Agent nor any other Secured Party by virtue of this Agreement or otherwise (except as referred to in the following sentence) shall have any of the duties, obligations or liabilities of a member of any limited liability company or as a partner in any partnership. The parties hereto expressly agree that this Agreement shall not be construed as creating a partnership or joint venture among the Collateral Agent, any other Secured Party, any Grantor and/or any other Person.

ARTICLE III

Security Interests in Personal Property

SECTION 3.01. Security Interest. (a) As security for the payment or performance, as the case may be, in full of the Obligations, including the Guarantees, each Grantor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent, its successors and assigns, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, a security interest (the "Security Interest") in and lien on all right, title or interest in or to any and all of the following assets and properties now owned or at any time hereafter acquired by such Grantor or in which such Grantor now has or at any time in the future may acquire any right, title or interest (collectively, the "Article 9 Collateral"):

(i) all Accounts;

(ii) all Chattel Paper;

(iii) all Commercial Tort Claims listed on Schedule II hereto;

(iv) all Deposit Accounts;

(v) all Documents;

(vi) all Equipment;

(vii) all General Intangibles;

(viii) all Goods;

(ix) all Instruments;

(x) all Inventory;

(xi) all Investment Property;

(xii) all books and records pertaining to the Article 9 Collateral; and

(xiii) to the extent not otherwise included, all Proceeds and products of any and all of the foregoing and all supporting obligations, collateral security and guarantees given by any Person with respect to any of the foregoing; provided that notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, this Agreement shall not constitute a grant of a security interest in any Excluded Asset.

(b) Each Grantor hereby irrevocably authorizes the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties at any time and from time to time to file in any relevant jurisdiction any initial financing statements (including fixture filings) with respect to the Article 9 Collateral or any part thereof and amendments thereto that (i) indicate the Collateral as all assets of such Grantor or words of similar effect as being of an equal or lesser scope or with greater detail, and (ii) contain the information required by Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code or the analogous legislation of each applicable jurisdiction for the filing of any financing statement or amendment, including (A) whether such Grantor is an organization, the type of organization and, if required, any organizational identification number issued to such Grantor and (B) in the case of a financing statement filed as a fixture filing, a sufficient description of the real property to which such Article 9 Collateral relates; provided, however, that the right of the Collateral Agent to file financing statements hereunder shall not be construed as a duty to do so. Each Grantor agrees to provide such information to the Collateral Agent promptly upon any reasonable request. Each Grantor shall file on behalf of the Collateral Agent, for the benefit of the Secured Parties, any financing statements in the relevant jurisdiction necessary to perfect the security interests in the Article 9 Collateral granted hereunder.

(c) The Security Interest is granted as security only and shall not subject the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party to, or in any way alter or modify, any obligation or liability of any Grantor with respect to or arising out of the Article 9 Collateral.

(d) The Collateral Agent is authorized to file with the USPTO or the USCO (or any successor office or any similar office in any other country) such documents as may be necessary or advisable for the purpose of perfecting, confirming, continuing, enforcing or protecting the Security Interest in United States Intellectual Property granted by each Grantor, without the signature of any Grantor, and naming any Grantor or the Grantor as debtors and the Collateral Agent as secured party; provided, however, that such authorization shall not be construed as a duty on the part of the Collateral Agent to file such documents.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Indenture, none of the Grantors shall be required to enter into any deposit account control agreement or securities account control agreement with respect to any deposit account or securities account.

SECTION 3.02. Representations and Warranties. Holdings and the Company jointly and severally represent and warrant, as to themselves and the other Grantors, to the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties that:

(a) Each Grantor has good and valid rights in and title to the Article 9 Collateral with respect to which it has purported to grant a Security Interest hereunder and has full power and authority to grant to the Collateral Agent the Security Interest in such Article 9 Collateral pursuant hereto and to execute, deliver and perform its obligations in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, without the consent or approval of any other Person other than any consent or approval that has been obtained.

(b) The information set forth in the Perfection Certificate, including the exact legal name of each Grantor, is correct and complete in all material respects as of the date hereof. The Uniform Commercial Code financing statements (including fixture filings, as applicable) or other appropriate filings, recordings or registrations prepared based upon the information provided to the Collateral Agent in the Perfection Certificate for filing in each governmental, municipal or other office specified in Schedule 6 to the Perfection Certificate (or specified by notice from the Company to the Collateral Agent after the date hereof in the case of filings, recordings or registrations (other than filings required to be made in the USPTO and the USCO in order to perfect the Security Interest in Article 9 Collateral consisting of United States Patents, Trademarks and Copyrights) required by Section 10.03 of the Indenture), are all the filings, recordings and registrations that are necessary to establish a legal, valid and perfected security interest in favor of the Collateral Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) in respect of all Article 9 Collateral in which the Security Interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registration in the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions, and no further or subsequent filing, refiling, recording, rerecording, registration or reregistration is necessary in any such jurisdiction, except as provided under applicable law with respect to the filing of continuation statements.

(c) Each Grantor represents and warrants that short-form Intellectual Property Security Agreements containing a description of all Article 9 Collateral consisting of United States Patents, United States registered Trademarks (and Trademarks for which United States registration applications are pending, unless it constitutes an Excluded Asset) and United States registered Copyrights, respectively, have been delivered to the Collateral Agent for recording by the USPTO and the USCO pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 261, 15 U.S.C. § 1060 or 17 U.S.C. § 205 and the regulations thereunder, as applicable, as may be necessary to establish a valid and perfected security interest in favor of the Collateral Agent (for the benefit of the Secured Parties) in respect of all Article 9 Collateral consisting of Patents, Trademarks and Copyrights in which a security interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registration in the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions under the Federal intellectual property laws, and no further or subsequent filing, refiling, recording, rerecording, registration or reregistration is necessary (other than (i) such filings and actions as are necessary to perfect the Security Interest with respect to any Article 9 Collateral consisting of Patents, Trademarks and Copyrights (or registration or application for registration thereof) acquired or developed by any Grantor after the date hereof, (ii) as may be required under the laws of jurisdictions outside the United States with respect to Article 9 Collateral created under such laws, and (iii) the UCC financing and continuation statements contemplated in Section 3.02(b)).

(d) The Security Interest constitutes (i) a legal and valid security interest in all the Article 9 Collateral securing the payment and performance of the Obligations; (ii) subject to the filings described in Section 3.02(b), a perfected security interest in all Article 9 Collateral in which a security interest may be perfected by filing, recording or registering a financing statement or analogous document in the United States (or any political subdivision thereof) and its territories and possessions pursuant to the Uniform Commercial Code in the relevant jurisdiction and (iii) subject to the filings described in Section 3.02(c), a perfected security interest in all Intellectual Property in which a security interest may be perfected upon the receipt and recording of fully executed short-form Intellectual Property Security Agreements with the USPTO and the USCO, as applicable. The Security Interest is and shall be prior to any other Lien on any of the Article 9 Collateral, other than (i) any nonconsensual Lien that is expressly permitted pursuant to Section 4.12 of the Indenture and has priority as a matter of law and (ii) Liens expressly permitted pursuant to Section 4.12 of the Indenture.

(e) The Article 9 Collateral is owned by the Grantors free and clear of any Lien, except for Liens expressly permitted pursuant to Section 4.12 of the Indenture. None of the Grantors has filed or consented to the filing of (i) any financing statement or analogous document under the New York UCC or any other applicable United States laws covering any Article 9 Collateral, (ii) any assignment in which any Grantor assigns any Article 9 Collateral or any security agreement or similar instrument covering any Article 9 Collateral with the USPTO or the USCO or (iii) any assignment in which any Grantor assigns any Article 9 Collateral or any security agreement or similar instrument covering any Article 9 Collateral with any foreign governmental, municipal or other office, which financing statement or analogous document, assignment, security agreement or similar instrument is still in effect, except, in each case, for Liens expressly permitted pursuant to Section 4.12 of the Indenture.

SECTION 3.03. Covenants. (a) The Company agrees promptly (and in any event within 60 days of such change) to notify the Collateral Agent in writing of any change in (i) legal name, (ii) the identity or type of organization or corporate structure, or (iii) the jurisdiction of organization, (iv) the chief executive office or (v) the organizational identification number, of any Grantor. In addition, if any Grantor does not have an organizational identification number on the date hereof (or the date such Grantor becomes a party to this Agreement) and later obtains one, the Company shall promptly (and in any event within 60 days of such change) thereafter notify the Collateral Agent of such organizational identification number and shall take all actions reasonably requested by the Collateral Agent to the extent necessary to maintain the security interests (and the priority thereof) of the Collateral Agent in the Article 9 Collateral intended to be granted hereby fully perfected and in full force and effect.

(b) Upon becoming aware of any defect in the security interests (and the priority thereof, except as expressly permitted pursuant to Section 4.12 of the Indenture) of the Collateral Agent in the Article 9 Collateral intended to be granted hereby, the Company agrees promptly (and in any event within 60 days of such knowledge) to notify the Collateral Agent in writing of such defect.

(c) Each year, at the time of delivery of annual financial statements with respect to the preceding fiscal year pursuant to Section 4.03 of the Indenture, the Company shall deliver to the Collateral Agent an updated Perfection Certificate executed by the chief financial officer or the chief legal officer of each of Holdings and the Company, setting forth any information required therein that has changed or confirming that there has been no change in such information since the date of such certificate or the date of the most recent certificate delivered pursuant to this Section 3.03(c) and certifying that all UCC financing statements, Intellectual Property Security Agreements and other appropriate filings, recordings or registrations have been filed of record in each governmental, municipal or other appropriate office in each jurisdiction necessary to protect and perfect the Security Interests and Liens in the United States under this Agreement.

(d) The Company agrees, on its own behalf and on behalf of each other Grantor, at its own expense, to execute, acknowledge, deliver and cause to be duly filed all such further instruments and documents and take all such actions required from time to time to assure, preserve, protect and perfect the Security Interest and the rights and remedies created hereby, including the payment of any fees and taxes required in connection with the execution and delivery of this Agreement, the granting of the Security Interest and the filing of any financing statements (including fixture filings) or other documents in connection herewith or therewith.

(e) At its option, the Collateral Agent may discharge past due taxes, assessments, charges, fees, Liens, security interests or other encumbrances at any time levied or placed on the Article 9 Collateral and not expressly permitted pursuant to Section 4.12 of the Indenture, and may pay for the maintenance and preservation of the Article 9 Collateral to the extent any Grantor fails to do so as required by the Indenture or this Agreement and within a reasonable period of time after the Collateral Agent has requested that it do so, and each Grantor jointly and severally agrees to reimburse the Collateral Agent within 10 Business Days after demand for any payment made or any reasonable expense incurred by the Collateral Agent pursuant to the foregoing authorization; provided, however, Grantors shall not be obligated to reimburse the Collateral Agent with respect to any Intellectual Property Collateral which any Grantor has failed to maintain or pursue, or otherwise allowed to lapse, terminate or be put into the public domain, in accordance with Section 3.03(i)(ix) ("Permitted Lapsed IP") unless the Collateral Agent shall have given such Grantor written notice of its intention to make any such payment or incur any such expense and Grantor shall have failed to indicate to the Collateral Agent within 10 Business Days of such notice that the affected Intellectual Property Collateral is Permitted Lapsed IP. Nothing in this paragraph shall be interpreted as excusing any Grantor from the performance of, or imposing any obligation on the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party to cure or perform, any covenants or other promises of any Grantor with respect to taxes, assessments, charges, fees, Liens, security interests or other encumbrances and maintenance as set forth herein, in the Indenture or in any other Security Document.

(f) If at any time any Grantor shall take a security interest in any property of an Account Debtor or any other Person, the value of which is in excess of $10,000,000, to secure payment and performance of an Account, such Grantor shall promptly assign such security interest to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties. Such assignment need not be filed of public record unless necessary to continue the perfected status of the security interest against creditors of and transferees from the Account Debtor or other Person granting the security interest.

(g) Each Grantor (rather than the Collateral Agent or any Secured Party) shall remain liable (as between itself and any relevant counterparty) to observe and perform all the conditions and obligations to be observed and performed by it under each contract, agreement or instrument relating to the Article 9 Collateral, all in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof, and each Grantor jointly and severally agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Collateral Agent and the Secured Parties from and against any and all liability for such performance.

(h) If any Grantor shall at any time hold or acquire a Commercial Tort Claim with a value in excess of $10,000,000 and for which such Grantor (or predecessor in interest) has filed a complaint in a court of competent jurisdiction, such Grantor shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent in writing signed by such Grantor of the brief details thereof and grant to the Collateral Agent a security interest therein and in the Proceeds thereof, all upon the terms of this Agreement pursuant to a document in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent.

(i) Intellectual Property Covenants, Representations and Warranties:

(i) Other than to the extent permitted herein or in the Indenture or with respect to registration and applications no longer used, and except to the extent failure to act would not, as deemed by the Company in its reasonable business judgment, be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, with respect to registration or pending application of each item of its Intellectual Property Collateral for which such Grantor has standing to do so, each Grantor agrees to take, at its expense, all reasonable steps, including, without limitation, in the USPTO, the USCO and any other governmental authority located in the United States, to diligently pursue the registration and maintenance of each Patent, Trademark, or Copyright registration or application and shall not abandon any such application prior to exhaustion of all administrative and judicial remedies, now or hereafter included in such Intellectual Property Collateral of such Grantor where reasonable to do so. Each Grantor shall take all reasonable steps to maintain its trade secrets under applicable law and to preserve the secrecy of its confidential information.

(ii) Other than to the extent permitted herein or in the Indenture, or with respect to registration and applications no longer used, or except as would not, as deemed by the Company in its reasonable business judgment, be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, no Grantor shall do or permit any act or knowingly omit to do any act whereby any of its Intellectual Property Collateral may lapse, be terminated, or become invalid or unenforceable or placed in the public domain (or in the case of a trade secret, becomes publicly known).

(iii) Other than as excluded or as permitted herein or in the Indenture, or with respect to Patents, Copyrights or Trademarks which are no longer used or useful in the Grantor's business operations or except where failure to do so would not, as deemed by the applicable Grantor in its reasonable business judgment, be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, each Grantor shall take all reasonable steps to preserve and protect each item of its Intellectual Property Collateral, including, without limitation, maintaining the quality of any and all products or services used or provided in connection with any of the Trademarks, consistent with the quality of the products and services as of the date hereof, and taking all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that all licensed users of any of the Trademarks abide by the applicable license's terms with respect to the standards of quality and using the Trademarks which are material to such Grantor's business in interstate commerce during the time in which this Agreement is in effect and to take all reasonable steps to preserve such Trademarks under the laws of relevant jurisdiction. Each Grantor agrees to renew those of its domain name registrations that are material to such Grantor's business.

(iv) Each Grantor represents and warrants that it is the lawful owner of all Intellectual Property Collateral, including (i) the Patents listed in the Perfection Certificate for such Grantor and that said Patents include all the material United States patents and applications that such Grantor owns as of the date hereof, and (ii) the Copyrights listed in the Perfection Certificate for such Grantor and that said Copyrights include all the United States copyrights registered and applied for with the USCO for material United States copyrights that such Grantor owns as of the date hereof.

(v) Each Grantor further represents and warrants that the Trademarks and domain names listed in the Perfection Certificate include all material United States registered marks and applications for United States registered marks in the USPTO and all material domain names that such Grantor owns in connection with its business as of the date hereof. Each Grantor represents and warrants that it is the lawful owner of all U.S. trademark registrations and applications and domain name registrations listed in the Perfection Certificate and that said registrations are subsisting and have not been canceled, and that such Grantor has not received any written third-party claim that any of said registrations is invalid or unenforceable, other than as would not, either individually or in the aggregate, in the Grantor's reasonable opinion, be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(vi) Each Grantor agrees, promptly upon learning thereof, to notify the Collateral Agent in writing of the name and address of, and to furnish such pertinent information that may be available with respect to, any party who such Grantor learns is likely to be infringing, contributorily infringing, actively inducing infringement, misappropriating or otherwise violating any of such Grantor's rights in and to any Intellectual Property in any manner that would, in the Grantor's reasonable opinion, reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, or with respect to any party claiming that such Grantor's use of any Intellectual Property material to such Grantor's business violates in any material respect any property right of such party. Each Grantor further agrees to take appropriate actions diligently against, including, but not limited to prosecution of, in accordance with reasonable business practices, any Person infringing any Intellectual Property right in any manner that would, in the Grantor's reasonable opinion, reasonably be expected to, either individually or in the aggregate, have a Material Adverse Effect.

(vii) Concurrently with the delivery of the Perfection Certificate pursuant to Section 3.03(c), and upon reasonable request by the Collateral Agent (but in any event, not more than three times per fiscal year), if any Trademark registration is issued hereafter to any Grantor as a result of any application now or hereafter pending before the USPTO or any domain name is registered by Grantor, such Grantor shall deliver to the Collateral Agent a copy of such registration certificate or similar indicia of ownership, and shall update, through amendment or by other written document executed by and reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent and such Grantor, the relevant schedules of any Intellectual Property Security Agreement filed with the USPTO pursuant to this Agreement, such that any such update may be filed with the USPTO.

(viii) Concurrently with the delivery of the Perfection Certificate pursuant to Section 3.03(c), and upon reasonable request by the Collateral Agent (but in any event, not more than three times per fiscal year), if a United States Patent or an application for a United States Patent, a registered Copyright, or an application for a United States Copyright is issued or acquired by a Grantor, the relevant Grantor shall deliver to the Collateral Agent a copy of said Copyright or Patent, or certificate or registration of, or application therefor, as the case may be, and shall update, through amendment or by other written document executed by and reasonably acceptable to the Collateral Agent and such Grantor, the relevant schedules of any Intellectual Property Security Agreement filed with the USPTO pursuant to this Agreement, such that any such update may be filed with the USPTO.

(ix) Nothing in this Agreement, in the Indenture or in any other Security Document prevents any Grantor from disposing of, discontinuing the use or maintenance of, failing to pursue, or otherwise allowing to lapse, terminate or be put into the public domain, any of its Intellectual Property Collateral to the extent permitted by the Indenture if such Grantor determines in its reasonable business judgment that such discontinuance is desirable in the conduct of its business.

SECTION 3.04. Other Actions. In order to further insure the attachment, perfection and priority of, and the ability of the Collateral Agent to enforce, the Security Interest, each Grantor agrees, in each case at such Grantor's own expense, to take the following actions with respect to the following Article 9 Collateral:

(a) Instruments. If any Grantor shall at any time hold or acquire any Instruments constituting Article 9 Collateral and evidencing an amount in excess of $10,000,000, such Grantor shall forthwith endorse, assign and deliver the same to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties, accompanied by such instruments of transfer or assignment duly executed in blank as the Collateral Agent may from time to time reasonably request.

(b) Investment Property. Except to the extent otherwise provided in Article II, if any Grantor shall at any time hold or acquire any certificated securities, such Grantor shall forthwith endorse, assign and deliver the same to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties, accompanied by such instruments of transfer or assignment duly executed in blank as the Collateral Agent may from time to time reasonably request. If any securities now or hereafter acquired by any Grantor are uncertificated and are issued to such Grantor or its nominee directly by the issuer thereof, following the occurrence of an Event of Default such Grantor shall promptly notify the Collateral Agent thereof and, at the Collateral Agent's reasonable request, pursuant to an agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent, either (i) cause the issuer to agree to comply with instructions from the Collateral Agent as to such securities, without further consent of any Grantor or such nominee, or (ii) arrange for the Collateral Agent to become the registered owner of such securities. If any securities, whether certificated or uncertificated, or other investment property are held by any Grantor or its nominee through a securities intermediary or commodity intermediary, following the occurrence of an Event of Default, such Grantor shall immediately notify the Collateral Agent thereof and at the Collateral Agent's request and option, pursuant to an agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Collateral Agent shall either (i) cause such securities intermediary or (as the case may be) commodity intermediary to agree to comply with entitlement orders or other instructions from the Collateral Agent to such securities intermediary as to such security entitlements, or (as the case may be) to apply any value distributed on account of any commodity contract as directed by the Collateral Agent to such commodity intermediary, in each case without further consent of any Grantor or such nominee, or (ii) in the case of financial assets or other Investment Property held through a securities intermediary, arrange for the Collateral Agent to become the entitlement holder with respect to such Investment Property, with the Grantor being permitted, only with the consent of the Collateral Agent, to exercise rights to withdraw or otherwise deal with such Investment Property. The Collateral Agent agrees with each of the Grantors that the Collateral Agent shall not give any such entitlement orders or instructions or directions to any such issuer, securities intermediary or commodity intermediary, and shall not withhold its consent to the exercise of any withdrawal or dealing rights by any Grantor, unless an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to any financial assets credited to a securities account for which the Collateral Agent is the securities intermediary.

ARTICLE IV

Remedies

SECTION 4.01. Remedies upon Default. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, it is agreed that the Collateral Agent shall have the right to exercise any and all rights afforded to a secured party with respect to the Obligations under the Uniform Commercial Code or other applicable law and also may (i) require each Grantor to, and each Grantor agrees that it will at its expense and upon request of the Collateral Agent forthwith, assemble all or part of the Collateral as directed by the Collateral Agent and make it available to the Collateral Agent at a place and time to be designated by the Collateral Agent that is reasonably convenient to both parties; (ii) occupy any premises owned or, to the extent lawful and permitted, leased by any of the Grantors where the Collateral or any part thereof is assembled or located for a reasonable period in order to effectuate its rights and remedies hereunder or under law, without obligation to such Grantor in respect of such occupation; provided that the Collateral Agent shall provide the applicable Grantor with notice thereof prior to or promptly after such occupancy; (iii) declare the entire right, title, and interest of such Grantor in each of the Patents, Trademarks, domain names and Copyrights vested in the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties (in which event such right, title, and interest shall immediately vest in the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties, and the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to exercise the power of attorney referred to below in Section 4.03 hereof to execute, cause to be acknowledged and notarized and to record said absolute assignment with the applicable agency); (iv) exercise any and all rights and remedies of any of the Grantors under or in connection with the Collateral, or otherwise in respect of the Collateral; provided that the Collateral Agent shall provide the applicable Grantor with notice thereof prior to or promptly after such exercise; and (v) subject to the mandatory requirements of applicable law and the notice requirements described below, sell or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the Collateral securing the Obligations at a public or private sale or at any broker’s board or on any securities exchange, for cash, upon credit or for future delivery as the Collateral Agent shall deem appropriate. The Collateral Agent shall be authorized at any such sale of securities (if it deems it advisable to do so) to restrict the prospective bidders or purchasers to Persons who will represent and agree that they are purchasing the Collateral for their own account for investment and not with a view to the distribution or sale thereof, and upon consummation of any such sale the Collateral Agent shall have the right to assign, transfer and deliver to the purchaser or purchasers thereof the Collateral so sold. Each such purchaser at any sale of Collateral shall hold the property sold absolutely, free from any claim or right on the part of any Grantor, and each Grantor hereby waives (to the extent permitted by law) all rights of redemption, stay and appraisal which such Grantor now has or may at any time in the future have under any rule of law or statute now existing or hereafter enacted. Upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default, the Grantors agree to execute such further documents as the Collateral Agent may reasonably request to transfer ownership of the Patents, Trademarks, domain names and Copyrights to the Collateral Agent for the benefit of the Secured Parties.

The Collateral Agent shall give the applicable Grantors 10 days' written notice (which each Grantor agrees is reasonable notice within the meaning of Section 9-611 of the New York UCC or its equivalent in other jurisdictions) of the Collateral Agent's intention to make any sale of Collateral. Such notice, in the case of a public sale, shall state the time and place for such sale and, in the case of a sale at a broker's board or on a securities exchange, shall state the board or exchange at which such sale is to be made and the day on which the Collateral, or portion thereof, will first be offered for sale at such board or exchange. Any such public sale shall be held at such time or times within ordinary business hours and at such place or places as the Collateral Agent may fix and state in the notice (if any) of such sale. At any such sale, the Collateral, or portion thereof, to be sold may be sold in one lot as an entirety or in separate parcels, as the Collateral Agent may (in its sole and absolute discretion) determine. The Collateral Agent shall not be obligated to make any sale of any Collateral if it shall determine not to do so, regardless of the fact that notice of sale of such Collateral shall have been given. The Collateral Agent may, without notice or publication, adjourn any public or private sale or cause the same to be adjourned from time to time by announcement at the time and place fixed for sale, and such sale may, without further notice, be made at the time and place to which the same was so adjourned. In case any sale of all or any part of the Collateral is made on credit or for future delivery, the Collateral so sold may be retained by the Collateral Agent until the sale price is paid by the purchaser or purchasers thereof, but the Collateral Agent shall not incur any liability in case any such purchaser or purchasers shall fail to take up and pay for the Collateral so sold and, in case of any such failure, such Collateral may be sold again upon like notice. At any public (or, to the extent permitted by law, private) sale made pursuant to this Agreement, any Secured Party may bid for or purchase, free (to the extent permitted by law) from any right of redemption, stay, valuation or appraisal on the part of any Grantor (all said rights being also hereby waived and released to the extent permitted by law), the Collateral or any part thereof offered for sale and may make payment on account thereof by using any claim then due and payable to such Secured Party from any Grantor as a credit against the purchase price, and such Secured Party may, upon compliance with the terms of sale, hold, retain and dispose of such property without further accountability to any Grantor therefor. For purposes hereof, a written agreement to purchase the Collateral or any portion thereof shall be treated as a sale thereof; the Collateral Agent shall be free to carry out such sale pursuant to such agreement and no Grantor shall be entitled to the return of the Collateral or any portion thereof subject thereto, notwithstanding the fact that after the Collateral Agent shall have entered into such an agreement all Events of Default shall have been remedied and the Obligations paid in full. As an alternative to exercising the power of sale herein conferred upon it, the Collateral Agent may proceed by a suit or suits at law or in equity to foreclose this Agreement and to sell the Collateral or any portion thereof pursuant to a judgment or decree of a court or courts having competent jurisdiction or pursuant to a proceeding by a court appointed receiver. Any sale pursuant to the provisions of this Section 4.01 shall be deemed to conform to the commercially reasonable standards as provided in Section 9-610(b) of the New York UCC or its equivalent in other jurisdictions.

Each Grantor irrevocably makes, constitutes and appoints the Collateral Agent (and all officers, employees or agents designated by the Collateral Agent) as such Grantor's true and lawful agent (and attorney-in-fact) during the continuance of an Event of Default and after notice to the Company of its intent to exercise such rights, for the purpose of (i) making, settling and adjusting claims in respect of Article 9 Collateral under policies of insurance, endorsing the name of such Grantor on any check, draft, instrument or other item of payment for the proceeds of such policies of insurance and (ii) making all determinations and decisions with respect thereto.

SECTION 4.02. Application of Proceeds. (a) The Collateral Agent shall apply the proceeds of any collection or sale of Collateral, including any Collateral consisting of cash, in accordance with Section 6.10 of the Indenture.

(b) The Collateral Agent shall have absolute discretion as to the time of application of any such proceeds, moneys or balances in accordance with this Agreement and the Indenture. Upon any sale of Collateral by the Collateral Agent (including pursuant to a power of sale granted by statute or under a judicial proceeding), the receipt of the Collateral Agent or of the officer making the sale shall be a sufficient discharge to the purchaser or purchasers of the Collateral so sold and such purchaser or purchasers shall not be obligated to see to the application of any part of the purchase money paid over to the Collateral Agent or such officer or be answerable in any way for the misapplication thereof.

(c) In making the determinations and allocations required by this Section 4.02, the Collateral Agent may conclusively rely upon information supplied by the Collateral Agent as to the amounts of unpaid principal and interest and other amounts outstanding with respect to the Obligations, and the Collateral Agent shall have no liability to any of the Secured Parties for actions taken in reliance on such information, provided that nothing in this sentence shall prevent any Grantor from contesting any amounts claimed by any Secured Party in any information so supplied. All distributions made by the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Section 4.02 shall be (subject to any decree of any court of competent jurisdiction) final (absent manifest error), and the Collateral Agent shall have no duty to inquire as to the application by the Collateral Agent of any amounts distributed to it. It is understood and agreed that the Grantors shall remain jointly and severally liable to the extent of any deficiency between the amount of the proceeds of the Collateral and the aggregate amount of the Obligations.

SECTION 4.03. Grant of License to Use Intellectual Property; Power of Attorney. For the exclusive purpose of enabling the Collateral Agent to exercise rights and remedies under this Agreement at such time as the Collateral Agent shall be lawfully entitled to exercise such rights and remedies, each Grantor shall, upon prior written request by the Collateral Agent at any time after and during the continuance of an Event of Default, grant to the Collateral Agent a non-exclusive, irrevocable, royalty-free, limited license (until the termination or cure of the Event of Default) to use, license or sublicense any of the Intellectual Property Collateral now owned or hereafter acquired by such Grantor, and wherever the same may be located, and including in such license reasonable access to all media in which any of the licensed items may be recorded or stored and to all computer software and programs used for the compilation or printout thereof; provided, however, that nothing in this Section 4.03 shall require Grantors to grant any license that is prohibited by any rule of law, statute or regulation, or is prohibited by, or constitutes a breach or default under or results in the termination of any contract, license, agreement, instrument or other document evidencing, giving rise to or theretofore granted, to the extent permitted by the Indenture, with respect to such property or otherwise unreasonably prejudices the value thereof to the relevant Grantor; provided, further, that such licenses to be granted hereunder with respect to Trademarks shall be subject to the maintenance of quality standards with respect to the goods and services on which such Trademarks are used sufficient to preserve the validity of such Trademarks. For the avoidance of doubt, the use of such license by the Collateral Agent may be exercised, at the option of the Collateral Agent, only during the continuation of an Event of Default. Furthermore, each Grantor hereby grants to the Collateral Agent an absolute power of attorney to sign, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of any Event of Default, any document which may be required by the USPTO or the USCO in order to effect an absolute assignment of all right, title and interest in each Patent, Trademark or Copyright, and to record the same.

ARTICLE V

Indemnity, Subrogation and Subordination

SECTION 5.01. Indemnity. In addition to all such rights of indemnity and subrogation as the Grantors may have under applicable law (but subject to Section 5.03), the Company agrees that, in the event any assets of any Grantor shall be sold pursuant to this Agreement or any other Security Document to satisfy in whole or in part an Obligation owed to any Secured Party, the Company shall indemnify such Grantor in an amount equal to the greater of the book value or the fair market value of the assets so sold.

SECTION 5.02. Contribution and Subrogation. Each Grantor (a "Contributing Party") agrees (subject to Section 5.03) that, in the event assets of any other Grantor shall be sold pursuant to any Security Document to satisfy any Obligation owed to any Secured Party, and such other Grantor (the "Claiming Party") shall not have been fully indemnified by the Company as provided in Section 5.01, the Contributing Party shall indemnify the Claiming Party in an amount equal to the greater of the book value or the fair market value of such assets, in each case multiplied by a fraction of which the numerator shall be the net worth of the Contributing Party on the date hereof and the denominator shall be the aggregate net worth of all the Contributing Parties together with the net worth of the Claiming Party on the date hereof (or, in the case of any Grantor becoming a party hereto pursuant to Section 7.14, the date of the Security Agreement Supplement hereto executed and delivered by such Grantor). Any Contributing Party making any payment to a Claiming Party pursuant to this Section 5.02 shall be subrogated to the rights of such Claiming Party to the extent of such payment.

SECTION 5.03. Subordination. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, all rights of the Grantors under Sections 5.01 and 5.02 and all other rights of indemnity, contribution or subrogation under applicable law or otherwise shall be fully subordinated to the indefeasible payment in full in cash of the Obligations, provided that if any amount shall be paid to such Grantor on account of such subrogation rights at any time prior to the irrevocable payment in full in cash of all the Obligations, such amount shall be held in trust for the benefit of the Secured Parties and shall forthwith be paid to the Collateral Agent to be credited and applied against the Obligations, whether matured or unmatured, in accordance with Section 6.10 of the Indenture. No failure on the part of the Company or any Grantor to make the payments required by Sections 5.01 and 5.02 (or any other payments required under applicable law or otherwise) shall in any respect limit the obligations and liabilities of any Grantor with respect to its obligations hereunder, and each Grantor shall remain liable for the full amount of the obligations of such Grantor hereunder.

ARTICLE VI

Intercreditor Agreement

SECTION 6.01. Intercreditor Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the lien and security interest granted to the Collateral Agent pursuant to this Agreement and the exercise of any right or remedy by the Collateral Agent hereunder are subject to the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement, the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control.

SECTION 6.02. Obligations of Grantors. To the extent that the obligations of any Grantor hereunder shall conflict, or shall be inconsistent, with the obligations of such Grantor under the Intercreditor Agreement, the provisions of the Intercreditor Agreement shall control.

SECTION 6.03. Delivery of Collateral. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, prior to the Discharge of Credit Agreement Obligations (as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement), to the extent any Grantor is required hereunder to indorse, assign or deliver Collateral to the Collateral Agent for any purpose and is unable to do so as a result of having previously indorsed, assigned or delivered such Collateral to the Applicable Collateral Agent (as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement) in accordance with the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, such Grantor's obligations hereunder with respect to such indorsement, assignment or delivery shall be deemed satisfied by the indorsement, assignment or delivery in favor of or to the Applicable Collateral Agent, acting as a gratuitous bailee of the Collateral Agent.

ARTICLE VII

Miscellaneous

SECTION 7.01. Notices. All communications and notices hereunder shall (except as otherwise expressly permitted herein) be in writing and given as provided in Section 13.01 of the Indenture. All communications and notices hereunder to any Grantor shall be given to it in care of the Company as provided in Section 13.01 of the Indenture.

SECTION 7.02. Waivers; Amendment. (a) No failure or delay by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party in exercising any right or power hereunder or under the Indenture shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Collateral Agent and any other Secured Party hereunder and under the Indenture are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of this Agreement or consent to any departure by any Grantor therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by paragraph (b) of this Section 7.02, and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. No notice or demand on any Grantor in any case shall entitle any Grantor to any other or further notice or demand in similar or other circumstances.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any provision hereof may be waived, amended or modified except pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Collateral Agent and the Grantor or Grantors with respect to which such waiver, amendment or modification is to apply, subject to any consent required in accordance with Article 9 of the Indenture.

SECTION 7.03. Collateral Agent's Fees and Expenses. (a) The parties hereto agree that the Collateral Agent shall be entitled to reimbursement of its expenses incurred hereunder as provided in Section 7.06 of the Indenture as if named therein.

(b) Without limitation of its indemnification obligations under the Indenture, the Company agrees to indemnify the Collateral Agent and the other Indemnitees against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses, including the reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of any counsel for any Indemnitee, incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, the execution, delivery or performance of this Agreement or any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to the Indenture or this Agreement or any of the instruments contemplated thereby or hereby, whether or not any Indemnitee is a party thereto; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or of any director, officer or employee thereof.

(c) Any such amounts payable as provided hereunder shall be additional Obligations secured hereby and by the other Security Documents. The provisions of this Section 7.03 shall remain operative and in full force and effect regardless of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.13, the Indenture or any other Security Document, the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, the repayment of any of the Obligations, the invalidity or unenforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement, the Indenture or any other Security Document, or any investigation made by or on behalf of the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party. All amounts due under this Section 7.03 shall be payable within 10 days of written demand therefor.

SECTION 7.04. Successors and Assigns. Whenever in this Agreement any of the parties hereto is referred to, such reference shall be deemed to include the permitted successors and assigns of such party; and all covenants, promises and agreements by or on behalf of any Grantor or the Collateral Agent that are contained in this Agreement shall bind and inure to the benefit of their respective successors and assigns, to the extent permitted under Article 5 of the Indenture.

SECTION 7.05. Survival of Agreement. All representations and warranties made hereunder and in the Indenture or other document delivered pursuant hereto or thereto or in connection herewith or therewith shall survive the execution and delivery hereof and thereof. Such representations and warranties have been or will be relied upon by the Collateral Agent and each other Secured Party, regardless of any investigation made by the Collateral Agent or any other Secured Party and shall continue in full force and effect as long as any Obligation under the Indenture or any Security Document shall remain unpaid or unsatisfied.

SECTION 7.06. Counterparts; Effectiveness; Successors and Assigns; Several Agreement. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery by telecopier of an executed counterpart of a signature page to this Agreement shall be effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart of this Agreement. The Collateral Agent may also require that any such documents and signatures delivered by telecopier be confirmed by a manually signed original thereof; provided that the failure to request or deliver the same shall not limit the effectiveness of any document or signature delivered by telecopier. This Agreement shall become effective as to any Grantor when a counterpart hereof executed on behalf of such Grantor shall have been delivered to the Collateral Agent and a counterpart hereof shall have been executed on behalf of the Collateral Agent, and thereafter shall be binding upon such Grantor and the Collateral Agent and their respective successors and assigns permitted thereby, and shall inure to the benefit of such Grantor, the Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns permitted thereby, except that no Grantor shall have the right to assign or transfer its rights or obligations hereunder or any interest herein or in the Collateral (and any such assignment or transfer shall be void) except as expressly contemplated by this Agreement or the Indenture. This Agreement shall be construed as a separate agreement with respect to each Grantor and may be amended, modified, supplemented, waived or released with respect to any Grantor without the approval of any other Grantor and without affecting the obligations of any other Grantor hereunder.

SECTION 7.07. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement, any other Security Document or the Indenture is held to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable, the legality, validity and enforceability of the remaining provisions thereof shall not be affected or impaired thereby. The invalidity of a provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate or render unenforceable such provision in any other jurisdiction.

SECTION 7.08. Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process. (a) THIS AGREEMENT, THE INDENTURE AND EACH OTHER SECURITY DOCUMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK (EXCEPT AS OTHERWISE EXPRESSLY PROVIDED THEREIN).

(b) ANY LEGAL ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING UNDER ANY SECURITY DOCUMENT OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH OR RELATED OR INCIDENTAL TO THE DEALINGS OF THE PARTIES HERETO OR ANY OF THEM WITH RESPECT TO THE INDENTURE, THE NOTES, OR THE TRANSACTIONS RELATED THERETO, IN EACH CASE WHETHER NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING, MAY BE BROUGHT IN THE COURTS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK SITTING IN NEW YORK CITY OR OF THE UNITED STATES FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF SUCH STATE, AND BY EXECUTION AND DELIVERY OF THIS AGREEMENT, EACH OF THE COMPANY, HOLDINGS, THE SUBSIDIARY GUARANTORS, THE TRUSTEE AND THE COLLATERAL AGENT CONSENTS, FOR ITSELF AND IN RESPECT OF ITS PROPERTY, TO THE NONEXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THOSE COURTS. EACH OF THE COMPANY, HOLDINGS, THE SUBSIDIARY GUARANTORS, THE TRUSTEE AND THE COLLATERAL AGENT IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION, INCLUDING ANY OBJECTION TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OR BASED ON THE GROUNDS OF FORUM NON CONVENIENS, WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE BRINGING OF ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING IN SUCH JURISDICTION IN RESPECT OF THE INDENTURE OR OTHER DOCUMENT RELATED THERETO.

(c) Each party to this Agreement irrevocably consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 7.01. Nothing in this Agreement or in the Indenture will affect the right of any party to this Agreement to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

SECTION 7.09. WAIVER OF RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY OF ANY CLAIM, DEMAND, ACTION OR CAUSE OF ACTION ARISING UNDER THE INDENTURE OR IN ANY WAY CONNECTED WITH OR RELATED OR INCIDENTAL TO THE DEALINGS OF THE PARTIES HERETO OR ANY OF THEM WITH RESPECT TO THE INDENTURE, OR THE TRANSACTIONS RELATED THERETO, IN EACH CASE WHETHER NOW EXISTING OR HEREAFTER ARISING, AND WHETHER FOUNDED IN CONTRACT OR TORT OR OTHERWISE; AND EACH PARTY HEREBY AGREES AND CONSENTS THAT ANY SUCH CLAIM, DEMAND, ACTION OR CAUSE OF ACTION SHALL BE DECIDED BY COURT TRIAL WITHOUT A JURY, AND THAT ANY PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT MAY FILE AN ORIGINAL COUNTERPART OR A COPY OF THIS SECTION 7.09 WITH ANY COURT AS WRITTEN EVIDENCE OF THE CONSENT OF THE SIGNATORIES HERETO TO THE WAIVER OF THEIR RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY.

SECTION 7.10. Headings. Article and Section headings and the Table of Contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

SECTION 7.11. Security Interest Absolute. All rights of the Collateral Agent hereunder, the Security Interest, the grant of a security interest in the Collateral and all obligations of each Grantor hereunder shall be absolute and unconditional irrespective of (a) any lack of validity or enforceability of the Indenture, any agreement with respect to any of the Obligations or any other agreement or instrument relating to any of the foregoing, (b) any change in the time, manner or place of payment of, or in any other term of, all or any of the Obligations, or any other amendment or waiver of or any consent to any departure from the Indenture or any other agreement or instrument, (c) any exchange, release or non-perfection of any Lien on other collateral, or any release or amendment or waiver of or consent under or departure from any guarantee, securing or guaranteeing all or any of the Obligations or (d) any other circumstance that might otherwise constitute a defense available to, or a discharge of, any Grantor in respect of the Obligations or this Agreement.

SECTION 7.12. Reserved.

SECTION 7.13. Termination or Release. (a) This Agreement, the Security Interest and all other security interests granted hereby shall terminate with respect to all Obligations and any Liens arising therefrom shall be automatically released when all the outstanding Obligations (in each case other than contingent indemnification obligations not yet accrued and payable) have been indefeasibly satisfied and discharged in accordance with Section 12.01 of the Indenture.

(b) A Grantor shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and the Security Interest in the Collateral of such Grantor shall be automatically released upon the consummation of any transaction permitted by the Indenture as a result of which such Grantor ceases to be a Subsidiary or is designated as an Unrestricted Subsidiary of the Company in accordance with the Indenture.

(c) Upon any sale or other transfer by any Grantor of any Collateral that is permitted under the Indenture, or upon the effectiveness of any written consent to the release of the security interest granted hereby in any Collateral pursuant to Section 10.04 of the Indenture, the security interest of such Grantor in such Collateral shall be automatically released.

(d) A Grantor (other than Holdings and the Company) shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and the Security Interest in the Collateral of such Grantor shall be automatically released if such Grantor ceases to be a Restricted Subsidiary pursuant to the terms of the Indenture.

(e) In connection with any termination or release pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of this Section 7.13, the Collateral Agent shall execute and deliver to any Grantor, at such Grantor's expense, all documents that such Grantor shall reasonably request to evidence such termination or release. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to this Section 7.13 shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Collateral Agent.

(f) At any time that the respective Grantor desires that the Collateral Agent take any action described in the immediately preceding paragraph (e), it shall, upon request of the Collateral Agent, deliver to the Collateral Agent an officer's certificate certifying that the release of the respective Collateral is permitted pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c). The Collateral Agent shall have no liability whatsoever to any Secured Party as a result of any release of Collateral by it as permitted (or which the Collateral Agent in good faith believes to be permitted) by this Section 7.13.

SECTION 7.14. Additional Grantors. If at any time a Subsidiary of the Company executes and delivers a supplemental indenture to the Indenture to become a Guarantor in accordance with Section 4.17 of the Indenture, contemporaneously with the execution and delivery of any such supplemental indenture, such Subsidiary shall execute and deliver a Security Agreement Supplement in the form of Exhibit I hereto by the Collateral Agent and such Subsidiary. Upon such execution and delivery, such Subsidiary shall become a Grantor hereunder with the same force and effect as if originally named as a Grantor herein. The execution and delivery of any such instrument shall not require the consent of any other Grantor hereunder. The rights and obligations of each Grantor hereunder shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding the addition of any new Grantor as a party to this Agreement.

SECTION 7.15. Collateral Agent Appointed Attorney-in-Fact. Each Grantor hereby appoints the Collateral Agent the attorney-in-fact of such Grantor for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Agreement and taking any action and executing any instrument that the Collateral Agent may deem necessary or advisable to accomplish the purposes hereof at any time after and during the continuance of an Event of Default, which appointment is irrevocable (until termination of the Indenture) and coupled with an interest. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Collateral Agent shall have the right, upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default and notice by the Collateral Agent to the Company of its intent to exercise such rights, with full power of substitution either in the Collateral Agent's name or in the name of such Grantor (a) to receive, endorse, assign and/or deliver any and all notes, acceptances, checks, drafts, money orders or other evidences of payment relating to the Collateral or any part thereof; (b) to demand, collect, receive payment of, give receipt for and give discharges and releases of all or any of the Collateral; (c) to sign the name of any Grantor on any invoice or bill of lading relating to any of the Collateral; (d) to send verifications of Accounts to any Account Debtor; (e) to commence and prosecute any and all suits, actions or proceedings at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction to collect or otherwise realize on all or any of the Collateral or to enforce any rights in respect of any Collateral; (f) to settle, compromise, compound, adjust or defend any actions, suits or proceedings relating to all or any of the Collateral; (g) to notify, or to require any Grantor to notify, Account Debtors to make payment directly to the Collateral Agent; (h) subject to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, to make, settle and adjust claims in respect of Article 9 Collateral under policies of insurance, including endorsing the name of any Grantor on any check, draft, instrument or other item of payment for the proceeds of such policies of insurance, making all determinations and decisions with respect thereto and obtaining or maintaining policies of insurance or paying any premium in whole or in part relating thereto; and (i) to use, sell, assign, transfer, pledge, make any agreement with respect to or otherwise deal with all or any of the Collateral, and to do all other acts and things necessary to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, as fully and completely as though the Collateral Agent were the absolute owner of the Collateral for all purposes; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed as requiring or obligating the Collateral Agent to make any commitment or to make any inquiry as to the nature or sufficiency of any payment received by the Collateral Agent, or to present or file any claim or notice, or to take any action with respect to the Collateral or any part thereof or the moneys due or to become due in respect thereof or any property covered thereby. The Collateral Agent and the other Secured Parties shall be accountable only for amounts actually received as a result of the exercise of the powers granted to them herein, and neither they nor their officers, directors, employees or agents shall be responsible to any Grantor for any act or failure to act hereunder, except for their own gross negligence or willful misconduct or that of any of their Affiliates, directors, officers, employees, counsel, agents or attorneys-in-fact. All sums disbursed by the Collateral Agent in connection with this paragraph, including reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, expenses and other charges relating thereto, shall be payable, within 10 days of demand, by the Grantors to the Collateral Agent and shall be additional Obligations secured hereby.

SECTION 7.16. General Authority of the Collateral Agent. By acceptance of the benefits of this Agreement and any other Security Documents, each Secured Party (whether or not a signatory hereto) shall be deemed irrevocably (a) to consent to the appointment of the Collateral Agent as its agent hereunder and under such other Security Documents, (b) to confirm that the Collateral Agent shall have the authority to act as the exclusive agent of such Secured Party for the enforcement of any provisions of this Agreement and such other Security Documents against any Grantor, the exercise of remedies hereunder or thereunder and the giving or withholding of any consent or approval hereunder or thereunder relating to any Collateral or any Grantor's obligations with respect thereto, (c) to agree that it shall not take any action to enforce any provisions of this Agreement or any other Security Document against any Grantor, to exercise any remedy hereunder or thereunder or to give any consents or approvals hereunder or thereunder except as expressly provided in this Agreement or any other Security Document and (d) to agree to be bound by the terms of this Agreement and any other Security Documents.

SECTION 7.17. Recourse; Limited Obligations. This Agreement is made with full recourse to each Grantor and pursuant to and upon all the warranties, representations, covenants and agreements on the part of such Grantor contained herein, in the Indenture and otherwise in writing in connection herewith or therewith. It is the desire and intent of each Grantor and the Secured Parties that this Agreement shall be enforced against each Grantor to the fullest extent permissible under the laws applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. Incremental Term Lender	Incremental Term Commitments
Bank of America, N.A.	$350,000,000

SUMMARY OF TERMS

Dated as of September 30, 2013

Interest Rates:

The Applicable Rate with respect to the Incremental Term Loans will be a percentage per annum equal to (a) until delivery of financial statements for the first full fiscal quarter ending after the First Incremental Amendment Effective Date pursuant to Section 6.01 of the Credit Agreement, the percentages per annum listed in the table below, assuming a "Pricing Level" of "1", and (b) thereafter, the percentages per annum listed in the table below, based upon the Senior Secured First-Lien Net Leverage Ratio as set forth in the most recent Compliance Certificate received by the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 6.02(a) of the Credit Agreement:

Applicable Rate

Pricing Level	Senior Secured First-Lien Net Leverage Ratio	Eurocurrency Rate for Incremental Term Loans	Base Rate for Incremental Term Loans
1	> 3.0:1.0	3.50%	2.50%
2	£ 3.0:1.0	3.00%	2.00%

Any increase or decrease in the Applicable Rate resulting from a change in the Senior Secured First-Lien Net Leverage Ratio shall become effective as of the first Business Day immediately following the date a Compliance Certificate is delivered pursuant to Section 6.02(a) of the Credit Agreement; provided that at the option of the Required Lenders (and if exercised with respect to this Class of Incremental Term Loans), Pricing Level 1 shall apply (x) as of the first Business Day after the date on which a Compliance Certificate was required to have been delivered but was not delivered, and shall continue to so apply to and including the date on which such Compliance Certificate is so delivered (and thereafter the Pricing Level otherwise determined in accordance with the definition of Applicable Rate shall apply) and (y) as of the first Business Day after an Event of Default under Section 9.01(a) of the Credit Agreement shall have occurred and be continuing, and shall continue to so apply to but excluding the date on which such Event of Default is cured or waived (and thereafter the Pricing Level otherwise determined in accordance with this definition shall apply).

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained above in this definition or elsewhere in the Credit Agreement, if it is subsequently determined that the Senior Secured First-Lien Net Leverage Ratio set forth in any Compliance Certificate delivered to the Administrative Agent is inaccurate for any reason and the result thereof is that the Lenders of the Incremental Term Loans received interest or fees for any period based on an Applicable Rate that is less than that which would have been applicable had the Senior Secured First-Lien Net Leverage Ratio been accurately determined, then, for all purposes of this Agreement, the "Applicable Rate" for any day occurring within the period covered by such Compliance Certificate shall retroactively be deemed to be the relevant percentage as based upon the accurately determined Senior Secured First-Lien Net Leverage Ratio for such period, and any shortfall in the interest or fees theretofore paid by the Borrower for the relevant period pursuant to Sections 2.08 and 2.09 of the Credit Agreement as a result of the miscalculation of the Senior Secured First-Lien Net Leverage Ratio shall be deemed to be (and shall be) due and payable under the relevant provisions of Section 2.08 or 2.09 the Credit Agreement, as applicable, at the time the interest or fees for such period were required to be paid pursuant to said Section (and shall remain due and payable until paid in full, together with all amounts owing under said Section 2.08, in accordance with the terms of the Credit Agreement).

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Effective Yield applicable to any new Class of incremental term loans that comprise Incremental Term Facilities ("New Incremental Term Loans") is higher than the Effective Yield for the Incremental Term Loans by more than 50 basis points, then the Effective Yield for the Incremental Term Loans shall be immediately increased to the extent necessary so that such Effective Yield is equal to the Effective Yield for such New Incremental Term Loans minus 50 basis points; provided, that, in determining the Effective Yield applicable to the Incremental Term Loans and such New Incremental Term Loans (x) OID or upfront fees (which shall be deemed to constitute like amounts of OID) payable by the Borrower to the Incremental Term Lender or any Additional Term Lenders in the initial primary syndication thereof (with OID being equated to interest based on assumed four-year life to maturity) shall be included, (y) customary arrangement or commitment fees payable to the relevant arrangers and/or bookrunners or their Affiliates in connection with the Incremental Term Loans or to one or more arrangers (or their Affiliates) of any

	New Incremental Term Loans shall be excluded and (z) if the New Incremental Term Loans include an interest rate floor greater than the interest rate floor applicable to the Incremental Term Loans, such increased amount shall be equated to interest rate margin for purposes of determining whether an increase to the applicable interest rate margins for the Incremental Term Loans shall be required, to the extent an increase in the interest rate floor in the Incremental Term Loans would cause an increase in the interest rate then in effect, and in such case the interest rate floor (but not the interest rate margin) applicable to the Incremental Term Loans shall be increased by such increased amount. With respect to the computation of interest on the Incremental Term Loans, the Eurocurrency Rate and Base Rate applicable to Incremental Term Loans shall be subject to a floor of 1.00% and 2.00%, respectively.
Issuance Price:	100%.
Maturity Date:	The Incremental Term Loans will mature on February 19, 2019 (the "Incremental Term Loan Maturity Date").
Scheduled Amortization:	(i) The Borrower shall repay to the Administrative Agent for the ratable account of the Lenders of the Incremental Term Loans established pursuant to this Incremental Term Facility Amendment on the last Business Day of each March, June, September and December, commencing with the last Business Day of December, 2013, an aggregate Dollar Amount equal to 0.25% of the aggregate Dollar Amount of all Incremental Term Loans outstanding on the First Incremental Amendment Effective Date (as such repayment amount shall be reduced as a result of the application of prepayments in accordance with the order of priority determined under Section 2.05). (ii) The remaining aggregate principal amount of Incremental Term Loans incurred shall be due and payable in full on the Incremental Term Loan Maturity Date.

SOVEREIGN HOLDINGS, INC.
MANAGEMENT EQUITY INCENTIVE PLAN

Adopted June 11, 2007 (the "Effective Date"), as amended April 22, 2010

1. Purpose of the Plan

The purpose of the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") Management Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan") is to promote the interests of the Company and its stockholders by providing key employees and, in certain circumstances, directors, service providers and consultants, of the Company and its Affiliates with an appropriate incentive to encourage them to continue in the employ of the Company or Affiliate and to improve the growth and profitability of the Company.

2. Definitions

As used in this Plan, the following capitalized terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Affiliate" shall mean the Company and any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries.

(b) "Affiliated Entity" shall mean any entity related to the Company as a member of a controlled group of corporations in accordance with Section 414(b) of the Code or as a trade or business under common control in accordance with Section 414(c) of the Code, for so long as such entity is so related, including without limitation any Affiliate.

(c) "Aggregate Fair Market Value" shall mean, at the time of the determination of the Exercisable Percentage, the sum of (i) the Fair Market Value and (ii) the TVL Fair Market Value.

(d) "Aggregate Grant Date Fair Market Value" shall mean the sum of (1) the Company Tranche Exercise Price and (2) the TVL Fair Market Value on the date the applicable Option was granted; provided, that with respect to any Option granted on or about the date that an option to purchase the common units of Travelocity.com LLC is granted, determined by the Board in good faith, "Aggregate Grant Date Fair Market Value" shall mean the sum of (1) the Company Tranche Exercise Price and (2) the exercise price applicable to such Travelocity.com LLC option at the time of the determination of the Exercisable Percentage, it being understood that, unless otherwise determined by the Board, with respect to any Option granted in the first half of 2010, the exercise price applicable to such Travelocity.com LLC option is $0.50, which exercise price shall increase quarterly at 6.00% per annum, and determined without regard to whether such option has been exercised.

(e) "Board" shall mean the Board of Directors of the Company or any committee appointed by the Board to administer the Plan pursuant to Section 3.

(f) "Cause" shall mean, when used in connection with the termination of a Participant's Employment, (i) if the Participant has an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity as of the Grant Date, the definition used in such employment agreement as of the Grant Date, or (ii) if the Participant does not have an effective employment agreement, unless otherwise provided in the Participant's Stock Option Grant Agreement, the termination of the Participant's Employment on account of (i) a failure of the Participant to substantially perform his or her duties (other than as a result of physical or mental illness or injury); (ii) the Participant's willful misconduct or gross negligence which is injurious to the Company, any Affiliated Entity, the Majority Stockholder or any of its affiliates (whether financially, reputationally or otherwise); (iii) a breach by a Participant of the Participant's fiduciary duty or duty of loyalty to the Company or any Affiliated Entity; (iv) the Participant's unauthorized removal from the premises of the Company or any Affiliated Entity of any document (in any medium or form) relating to the Company, any Affiliated Entity, the Majority Stockholder, or the customers of the Company or any Affiliated Entity other than in the good faith performance of the Participant's duties; or (v) the indictment or a plea of nolo contendere by the Participant of any felony or other serious crime involving moral turpitude. Any rights the Company or any Affiliated Entity may have hereunder in respect of the events giving rise to Cause shall be in addition to the rights the Company or Affiliated Entity may have under any other agreement with the Employee or at law or in equity. If, subsequent to the termination of Employment of a Participant without an effective employment agreement as of the Grant Date, it is discovered that such Participant's Employment could have been terminated for Cause, as such term is defined above (unless otherwise defined in a Stock Option Grant Agreement), the Participant's Employment shall, at the election of the Board, in its sole discretion, be deemed to have been terminated for Cause retroactively to the date the events giving rise to Cause occurred. Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, even if an effective employment agreement as of the Grant Date was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Cause (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity).

(g) "Change in Control" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events after March 30, 2007 (it being understood that the transactions consummated on or about December 31, 2009 do not constitute a Change in Control): (i) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company on a consolidated basis to any Person or group of related persons for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act (a "Group"), together with any Affiliates thereof other than to a Majority Stockholder; (ii) the approval by the holders of the outstanding voting power of the Company of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the Company; (iii) (A) any Person or Group (other than the Majority Stockholder) shall become the beneficial owner (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of Common Stock representing more than 40% of the aggregate outstanding voting power of the Company and such Person or Group actually has the power to vote such Common Stock in any such election and (B) the Majority Stockholder beneficially owns (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, in the aggregate a lesser percentage of the voting power of the Company than such other Person or Group; (iv) the replacement of a majority of the Board over a two-year period from the directors who constituted the Board at the beginning of such period, and such replacement shall not have been approved by a vote of at least a majority of the Board then still in office who either were members of such Board at the beginning of such period or whose election as a member of such Board was previously so approved or who were nominated by, or designees of, a Majority Stockholder or (v) consummation of a merger or consolidation of the Company with another entity in which (A) the holders of the Common Stock of the Company immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction hold, directly or indirectly, immediately following the consummation of the transaction, less than 50% of the common equity interests in the surviving corporation in such transaction and (B) the Majority Stockholder holds less than 35% of the common equity interests in the surviving corporation in such transaction.

(k) "Company" shall mean Sovereign Holdings, Inc.

(l) "Company Tranche Exercise Price" shall mean the Exercise Price applicable to the Option being exercised.

(m) "Compete" shall mean with respect to any Participant who (i) is party to an effective employment agreement or an effective non-competition and/or non-solicitation agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity, in each case as of the Grant Date, the failure to comply with any obligation thereunder not to compete or solicit employees, customers and suppliers (and has not promptly cured any such non-compliance to the extent the opportunity to cure is provided in any such employment, non-competition or non-solicitation agreement, to the extent such non-compliance is curable); and (ii) is not party to an effective employment agreement or an effective non-competition and/or non-solicitation agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity, during Employment and for the one year period following the termination of such Participant's Employment, (A) becoming an employee, director, or independent contractor of, or a consultant to, or performing any services for, any Person engaged in activities competitive to those of the Company or any Affiliated Entity or (B) soliciting or hiring or attempting to solicit or hire (1) any customer or supplier in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company or any Affiliated Entity or (2) any Employee or individual who was an Employee within the six-month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his or her Employment with the Company or any Affiliated Entity. Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, (x) "Competing" shall not include activities that Compete with such entity so long as such activities do not Compete with the Company or any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity, and (y) even if an effective employment agreement or an effective non-competition and/or non-solicitation agreement as of the Grant Date was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Competing (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity). "Competed" and "Competing" shall have correlative meanings.

(n) "Disability" shall mean a permanent disability as defined in the Company's or an Affiliate's disability plans, or as defined from time to time by the Company, in its sole discretion, or as specified in the Participant's Stock Option Grant Agreement, provided that in the event the Participant is party to an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity as of the Grant Date, and such agreement contains or operates under a different definition of Disability (or any derivative of such term), the definition of Disability used in such agreement at the time of grant shall be substituted for the definition set forth above for all purposes hereunder.

(o) "Eligible Employee" shall mean (i) any Employee who is a key executive of the Company or an Affiliate, or (ii) certain other Employees, directors, service providers or consultants who, in the judgment of the Board and with consent of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, should be eligible to participate in the Plan due to the services they perform on behalf of the Company or any Affiliated Entity, it being understood that no individual or entity shall be an Eligible Employee to the extent that the grant of an Option to such individual or entity would cause the Option to be treated as nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A of the Code.

(p) "Employment" shall mean, except as otherwise required by Section 409A of the Code, employment with the Company or any Affiliated Entity, and shall include the provision of services as a director or consultant for the Company or any Affiliated Entity. A Participant's Employment shall terminate on the date the Participant is no longer employed by an entity that is at least one of (i) the Company, (ii) an Affiliate, or (iii) an entity that is an Affiliated Entity as of such date. "Employee" and "Employed" shall have correlative meanings.

(q) "Exchange Act" shall mean the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

(r) "Exercisable Percentage" shall mean, in the event a Participant desires to exercise some or all of his or her Options, (i) if the Aggregate Fair Market Value is greater than the Aggregate Grant Date Fair Market Value, then the percentage (not to exceed 100%) calculated as follows: 100 multiplied by the quotient of (A) the Aggregate Fair Market Value minus the Aggregate Grant Date Fair Market Value divided by (B) the Fair Market Value at the time of determination of the Exercisable Percentage minus the Company Tranche Exercise Price; and (ii) if the Aggregate Fair Market Value is less than or equal to the Aggregate Grant Date Fair Market Value, then 0%; provided, that, with respect to any Option outstanding as of December 31, 2009 (the "Existing Options"), "Exercisable Percentage" shall mean, in the event a Participant desires to exercise some or all of his or her Existing Options, (i) if the Aggregate Fair Market Value is greater than the Company Tranche Exercise Price, then the percentage (not to exceed 100%) calculated as follows: 100 multiplied by the quotient of (A) the Aggregate Fair Market Value minus the Company Tranche Exercise Price divided by (B) the Fair Market Value at the time of determination of the Exercisable Percentage minus the Company Tranche Exercise Price; and (ii) if the Aggregate Fair Market Value is less than or equal to the Aggregate Grant Date Fair Market Value, then 0%. The Exercisable Percentage shall be determined for each tranche of Options that the Participant desires to exercise on a tranche by tranche basis.

(s) "Exercise Date" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.10 hereof.

(t) "Exercise Notice" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.10 hereof.

(u) "Exercise Price" shall mean the price that the Participant must pay under the Option for each share of Common Stock as determined by the Board for each Grant and initially specified in the Stock Option Grant Agreement, subject to any increase or other adjustment that may be made following the Grant Date in accordance with the Plan.

(v) "Fair Market Value" shall mean, as of any date (1) prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, the value per share of Common Stock as determined in good faith by the Board and taking into account the fair market value of the entire equity of the Company and any relevant factors determinative of value, without, however, giving effect to any discount attributable to the size of any person's holdings of Common Stock, any minority interest or any voting rights or lack thereof; or (2) on which a Public Market for the Common Stock exists, (i) closing price on such day of a share of Common Stock as reported on the principal securities exchange on which shares of Common Stock are then listed or admitted to trading or (ii) if not so reported, the average of the closing bid and ask prices on such day as reported on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System or (iii) if not so reported, as furnished by any member of the NASD selected by the Board. The Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock as of any such date on which the applicable exchange or inter-dealer quotation system through which trading in the Common Stock regularly occurs is closed shall be the Fair Market Value determined pursuant to the preceding sentence as of the immediately preceding date on which the Common Stock is traded, a bid and ask price is reported or a trading price is reported by any member of NASD selected by the Board. In the event that the price of a share of Common Stock shall not be so reported or furnished, the Fair Market Value shall be determined by the Board in good faith. In any case, the Fair Market Value shall be determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, to the extent applicable. For purposes of calculating the Exercisable Percentage and the Aggregate Fair Market Value, the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock shall be reduced, including to below zero, proportionately to take into account the fact that, and by the extent to which, the Preferred Stock then outstanding has a value equal to less than face value.

(w) "Good Reason" shall mean, unless otherwise defined in a Stock Option Grant Agreement (i) a material diminution in a Participant's duties and responsibilities other than a change in such Participant's duties and responsibilities that results from becoming part of a larger organization following a Change in Control, (ii) a decrease in a Participant's base salary or bonus opportunity other than a proportionate decrease in bonus opportunity of less than 10% that applies to employees generally of the Company or its Affiliates otherwise eligible to participate in the affected plan, or (iii) a relocation of a Participant's primary work location more than 50 miles from the Participant's work location immediately prior to the Participant's commencement of participation in the Plan, without the Participant's prior written consent; provided, that, within twenty days following the occurrence of any of the events set forth herein, the Participant shall have delivered written notice to the Company of his or her intention to terminate his or her Employment for Good Reason, which notice specifies in reasonable detail the circumstances claimed to give rise to the Participant's right to terminate Employment for Good Reason, and the Company shall not have cured such circumstances within twenty days following the Company's receipt of such notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, as of the Grant Date, the Participant is a party to an effective employment with the Company or any Affiliated Entity that contains a different definition of the term "Good Reason" (or any derivation of such term), the definition in such employment agreement shall control. Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, even if an effective employment agreement as of the Grant Date was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Good Reason (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity).

(x) "Grant" shall mean a grant of an Option under the Plan evidenced by a Stock Option Grant Agreement.

(y) "Grant Date" shall mean the Grant Date as defined in Section 4.3 herein.

(z) "Initial Majority Stockholder Shares" shall mean the shares of the Company's Common Stock and Preferred Stock issued to the Majority Stockholder as of March 30, 2007, and shall include any stock, securities or other property or interests received by the Majority Stockholder in respect of such shares in connection with any stock dividend or other similar distribution, stock split or combination of shares, recapitalization, conversion, reorganization, consolidation, split-up, spin-off, combination, repurchase, merger, exchange of stock or other transaction or event that affects the Company's capital stock occurring after the date of issuance (including, without limitation, shares of TVL Stock issued as a result of the transactions consummated on or about December 31, 2009).

(aa) "Liquidity Event" shall mean the occurrence of (i) a transaction or series of transactions (whether such transactions are related or unrelated) that results, directly or indirectly, in the sale, transfer or other disposition of the shares of Common Stock or TVL Common Stock held by the Majority Stockholder (a "Stock Sale"), the assets of the Company or TVL (an "Asset Sale") or the sale of securities received by the Majority Stockholder in connection with a prior Stock Sale or Asset Sale and following which (A) the Majority Stockholder has received up to such time an amount in cash in respect of the Initial Majority Stockholder Shares equal to the product of (1) the applicable minimum MoM; (2) the Majority Stockholder Price; and (3) 0.5, and (B) the Board determines in good faith that, with respect to the Initial Majority Stockholder Shares and based upon the Majority Stockholder Price, such MoM has been achieved, notwithstanding that the Majority Stockholder received property other than cash in connection with such transaction or series of transactions, taking into account, with respect to the Board's determination of the value of any portion of its interest for which it has not received cash, all circumstances available to it to determine that the cash received through such date plus the value of securities or other property held by the Majority Stockholder equals or exceeds an amount which reflects the applicable minimum MoM; or (ii) any other transaction or series of transactions determined by the Board, in its sole discretion, to constitute a "Liquidity Event". For purposes of determining whether amounts received have been received in respect of the Initial Majority Stockholder Shares, any sale, transfer or other disposition of shares of Common Stock, Preferred Stock or TVL Stock by the Majority Stockholder after March 30, 2007 shall be deemed a sale, transfer or other disposition of shares of Common Stock, Preferred Stock or TVL Stock that are Initial Majority Stockholder Shares, regardless of whether the Initial Majority Stockholder Shares are actually sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of.

(bb) "Majority Stockholder" shall mean, collectively or individually as the context requires, TPG Partners IV, L.P., TPG Partners V, L.P, Silver Lake Technology Investors II, L.P., Silver Lake Partners II, L.P. and/or their respective affiliates.

(dd) "Majority Stockholder Price" shall mean the aggregate price paid, including with respect to fees and expenses, by the Majority Stockholder for the Initial Majority Stockholder Shares.

(ee) "MoM" shall mean (i) in connection with any Liquidity Event, the receipt by the Majority Stockholder of cash and other property, the value of which reflects at least a threshold multiple, as set forth in Section 4.4.2 hereof, of the Majority Stockholder Price with respect to its Initial Majority Stockholder Shares, taking into account and net of any dilution resulting from the Options granted under the Plan, as determined in good faith by the Board; and (ii) following the third anniversary of the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, a determination by the Board, in good faith, that if the Majority Stockholder sold its remaining shares of Initial Majority Stockholder Shares that are shares of Common Stock or TVL Common Stock for cash at a price per share equal to the average Fair Market Value or TVL Fair Market Value, as applicable, of a share of Common Stock or TVL Common Stock over a period commencing on any day after such third anniversary and extending for 90 consecutive trading days thereafter, together with any cash and the value of any other property already received with respect to its Initial Majority Stockholder Shares, the Majority Stockholder would have received, in the aggregate, an amount which reflects at least a threshold multiple, as set forth in Section 4.4.2 hereof, of the Majority Stockholder Price with respect to its Initial Majority Stockholder Shares.

(ff) "NASD" shall mean the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

(gg) "Non-Qualified Stock Option" shall mean an Option that is not intended to qualify as an "incentive stock option' within the meaning of Section 422 of the Code.

(ii) "Participant" shall mean an Eligible Employee to whom a Grant of an Option under the Plan has been made, and, where applicable, shall include Permitted Transferees.

(jj) "Performance-Based Option" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.1.2.

(kk) "Permitted Transferee" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.6.

(ll) "Person" shall mean an individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, trust or joint venture, or a governmental agency or political subdivision thereof.

(mm) "Preferred Stock" shall mean the preferred stock of the Company, par value US $0.01 per share.

(nn) "Public Market" shall be deemed to exist for purposes of the Plan if the Common Stock or TVL Common Stock, as applicable, is registered under Section 12(b) or 12(g) of the Exchange Act and trading regularly occurs in such Common Stock or TVL Common Stock, as applicable, in, on or through the facilities of securities exchanges and/or inter-dealer quotation systems in the United States (within the meaning of Section 902(n) of the Securities Act) or any designated offshore securities market (within the meaning of Rule 902(a) of the Securities Act).

(oo) "Qualifying Termination" shall mean, with respect to a Participant, (i) a termination of such Participant's Employment by the Company (and all then-Affiliated Entities) without Cause or by the Participant for Good Reason, (ii) a termination of such Participant's employment, prior to the expiration of the Options in accordance with Section 4.5, by all entities that were, immediately prior to the Change in Control, Affiliated Entities and cease, upon the Change in Control, to be Affiliated Entities, without Cause or by the Participant for Good Reason, or (iii) a termination of such Participant's Employment in the event of a Participant's death or Disability, in each of (i), (ii) or (iii) following a Change in Control of the Company. It is understood that a Participant shall not have a Qualifying Termination by virtue of ceasing to be Employed by an entity or its subsidiaries undergoing a Change in Control where, following such Change in Control, the Participant remains employed by an entity that was an Affiliated Entity of the entity or its subsidiaries undergoing a Change in Control immediately prior to such Change in Control.

(pp) "Securities Act" shall mean the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

(qq) "Stock Option Grant Agreement" shall mean an agreement, substantially in the form which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, entered into by each Participant and the Company evidencing the Grant of each Option pursuant to the Plan, provided, that the Board may make such changes to the form of Stock Option Grant Agreement for any particular Grant as the Board may determine pursuant to its powers set forth in Section 3.1(c) of the Plan.

(rr) "Time-Based Option" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.1.1.

(ss) "Transfer" shall mean any transfer, sale, assignment, hedge, gift, testamentary transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of any interest. "Transferee" and "Transferor" shall have correlative meanings.

(tt) "TVL" shall mean TVL Common, Inc.

(uu) "TVL Common Stock" shall mean the shares of TVL's common stock, par value US $0.00001.

(vv) "TVL Fair Market Value" shall mean, as of any date (1) prior to the existence of a Public Market for the TVL Common Stock, the value per share of TVL Common Stock as determined in good faith by the board of directors of TVL and taking into account the fair market value of the entire equity of TVL and any relevant factors determinative of value, without, however, giving effect to any discount attributable to the size of any person's holdings of TVL Common Stock, any minority interest or any voting rights or lack thereof; or (2) on which a Public Market for the TVL Common Stock exists, (i) closing price on such day of a share of TVL Common Stock as reported on the principal securities exchange on which shares of TVL Common Stock are then listed or admitted to trading or (ii) if not so reported, the average of the closing bid and ask prices on such day as reported on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System or (iii) if not so reported, as furnished by any member of the NASD selected by the board of directors of TVL. The TVL Fair Market Value of a share of TVL Common Stock as of any such date on which the applicable exchange or inter-dealer quotation system through which trading in the TVL Common Stock regularly occurs is closed shall be the TVL Fair Market Value determined pursuant to the preceding sentence as of the immediately preceding date on which the TVL Common Stock is traded, a bid and ask price is reported or a trading price is reported by any member of NASD selected by the board of directors of TVL. In the event that the price of a share of TVL Common Stock shall not be so reported or furnished, the TVL Fair Market Value shall be determined by the board of directors of TVL in good faith. In any case, the TVL Fair Market Value shall be determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, to the extent applicable. For purposes of calculating the Exercisable Percentage and the Aggregate Fair Market Value, the TVL Fair Market Value shall be reduced, including to below zero, proportionately to take into account the fact that, and by the extent to which, the shares of TVL preferred stock then outstanding have a value equal to less than face value.

(ww) "TVL Stock" shall mean the shares of TVL Common Stock and the shares of TVL preferred stock, par value US $[ ] per share.

(xx) "Vesting Date" shall mean the date an Option becomes exercisable as defined in Section 4.4 herein.

3. Administration of the Plan

The Board shall administer the Plan, provided that the Board may appoint a committee to administer the Plan. In the event the Board appoints such a committee, such committee shall have the rights and duties of the Board in respect of the Plan. No member of the Board shall participate in any decision that specifically affects such member's interest in the Plan unless such decision also affects the Options of other Participants in the same manner.

3.1 Powers of the Board. In addition to the other powers granted to the Board under the Plan, the Board shall have the power: (a) to determine the Eligible Employees to whom Grants shall be made, subject to the Chief Executive Officer of the Company's right to consent with respect to Eligible Employees other than those described in clause (i) of the definition of Eligible Employees; (b) to determine the time or times when Grants shall be made and to determine the number of shares of Common Stock subject to each such Grant; (c) to prescribe the form of and terms and conditions of any instrument evidencing a Grant; (d) to adopt, amend and rescind such rules and regulations as, in its opinion, may be advisable for the administration of the Plan; (e) to construe and interpret the Plan, such rules and regulations and the instruments evidencing Grants; and (f) to make all other determinations necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan.

3.2 Determinations of the Board. Any Grant, determination, prescription or other act of the Board shall be final and conclusively binding upon all Persons.

3.3 Indemnification of the Board. No member of the Board nor the Majority Stockholder or its employees, partners, directors or associates shall be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any Grant. To the full extent permitted by law, the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each Person made or threatened to be made a party to any civil or criminal action or proceeding by reason of the fact that such Person, or such Person's testator or intestate, is or was a member of the Board or is or was a Majority Stockholder or an employee, partner, director or associate thereof, to the extent such criminal or civil action or proceeding relates to the Plan.

3.4 Compliance with Applicable Law; Securities Matters; Effectiveness of Option Exercise. The Company shall be under no obligation to effect the registration pursuant to the Securities Act of any shares of Common Stock to be issued hereunder or to effect similar compliance under any state or non-U.S. laws. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificates evidencing shares of Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of any Options, unless and until the Board has determined, with advice of counsel, that the issuance and delivery of such certificates is in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations of governmental authorities and, if applicable, the requirements of any exchange on which the shares of Common Stock are listed or traded. In addition to the terms and conditions provided herein, the Board may require that a Participant make such reasonable covenants, agreements and representations as the Board, in its sole discretion, deems advisable in order to comply with any such laws, regulations or requirements. The Company may, in its sole discretion, defer the effectiveness of an exercise of an Option hereunder or the issuance or transfer of Common Stock pursuant to any Grant pending or to ensure compliance under federal, state or non-U.S. securities laws. The Company shall inform the Participant in writing of its decision to defer the effectiveness of the exercise of an Option or the issuance or transfer of Common Stock pursuant to any Grant. During the period that the effectiveness of the exercise of an Option has been deferred, the Participant may, by written notice, withdraw such exercise and obtain the refund of any amount paid with respect thereto.

3.5 Inconsistent Terms. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Plan and the terms of any Stock Option Grant Agreement, the terms of the Plan shall govern except as otherwise provided herein.

3.6 Plan Term. The Board shall not Grant any Options under this Plan on or after the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date. All Options which remain outstanding after such date shall continue to be governed by the Plan.

3.7 Employment Agreements. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3 to the contrary, any action or determination in violation of an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity or any interpretation of any term used in an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity or any challenge to any good faith determination by the Board hereunder shall be determined, interpreted or challenged pursuant to the dispute resolution provision of such employment agreement, to the extent there is a dispute resolution provision therein.

4. Options

Subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4.13 hereof, the Board may grant to Participants Options to purchase shares of Common Stock of the Company that, in the aggregate, do not exceed 20,318,298 shares of Common Stock. To the extent that any Option granted under the Plan terminates, expires or is canceled without having been exercised, the shares of Common Stock covered by such Option shall again be available for Grant under the Plan.

4.1 Identification of Options. The Options granted under the Plan shall be clearly identified in the Stock Option Grant Agreement as Non-Qualified Stock Options.

4.2 Exercise Price. The Exercise Price of any Option granted under the Plan shall be such price as the Board shall determine (provided that such Exercise Price must be at least equal to the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the Grant Date and must be the minimum price otherwise required by applicable law, including Section 409A of the Code) and which shall be specified in the Stock Option Grant Agreement.

4.3 Grant Date. The Grant Date of the Options shall be the date designated by the Board and specified in the Stock Option Grant Agreement as of the date the Option is granted.

4.4 Vesting Date of Options.

4.4.1 Time-Based Options.

4.4.1.1 Generally. Unless otherwise specified in a Participant's Stock Option Grant Agreement, 69% of each Option granted under the Plan (the "Time-Based Option") shall vest and become exercisable as follows: 25% shall vest on the first anniversary of the Grant Date, and the remainder shall vest in equal installments of 4.6875% at the end of each successive three month period commencing on the first anniversary of the Grant Date, until 100% of the Time-Based Option is fully vested and exercisable, subject in all cases to the Participant's continued Employment through the applicable Vesting Date. Unless the Committee provides otherwise, the vesting of the Time-Based Option may be suspended during any leave of absence as may be set forth by Company policy, if any.

4.4.1.2 Accelerated Vesting on a Qualifying Termination. In the event of a Qualifying Termination, all outstanding Time-Based Options held by the Participant shall immediately vest and become exercisable as of such Qualifying Termination.

4.4.2 Performance-Based Options. Unless otherwise specified in a Participant's Stock Option Grant Agreement, 31% of each Option granted under the Plan (the "Performance-Based Option") shall vest and become exercisable only following a Liquidity Event, and only in the event the Majority Stockholder achieves a minimum MoM, as set forth in this Section 4.4.2, subject to the Participant's continued Employment through the Liquidity Event or, in the case of a determination of MoM following the third anniversary of the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, through the relevant 90 consecutive trading day determination period:

	Applicable Minimum MoM
Year	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011 & Beyond
Tranche 1 (33.3% of Performance-Based Options)	1.20	1.40	1.60	1.80	2.00
Tranche 2 (33.3% of Performance-Based Options)	1.58	1.75	1.91	2.07	2.31
Tranche 3 (33.3% of Performance-Based Options)	1.95	2.15	2.25	2.36	2.65

The calculation of MoM shall be a continuing calculation to determine whether the applicable minimum MoM has been achieved in accordance with this Section 4.4.2 (i) upon the occurrence of any Liquidity Event; and (ii) following the third anniversary of the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock. The Board shall determine, in good faith, the MoM achieved and shall determine the extent to which the Performance-Based Options will vest and become exercisable, if at all. Following the sale, transfer or disposition of all or substantially all of the shares of Common Stock or TVL Common Stock held by the Majority Stockholder or the assets of the Company or TVL in a transaction or series of transactions and pursuant to which the Majority Stockholder has received cash, as determined by the Board in good faith, any Performance-Based Options that have not vested and become exercisable, and, in the case of a sale, transfer or disposition of less than all of the shares of Common Stock or TVL Common Stock held by the Majority Stockholder or the assets of the Company or TVL, that the Board determines in good faith could not and will not become vested and exercisable, shall be forfeited.

Prior to any contemplated Liquidity Event or any sale, transfer or disposition following a Liquidity Event in which the Majority Stockholder is receiving cash, the Board shall make a projection using such methodologies and parameters and taking into account such factors as it, in its sole discretion, deems appropriate with respect to the expected MoM to be achieved upon such Liquidity Event or sale, transfer or disposition, and, to the extent the projection estimates an MoM that would result in some or all of the Performance-Based Options vesting and becoming exercisable, the Performance-Based Options shall be deemed vested to the applicable extent and solely for the purpose of permitting the Participant to participate in such Liquidity Event or sale, transfer or disposition with the shares of Common Stock underlying such Performance-Based Options.

4.5 Expiration of Options. With respect to each Participant, such Participant's Option(s), or portion thereof, which have not become exercisable shall expire on the date such Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason unless otherwise specified in the Stock Option Grant Agreement. With respect to each Participant, each Participant's Option(s), or any portion thereof, which have become exercisable on or before the date such Participant's Employment is terminated (or that become exercisable as a result of such termination) shall, subject to Section 4.10 below, unless otherwise provided in the Participant's Stock Option Grant Agreement, expire on the earlier of (i) the commencement of business on the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for Cause; (ii) 90 days after the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason other than Cause, death or Disability; (iii) one year after the date the Participant's Employment is terminated by reason of death or Disability; or (iv) the 10th anniversary of the Grant Date for such Option(s). All Options, whether vested or unvested, that have not sooner expired shall expire no later than the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date. Any Option, or portion thereof, that has become exercisable by a Permitted Transferee on account of the death of a Participant shall expire one year after the date such deceased Participant's Employment terminated by reason of death, unless otherwise provided in the Participant's Stock Option Grant Agreement, and any Option or portion thereof that has been transferred to a Permitted Transferee during the lifetime of a Participant shall expire in connection with the Participant's termination of Employment at the time set forth under this Section 4.5 as if the Option were held directly by the Participant, unless otherwise provided in the Participant's Stock Option Grant Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may specify in the Stock Option Grant Agreement one or more different expiration dates or periods (not to exceed 10 years from the Grant Date) for any Option granted hereunder, and such expiration date or period shall supersede the foregoing expiration periods.

4.6 Limitation on Transfer. Each Option granted to a Participant shall be exercisable only by such Participant, except that a Participant may assign or transfer his or her rights with respect to any or all of the Options held by such Participant to: (i) such Participant's beneficiaries or estate upon the death of the Participant (by will, by the laws of descent and distribution or otherwise) and (ii) subject to the prior written approval by the Board and compliance with all applicable tax, securities and other laws, any trust or custodianship created by the Participant, the beneficiaries of which may include only the Participant, the Participant's spouse or the Participant's lineal descendants (by blood or adoption) (each of (i) and (ii), a "Permitted Transferee").

4.7 Condition Precedent to Transfer of Any Option. It shall be a condition precedent to any Transfer of any Option by any Participant that the Transferee, shall agree prior to the Transfer in writing with the Company to be bound by the terms of the Plan, the Stock Option Grant Agreement and the Management Stockholder's Agreement as if he, she or it had been an original signatory thereto, except that any provisions of the Plan based on the Employment (or termination thereof) of the original Participant shall continue to be based on the Employment (or termination thereof) of the original Participant.

4.8 Effect of Void Transfers. In the event of any purported Transfer of any Options in violation of the provisions of the Plan, such purported Transfer shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be void and of no effect.

4.9 Exercise of Options. A Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable) may exercise any or all of the vested Options by serving an Exercise Notice on the Company as provided in Section 4.10 hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, except as otherwise provided in the Stock Option Grant Agreement, the Option or any portion thereof may only be exercised to the extent of the Exercisable Percentage.

4.10 Method of Exercise. Subject to Section 4.9, the Option shall be exercised by delivery of written notice to the Company's principal office (the "Exercise Notice"), to the attention of its Secretary, no less than five business days in advance of the effective date of the proposed exercise (the "Exercise Date"). Such notice shall (a) specify the number of shares of Common Stock with respect to which the Option is being exercised, the Grant Date of such Option and the Exercise Date, (b) be signed by the Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable), (c) prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, indicate in writing that the Participant agrees to be bound by the Management Stockholders' Agreement, and (d) if the Option is being exercised by the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s), such Permitted Transferee(s) shall indicate in writing that they agree to and shall be bound by the Plan and Stock Option Grant Agreement as if they had been original signatories thereto (as provided in Section 4.7 hereof) and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, by the Management Stockholders' Agreement. The Exercise Notice shall include payment in cash for an amount equal to the Exercise Price multiplied by the number of shares of Common Stock specified in such Exercise Notice or any method otherwise approved by the Board. In addition, the Participant shall be responsible for the payment of applicable withholding and other taxes in cash (or shares of Common Stock if approved by the Board) that may become due as a result of the exercise of such Option. The Board may, in its sole discretion, permit the person exercising an Option to make the above-described payments in forms other than cash. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except in the case of a Participant (i) whose Employment has been terminated for Cause or (ii) whose Employment has terminated or will terminate and such Participant has Competed or such Participant's subsequent employment is likely to result in such Participant Competing, as determined by the Board in good faith, the Company will permit such Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable) to exercise all or any portion of his or her then-exercisable Option through net-physical settlement (to satisfy both the exercise price and any applicable withholding taxes), but only to the extent such right or the utilization of such right would not cause the Option to be subject to Section 409A of the Code and to the extent the Board, in its good faith judgment, determines that exercise through net-physical settlement is permitted by, and will not result in any default under, any agreement to which the Company or its Affiliates is a party and that the Company and its Affiliates have sufficient liquidity. The partial exercise of the Option, alone, shall not cause the expiration, termination or cancellation of the remaining Options.

4.11 Certificates of Shares. Subject to Section 3.4 herein, upon the exercise of the Options in accordance with Section 4.10 and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, upon execution of the Management Stockholders' Agreement, in the Board's sole discretion, certificates of shares of Common Stock may be issued in the name of the Participant and delivered to such Participant or the ownership of such shares shall be otherwise recorded in a book-entry or similar system utilized by the Company as soon as practicable following the Exercise Date. Prior to the existence of a Public Market, no shares of Common Stock shall be issued to or recorded in the name of any Participant until such Participant agrees to be bound by and executes the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

4.12 Amendment of Terms of Options. The Board may, in its sole discretion, amend the Plan or terms of any Option, provided, however, that any such amendment shall not impair or adversely affect the Participants' existing rights under the Plan or such Option without such Participant's written consent.

4.13 Adjustment Upon Changes in Company Stock.

4.13.1 Increase or Decrease in Issued Shares Without Consideration. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of the Company, in the event of any increase or decrease in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from a subdivision or consolidation of shares of Common Stock or the payment of a stock dividend (but only on the shares of Common Stock), or any other increase or decrease in the number of such shares effected without receipt of consideration by the Company, the Board shall make such adjustments with respect to the number of shares of Common Stock subject to grant under this Plan, the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the Options and/or the Exercise Price per share of Common Stock, as the Board may, in its good faith discretion, consider appropriate to prevent the enlargement or dilution of rights.

4.13.2 Certain Mergers. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of the Company, in the event that the Company shall be the surviving corporation in any merger or consolidation (except a merger or consolidation as a result of which the holders of shares of Common Stock receive securities of another corporation), the Options outstanding on the date of such merger or consolidation shall pertain to and apply to the securities that a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock subject to any such Option would have received in such merger or consolidation (it being understood that if, in connection with such transaction, the stockholders of the Company retain their shares of Common Stock and are not entitled to any additional or other consideration, the Options shall not be affected by such transaction).

4.13.3 Certain Other Transactions. Except as otherwise provided in a Participant's Stock Option Grant Agreement, in the event of (i) a dissolution or liquidation of the Company, (ii) a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, (iii) a merger or consolidation involving the Company in which the Company is not the surviving corporation or (iv) a merger or consolidation involving the Company in which the Company is the surviving corporation but the holders of shares of Common Stock receive securities of another corporation and/or other property, including cash, the Board shall, in its good faith discretion, (a) have the power to provide for the exchange of each Option outstanding immediately prior to such event (whether or not then exercisable) for an option on some or all of the property for which the stock underlying such Options are exchanged and, incident thereto, make an equitable adjustment, as determined by the Board, in the exercise price of the options, or the number or kind of securities or amount of property subject to the options and/or, (b) if appropriate, cancel, effective immediately prior to such event, any outstanding Option (whether or not exercisable or vested) and in full consideration of such cancellation pay to the Participant an amount in cash, with respect to each underlying share of Common Stock, equal to the excess of (1) the value, as determined by the Board in its good faith discretion of securities and/or property (including cash) received by such holders of shares of Common Stock as a result of such event over (2) the Exercise Price, as the Board may consider appropriate to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

4.13.4 Extraordinary Dividends. In the event the Company pays an extraordinary cash dividend to the holders of its Common Stock, (a) with respect to vested and exercisable Options then outstanding on the date such dividend is paid (the "Payment Date"), the Company shall pay to each Option holder on the Payment Date, pursuant to a separate arrangement that in no way relates to the exercise of any of the Options, a cash bonus equal to the amount that he or she would have received if he or she owned the Shares underlying such vested and exercisable Options as of the record date for such extraordinary dividend, and (b) with respect to any unvested Options then outstanding on the Payment Date, the Company shall either, at the Company's option if and only if such right or the utilization of such right would not cause the Option to fail to be exempt from Section 409A of the Code and in any event in a manner that complies with Section 409A of the Code, (i) adjust the Exercise Price and/or number of shares of Common Stock subject to such unvested Options to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights, in such manner as the Board shall determine in good faith, or (ii) provide, to each Option holder, pursuant to a separate arrangement that in no way relates to the exercise of any of the Options, for the crediting of a notional account (a "Notional Account") of an amount equal to a cash bonus equal to the amount that he or she would have received if he or she owned the Shares underlying such unvested and exercisable Options as of the record date for such extraordinary dividend, which amount shall accrue interest at a reasonable interest rate determined in good faith by the Board. Any cash bonus (plus interest thereon) referred to in clause (ii) of the preceding sentence will be paid in pro rata installments over the remaining vesting period of the unvested Options to which such bonus relates on each Vesting Date that follows the Payment Date, commencing with the first Vesting Date following the Payment Date. A Participant will forfeit any right to any bonus (plus interest thereon) referred to in clause (ii) above that has not come due as of his or her termination of Employment, unless the termination of Employment is a Qualifying Termination in which case the Company will pay all remaining bonus payments (plus interest thereon) with respect to the Time-Based Options on the date of termination of Employment, subject to applicable law. If it is determined that any adjustment of the Exercise Price or any bonus payment or the provision of interest thereon referred to in this Section 4.13.4 does not comply with Section 409A or it causes the Options to fail to be exempt from Section 409A, the Company and the Option holder shall use their reasonable efforts and take reasonable actions necessary to put the Option holder in the same position he or she would have been in if the adjustment or payment was permitted under Section 409A, to the extent reasonably practicable.

4.13.5 Other Changes. In the event of any change in the capitalization of the Company or a corporate change other than those specifically referred to in Sections 4.13.1 through 4.13.4 hereof, or in the event any change in the capitalization of the Company or a corporate change referred to in Sections 4.13.1 through 4.13.4 hereof requires it, notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 4.13.1 through 4.13.4 above, the Board shall, in its sole discretion, make such adjustments in the number and kind of shares or securities subject to Options outstanding on the date on which such change occurs and in the per-share Exercise Price of each such Option, or to the terms governing such Option, as the Board may consider appropriate, to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

4.13.6 No Other Rights. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or the Stock Option Grant Agreements evidencing the Options, the Participants shall not have any rights by reason of (i) any subdivision or consolidation of shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, (ii) the payment of any dividend, any increase or decrease in the number of shares of Common Stock, or (iii) any dissolution, liquidation, merger or consolidation of the Company or any other corporation. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or the Stock Option Grant Agreements evidencing the Options, no issuance by the Company of shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the Options or the Exercise Price of such Options.

4.13.7 Savings Clause. No provision of this Section 4.13 shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code and the Company, upon reasonable request from a Participant, shall amend the Plan as necessary to comply with Section 409A of the Code, but maintain the economic intent thereof.

5. Miscellaneous

5.1 Rights as Stockholders. The Participants shall not have any rights as stockholders with respect to any shares of Common Stock covered by or relating to the Options granted pursuant to the Plan until the date the Participants become the registered owners (directly or indirectly) of such shares. Except as otherwise expressly provided in Sections 4.12 and 4.13 hereof, no adjustment to the Options shall be made for dividends or other rights for which the record date occurs prior to the effective date such stock is registered.

5.2 No Special Employment Rights. Nothing contained in the Plan shall confer upon the Participants any right with respect to the continuation of their Employment or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any Affiliated Entity, subject to the terms of any separate Employment agreements to the contrary, at any time to terminate such Employment or to increase or decrease the compensation of the Participants from the rate in existence at the time of the grant of any Option.

5.3 No Obligation to Exercise. The Grant to the Participants of the Options shall impose no obligation upon the Participants to exercise such Options.

5.4 Restrictions on Common Stock. The rights and obligations of the Participants with respect to Common Stock obtained through the exercise of any Option provided in the Plan shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

5.5 Notices. Each notice and other communication hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given and shall be deemed to have been duly given on the date it is delivered in person, on the next business day if delivered by overnight mail or other reputable overnight courier, or the third business day if sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the parties as follows:

5.6 Descriptive Headings. The headings in the Plan are for convenience of reference only and shall not limit or otherwise affect the meaning of the terms contained herein.

5.7 Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions, subdivisions, words, clauses, phrases or sentences contained herein, or the application thereof in any circumstances, is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect for any reason, the validity, legality and enforceability of any such provision, subdivision, word, clause, phrase or sentence in every other respect and of the remaining provisions, subdivisions, words, clauses, phrases or sentences hereof shall not in any way be impaired, it being intended that all rights, powers and privileges of the Company and Participants shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Exhibit 10.9

STOCK OPTION GRANT AGREEMENT
(Non-Qualified Stock Options)

THIS AGREEMENT, made as of this <DATE> of <MONTH> 20XX between Sovereign Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") and <NAME> (the "Participant").

WHEREAS, the Company has adopted and maintains the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. Management Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan") to promote the interests of the Company and its Affiliates and stockholders by providing the Company's key employees and others with an appropriate incentive to encourage them to continue in the employ of and provide services for the Company or its Affiliates and to improve the growth and profitability of the Company;

WHEREAS, the Plan provides for the Grant to Participants in the Plan of Non-Qualified Stock Options to purchase shares of Common Stock of the Company.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of Options. Pursuant to, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the Plan, the Company hereby grants to the Participant a NON-QUALIFIED STOCK OPTION (the "Option") with respect to <NUMBER OF SHARES> shares of Common Stock of the Company. 100% of the Option will be a Time-Based Option to purchase <NUMBER OF SHARES> shares of Common Stock.

2. Grant Date. The Grant Date of the Option hereby granted is <DATE>. [Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of vesting under Section 4.4 of the Plan, the Grant Date shall be <DATE>.]

3. Incorporation of Plan. All terms, conditions and restrictions of the Plan are incorporated herein and made part hereof as if stated herein. If there is any conflict between the terms and conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Plan, as interpreted by the Board, shall govern. All capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Plan.

4. Exercise Price; Exercisability. The exercise price of each share of Common Stock underlying the Option hereby granted is $<GRANT PRICE>. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that the exercise of the Option is subject to the terms of the Plan, including pursuant to Sections 4.9 and 4.10, and that the Participant's ability to exercise Options is limited to the Exercisable Percentage.

5. Construction of Agreement. Any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) which is deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction and subject to this section, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability, without affecting in any way the remaining provisions thereof in such jurisdiction or rendering that or any other provisions of this Agreement invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any other jurisdiction. If any covenant should be deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable because its scope is considered excessive, such covenant shall be modified so that the scope of the covenant is reduced only to the minimum extent necessary to render the modified covenant valid, legal and enforceable. No waiver of any provision or violation of this Agreement by the Company shall be implied by the Company's forbearance or failure to take action. No provision of this Agreement shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code.

6. Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party hereto upon any breach or default of any party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

7. Limitation on Transfer. The Option shall be exercisable only by the Participant or the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s), as determined in accordance with the terms of the Plan (including without limitation the requirement that the Participant obtain the prior written approval by the Board of any proposed Transfer to a Permitted Transferee during the lifetime of the Participant). Each Permitted Transferee shall be subject to all the restrictions, obligations, and responsibilities as apply to the Participant under the Plan and this Stock Option Grant Agreement and shall be entitled to all the rights of the Participant under the Plan, provided that in respect of any Permitted Transferee which is a trust or custodianship, the Option shall become exercisable and/or expire based on the Employment and termination of Employment of the Participant. All shares of Common Stock obtained pursuant to the Option granted herein shall not be transferred except as provided in the Plan and, where applicable, the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

8. Integration. This Agreement, and the other documents referred to herein or delivered pursuant hereto which form a part hereof contain the entire understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter. There are no restrictions, agreements, promises, representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings with respect to the subject matter hereof other than those expressly set forth herein and in the Plan. This Agreement, including without limitation the Plan, supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to its subject matter.

9. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

10. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the provisions governing conflict of laws.

11. Participant Acknowledgment. The Participant hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Plan. The Participant hereby acknowledges that all decisions, determinations and interpretations of the Board in respect of the Plan, this Agreement and the Option shall be final and conclusive. The Participant further acknowledges that, prior to the existence of a Public Market, no exercise of the Option or any portion thereof shall be effective unless and until the Participant has executed the Management Stockholders' Agreement and the Participant hereby agrees to be bound thereby.

TRAVELOCITY.COM LLC
STOCK OPTION GRANT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made as of this <DATE> by and among Sovereign Holdings, Inc. ("Sovereign"), Travelocity.com LLC (the "Company"), and <NAME> (the "Participant").

WHEREAS, pursuant to, and subject to, the terms of the Limited Liability Company Agreement (the "LLC Agreement") of the Company, the Company may grant options to purchase common units of the Company (the "Common Units");

WHEREAS, the Company granted, on or around the Formation Date, as such term is defined in the LLC Agreement, the Initial Options, as such term is defined in the LLC Agreement, to Travelocity Holdings Inc., which Initial Options were ultimately distributed to Sovereign; and

WHEREAS, Sovereign desires to transfer certain of the Initial Options, as set forth herein, to the Participant, subject to the terms and conditions hereof and the LLC Agreement;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of Options. Pursuant to, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the LLC Agreement, Sovereign hereby transfers to the Participant a non-qualified stock option (the "Option") with respect to <UNITS> Common Units of the Company. The grant date of the Option hereby granted is <DATE> (the "Grant Date"). The exercise price of the Option hereby granted is <PRICE> (<PRICE SPELLED OUT>), which exercise price shall increase quarterly at 6.00% per annum until exercise of the Option (the "Exercise Price").

2. Definitions.

As used in this Agreement, the following capitalized terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Affiliate" shall mean the Company and any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries.

(b) "Affiliated Entity" shall mean any entity related to the Company as a member of a controlled group of corporations in accordance with Section 414(b) of the Code or as a trade or business under common control in accordance with Section 414(c) of the Code, for so long as such entity is so related, including without limitation any Affiliate.

(c) "Aggregate Exercise Price" shall mean the sum of (1) the Exercise Price, at the time of Exercise, and (2) the Sovereign Exercise Price.

(d) "Aggregate Fair Market Value" shall mean, at the time of the determination of the Exercisable Percentage, the sum of (i) the Fair Market Value, and (ii) the Sovereign Fair Market Value.

(e) "Board" shall mean the Management Committee, if any, and otherwise the members of the Company holding Preferred Units.

(f) "Cause" shall mean, when used in connection with the termination of a Participant's Employment, (i) if the Participant has an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity as of the Grant Date, the definition used in such employment agreement as of the Grant Date, or (ii) if the Participant does not have an effective employment agreement, the termination of the Participant's Employment on account of (i) a failure of the Participant to substantially perform his or her duties (other than as a result of physical or mental illness or injury); (ii) the Participant's willful misconduct or gross negligence which is injurious to the Company, any Affiliated Entity, the Majority Stockholder or any of its affiliates (whether financially, reputationally or otherwise); (iii) a breach by the Participant of the Participant's fiduciary duty or duty of loyalty to the Company or any Affiliated Entity; (iv) the Participant's unauthorized removal from the premises of the Company or any Affiliated Entity of any document (in any medium or form) relating to the Company, any Affiliated Entity, the Majority Stockholder, or the customers of the Company or any Affiliated Entity other than in the good faith performance of the Participant's duties; or (v) the indictment or a plea of nolo contendere by the Participant of any felony or other serious crime involving moral turpitude. Any rights the Company or any Affiliated Entity may have hereunder in respect of the events giving rise to Cause shall be in addition to the rights the Company or Affiliated Entity may have under any other agreement with the Employee or at law or in equity. If, subsequent to the termination of Employment of the Participant without an effective employment agreement at the time of grant, it is discovered that the Participant's Employment could have been terminated for Cause, as such term is defined above, the Participant's Employment shall, at the election of the Board, in its sole discretion, be deemed to have been terminated for Cause retroactively to the date the events giving rise to Cause occurred. Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, even if an effective employment agreement as of the Grant Date was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Cause (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity).

(g) "Change in Control" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events after the Grant Date: (i) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company or Parent on a consolidated basis to any Person or group of related persons for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act (a "Group"), together with any affiliates thereof, other than to a Majority Stockholder; (ii) the approval by the holders of the outstanding voting power of the Company or Parent of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the Company or Parent; (iii) (A) any Person or Group (other than the Majority Stockholder) shall become the beneficial owner (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of Common Units or shares of common stock of Parent representing more than 40% of the aggregate outstanding voting power of the Company or Parent, as applicable, and such Person or Group actually has the power to vote such Common Units or shares of common stock of Parent in any such election and (B) the Majority Stockholder beneficially owns (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, in the aggregate a lesser percentage of the voting power of the Company or Parent than such other Person or Group; or (iv) the replacement of a majority of the directors on the board of directors of Parent over a two-year period from the directors who constituted such board of directors of Parent at the beginning of such period, and such replacement shall not have been approved by a vote of at least a majority of the directors on the board of directors of Parent then still in office who either were members of such board of directors of Parent at the beginning of such period or whose election as a member of such board of directors of Parent was previously so approved or who were nominated by, or designees of, a Majority Stockholder or (v) consummation of a merger or consolidation of the Company or Parent with another entity in which (A) the holders of the Common Units of the Company or shares of common stock of Parent immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction hold, directly or indirectly, immediately following the consummation of the transaction, less than 50% of the common equity interests in the surviving corporation in such transaction and (B) the Majority Stockholder holds less than 35% of the common equity interests in the surviving corporation in such transaction.

(h) "Code" shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(i) "Compete" shall mean with respect to any Participant who (i) is party to an effective employment agreement or an effective non-competition and/or non-solicitation agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity, in each case as of the Grant Date, the failure to comply with any obligation thereunder not to compete or solicit employees, customers and suppliers (and has not promptly cured any such non-compliance to the extent the opportunity to cure is provided in any such employment, non-competition or non-solicitation agreement, to the extent such non-compliance is curable); and (ii) is not party to an effective employment agreement or an effective non-competition and/or non-solicitation agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity, during Employment and for the one year period following the termination of such Participant's Employment, (A) becoming an employee, director, or independent contractor of, or a consultant to, or performing any services for, any Person engaged in activities competitive to those of the Company or any Affiliated Entity or (B) soliciting or hiring or attempting to solicit or hire (1) any customer or supplier in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company or any Affiliated Entity or (2) any Employee or individual who was an Employee within the six-month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his or her Employment with the Company or any Affiliated Entity. Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, (x) "Competing" shall not include activities that Compete with such entity so long as such activities do not Compete with the Company or any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity, and (y) even if an effective employment agreement or an effective non-competition and/or non-solicitation agreement as of the Grant Date was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Competing (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity). "Competed" and "Competing" shall have correlative meanings.

(j) "Disability" shall mean a permanent disability as defined in the Company's or an Affiliate's disability plans, or as defined from time to time by the Company, in its sole discretion, provided that in the event the Participant is party to an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity as of the Grant Date, and such agreement contains or operates under a different definition of Disability (or any derivative of such term), the definition of Disability used in such agreement at the time of grant shall be substituted for the definition set forth above for all purposes hereunder.

(k) "Employment" shall mean, except as otherwise required by Section 409A of the Code, employment with the Company or any Affiliated Entity, and shall include the provision of services as a director or consultant for the Company or any Affiliated Entity. A Participant's Employment shall terminate on the date the Participant is no longer employed by an entity that is at least one of (i) the Company, (ii) an Affiliate, or (iii) an entity that is an Affiliated Entity as of such date. "Employee" and "Employed" shall have correlative meanings.

(l) "Exchange Act" shall mean the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

(m) "Exercisable Percentage" shall mean, in the event a Participant desires to exercise Options that have Related Sovereign Options, (i) if the Aggregate Fair Market Value is greater than the Aggregate Exercise Price, then the percentage (not to exceed 100%) calculated as follows: 100 multiplied by the quotient of (A) the Aggregate Fair Market Value minus the Aggregate Exercise Price divided by (B) the Fair Market Value minus the Exercise Price, in each case at the time of determination of the Exercisable Percentage; and (ii) if the Aggregate Fair Market Value is less than or equal to the Aggregate Exercise Price, then 0%.

(n) "Exercise Date" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.7 hereof.

(o) "Exercise Notice" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.7 hereof.

(p) "Exercise Window" shall have the meaning set forth in Section 4.6 hereof.

(q) "Fair Market Value" shall mean, as of any date (1) prior to the existence of a Public Market for the TVL Common Stock, the value per share of TVL Common Stock as determined in good faith by the board of directors of TVL (the "TVL Board") and taking into account the fair market value of the entire equity of TVL and any relevant factors determinative of value, without, however, giving effect to any discount attributable to the size of any person's holdings of shares of TVL Common Stock, any minority interest or any voting rights or lack thereof; or (2) on which a Public Market for the shares of TVL Common Stock exists, (i) closing price on such day of a share of TVL Common Stock as reported on the principal securities exchange on which the shares of TVL Common Stock are then listed or admitted to trading or (ii) if not so reported, the average of the closing bid and ask prices on such day as reported on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System or (iii) if not so reported, as furnished by any member of the NASD selected by the TVL Board. The Fair Market Value of a share of TVL Common Stock as of any such date on which the applicable exchange or inter-dealer quotation system through which trading in TVL Common Stock regularly occurs is closed shall be the Fair Market Value determined pursuant to the preceding sentence as of the immediately preceding date on which the TVL Common Stock is traded, a bid and ask price is reported or a trading price is reported by any member of NASD selected by the Board. In the event that the price of a share of TVL Common Stock shall not be so reported or furnished, the Fair Market Value shall be determined by the TVL Board in good faith. In any case, the Fair Market Value shall be determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, to the extent applicable. For purposes of calculating the Exercisable Percentage and the Aggregate Fair Market Value, the Fair Market Value of a share of TVL Common Stock shall be reduced, including to below zero, proportionately to take into account the fact that, and by the extent to which, a preferred share of TVL then outstanding has a value equal to less than face value.

(r) "Good Reason" shall mean (i) a material diminution in the Participant's duties and responsibilities other than a change in the Participant's duties and responsibilities that results from becoming part of a larger organization following a Change in Control, (ii) a decrease in the Participant's base salary or bonus opportunity other than a proportionate decrease in bonus opportunity of less than 10% that applies to employees generally of the Company or its Affiliates otherwise eligible to participate in the affected plan, or (iii) a relocation of the Participant's primary work location more than 50 miles from the Participant's work location immediately prior to the Grant Date, without the Participant's prior written consent; provided, that, within twenty days following the occurrence of any of the events set forth herein, the Participant shall have delivered written notice to the Company of his or her intention to terminate his or her Employment for Good Reason, which notice specifies in reasonable detail the circumstances claimed to give rise to the Participant's right to terminate Employment for Good Reason, and the Company shall not have cured such circumstances within twenty days following the Company's receipt of such notice. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, as of the Grant Date, the Participant is a party to an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity that contains a different definition of the term "Good Reason" (or any derivation of such term), the definition in such employment agreement shall control. Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, even if an effective employment agreement at the time of grant was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Good Reason (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity).

(s) "Majority Stockholder" shall mean, collectively or individually as the context requires, TPG Partners IV, L.P., TPG Partners V, L.P, Silver Lake Technology Investors II, L.P., Silver Lake Partners II, L.P. and/or their respective affiliates.

(v) "NASD" shall mean the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

(y) "Person" shall mean an individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, trust or joint venture, or a governmental agency or political subdivision thereof.

(z) "Preferred Units" shall have the meaning set forth in the LLC Agreement.

(aa) "Public Market" shall be deemed to exist for purposes hereof if the shares of TVL Common Stock or Sovereign Common Stock or the Common Units, as applicable, are registered under Section 12(b) or 12(g) of the Exchange Act and trading regularly occurs in, on or through the facilities of securities exchanges and/or inter-dealer quotation systems in the United States (within the meaning of Section 902(n) of the Securities Act) or any designated offshore securities market (within the meaning of Rule 902(a) of the Securities Act).

(bb) "Qualifying Termination" shall mean (i) a termination of the Participant's Employment by the Company (and all then-Affiliated Entities) without Cause or by the Participant for Good Reason, (ii) a termination of the Participant's employment, prior to the expiration of the Options in accordance with Section 4.2, by all entities that were, immediately prior to the Change in Control, Affiliated Entities and cease, upon the Change in Control, to be Affiliated Entities, without Cause or by the Participant for Good Reason, or (iii) a termination of the Participant's Employment in the event of the Participant's death or Disability, in each of (i), (ii) or (iii) following a Change in Control. It is understood that the Participant shall not have a Qualifying Termination by virtue of ceasing to be Employed by an entity or its subsidiaries undergoing a Change in Control where, following such Change in Control, the Participant remains employed by an entity that was an Affiliated Entity of the entity or its subsidiaries undergoing such Change in Control immediately prior to such Change in Control.

(ii) if not so reported, the average of the closing bid and ask prices on such day as reported on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System or (iii) if not so reported, as furnished by any member of the NASD selected by the board of directors of Sovereign. The Sovereign Fair Market Value of a share of Sovereign Common Stock as of any such date on which the applicable exchange or inter-dealer quotation system through which trading in the Sovereign Common Stock regularly occurs is closed shall be the Sovereign Fair Market Value determined pursuant to the preceding sentence as of the immediately preceding date on which the Sovereign Common Stock is traded, a bid and ask price is reported or a trading price is reported by any member of NASD selected by the board of directors of Sovereign. In the event that the price of a share of Sovereign Common Stock shall not be so reported or furnished, the Sovereign Fair Market Value shall be determined by the board of directors of Sovereign in good faith. In any case, the Sovereign Fair Market Value shall be determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, to the extent applicable. For purposes of calculating the Exercisable Percentage and the Aggregate Fair Market Value, the Sovereign Fair Market Value of a share of Sovereign Common Stock shall be reduced, including to below zero, proportionately to take into account the fact that, and by the extent to which, a preferred share of Sovereign then outstanding has a value equal to less than face value.

(hh) "Sovereign Plan" shall mean the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. Management Equity Incentive Plan, as may be amended from time to time in accordance with its terms.

(kk) "Vesting Date" shall mean the date the Option becomes exercisable as defined in Section 4.1 herein.

3. Administration of the Plan

3.1 Powers of the Board; Compliance with Applicable Law; Securities Matters; Effectiveness of Option Exercise. The Board shall have the power to construe and interpret this Agreement. The Company shall be under no obligation to effect the registration pursuant to the Securities Act of any Common Units to be issued hereunder or to effect similar compliance under any state or non-U.S. laws. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificates evidencing Common Units pursuant to the exercise of the Option, unless and until the Board has determined, with advice of counsel, that the issuance and delivery of such certificates is in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations of governmental authorities and, if applicable, the requirements of any exchange on which the Common Units are listed or traded. In addition to the terms and conditions provided herein, the Board may require that a Participant make such reasonable covenants, agreements and representations as the Board, in its sole discretion, deems advisable in order to comply with any such laws, regulations or requirements. The Company may, in its sole discretion, defer the effectiveness of an exercise of the Option or the issuance or transfer of Common Units pending or to ensure compliance under federal, state or non-U.S. securities laws. The Company shall inform the Participant in writing of its decision to defer the effectiveness of the exercise of the Option or the issuance or transfer of Common Units. During the period that the effectiveness of the exercise of the Option has been deferred, the Participant may, by written notice, withdraw such exercise and obtain the refund of any amount paid with respect thereto. The Company shall also continue to have any and all rights with respect to the Option pursuant to the terms of the LLC Agreement.

3.2 Employment Agreements. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3 to the contrary, any action or determination in violation of an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity or any interpretation of any term used in an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity or any challenge to any good faith determination by the Board hereunder shall be determined, interpreted or challenged pursuant to the dispute resolution provision of such employment agreement, to the extent there is a dispute resolution provision therein.

4. Vesting; Expiration; Adjustment

4.1 Vesting Date of Options. The Option shall vest as follows: 25% shall vest on the first anniversary of the Grant Date, and the remainder shall vest in equal installments of 4.6875% at the end of each successive three month period commencing on the first anniversary of the Grant Date, until 100% of the Option is fully vested, subject in all cases to the Participant's continued Employment through each such date (each such date, a "Vesting Date"). Unless the Board determines otherwise, vesting of the Option may be suspended during any leave of absence as may be set forth by Company policy, if any. In the event of a Qualifying Termination, the Option shall immediately vest and become exercisable as of such Qualifying Termination, subject to Section 4.6 and the provisions of the LLC Agreement.

4.2 Expiration of Options. The Option, or portion thereof, which has not become vested and exercisable shall expire on the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason. The Option, or any portion thereof, which has become vested and exercisable on or before the date the Participant's Employment is terminated (or that become exercisable as a result of such termination) shall, subject to Section 4.6 below and the provisions of the LLC Agreement, expire on the earlier of (i) the commencement of business on the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for Cause; (ii) the end of the first full Exercise Window occurring after the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason other than Cause, death or Disability; (iii) one year after the date the Participant's Employment is terminated by reason of death or Disability; or (iv) the 10th anniversary of the Grant Date. The Option, whether vested or unvested, shall in any event expire no later than the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date. The Option, or portion thereof, that has become exercisable by a Permitted Transferee on account of the death of the Participant shall expire one year after the date the Participant's Employment terminated by reason of death, and the Option, or portion thereof, that has been transferred to a Permitted Transferee during the lifetime of the Participant shall expire in connection with the Participant's termination of Employment at the time set forth under this Section 4.2 as if the Option were held directly by the Participant.

4.3 Limitation on Transfer. The Option shall be exercisable only by the Participant, except that the Participant may assign or transfer his or her rights to: (i) the Participant's beneficiaries or estate upon the death of the Participant (by will, by the laws of descent and distribution or otherwise) and (ii) subject to the prior written approval by the Board and compliance with all applicable tax, securities and other laws, any trust or custodianship created by the Participant, the beneficiaries of which may include only the Participant, the Participant's spouse or the Participant's lineal descendants (by blood or adoption) (each of (i) and (ii), a "Permitted Transferee").

4.4 Condition Precedent to Transfer of Any Option. It shall be a condition precedent to any Transfer of the Option by the Participant that the Transferee shall agree prior to the Transfer in writing with the Company to be bound by the terms of this Agreement, the LLC Agreement and the Management Stockholder's Agreement as if he, she or it had been an original signatory thereto, except that any provisions based on the employment (or termination thereof) of the Participant shall continue to be based on the employment (or termination thereof) of the Participant.

4.5 Effect of Void Transfers. In the event of any purported Transfer of the Option in violation of the provisions of this Agreement, such purported Transfer shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be void and of no effect.

4.6 Exercise of Options. The Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable) may exercise any or all of the vested Options by serving an Exercise Notice on the Company as provided in Section 4.7 hereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary herein, (i) if the Option has a Related Sovereign Option, the Option may only be exercised to the extent of the Exercisable Percentage; and (ii) except as otherwise determined by the Board, the Option may only be exercised within the period commencing on June 1 and ending on June 30 or the period commencing on December 1 and ending on December 31 of each year (each such period, an "Exercise Window").

4.7 Method of Exercise. Subject to Section 4.6, the Option shall be exercised by delivery of written notice to the Company (the "Exercise Notice") no less than five business days in advance of the effective date of the proposed exercise (the "Exercise Date"). Such notice shall (a) specify the number of Common Units with respect to which the Option is being exercised, the Grant Date of such Option and the Exercise Date, (b) be signed by the Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable), (c) indicate in writing that the Participant agrees to be bound by the LLC Agreement and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Units, the Management Stockholders' Agreement, and (d) if the Option is being exercised by the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s), such Permitted Transferee(s) shall indicate in writing that they agree to and shall be bound by this Agreement as if they had been original signatories thereto (as provided in Section 4.4 hereof), the LLC Agreement and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Units, the Management Stockholders' Agreement. The Exercise Notice shall include payment in cash for an amount equal to the Exercise Price multiplied by the number of Common Units specified in such Exercise Notice or any method otherwise approved by the Board. In addition, the Participant shall be responsible for the payment of applicable withholding and other taxes in cash (or Common Units if approved by the Board) that may become due as a result of the exercise of the Option. The Board may, in its sole discretion, permit the person exercising the Option to make the above-described payments in forms other than cash. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except in the case where the Participant's Employment (i) has been terminated for Cause or (ii) has terminated or will terminate and the Participant has Competed or the Participant's subsequent employment is likely to result in the Participant Competing, as determined by the Board in good faith, the Company will permit the Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable) to exercise all or any portion of his or her then-exercisable Option through net-physical settlement (to satisfy both the exercise price and any applicable withholding taxes), but only to the extent such right or the utilization of such right would not cause the Option to be subject to Section 409A of the Code and to the extent the Board, in its good faith judgment, determines that exercise through net-physical settlement is permitted by, and will not result in any default under, any agreement to which the Company or its Affiliates is a party and that the Company and its Affiliates have sufficient liquidity. The partial exercise of the Option, alone, shall not cause the expiration, termination or cancellation of the remaining Option.

4.8 Certificates of Shares. Subject to Section 3.1, upon the exercise of the Option, execution of the LLC Agreement and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Units, execution of the Management Stockholders' Agreement, in the Board's sole discretion, certificates of Common Units may be issued in the name of the Participant and delivered to the Participant or the ownership of such Common Units shall be otherwise recorded in a book-entry or similar system utilized by the Company as soon as practicable following the Exercise Date. No Common Units shall be issued to or recorded in the name of the Participant until the Participant agrees to be bound by and executes the LLC Agreement and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Units, the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

4.9 Amendment of Terms of Options. The Board may, in its sole discretion, amend this Agreement, provided, however, that any such amendment shall not impair or adversely affect the Participant's existing rights under this Agreement without the Participant's written consent.

4.10 Adjustment Upon Changes in Company Common Units.

4.10.1 Increase or Decrease in Issued Shares Without Consideration. Subject to any required action by the members of the Company, in the event of any increase or decrease in the number of issued Common Units resulting from a subdivision or consolidation of Common Units or the payment of a stock dividend (but only on the Common Units), or any other increase or decrease in the number of such Common Units effected without receipt of consideration by the Company, the Board shall make such adjustments with respect to the number of Common Units subject to the Option and/or the Exercise Price per Common Unit, as the Board may, in its good faith discretion, consider appropriate to prevent the enlargement or dilution of rights.

4.10.2 Certain Mergers. Subject to any required action by the members of the Company, in the event that the Company shall be the surviving corporation in any merger or consolidation (except a merger or consolidation as a result of which the holders of Common Units receive securities of another corporation), the Option, to the extent outstanding on the date of such merger or consolidation, shall pertain to and apply to the securities that a holder of the number of Common Units subject to the Option would have received in such merger or consolidation (it being understood that if, in connection with such transaction, the members of the Company retain their Common Units and are not entitled to any additional or other consideration, the Option shall not be affected by such transaction).

4.10.3 Certain Other Transactions. In the event of (i) a dissolution or liquidation of the Company, (ii) a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, (iii) a merger or consolidation involving the Company in which the Company is not the surviving corporation or (iv) a merger or consolidation involving the Company in which the Company is the surviving corporation but the holders of Common Units receive securities of another corporation and/or other property, including cash, the Board shall, in its good faith discretion, (a) have the power to provide for the exchange of the Option, to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such event (whether or not then exercisable), for an option on some or all of the property for which the stock underlying the Options is exchanged and, incident thereto, make an equitable adjustment, as determined by the Board, in the exercise price of the option, or the number or kind of securities or amount of property subject to the option and/or, (b) if appropriate, cancel, effective immediately prior to such event, the outstanding Option (whether or not exercisable or vested) and in full consideration of such cancellation pay to the Participant an amount in cash, with respect to each underlying Common Unit, equal to the excess of (1) the value, as determined by the Board in its good faith discretion of securities and/or property (including cash) received by such holders of Common Units as a result of such event over (2) the Exercise Price, as the Board may consider appropriate to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

4.10.4 Extraordinary Dividends. In the event the Company pays an extraordinary cash dividend to the holders of its Common Units, (a) with respect to the vested and exercisable portion of the Option then outstanding on the date such dividend is paid (the "Payment Date"), the Company shall pay to the Participant on the Payment Date, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way relate to the exercise of the Option, a cash bonus equal to the amount that he or she would have received if he or she owned the Common Units underlying such vested and exercisable Option as of the record date for such extraordinary dividend, and (b) with respect to the remainder of the Option then outstanding on the Payment Date, the Company shall either, at the Company's option, if and only if such right or the utilization of such right would not cause the Option to fail to be exempt from Section 409A of the Code and in any event in a manner that complies with Section 409A of the Code, (i) adjust the Exercise Price and/or number of Common Units subject to the Option to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights, in such manner as the Board shall determine in good faith, or (ii) provide, to the Participant, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way relate to the exercise of the Option, for the crediting of a notional account (a "Notional Account") of an amount equal to a cash bonus equal to the amount that he or she would have received if he or she owned the Common Units underlying such Option as of the record date for such extraordinary dividend, which amount shall accrue interest at a reasonable interest rate determined in good faith by the Board. Any cash bonus (plus interest thereon) referred to in clause (ii) of the preceding sentence will be paid in pro rata installments over the remaining vesting period of such Option to which such bonus relates on each Vesting Date that follows the Payment Date, commencing with the first Vesting Date following the Payment Date. The Participant will forfeit any right to any bonus (plus interest thereon) referred to in clause (ii) above that has not come due as of his or her termination of Employment, unless the termination of Employment is a Qualifying Termination, in which case the Company will pay all remaining bonus payments (plus interest thereon) on the date of termination of Employment, subject to applicable law. If it is determined that any adjustment of the Exercise Price or any bonus payment or the provision of interest thereon referred to in this Section 4.10.4 does not comply with Section 409A or it causes the Option to fail to be exempt from Section 409A, the Company and the Participant shall use their reasonable efforts and take reasonable actions necessary to put the Participant in the same position he or she would have been in if the adjustment or payment was permitted under Section 409A, to the extent reasonably practicable.

4.10.5 Other Changes. In the event of any change in the capitalization of the Company or a corporate change other than those specifically referred to in Sections 4.10.1 through 4.10.4 hereof, or in the event any change in the capitalization of the Company or a corporate change referred to in Sections 4.10.1 through 4.10.4 hereof requires it, notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 4.10.1 through 4.10.4 above, the Board shall, in its sole discretion, make such adjustments in the number and kind of shares or securities subject to the Option outstanding on the date on which such change occurs and in the per-share Exercise Price of such Option, or to the terms governing such Options, as the Board may consider appropriate, to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

4.10.6 No Other Rights. Except as expressly provided herein, the Participant shall not have any rights by reason of (i) any subdivision or consolidation of Common Units or shares of stock of any class, (ii) the payment of any dividend, any increase or decrease in the number of Common Units, or (iii) any dissolution, liquidation, merger or consolidation of the Company or any other corporation. Except as expressly provided herein, no issuance by the Company of Common Units or shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into Common Units or shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number of Common Units subject to the Option or the Exercise Price of such Option.

4.10.7 Savings Clause. No provision of this Section 4.10 shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code and the Company, upon reasonable request from the Participant, shall amend this Agreement as necessary to comply with Section 409A of the Code, but maintain the economic intent thereof.

4.11 Provisions of the LLC Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or otherwise, the Option shall be subject to the terms and conditions of the LLC Agreement.

5. Miscellaneous

5.1 Rights as Unitholders. The Participant shall not have any rights as a unitholder with respect to any Common Units covered by or relating to the Option granted pursuant to this Agreement until the date the Participant becomes the registered owner of such Common Units. Except as otherwise expressly provided in Sections 4.9 and 4.10 hereof, no adjustment to the Options shall be made for dividends or other rights for which the record date occurs prior to the effective date such stock is registered.

5.2 No Special Employment Rights. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall confer upon the Participant any right with respect to the continuation of Employment or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any Affiliated Entity, subject to the terms of any separate employment agreement to the contrary, at any time to terminate such Employment or to increase or decrease the compensation of the Participant from the rate in existence at the time of the grant of the Option.

5.3 No Obligation to Exercise. This Agreement shall impose no obligation upon the Participant to exercise the Option.

Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

RESTRICTED STOCK GRANT AGREEMENT

THIS RESTRICTED STOCK GRANT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made as of this 25th day of April, 2011 by between Sovereign Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") and Carl Sparks (the "Grantee").

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") has approved the grant of a special equity award in the form of a restricted shares of the Company's common stock ("Common Stock"), par value US$.01 per share, subject to the restrictions set forth in this Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement, as defined below (the "Restricted Stock").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of Restricted Stock. Pursuant to, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement as defined below, the Company hereby grants to the Grantee 354,191 shares of Restricted Stock.

2. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following capitalized terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Affiliate" shall mean the Company and any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries.

(b) "Affiliated Entity" shall mean any entity related to the Company as a member of a controlled group of corporations in accordance with Section 414(b) of the Code or as a trade or business under common control in accordance with Section 414(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), for so long as such entity is so related, including without limitation any Affiliate.

(c) "Cause" shall have the meaning set forth in the Grantee's effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity as of the Grant Date. Any rights the Company or any Affiliated Entity may have hereunder in respect of the events giving rise to Cause shall be in addition to the rights the Company or Affiliated Entity may have under any other agreement with the Employee or at law or in equity. Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, even if an effective employment agreement as of the Grant Date was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Cause (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity).

(d) "Change in Control" shall have the meaning set forth in the Grantee's effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity as of the Grant Date.

(e) "Disability" shall have the meaning set forth in the Grantee's effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity as of the Grant Date.

(f) "Employment" shall mean employment with the Company or any Affiliated Entity, and shall include the provision of services as a director or consultant for the Company or any Affiliated Entity. A Grantee's Employment shall terminate on the date the Grantee is no longer employed by an entity that is at least one of (i) the Company, (ii) an Affiliate, or (iii) an entity that is an Affiliated Entity as of such date. "Employee" and "Employed" shall have correlative meanings.

(g) "Exchange Act" shall mean the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

(h) "Good Reason" shall have the meaning set forth in the Grantee's effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity as of the Grant Date.

(i) "Majority Stockholder". For purposes of this Agreement, the Majority Stockholder shall mean, collectively or individually, as the context requires, TPG Partners IV, L.P., TPG Partners V, L.P., Silver Lake Technology Partners II, L.P., Silver Lake Partners II, L.P. and/or their respective affiliates.

(j) "Qualifying Termination" shall mean (i) a termination of the Grantee's Employment by the Company (and all then-Affiliated Entities) without Cause or by the Grantee for Good Reason, (ii) a termination of the Grantee's employment by all entities that were, immediately prior to a Change in Control, Affiliated Entities and cease, upon the Change in Control, to be Affiliated Entities, without Cause or by the Grantee for Good Reason, or (iii) a termination of the Grantee's Employment in the event of the Grantee's death or Disability, in each of (i), (ii) or (iii) at any time following a Change in Control. It is understood that the Grantee shall not have a Qualifying Termination by virtue of ceasing to be Employed by an entity or its subsidiaries undergoing a Change in Control where, following such Change in Control, the Grantee remains employed by an entity that was an Affiliated Entity of the entity or its subsidiaries undergoing such Change in Control immediately prior to such Change in Control.

3. Grant Date. The Grant Date of the shares of Restricted Stock hereby granted is April 25, 2011.

4. Rights of the Grantee. The Grantee's rights with respect to all the shares of Restricted Stock shall not vest and will remain forfeitable at all times prior to the Vesting Date (as defined below). Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, the Grantee shall be entitled, at all times on and after the Grant Date, to exercise all rights of a shareholder with respect to the shares of Restricted Stock, including without limitation the right to vote the shares of Restricted Stock, if any, and the right to receive dividends or other distributions thereon. Prior to the Vesting Date, the Grantee shall not be entitled to transfer, sell, pledge, hypothecate or assign any portion of the shares of Restricted Stock.

5. Vesting. The shares of Restricted Stock shall vest and no longer be forfeitable as follows: one third (1/3) shall vest on the first anniversary of the Grant Date, and the remainder shall vest in equal installments of one third (1/3) at the end of each of the second and third anniversaries of the Grant Date, until 100% of the Restricted Stock is fully vested, subject in all cases to the Grantee's continued Employment through each such date (each such date, a "Vesting Date"). Unless the Board determines otherwise, vesting of the Restricted Stock may be suspended during any leave of absence as may be set forth by Company policy, if any. In the event of a Qualifying Termination, the Restricted Stock shall immediately vest and no longer be forfeitable as of such Qualifying Termination, subject to the provisions of the Management Stockholder's Agreement.

5.1 Delivery of Shares. The Company shall issue certificates, or make a "book entry" on the books and records of the Company, representing the shares of Restricted Stock issued and held by each Grantee; provided that prior to the Vesting Date, the shares of Restricted Stock shall be held by the Company in escrow (together with any stock transfer powers which the Company may request of the Grantee) and shall remain in the custody of the Company until (a) their delivery (in either certificate or "book entry" form) to the Grantee upon the Vesting Date; or (b) their forfeiture as set forth above. The shares of Restricted Stock shall at all times be subject to the terms and conditions of the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

6. Conditions to the Award of Shares of Restricted Stock.

6.1 Stockholders' Agreement. As a condition to the Grantee's right to receive any shares of Restricted Stock, the Grantee shall be required to enter into (or shall have previously entered into) the Management Stockholders' Agreement by and among the Company, the Majority Stockholder and the Management Stockholders (as defined therein) (the "Management Stockholders' Agreement"), which Management Stockholders' Agreement is attached hereto. By signing this Agreement, the Grantee agrees to be bound by the Management Stockholders' Agreement, but this grant of shares of Restricted Stock is conditioned upon the Grantee executing both this Agreement and the Management Stockholders Agreement and returning the executed agreements to the Company on or before May 25, 2011.

6.2 Section 83(b) Election. The Grantee agrees, as a condition to the Grantee's right to receive shares of Restricted Stock, not to make an election pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code with respect to the shares of Restricted Stock granted pursuant to this Agreement; if the Grantee makes any such Section 83(b) election following the Grant Date, the shares of Restricted Stock granted hereunder shall immediately and automatically be forfeited, without compensation therefore.

7. Adjustment.

7.1 Increase or Decrease in Issued Shares Without Consideration. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of the Company, in the event of any increase or decrease in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from a subdivision or consolidation of shares of Common Stock or the payment of a stock dividend (but only on the shares of Common Stock), or any other increase or decrease in the number of such shares effected without receipt of consideration by the Company or any Affiliated Entity, the Board shall make such equitable adjustments with respect to the number of shares of Restricted Stock, as the Board, in its good faith discretion, considers appropriate to prevent the enlargement or dilution of rights.

7.2 Certain Mergers. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of the Company, in the event that the Company shall be the surviving corporation in any merger or consolidation (except a merger or consolidation as a result of which the holders of shares of Common Stock receive securities of another corporation), the shares of Restricted Stock outstanding on the date of such merger or consolidation shall pertain to and apply to (on the same terms and conditions as apply to the shares of Restricted Stock, unless otherwise determined by the Board) the securities that a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock underlying the shares of Restricted Stock would have received in such merger or consolidation (it being understood that if, in connection with such transaction, the stockholders of the Company retain their shares of Common Stock and are not entitled to any additional or other consideration, the shares of Restricted Stock shall not be affected by such transaction).

7.3 Certain Other Transactions. In the event of (i) a dissolution or liquidation of the Company, (ii) a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, (iii) a merger or consolidation involving the Company in which the Company is not the surviving corporation or (iv) a merger or consolidation involving the Company in which the Company is the surviving corporation but the holders of shares of Common Stock receive securities of another corporation and/or other property, including cash, the Board shall, in its good faith discretion, (a) have the power to provide for the exchange of the shares of Restricted Stock outstanding immediately prior to such event (whether or not then exercisable) for shares of Restricted Stock on some or all of the property for which the Common Stock is exchanged and, incident thereto, make such equitable adjustment to the shares of Restricted Stock and this Agreement, as determined by the Board; and/or, (b) if appropriate, cancel, effective immediately prior to such event, the shares of Restricted Stock (whether or not vested) and in full consideration of such cancellation pay to the Grantee an amount in cash, with respect to each share of Restricted Stock, equal to the value, as determined by the Board in its good faith discretion, of securities and/or property (including cash) received by such holders of shares of Common Stock as a result of such event, as the Board may consider appropriate to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

7.4 Other Changes. In the event of any change in the capitalization of the Company or a corporate change other than those specifically referred to in Sections 7.1 through 7.4 hereof, or in the event any change in the capitalization of the Company or a corporate change referred to in Sections 7.1 through 7.4 hereof requires it, notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 7.1 through 7.4 above, the Board shall make such adjustments to the shares of Restricted Stock or the terms of this Agreement as the Board determines appropriate in order to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

7.5 No Other Rights. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, the Grantee shall not have any rights by reason of (i) any subdivision or consolidation of shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, (ii) the payment of any dividend, or any increase or decrease in the number of shares of Common Stock, or (iii) any dissolution, liquidation, merger or consolidation of the Company or any other corporation. Except as expressly provided herein, no issuance by the Company of shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the shares of Restricted Stock.

7.6 Adjustments to Common Stock. As used herein, references to the terms "Common Stock" or "shares of Restricted Stock" shall also be references to securities of any kind whatsoever received in exchange for, and securities of any kind whatsoever, or other property, including cash, received as a dividend on or other distribution in respect of, such shares of Common Stock or shares of Restricted Stock.

7.7 Savings Clause and Intention of this Section 7. No provision of this Section 7 shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code and the Company, upon reasonable request from the Grantee, shall amend this Agreement as necessary to comply with Section 409A of the Code, but maintain the economic intent thereof. Furthermore, any election to adjust, modify, exchange, substitute or redeem the Restricted Stock shall be done in a manner that is compliant with and only to the extent permitted by the provisions of Section 424 of the Code, with respect to individuals subject to taxation in the U.S.

8. Disclaimer of Rights. No provision in this Agreement shall be construed to confer upon any individual the right to remain in the employ or service of the Company or any Affiliated Entity, or to interfere in any way with any contractual or other right or authority of the Company or any Affiliated Entity either to increase or decrease the compensation or other payments to any individual at any time, or to terminate any employment between any individual and the Company or an Affiliated Entity.

9. Withholding of Taxes. To satisfy any federal, state, or local taxes or withholding of any kind required by law to be withheld with respect to any vesting, payments, distributions and property transferred under this Agreement, the Company shall have the right to (i) deduct an amount from payments of any kind otherwise due to the Grantee; or (ii) require the Grantee to deliver to the Company an amount in cash, in any case as determined by the Company in its sole discretion, sufficient to satisfy any such obligation and the Grantee shall have the right to satisfy such obligation by surrendering to the Company vested shares of Common Stock having an aggregate Fair Market Value (as such term is defined in the Company's Stock Incentive Plan) equal to such taxes.

10. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be illegal or unenforceable by any court of law in any jurisdiction, the remaining provisions thereof and hereof shall be severable and enforceable in accordance with their terms, and all provisions shall remain enforceable in any other jurisdiction.

11. Representations. The Grantee hereby represents and warrants to the Company and its Affiliated Entities that: (a) the Grantee is aware that this Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement provide significant restrictions on the ability of the Grantee to sell, transfer, assign, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber the shares of Restricted Stock; (b) the Grantee has duly executed and delivered this Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement; and (c) the Grantee's authorization, execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement does not conflict with any other agreement or arrangement to which the Grantee is a party or by which it is bound.

12. Integration. This Agreement, and the other documents referred to herein or delivered pursuant hereto, contain the entire understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter and there are no restrictions, agreements, promises, representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings with respect to the subject matter hereof other than those expressly set forth in such documents. This Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement supersede all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to its subject matter.

13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

14. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the provisions thereof governing conflict of laws.

15. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns.

16. Notice. All notices or other communications which may be or are required to be given by any party to any other party pursuant to this Agreement shall be delivered in accordance with the requirements of the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

17. Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party hereto upon any breach or default of any party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Agreement to be duly executed by its duly authorized officer and the Grantee has hereunto signed this Agreement on his own behalf, thereby representing that he has carefully read and understands this Agreement as of the day and year first written above.

Adopted April 5, 2012 (the "Effective Date")

1. Purpose of the Plan. The purpose of this Sovereign Holdings, Inc. Stock Incentive Plan (the "Plan") is to promote the interests of Sovereign and its stockholders by providing key employees and, in certain circumstances, directors, service providers and consultants, of Sovereign and its Affiliates with an incentive to improve the growth and profitability of Travelocity. This Plan provides for the award of stock-settled stock appreciation rights with respect to stock of THI and T.com. Such rights may only be awarded and exercised in fixed proportions. The interests represented by an award pursuant to the Plan are intended to reflect an interest in the growth in value of the business of Travelocity from the date of grant of the award.

2. Definitions. As used in this Plan, the following capitalized terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Affiliate" shall mean, with respect to any entity, any other corporation, organization, association, partnership, sole proprietorship or other type of entity, whether incorporated or unincorporated, directly or indirectly controlling or controlled by or under direct or indirect common control with such entity.

(b) "Aggregate Base Price" shall mean the sum of (i) the THI Base Price and (ii) the T.com Base Price.

(c) "Aggregate Fair Market Value" shall mean the sum of (i) the THI Fair Market Value, and (ii) the T.com Fair Market Value.

(d) "Board" shall mean the board of directors of Sovereign.

(e) "Cause" shall mean, when used in connection with the termination of a Participant's Employment, (i) if the Participant has an effective employment agreement with Travelocity or its Affiliates at the time of such termination, or had an effective employment with Travelocity or its Affiliates at the time of any transfer of such Participant's employment in connection with any spin-off, sale or other similar transaction and one or more SARs granted to such Participant remain outstanding following such transaction, the definition used in such employment agreement shall apply to the term as used in this Plan, or (ii) if the Participant does not have an effective employment agreement, the termination of the Participant's Employment on account of (A) a failure of the Participant to substantially perform his or her duties (other than as a result of physical or mental illness or injury); (B) the Participant's willful misconduct or gross negligence which is injurious to Travelocity, any of its Affiliates or the Majority Stockholder, whether financially, reputationally or otherwise; (C) a breach by the Participant of the Participant's fiduciary duty or duty of loyalty to Travelocity or any of its Affiliates; (D) the Participant's unauthorized removal from the premises of Travelocity or any of its Affiliates of any document (in any medium or form) relating to Travelocity, any of its Affiliates, the Majority

Stockholder, or the customers of Travelocity or any of its Affiliates other than in the good faith performance of the Participant's duties; or (E) the indictment or a plea of nolo contendere by the Participant of any felony or other serious crime involving moral turpitude. Any rights Travelocity or any of its Affiliates may have hereunder in respect of the events giving rise to Cause shall be in addition to the rights Travelocity, any of its Affiliates or the Majority Stockholder may have under any other agreement with the Employee or at law or in equity. If, subsequent to the termination of Employment of the Participant without an effective employment agreement at the time of grant, it is discovered that the Participant's Employment could have been terminated for Cause, as such term is defined above, the Participant's Employment shall, at the election of the Board be deemed to have been terminated for Cause retroactively to the date the events giving rise to Cause occurred.

(f) "Change in Control" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events after the Grant Date: (i) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of all or substantially all of the assets of Sovereign and its Affiliates to any Person or group of related persons for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act (a "Group"), other than to a Majority Stockholder; (ii) the approval by the holders of the outstanding voting power of Sovereign of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of Sovereign; (iii) after taking into account all relevant transactions, (A) any Person or Group (other than the Majority Stockholder) shall become the beneficial owner (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of stock of Sovereign representing more than 40% of the aggregate outstanding voting power of Sovereign securities and (B) the Majority Stockholder beneficially owns (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, in the aggregate a lesser percentage of the voting power of Sovereign than such other Person or Group; (iv) the replacement of a majority of the directors on the Board over a two-year period from the directors who constituted such Board at the beginning of such period, and such replacement shall not have been approved by a vote of at least a majority of the directors on the Board then still in office who either were members of such Board at the beginning of such period or whose election as a member of such Board was previously so approved or who were nominated by, or designees of, a Majority Stockholder; (v) consummation of a merger or consolidation of Sovereign with another entity in which, after taking into account all relevant transactions, (A) the holders of the stock of Sovereign immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction hold, directly or indirectly, immediately following the consummation of the transaction, less than 50% of the common equity interests in the surviving corporation in such transaction and (B) the Majority Stockholder holds less than 35% of the common equity interests in the surviving corporation in such transaction; or (vi) an event described in clauses (i), (iii) or (v) above in which all references to Sovereign in such clauses are replaced with references to Travelocity. If there occurs any spin-off, sale or other similar transaction with respect to Travelocity and one or more SARs granted to a Participant remain outstanding following such transaction, then the definition of Change in Control following such transaction for purposes of any such SAR shall be modified by the Board to reference the entity resulting from such transaction rather than Sovereign or Travelocity.

(g) "Code" shall mean the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

(h) "Commission" shall mean the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Participant is a party to an effective employment agreement with Travelocity or any Affiliate at the time of any event or circumstance that may constitute Good Reason that contains a different definition of the term "Good Reason" (or any term of similar import), or had an effective employment with Travelocity or its Affiliates at the time of

Following any adjustment pursuant to Section 4.4(j) or settlement of a SAR with interests or property other than T.com Common Units or THI Common Stock, references in this Plan to interests in any entity shall be deemed to refer to interests in Sovereign, T.com, THI or any Relevant Entity, as determined by the Board.

3.2 Determinations of the Board. Any Grant, determination, prescription or other act of the Board contemplated hereunder shall be made in the sole discretion of the Board and shall be final and conclusively binding upon all Persons.

3.3 Indemnification of the Board. No member of the Board nor the Majority Stockholder or its employees, partners, directors or associates shall be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any Grant. To the full extent permitted by law, Sovereign shall indemnify and hold harmless each Person made or threatened to be made a party to any civil or criminal action or proceeding by reason of the fact that such Person, or such Person's testator or intestate, is or was a member of the Board or is or was a Majority Stockholder or an employee, partner, director or associate thereof, to the extent such criminal or civil action or proceeding relates to the Plan.

3.4 Compliance with Applicable Law; Securities Matters; Effectiveness of SARs Exercise. Neither Travelocity nor its Affiliates shall be under any obligation to effect the registration pursuant to the Securities Act of any shares of Common Stock to be issued hereunder or to effect similar compliance under any state or non-U.S. laws. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, neither Travelocity nor its Affiliates shall be required to issue or deliver any certificates evidencing shares of Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of any SARs, unless and until the Board has determined, with advice of counsel, that the issuance and delivery of such certificates is in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations of governmental authorities and, if applicable, the requirements of any exchange on which the shares of Common Stock are listed or traded and would not adversely impact Travelocity or its Affiliates under any credit agreement to which they are then a party. In addition to the terms and conditions provided herein, the Board may require that a Participant make such reasonable covenants, agreements and representations as the Board deems advisable in order to comply with any such laws, regulations or requirements. Travelocity or its Affiliates may, in its sole discretion, defer the effectiveness of an exercise of a SAR hereunder or the issuance or transfer of Common Stock pursuant to any Grant pending or to ensure compliance under federal, state or non-U.S. securities laws. Travelocity or its Affiliates shall inform the Participant in writing of its decision to defer the effectiveness of the exercise of a SAR or the issuance or transfer of Common Stock pursuant to any Grant. During the period that the effectiveness of the exercise of a SAR has been deferred, the Participant may, by written notice, withdraw such exercise.

3.5 Inconsistent Terms. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Plan and the terms of any Grant Agreement, the terms of the Plan shall govern except as otherwise provided herein.

3.6 Plan Term. The Board shall not Grant any SARs under this Plan on or after the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date. All SARs which remain outstanding after such date shall continue to be governed by the Plan.

4. SARs. Subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4.4(j) hereof, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Board may grant to Participants SARs in a fixed proportion of SARs with respect to THI Common Stock and SARs with respect to T.com Common Units. The maximum number of SARs that may be issued pursuant to the Plan shall be with respect to 16,565,408 shares of THI Common Stock and 16,565,408 T.com Common Units, subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4.4(j) hereof. To the extent that any SARs granted under the Plan terminate, expire or are cancelled without having been exercised, the shares of Common Stock and the Common Units covered by such SARs shall again be available for Grant under the Plan.

4.1 Rights Represented by SARs. SARs with respect to THI Common Stock and T.com Common Units must be exercised in tandem in the proportion of SARs with respect to THI Common Stock to SARs with respect to T.com Common Units in which they were Granted. Upon exercise of SARs, the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive, from Sovereign, (a) a number of shares of THI Common Stock and T.com Common Units with an aggregate THI Fair Market Value and T.com Fair Market Value at the time of exercise equal to the excess of the Aggregate Fair Market Value of such SARs in respect of the number of shares with respect to which it is being exercised over the Aggregate Base Price of such SARs in respect of the number of shares with respect to which it is being exercised (the "Spread Value"), or (b) in the good faith discretion of the Board, (i) interests in Sovereign or any Relevant Entity having a Fair Market Value equal to the Spread Value or (ii) cash in an amount equal to the Spread Value. In connection with any exercise of SARs in connection with or following a Liquidity Event with respect to Sovereign, THI, T.com or a Relevant Entity, settlement shall be in the equity of such entity or in cash, as determined in good faith by the Board.

4.2 Base Price. The base price per share of any SAR granted under the Plan shall be such price as the Board shall determine (provided that such base price for an SAR with respect to THI Common Stock must be not less than the THI Fair Market Value on the Grant Date and such base price for an SAR with respect to T.com Common Units must be not less than the T.com Fair Market Value on the Grant Date) and which shall be specified in the Grant Agreement.

4.3 Grant Date. The Grant Date of the SARs shall be the date designated by the Board and specified in the Grant Agreement as of the date the SAR is granted.

4.4 Vesting; Expiration.

(a) Vesting Date of SARs. The SARs shall vest as follows: 25% shall vest on the first anniversary of the Grant Date, and the remainder shall vest in equal installments of 6.25% at the end of each successive three month period commencing on the first anniversary of the Grant Date, until 100% of the SARs are fully vested, subject in all cases to the Participant's continued Employment through each such date (each such date, a "Vesting Date"). Unless the Board determines otherwise, vesting of the SARs may be suspended during any leave of absence as may be set forth by Company policy, if any. Subject to Section 3, in the event of a Qualifying Termination, the SARs shall immediately vest and become exercisable as of such Qualifying Termination.

(b) Expiration of SARs. The SARs which have not become vested shall expire on the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason. The SARs which have become vested on or before the date the Participant's Employment is terminated (or that become exercisable as a result of such termination) shall expire on the earlier of (i) the commencement of business on the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for Cause; (ii) the end of the first full Exercise Window that ends at least ninety (90) days after the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason other than Cause, death or Disability or, if and to the extent Exercise Windows are no longer required under the Plan as of a Participant's termination of Employment for any reason other than Cause, death or Disability, ninety (90) days following such termination; (iii) one year after the date the Participant's Employment is terminated by reason of death or Disability; or (iv) the tenth (10^{th}) anniversary of the Grant Date. The SARs, whether vested or unvested, shall in any event expire no later than the tenth (10^{th}) anniversary of the Grant Date. The SARs that have become exercisable by a Permitted Transferee on account of the death of the Participant shall expire one year after the date the Participant's Employment terminated by reason of death, and the SARs that have been transferred to a Permitted Transferee during the lifetime of the Participant shall expire in connection with the Participant's termination of Employment at the time set forth under this Section 4.4 as if the SARs were held directly by the Participant.

(c) Exercisability of SARs. Without the express written consent of Sovereign, no SAR shall be exercisable prior to a Liquidity Event (except in the event of the termination of a Participant's Employment for any reason other than by Travelocity and its Affiliates for Cause) or prior to the date that such SAR becomes vested, provided that vested SARs shall be exercisable in connection with, and effective immediately prior to, a Liquidity Event and at any time thereafter prior to their expiration. In the event Sovereign gives consent or the Participant is otherwise permitted to effect any such exercise prior to a Liquidity Event, the vested SARs may only be exercised during an Exercise Window. Any exercise by a Participant pursuant to this paragraph 4.4(c) shall be effected by serving an Exercise Notice on Sovereign as provided in Section 4.4(g) hereto.

(d) Limitation on Transfer. The SARs shall be exercisable only by the Participant, except that the Participant may assign or transfer his or her rights to: (i) the Participant's beneficiaries or estate upon the death of the Participant (by will, by the laws of descent and distribution or otherwise) and (ii) subject to the prior written approval by the Board and compliance with all applicable tax, securities and other laws, any trust or custodianship created by the Participant, the beneficiaries of which may include only the Participant, the Participant's spouse or the Participant's lineal descendants (by blood or adoption) (each of (i) and (ii), a "Permitted Transferee").

(e) Condition Precedent to Transfer of Any SAR. It shall be a condition precedent to any Transfer of a SAR by the Participant that the Transferee shall agree prior to the Transfer in writing with Sovereign to be bound by the terms of this Plan, the applicable Grant Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement as if he, she or it had been an original signatory thereto, except that any provisions based on the employment (or termination thereof) of the Participant shall continue to be based on the employment (or termination thereof) of the Participant.

(f) Effect of Void Transfers. In the event of any purported Transfer of a SAR in violation of the provisions of this Plan, the applicable Grant Agreement or the Management Stockholders' Agreement, such purported Transfer shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be void and of no effect.

(g) Method of Exercise. The SARs shall be exercised by delivery of written notice to Sovereign (the "Exercise Notice") no less than five business days in advance of the effective date of the proposed exercise (the "Exercise Date"). Such notice shall (a) specify the number of Common Stock with respect to which the SARs are being exercised, the Grant Date of such SARs and the Exercise Date, (b) be signed by the Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable), (c) indicate in writing that the Participant agrees, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, to be bound by the Management Stockholders' Agreement, and (d) if the SARs are being exercised by the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s), such Permitted Transferee(s) shall indicate in writing that they agree to and shall be bound by this Plan, the Grant Agreement, and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, the Management Stockholders' Agreement, as if they had been original signatories thereto (as provided in Section 4.4(e) hereof). The Participant shall be responsible for the payment of applicable withholding and other taxes in cash (or, if approved by the Board, surrender of Common Stock having an aggregate THI Fair Market Value and T.com Fair Market Value equal to such withholding or other taxes) that may become due as a result of the exercise of the SARs or a portion thereof. The partial exercise of the grant of SARs, alone, shall not cause the expiration, termination or cancellation of the remaining SARs.

(h) Certificates of Shares. Subject to Section 3, upon the exercise of SARs and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, execution of the Management Stockholders' Agreement, the Board shall either cause certificates of Common Stock to be issued in the name of the Participant and delivered to the Participant or cause the ownership of such Common Stock to be otherwise recorded in a book-entry or similar system utilized by Sovereign, THI or T.com as soon as practicable following the Exercise Date. No Common Stock shall be issued to or recorded in the name of the Participant until the Participant agrees, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, to be bound by the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

(i) Amendment of the Plan and Terms of SARs. The Board may amend this Plan or any Grant Agreement in any manner; provided, however, that any such amendment shall not impair or adversely affect the Participant's pre-existing rights under this Plan or a Grant Agreement without the Participant's written consent.

(j) Adjustment Upon Changes in Common Stock.

(i) Increase or Decrease in Issued Shares Without Consideration. Subject to any required action by the members of Sovereign, in the event of any increase or decrease in the number of issued Common Stock resulting from a subdivision or consolidation of Common Stock or the payment of a stock dividend (but only on the Common Stock), or any other increase or decrease in the number of such Common Stock effected without receipt of consideration by Sovereign, THI or T.com, the Board shall make such equitable adjustments with respect to the number of Common Stock subject to the SARs and/or the base price per share of THI Common Stock or T.com Common Unit, as the Board considers appropriate to prevent the enlargement or dilution of rights.

(ii) Certain Mergers. In the event that THI or T.com shall be the surviving corporation in any merger or consolidation (except a merger or consolidation as a result of which the holders of shares of THI Common Stock and T.com Common Units receive securities of another corporation), the SARs, to the extent outstanding on the date of such merger or consolidation, shall pertain to and apply to the securities that a holder of the number of shares of THI Common Stock and T.com Common Units subject to the SARs would have received in such merger or consolidation.

(iii) Certain Other Transactions. In the event of (A) a dissolution or liquidation of T.com or THI, (B) a sale of all or substantially all of Sovereign's or Travelocity's assets, (C) a merger or consolidation involving Sovereign or Travelocity in which Sovereign or Travelocity, as the case may be, is not the surviving corporation or (D) a merger or consolidation involving Sovereign or Travelocity in which Sovereign or Travelocity, as the case may be, is the surviving corporation but the holders of shares of THI Common Stock or T.com Common Units receive securities of another corporation and/or other property, including cash, the Board shall (1) provide for the exchange of the SARs, to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such event (whether or not then exercisable), for equity awards based upon some or all of the property for which the Common Stock underlying the SARs is exchanged and, incident thereto, make an equitable adjustment, as determined by the Board, in the base price of the SARs, or the number or kind of securities or amount of property subject to the SARs and/or, (2) cancel, effective immediately prior to such event, the outstanding SARs (whether or not exercisable or vested) and in full consideration of such cancellation pay to the Participant an amount in cash or equity having a Fair Market Value equal to the Spread Value of the SARs, as the Board may consider appropriate to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

(iv) Dividends. In the event Travelocity pays a dividend, other than in connection with an Intercompany Transaction, to the holders of equity interests in Travelocity, (A) with respect to the vested and exercisable portion of the SARs then outstanding on the date such dividend is paid (the "Payment Date"), Sovereign shall pay to the Participant on the Payment Date, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way relate to the exercise of the SARs, a cash bonus equal to the amount that he or she would have received (or in the event of a dividend in some form other than cash, equity or cash at the Board's discretion having equivalent value) if he or she owned the Common Stock underlying such vested and exercisable SARs as of the record date for such dividend, and (B) with respect to the remainder of the SARs then outstanding on the Payment Date, Sovereign shall either, at Sovereign's option, if and only if such right or the utilization of such right would not cause the SARs to fail to be exempt from Section 409A of the Code and in any event in a manner that complies with Section 409A of the Code, (1) adjust the Aggregate Base Price and/or number of Common Stock subject to the SARs to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights, in such manner as the Board shall determine in good faith, or (2) provide, to the Participant, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way relate to the exercise of the SARs, for the crediting of a notional account (a "Notional Account") of an amount equal to a cash bonus equal to the amount that he or she would have received if he or she owned the Common Stock underlying such SARs as of the record date for such dividend, which amount shall accrue interest at a reasonable interest rate determined in good faith by the Board; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may, in its discretion, in lieu of making any cash payments on vested or unvested SARs hereunder, provide for such other adjustment as appropriate to prevent the dilution or enlargement of rights in connection with any such dividend. Any cash bonus (plus interest thereon) referred to in clause (2) of the preceding sentence will be paid in pro rata installments over the remaining vesting period of such SARs to which such bonus relates on each Vesting Date that follows the Payment Date, commencing with the first Vesting Date following the Payment Date. The Participant will forfeit any right to any bonus (plus interest thereon) referred to in clause (2) above that has not come due as of his or her termination of Employment, unless the termination of Employment is a Qualifying Termination, in which case Sovereign will pay all remaining bonus payments (plus interest thereon) on the date of termination of Employment, subject to applicable law. If it is determined that any adjustment of the Aggregate Base Price or any bonus payment or the provision of interest thereon referred to in this Section 4.4(j)(iv) does not comply with Section 409A or it causes the SARs to fail to be exempt from Section 409A, Sovereign and the Participant shall use their reasonable efforts and take reasonable actions necessary to put the Participant in the same position he or she would have been in if the adjustment or payment was permitted under Section 409A, to the extent reasonably practicable.

(v) Other Changes. (A) In the event of any change in the capitalization of Sovereign, Travelocity or any of their Affiliates (including, without limitation, any transaction affecting the debt, liabilities or equity of Sovereign, Travelocity or any Affiliate that could have a similar impact) or a corporate change or Liquidity Event, in each case other than those specifically referred to in Sections 4.4(j)(i) through 4.4(j)(iv) hereof, or in the event any change in the capitalization of Sovereign or any Affiliate or a corporate change referred to in Sections 4.4(j)(i) through 4.4(j)(iv) hereof requires it, notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 4.4(j)(i) through 4.4(j)(iv) above, the Board, in its sole discretion, may make such adjustments in the number and kind of shares or securities subject to the SARs outstanding on the date on which such change occurs and in the per-share base price of such SARs, or to the terms governing such SARs, including, without limitation, replacing SARs with equity awards having different but substantially similar terms and based on interests in one or more Relevant Entities or cancelling any outstanding SARs if the Board determines that such adjustments, replacements or cancellations are appropriate in order to avoid the enlargement or dilution of rights.

(B) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 4.4 to the contrary, but without limiting the authority and right of the Board to make adjustments pursuant to any other provision of this Section 4.4, in the event of a Change in Control with respect to Travelocity or any Relevant Entity in which Sovereign and/or the Majority Shareholder is no longer the majority shareholder, the Board shall either 1) provide for the assumption or continuation by the successor to the business of Travelocity or the buyer in such Change in Control transaction of the SARs, to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such event (whether or not then exercisable), or conversion of the SARs, to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such event (whether or not then exercisable), into equity awards of the successor to the business of Travelocity having equivalent value or 2) cancel, effective immediately prior to such event, the outstanding SARs (whether or not exercisable or vested) and in full consideration of such cancellation pay to the Participant an amount in cash or equity having a Fair Market Value equal to the Spread Value of such SARs.

(vi) No Other Rights. Except as expressly provided herein, the Participant shall not have any rights by reason of (A) any subdivision or consolidation of shares of Common Stock of any class, (B) the payment of any dividend, any increase or decrease in the number of shares of Common Stock, or (C) any dissolution, liquidation, merger or consolidation of Sovereign or any other corporation. Except as expressly provided herein, no issuance by Travelocity or any Affiliate of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the SARs or the Aggregate Base Price of such SARs.

(vii) Savings Clause and Intention of this Section 4.4(j). It is the intention of this Section 4.4(j) that upon sale, spin-off or other corporate transaction affecting Travelocity the SARs shall be adjusted, replaced or canceled by the Board in any manner that achieves the tax purposes set forth in this clause (vii), does not inequitably result in the enlargement or dilution of the rights of Participants and achieves the purposes of this Plan. No provision of this Section 4.4(j) shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code and Sovereign, upon reasonable request from the Participant, shall amend this Plan or the Participant's Grant Agreement as necessary to comply with Section 409A of the Code, but maintain the economic intent thereof. Furthermore, any election to adjust, modify, exchange, substitute, cancel or redeem the SARs shall be done in a manner that is compliant with and only to the extent permitted by the provisions of Section 424 of the Code, with respect to individuals subject to taxation in the U.S.

5. Miscellaneous

5.1 Rights as Stockholder. The Participant shall not have any rights as a stockholder or unitholder with respect to any Common Stock covered by or relating to the SARs granted pursuant to this Plan until the date the Participant becomes the registered owner of such Common Stock. Except as otherwise expressly provided in Section 4.4 hereof, no adjustment to the SARs shall be made for dividends or other rights for which the record date occurs prior to the effective date such stock is registered.

5.2 No Special Employment Rights. Nothing contained in this Plan or any Grant Agreement shall confer upon the Participant any right with respect to the continuation of Employment or interfere in any way with the right of Sovereign or any Affiliate, subject to the terms of any separate employment agreement to the contrary, at any time to terminate such Employment or to increase or decrease the compensation of the Participant from the rate in existence at the time of the grant of the SARs.

5.3 No Obligation to Exercise. The Grant to the Participants of the SARs shall impose no obligation upon the Participant to exercise the SARs.

5.4 Restrictions on Common Stock. The rights and obligations of the Participant with respect to Common Stock obtained through the exercise of a SAR shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

5.5 Notices. Each notice and other communication hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given and shall be deemed to have been duly given on the date it is delivered in person, on the next business day if delivered by overnight mail or other reputable overnight courier, or the third business day if sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the parties as follows:

5.6 Descriptive Headings. The headings in this Plan are for convenience of reference only and shall not limit or otherwise affect the meaning of the terms contained herein.

5.7 Severability. In the event that one or more of the provisions, subdivisions, words, clauses, phrases or sentences contained herein, or the application thereof in any circumstances, is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect for any reason, the validity, legality and enforceability of any such provision, subdivision, word, clause, phrase or sentence in every other respect and of the remaining provisions, subdivisions, words, clauses, phrases or sentences hereof shall not in any way be impaired, it being intended that all rights, powers and privileges of Sovereign and the Participant shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

5.8 Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party hereto upon any breach or default of any party under the Plan, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under the Plan, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of the Plan, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

5.9 Limitation on Transfer. The SARs shall be exercisable only by the Participant or the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s). Each Permitted Transferee shall be subject to all the restrictions, obligations, and responsibilities as apply to the Participant under this Plan and shall be entitled to all the rights of the Participant. If any covenant should be deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable because its scope is considered excessive, such covenant shall be modified so that the scope of the covenant is reduced only to the minimum extent necessary to render the modified covenant valid, legal and enforceable. No waiver of any provision or violation of this Agreement by Travelocity or its Affiliates shall be implied by their forbearance or failure to take action. STOCK-SETTLED SARS WITH RESPECT TO TRAVELOCITY EQUITY

Adopted March 15, 2011 (the "Effective Date")

Amended and Restated May 3, 2012

1. Purpose of the Plan. The purpose of this Sovereign Holdings, Inc. Amended and Restated Stock Incentive Plan for Travelocity's CEO (the "Plan") is to promote the interests of Sovereign and its stockholders by providing the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of Travelocity with an incentive to improve the growth and profitability of Travelocity. This Plan amends and restates the terms of the award of stock-settled stock appreciation rights with respect to stock of THI and T.com granted to the CEO on April 25, 2011 (the "Prior SARs"), and replaces such grant in its entirety with the grant made as of May 15, 2012. Such rights may only be awarded and exercised in fixed proportions. The interests represented by an award pursuant to the Plan are intended to reflect an interest in the growth in value of the business of Travelocity from the date of grant of the award. From and after the date hereof, the CEO will have no further rights and entitlements with respect to the Prior SARs.

(d) "Board" shall mean the board of directors of Sovereign.

(e) "Cause" shall mean, when used in connection with the termination of a Participant's Employment, (i) if the Participant has an effective employment agreement with Sovereign or its Affiliates at the time of such termination, or had an effective employment with Sovereign or its Affiliates at the time of any transfer of such Participant's employment in connection with any spin-off, sale or other similar transaction and one or more SARs granted to such Participant remain outstanding following such transaction, the definition used in such employment agreement shall apply to the term as used in this Plan, or (ii) if the Participant does not have an effective employment agreement, the termination of the Participant's Employment on account of (A) a failure of the Participant to substantially perform his or her duties (other than as a result of physical or mental illness or injury); (B) the Participant's willful misconduct or gross negligence which is injurious to Sovereign, any of its Affiliates or the Majority Stockholder, whether financially, reputationally or otherwise; (C) a breach by the Participant of the Participant's fiduciary duty or duty of loyalty to Sovereign or any of its Affiliates; (D) the Participant's unauthorized removal from the premises of Sovereign or any of its Affiliates of any document (in any medium or form) relating to Sovereign, any of its Affiliates, the Majority Stockholder, or the customers of Sovereign or any of its Affiliates other than in the good faith performance of the Participant's duties; or (E) the indictment or a plea of nolo contendere by the Participant of any felony or other serious crime involving moral turpitude. Any rights Sovereign may have hereunder in respect of the events giving rise to Cause shall be in addition to the rights Sovereign, any of its Affiliates or the Majority Stockholder may have under any other agreement with the Employee or at law or in equity. If, subsequent to the termination of Employment of the Participant without an effective employment agreement at the time of grant, it is discovered that the Participant's Employment could have been terminated for Cause, as such term is defined above, the Participant's Employment shall, at the election of the Board be deemed to have been terminated for Cause retroactively to the date the events giving rise to Cause occurred.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Participant is a party to an effective employment agreement with Sovereign or any Affiliate at the time of any event or circumstance that may constitute Good Reason that contains a different definition of the term "Good Reason" (or any term of similar import), or had an effective employment with Sovereign or its Affiliates at the time of any transfer of such Participant's employment in connection with any spin-off, sale or other similar transaction and one or more SARs granted to such Participant remained outstanding following such transaction, the definition in such employment agreement shall apply to the term "Good Reason" as used in this Plan.

3. Administration of the Plan

3.1 Powers of the Board; Compliance with Applicable Law; Securities Matters; Effectiveness of SAR Exercise; Certain Terms. In addition to the other powers granted to the Board under the Plan, the Board shall have the power: (a) to determine to whom Grants shall be made; (b) to determine the time or times when Grants shall be made and to determine the number of shares of Common Stock subject to each such Grant; (c) to prescribe the form of and terms and conditions of any instrument evidencing a Grant; (d) to adopt, amend and rescind such rules and regulations as, in its opinion, may be advisable for the administration of the Plan; (e) to construe and interpret the Plan, such rules and regulations and the instruments evidencing Grants; and (f) to make all other determinations necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan. Following any adjustment pursuant to Section 4.4(j) or settlement of an SAR with interests or property other than T.com Common Units or THI Common Stock, references in this Plan to interests in any entity shall be deemed to refer to interests in Sovereign, T. com, THI or any Relevant Entity, as determined by the Board.

3.2 Determinations of the Board. Any Grant, determination, prescription or other act of the Board contemplated hereunder shall be made in the sole discretion of the Board and shall be final and conclusively binding upon all Persons.

3.3 Indemnification of the Board. No member of the Board nor the Majority Stockholder or its employees, partners, directors or associates shall be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any Grant. To the full extent permitted by law, Sovereign shall indemnify and hold harmless each Person made or threatened to be made a party to any civil or criminal action or proceeding by reason of the fact that such Person, or such Person's testator or intestate, is or was a member of the Board or is or was a Majority Stockholder or an employee, partner, director or associate thereof, to the extent such criminal or civil action or proceeding relates to the Plan.

3.4 Compliance with Applicable Law; Securities Matters; Effectiveness of SARs Exercise. Sovereign shall be under no obligation to effect the registration pursuant to the Securities Act of any shares of Common Stock to be issued hereunder or to effect similar compliance under any state or non-U.S. laws. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Sovereign shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificates evidencing shares of Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of any SARs, unless and until the Board has determined, with advice of counsel, that the issuance and delivery of such certificates is in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations of governmental authorities and, if applicable, the requirements of any exchange on which the shares of Common Stock are listed or traded and would not adversely impact Sovereign or its Affiliates under any credit agreement to which they are then a party. In addition to the terms and conditions provided herein, the Board may require that a Participant make such reasonable covenants, agreements and representations as the Board deems advisable in order to comply with any such laws, regulations or requirements. Sovereign may, in its sole discretion, defer the effectiveness of an exercise of a SAR hereunder or the issuance or transfer of Common Stock pursuant to any Grant pending or to ensure compliance under federal, state or non-U.S. securities laws. Sovereign shall inform the Participant in writing of its decision to defer the effectiveness of the exercise of a SAR or the issuance or transfer of Common Stock pursuant to any Grant. During the period that the effectiveness of the exercise of a SAR has been deferred, the Participant may, by written notice, withdraw such exercise.

3.5 Inconsistent Terms*. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Plan and the terms of any Grant Agreement, the terms of the Plan shall govern except as otherwise provided herein.

3.6 Plan Term*. The Board shall not Grant any SARs under this Plan on or after the tenth anniversary of the Effective Date. All SARs which remain outstanding after such date shall continue to be governed by the Plan.

3.7 Employment Agreements. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 3 to the contrary, any action or determination in violation of an effective employment agreement with Sovereign or any of its Affiliates or any interpretation of any term used in an effective employment agreement with Sovereign or any Affiliate or any challenge to any good faith determination by the Board hereunder shall be determined, interpreted or challenged pursuant to the dispute resolution provision of such employment agreement, to the extent there is a dispute resolution provision therein.

4. SARs. Subject to adjustment as provided in Section 4.4(j) hereof, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth herein, the Board may grant to Participants SARs in a fixed proportion of SARs with respect to THI Common Stock and SARs with respect to T.com Common Units.

4.1 Rights Represented by SARs. SARs with respect to THI Common Stock and T.com Common Units must be exercised in tandem in the proportion of SARs with respect to THI Common Stock to SARs with respect to T.com Common Units in which they were Granted. Upon exercise of SARs, the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive, from Sovereign, (a) a number of shares of THI Common Stock and T.com Common Units with an aggregate THI Fair Market Value and T.com Fair Market Value at the time of exercise equal to the excess of the Aggregate Fair Market Value of such SARs in respect of the number of shares with respect to which it is being exercised over the Aggregate Base Price of such SARs in respect of the number of shares with respect to which it is being exercised (the "Spread Value"), or (b) in the good faith discretion of the Board, (i) interests in Sovereign or any Relevant Entity having a Fair Market Value equal to the Spread Value or (ii) cash in an amount equal to the Spread Value. In connection with any exercise of SARs in connection with or following a Liquidity Event with respect to Sovereign, THI, T.com or a Relevant Entity, settlement shall be in the equity of such entity or in cash, as determined in good faith by the Board.

4.2 Base Price. The base price per share of any SAR granted under the Plan shall be such price as the Board shall determine (provided that such base price for an SAR with respect to THI Common Stock must be not less than the THI Fair Market Value on the Grant Date and such base price for an SAR with respect to T.com Common Units must be not less than the T.com Fair Market Value on the Grant Date) and which shall be specified in the Grant Agreement.

4.3 Grant Date. The Grant Date of the SARs shall be the date designated by the Board and specified in the Grant Agreement as of the date the SAR is granted.

4.4 Vesting; Expiration.

(a) Vesting Date of SARs. The SARs shall vest as follows: 25% shall vest on the Grant Date, and the remainder shall vest in equal installments of 6.25% at the end of each successive three month period commencing on the first anniversary of the Prior SARs Grant Date, until 100% of the SARs are fully vested, subject in all cases to the Participant's continued Employment through each such date (each such date, a "Vesting Date"). Unless the Board determines otherwise, vesting of the SARs may be suspended during any leave of absence as may be set forth by Company policy, if any. Subject to Section 3, in the event of a Qualifying Termination, the SARs shall immediately vest and become exercisable as of such Qualifying Termination. In addition, subject to the Participant's continued employment through the first anniversary of a Change in Control, any then unvested SARs shall immediately vest and become exercisable as of the first anniversary of such Change in Control

(b) Expiration of SARs. The SARs which have not become vested shall expire on the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason. The SARs which have become vested on or before the date the Participant's Employment is terminated (or that become exercisable as a result of such termination) shall expire on the earlier of (i) the commencement of business on the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for Cause; (ii) the end of the first full Exercise Window that ends at least ninety (90) days after the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason other than Cause, death or Disability or, if and to the extent Exercise Windows are no longer required under the Plan as of a Participant's termination of Employment for any reason other than Cause, death or Disability, ninety (90) days following such termination; (iii) one year after the date the Participant's Employment is terminated by reason of death or Disability; or (iv) the tenth (10^{th}) anniversary of the Grant Date. The SARs, whether vested or unvested, shall in any event expire no later than the tenth (10^{th}) anniversary of the Grant Date. The SARs that have become exercisable by a Permitted Transferee on account of the death of the Participant shall expire one year after the date the Participant's Employment terminated by reason of death, and the SARs that have been transferred to a Permitted Transferee during the lifetime of the Participant shall expire in connection with the Participant's termination of Employment at the time set forth under this Section 4.4 as if the SARs were held directly by the Participant.

(c) Exercisability of SARs.

(i) Without the express written consent of Sovereign, no SAR shall be exercisable prior to a Liquidity Event (except in the event of the termination of a Participant's Employment for any reason other than by Sovereign and its Affiliates for Cause) or prior to the date that such SAR becomes vested, provided that vested SARs shall be exercisable in connection with, and effective immediately prior to, a Liquidity Event and at any time thereafter prior to their expiration. In the event Sovereign gives consent or the Participant is otherwise permitted to effect any such exercise prior to a Liquidity Event, the vested SARs may only be exercised during an Exercise Window.

(ii) Sovereign shall, in its discretion, by written notice to a Participant have the right to cause such Participant to exercise all or any portion of his vested SARs upon a termination of such Participant's Employment.

Any exercise by a Participant pursuant to this paragraph 4.4(c) shall be effected by serving an Exercise Notice on Sovereign as provided in Section 4.4(g) hereto.

(d) Limitation on Transfer. The SARs shall be exercisable only by the Participant, except that the Participant may assign or transfer his or her rights to: (i) the Participant's beneficiaries or estate upon the death of the Participant (by will, by the laws of descent and distribution or otherwise) and (ii) subject to the prior written approval by the Board and compliance with all applicable tax, securities and other laws, any trust or custodianship created by the Participant, the beneficiaries of which may include only the Participant, the Participant's spouse or the Participant's lineal descendants (by blood or adoption) (each of (i) and (ii), a "Permitted Transferee").

(e) Condition Precedent to Transfer of Any SAR. It shall be a condition precedent to any Transfer of a SAR by the Participant that the Transferee shall agree prior to the Transfer in writing with Sovereign to be bound by the terms of this Plan, the applicable Grant Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement as if he, she or it had been an original signatory thereto, except that any provisions based on the employment (or termination thereof) of the Participant shall continue to be based on the employment (or termination thereof) of the Participant.

(f) Effect of Void Transfers. In the event of any purported Transfer of a SAR in violation of the provisions of this Plan, the applicable Grant Agreement or the Management Stockholders' Agreement, such purported Transfer shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be void and of no effect.

(g) Method of Exercise. The SARs shall be exercised by delivery of written notice to Sovereign (the "Exercise Notice") no less than five business days in advance of the effective date of the proposed exercise (the "Exercise Date"). Such notice shall (a) specify the number of Common Stock with respect to which the SARs are being exercised, the Grant Date of such SARs and the Exercise Date, (b) be signed by the Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable), (c) indicate in writing that the Participant agrees, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, to be bound by the Management Stockholders' Agreement, and (d) if the SARs are being exercised by the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s), such Permitted Transferee(s) shall indicate in writing that they agree to and shall be bound by this Plan, the Grant Agreement, and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, the Management Stockholders' Agreement, as if they had been original signatories thereto (as provided in Section 4.4(e) hereof). The Participant shall be responsible for the payment of applicable withholding and other taxes in cash (or, if approved by the Board, surrender of Common Stock having an aggregate THI Fair Market Value and T.com Fair Market Value equal to such withholding or other taxes) that may become due as a result of the exercise of the SARs or a portion thereof. The partial exercise of the grant of SARs, alone, shall not cause the expiration, termination or cancellation of the remaining SARs.

(h) Certificates of Shares. Subject to Section 3, upon the exercise of SARs and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, execution of the Management Stockholders' Agreement, the Board shall either cause certificates of Common Stock to be issued in the name of the Participant and delivered to the Participant or cause the ownership of such Common Stock to be otherwise recorded in a book-entry or similar system utilized by Sovereign, THI or T.com as soon as practicable following the Exercise Date. No Common Stock shall be issued to or recorded in the name of the Participant until the Participant agrees, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, to be bound by the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

(i) Amendment of the Plan and Terms of SARs. The Board may amend this Plan or any Grant Agreement in any manner; provided, however, that any such amendment shall not impair or adversely affect the Participant's pre-existing rights under this Plan or a Grant Agreement without the Participant's written consent.

(j) Adjustment Upon Changes in Common Stock.

(i) Increase or Decrease in Issued Shares Without Consideration. Subject to any required action by the members of Sovereign, in the event of any increase or decrease in the number of issued Common Stock resulting from a subdivision or consolidation of Common Stock or the payment of a stock dividend (but only on the Common Stock), or any other increase or decrease in the number of such Common Stock effected without receipt of consideration by Sovereign, THI or T.com, the Board shall make such equitable adjustments with respect to the number of Common Stock subject to the SARs and/or the base price per share of THI Common Stock or T.com Common Unit, as the Board considers appropriate to prevent the enlargement or dilution of rights.

(ii) Certain Mergers. In the event that THI or T.com shall be the surviving corporation in any merger or consolidation (except a merger or consolidation as a result of which the holders of shares of THI Common Stock and T.com Common Units receive securities of another corporation), the SARs, to the extent outstanding on the date of such merger or consolidation, shall pertain to and apply to the securities that a holder of the number of shares of THI Common Stock and T.com Common Units subject to the SARs would have received in such merger or consolidation.

(iii) Certain Other Transactions. In the event of (A) a dissolution or liquidation of T.com or THI, (B) a sale of all or substantially all of Sovereign's or Travelocity's assets, (C) a merger or consolidation involving Sovereign or Travelocity in which Sovereign or Travelocity, as the case may be, is not the surviving corporation or (D) a merger or consolidation involving Sovereign or Travelocity in which Sovereign or Travelocity, as the case may be, is the surviving corporation but the holders of shares of THI Common Stock or T.com Common Units receive securities of another corporation and/or other property, including cash, the Board shall (1) provide for the exchange of the SARs, to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such event (whether or not then exercisable), for equity awards based upon some or all of the property for which the Common Stock underlying the SARs is exchanged and, incident thereto, make an equitable adjustment, as determined by the Board, in the base price of the SARs, or the number or kind of securities or amount of property subject to the SARs and/or, (2) cancel, effective immediately prior to such event, the outstanding SARs (whether or not exercisable or vested) and in full consideration of such cancellation pay to the Participant an amount in cash or equity having a Fair Market Value equal to the Spread Value of the SARs, as the Board may consider appropriate to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

(iv) Dividends. In the event Travelocity pays a dividend, other than in connection with an Intercompany Transaction, to the holders of equity interests in Travelocity, (A) with respect to the vested and exercisable portion of the SARs then outstanding on the date such dividend is paid (the "Payment Date"), Travelocity shall pay to the Participant on the Payment Date, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way relate to the exercise of the SARs, a cash bonus equal to the amount that he or she would have received (or in the event of a dividend in some form other than cash, equity or cash at the Board's discretion having equivalent value) if he or she owned the Common Stock underlying such vested and exercisable SARs as of the record date for such dividend, and (B) with respect to the remainder of the SARs then outstanding on the Payment Date, Sovereign shall either, at Sovereign's option, if and only if such right or the utilization of such right would not cause the SARs to fail to be exempt from Section 409A of the Code and in any event in a manner that complies with Section 409A of the Code, (1) adjust the Aggregate Base Price and/or number of Common Stock subject to the SARs to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights, in such manner as the Board shall determine in good faith, or (2) provide, to the Participant, pursuant to a separate arrangement that shall in no way relate to the exercise of the SARs, for the crediting of a notional account (a "Notional Account") of an amount equal to a cash bonus equal to the amount that he or she would have received if he or she owned the Common Stock underlying such SARs as of the record date for such dividend, which amount shall accrue interest at a reasonable interest rate determined in good faith by the Board; provided that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may, upon mutual agreement with the Executive, in lieu of making any cash payments on vested SARs hereunder, provide for such other adjustment as appropriate to prevent the dilution or enlargement of rights in connection with any such dividend. Any cash bonus (plus interest thereon) referred to in clause (2) of the preceding sentence will be paid in pro rata installments over the remaining vesting period of such SARs to which such bonus relates on each Vesting Date that follows the Payment Date, commencing with the first Vesting Date following the Payment Date. The Participant will forfeit any right to any bonus (plus interest thereon) referred to in clause (2) above that has not come due as of his or her termination of Employment, unless the termination of Employment is a Qualifying Termination, in which case Sovereign will pay all remaining bonus payments (plus interest thereon) on the date of termination of Employment, subject to applicable law. If it is determined that any adjustment of the Aggregate Base Price or any bonus payment or the provision of interest thereon referred to in this Section 4.4(j)(iv) does not comply with Section 409A or it causes the SARs to fail to be exempt from Section 409A, Sovereign and the Participant shall use their reasonable efforts and take reasonable actions necessary to put the Participant in the same position he or she would have been in if the adjustment or payment was permitted under Section 409A, to the extent reasonably practicable.

(v) Other Changes. (A) In the event of any change in the capitalization of Sovereign, Travelocity or any of their Affiliates (including, without limitation, any transaction affecting the debt, liabilities or equity of Sovereign, Travelocity or any Affiliate that could have a similar impact) or a corporate change or Liquidity Event, in each case other than those specifically referred to in Sections 4.4(j)(i) through 4.4(j)(iv) hereof, or in the event any change in the capitalization of Sovereign or any Affiliate or a corporate change referred to in Sections 4.4(j)(i) through 4.4(j)(iv) hereof requires it, notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 4.4(j)(i) through 4.4(j)(iv) above, the Board shall make such adjustments in the number and kind of shares or securities subject to the SARs outstanding on the date on which such change occurs and in the per-share base price of such SARs, or to the terms governing such SARs, including, without limitation, replacing SARs with equity awards having different but substantially similar terms and based on interests in one or more Relevant Entities if the Board determines that such adjustments or replacements are appropriate in order to avoid the enlargement or dilution of rights.

(B) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 4.4 to the contrary, but without limiting the authority and right of the Board to make adjustments pursuant to any other provision of this Section 4.4, in the event of a Change in Control with respect to Travelocity or any Relevant Entity in which Sovereign and/or the Majority Shareholder is no longer the majority shareholder, the Board shall either 1) provide for the assumption or continuation by the successor to the business of Travelocity or the buyer in such Change in Control transaction of the SARs, to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such event (whether or not then exercisable), or conversion of the SARs, to the extent outstanding immediately prior to such event (whether or not then exercisable), into equity awards of the successor to the business of Travelocity having equivalent value or 2) cancel, effective immediately prior to such event, the outstanding SARs (whether or not exercisable or vested) and in full consideration of such cancellation pay to the Participant an amount in cash or equity having a Fair Market Value equal to the Spread Value of such SARs.

(vi) No Other Rights. Except as expressly provided herein, the Participant shall not have any rights by reason of (A) any subdivision or consolidation of shares of Common Stock of any class, (B) the payment of any dividend, any increase or decrease in the number of shares of Common Stock, or (C) any dissolution, liquidation, merger or consolidation of Sovereign or any other corporation. Except as expressly provided herein, no issuance by Sovereign or any Affiliate of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number of shares of Common Stock subject to the SARs or the Aggregate Base Price of such SARs.

(vii) Savings Clause and Intention of this Section 4.4(j). It is the intention of this Section 4.4(j) that upon sale, spin-off or other corporate transaction affecting Travelocity the SARs shall be adjusted or replaced by the Board in any manner that achieves the tax purposes set forth in this clause (vii), does not inequitably result in the enlargement or dilution of the rights of Participants and achieves the purposes of this Plan. No provision of this Section 4.4(j) shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code and Sovereign, upon reasonable request from the Participant, shall amend this Plan or the Participant's Grant Agreement as necessary to comply with Section 409A of the Code, but maintain the economic intent thereof. Furthermore, any election to adjust, modify, exchange, substitute or redeem the SARs shall be done in a manner that is compliant with and only to the extent permitted by the provisions of Section 424 of the Code, with respect to individuals subject to taxation in the U.S.

5. Miscellaneous

5.1 Rights as Stockholder. The Participant shall not have any rights as a stockholder or unitholder with respect to any Common Stock covered by or relating to the SARs granted pursuant to this Plan until the date the Participant becomes the registered owner of such Common Stock. Except as otherwise expressly provided in Section 4.4 hereof, no adjustment to the SARs shall be made for dividends or other rights for which the record date occurs prior to the effective date such stock is registered.

5.2 No Special Employment Rights. Nothing contained in this Plan or any Grant Agreement shall confer upon the Participant any right with respect to the continuation of Employment or interfere in any way with the right of Sovereign or any Affiliate, subject to the terms of any separate employment agreement to the contrary, at any time to terminate such Employment or to increase or decrease the compensation of the Participant from the rate in existence at the time of the grant of the SARs.

5.3 No Obligation to Exercise. The Grant to the Participants of the SARs shall impose no obligation upon the Participant to exercise the SARs.

5.4 Restrictions on Common Stock. The rights and obligations of the Participant with respect to Common Stock obtained through the exercise of a SAR shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

5.5 Notices. Each notice and other communication hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given and shall be deemed to have been duly given on the date it is delivered in person, on the next business day if delivered by overnight mail or other reputable overnight courier, or the third business day if sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the parties as follows:

If to the Participant:

To the most recent address shown on records of Travelocity or its Affiliate.

If to Sovereign:

or to such other address as any party may have furnished to the other in writing in accordance herewith.

5.6 Descriptive Headings. The headings in this Plan are for convenience of reference only and shall not limit or otherwise affect the meaning of the terms contained herein.

5.7 Severability. In the event that one or more of the provisions, subdivisions, words, clauses, phrases or sentences contained herein, or the application thereof in any circumstances, is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect for any reason, the validity, legality and enforceability of any such provision, subdivision, word, clause, phrase or sentence in every other respect and of the remaining provisions, subdivisions, words, clauses, phrases or sentences hereof shall not in any way be impaired, it being intended that all rights, powers and privileges of Sovereign and the Participant shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

5.8 Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party hereto upon any breach or default of any party under the Plan, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under the Plan, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of the Plan, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

5.9 Limitation on Transfer. The SARs shall be exercisable only by the Participant or the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s). Each Permitted Transferee shall be subject to all the restrictions, obligations, and responsibilities as apply to the Participant under this Plan and shall be entitled to all the rights of the Participant. All shares of Common Stock obtained pursuant to SARs granted herein shall not be transferred except as provided in this Plan, the Grant Agreement and/or the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

5.10 Governing Law. The Plan shall be governed by, and construed and enforced in accordance with, the laws of the State of Delaware, without regard to the provisions governing conflict of laws.

Exhibit "A"

STOCK APPRECIATION RIGHT GRANT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT, made as of this day of 2012 by and among Sovereign Holdings, Inc. ("Sovereign") and (the "Participant").

WHEREAS, Sovereign adopted and maintains the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. Amended and Restated Stock Incentive Plan for Travelocity's CEO (the "Plan") to promote the interests of Travelocity and its Affiliates and stockholders by providing the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of Travelocity with an appropriate incentive to encourage them to continue in the employ and provide services for Travelocity or its Affiliates and to improve the growth and profitability of Travelocity and, in connection with the adoption of the Plan, granted the Participant stock appreciation rights or "SARs" (the "Prior SARs") pursuant to a grant agreement dated as of April 25, 2011;

WHEREAS, Section 4.4(i) of the Plan provides that the Board may amend the Plan or any Grant Agreement in any manner; provided, however, that any such amendment shall not impair or adversely affect the Participant's pre-existing rights under this Plan or a Grant Agreement without the Participant's written consent; and

WHEREAS, the parties wish to confirm the amendment and restatement of the Plan and this Grant Agreement and the replacement of the Prior SARs in their entirety with the grant of SARs set forth below, effective as of the date first set forth above, on the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the attached Plan, and to confirm the parties understanding that from and after the Grant Date set forth below and in consideration of the grant contemplated by this Grant Agreement, the CEO will have no further rights and entitlements with respect to the Prior SARs;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of SARs. Pursuant to, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the Plan, Sovereign hereby grants to the Participant SARs with respect to [—] shares of THI Common Stock and [—] Common Units of T.com, having the terms set forth herein. It is understood and agreed that the Prior SARs are hereby cancelled and that the SARs hereby granted are granted in exchange for the Prior SARs.

2. Grant Date. The Grant Date of the SARs hereby granted is the date first set forth above.

3. Incorporation of Plan. All terms, conditions and restrictions of the Plan are incorporated herein and made part hereof as if stated herein. If there is a conflict between the terms and conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the terms and conditions of the Plan, as interpreted by the Board, shall govern. All capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Plan.

4. Base Price. The base price of the THI SARs hereby granted is $ and the base price of the T.com SARs hereby granted is $ . The Participant acknowledges and agrees that the settlement of the SARs is subject to the terms of the Plan.

5. Construction of Agreement. Any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) which is deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction and subject to this section, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability, without affecting in any way the remaining provisions thereof in such jurisdiction or rendering that or any other provisions of this Agreement invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any other jurisdiction. If any covenant should be deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable because its scope is considered excessive, such covenant shall be modified so that the scope of the covenant is reduced only to the minimum extent necessary to render the modified covenant valid, legal and enforceable. No waiver of any provision or violation of this Agreement by Sovereign shall be implied by Sovereign's forbearance or failure to take action. No provision of this Agreement shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code.

6. Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party hereto upon any breach or default of any party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

7. Limitation on Transfer. The SARs shall be settled only for the benefit of the Participant or the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s), as determined in accordance with the terms of the Plan (including without limitation the requirement that the Participant obtain the prior written approval by the Board of any proposed Transfer to a Permitted Transferee during the lifetime of the Participant). Each Permitted Transferee shall be subject to all the restrictions, obligations, and responsibilities as apply to the Participant under the Plan and this Grant Agreement and shall be entitled to all the rights of the Participant under the Plan, provided that in respect of any Permitted Transferee which is a trust or custodianship, the SARs shall become exercisable and/or expire based on the Employment and termination of Employment of the Participant. THIS AGREEMENT, made as of this 15th day of May 2012 by and among Sovereign Holdings, Inc. ("Sovereign") and Carl Sparks (the "Participant").

WHEREAS, Sovereign adopted and maintains the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. Amended and Restated Stock Incentive Plan for Travelocity's CEO (the "Plan") to promote the interests of Travelocity and its Affiliates and stockholders by providing the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of Travelocity with an appropriate incentive to encourage them to continue in the employ and provide services for Travelocity or its Affiliates and to improve the growth and profitability of Travelocity and, in connection with the adoption of the Plan, granted the Participant stock appreciation rights or "SARs" (the "Prior SARs") pursuant to a grant agreement dated as of April 25, 2011;

WHEREAS, Section 4.4(i) of the Plan provides that the Board may amend the Plan or any Grant Agreement in any manner; provided, however, that any such amendment shall not impair or adversely affect the Participant's pre-existing rights under this Plan or a Grant Agreement without the Participant's written consent; and

WHEREAS, the parties wish to confirm the amendment and restatement of the Plan and this Grant Agreement and the replacement of the Prior SARs in their entirety with the grant of SARs set forth below, effective as of the date first set forth above, on the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the attached Plan, and to confirm the parties understanding that from and after the Grant Date set forth below and in consideration of the grant contemplated by this Grant Agreement, the CEO will have no further rights and entitlements with respect to the Prior SARs;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of SARs. Pursuant to, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the Plan, Sovereign hereby grants to the Participant SARs with respect to 2,931,035 shares of THI Common Stock and 2,931,035 Common Units of T.com, having the terms set forth herein. It is understood and agreed that the Prior SARs are hereby cancelled and that the SARs hereby granted are granted in exchange for the Prior SARs.

2. Grant Date. The Grant Date of the SARs hereby granted is the date first set forth above.

3. Incorporation of Plan. All terms, conditions and restrictions of the Plan are incorporated herein and made part hereof as if stated herein. If there is a conflict between the terms and conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the terms and conditions of the Plan, as interpreted by the Board, shall govern. All capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Plan.

4. Base Price. The base price of the THI SARs hereby granted is $2.77 and the base price of the T.com SARs hereby granted is $0.13. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that the settlement of the SARs is subject to the terms of the Plan.

5. Construction of Agreement. Any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) which is deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction and subject to this section, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability, without affecting in any way the remaining provisions thereof in such jurisdiction or rendering that or any other provisions of this Agreement invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any other jurisdiction. If any covenant should be deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable because its scope is considered excessive, such covenant shall be modified so that the scope of the covenant is reduced only to the minimum extent necessary to render the modified covenant valid, legal and enforceable. No waiver of any provision or violation of this Agreement by Sovereign shall be implied by Sovereign's forbearance or failure to take action. No provision of this Agreement shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code.

6. Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party hereto upon any breach or default of any party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

7. Limitation on Transfer. The SARs shall be settled only for the benefit of the Participant or the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s), as determined in accordance with the terms of the Plan (including without limitation the requirement that the Participant obtain the prior written approval by the Board of any proposed Transfer to a Permitted Transferee during the lifetime of the Participant). Each Permitted Transferee shall be subject to all the restrictions, obligations, and responsibilities as apply to the Participant under the Plan and this Grant Agreement and shall be entitled to all the rights of the Participant under the Plan, provided that in respect of any Permitted Transferee which is a trust or custodianship, the SARs shall become exercisable and/or expire based on the Employment and termination of Employment of the Participant. All shares of Common Stock obtained pursuant to the SARs granted herein shall not be transferred except as provided in the Plan and, where applicable, the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

8. Integration. This Agreement, and the other documents referred to herein or delivered pursuant hereto which form a part hereof contain the entire understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter. There are no restrictions, agreements, promises, representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings with respect to the subject matter hereof other than those expressly set forth herein and in the Plan. This Agreement, including without limitation the Plan, supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to its subject matter.

9. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

10. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the provisions governing conflict of laws.

11. Participant Acknowledgment. The Participant hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Plan. The Participant hereby acknowledges that all decisions, determinations and interpretations of the Board in respect of the Plan, this Agreement and the SARs shall be final and conclusive. Adopted September 14, 2012 (the "Effective Date")

1. Purpose of the Plan

The purpose of the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") 2012 Management Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan") is to promote the interests of the Company and its stockholders by providing key employees and, in certain circumstances, directors, service providers and consultants, of the Company and its Affiliates with an appropriate incentive to encourage them to continue in the employ of the Company or Affiliate and to improve the growth and profitability of the Company.

2. Definitions

As used in this Plan, the following capitalized terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Affiliate" shall mean the Company and any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries.

(b) "Affiliated Entity" shall mean any entity related to the Company as a member of a controlled group of corporations in accordance with Section 414(b) of the Code or as a trade or business under common control in accordance with Section 414(c) of the Code, for so long as such entity is so related, including without limitation any Affiliate.

(c) "Awards" shall mean all equity awards granted pursuant to the terms of the Plan including, but not limited to, Non-Qualified Stock Options, Restricted Stock, Restricted Stock Units and Other Stock-Based Awards granted pursuant to the terms of the Plan.

(d) "Board" shall mean the Board of Directors of the Company or any committee appointed by the Board to administer the Plan pursuant to Section 4.

(e) "Cause" shall mean, when used in connection with the termination of a Participant's Employment, (i) if the Participant has an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity as of the Grant Date, the definition used in such employment agreement as of the Grant Date, or (ii) if the Participant does not have an effective employment agreement, unless otherwise provided in the Participant's Grant Agreement, the termination of the Participant's Employment on account of (i) a failure of the Participant to substantially perform his or her duties (other than as a result of physical or mental illness or injury); (ii) the Participant's willful misconduct or gross negligence which is injurious to the Company, any Affiliated Entity, the Majority Stockholder or any of its affiliates (whether financially, reputationally or otherwise); (iii) a breach by a Participant of the Participant's fiduciary duty or duty of loyalty to the Company or any Affiliated Entity; (iv) the Participant's unauthorized removal from the premises of the Company or any Affiliated Entity of any document (in any medium or form) relating to the Company, any Affiliated Entity, the Majority Stockholder, or the customers of the Company or any Affiliated Entity other than in the good faith performance of the Participant's duties; or (v) the indictment or a plea of nolo contendere by the Participant of any felony or other serious crime involving moral turpitude. Any rights the Company or any Affiliated Entity may have hereunder in respect of the events giving rise to Cause shall be in addition to the rights the Company or Affiliated Entity may have under any other agreement with the Employee or at law or in equity. If, subsequent to the termination of Employment of a Participant without an effective employment agreement as of the Grant Date, it is discovered that such Participant's Employment could have been terminated for Cause, as such term is defined above (unless otherwise defined in a Grant Agreement), the Participant's Employment shall, at the election of the Board, in its sole discretion, be deemed to have been terminated for Cause retroactively to the date the events giving rise to Cause occurred. Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, even if an effective employment agreement as of the Grant Date was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Cause (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity).

(f) "Change in Control" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following: (i) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company on a consolidated basis to any Person or group of related persons for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act (a "Group"), together with any Affiliates thereof other than to a Majority Stockholder; (ii) the approval by the holders of the outstanding voting power of the Company of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the Company; (iii) (A) any Person or Group (other than the Majority Stockholder) shall become the beneficial owner (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of Common Stock representing more than 40% of the aggregate outstanding voting power of the Company and such Person or Group actually has the power to vote such Common Stock in any such election and (B) the Majority Stockholder beneficially owns (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, in the aggregate a lesser percentage of the voting power of the Company than such other Person or Group; (iv) the replacement of a majority of the Board over a two-year period from the directors who constituted the Board at the beginning of such period, and such replacement shall not have been approved by a vote of at least a majority of the Board then still in office who either were members of such Board at the beginning of such period or whose election as a member of such Board was previously so approved or who were nominated by, or designees of, a Majority Stockholder or (v) consummation of a merger or consolidation of the Company with another entity in which (A) the holders of the Common Stock of the Company immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction hold, directly or indirectly, immediately following the consummation of the transaction, less than 50% of the common equity interests in the surviving corporation in such transaction and (B) the Majority Stockholder holds less than 35% of the common equity interests in the surviving corporation in such transaction.

Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, (x) "Competing" shall not include activities that Compete with such entity so long as such activities do not Compete with the Company or any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity, and (y) even if an effective employment agreement or an effective non-competition and/or non-solicitation agreement as of the Grant Date was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Competing (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity). (m) "Eligible Employee" shall mean (i) any Employee who is a key executive of the Company or an Affiliate, or (ii) certain other Employees, directors, service providers or consultants who, in the judgment of the Board, should be eligible to participate in the Plan due to the services they perform on behalf of the Company or any Affiliated Entity, it being understood that no individual or entity shall be an Eligible Employee to the extent that the grant of an Award to such individual or entity would cause the Award to be treated as nonqualified deferred compensation under Section 409A of the Code.

(n) "Employment" shall mean, except as otherwise required by Section 409A of the Code, employment with the Company or any Affiliated Entity, and shall include the provision of services as a director or consultant for the Company or any Affiliated Entity. A Participant's Employment shall terminate on the date the Participant is no longer employed by an entity that is at least one of (i) the Company, (ii) an Affiliate, or (iii) an entity that is an Affiliated Entity as of such date. "Employee" and "Employed" shall have correlative meanings.

The Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock as of any such date on which the applicable exchange or inter-dealer quotation system through which trading in the Common Stock regularly occurs is closed shall be the Fair Market Value determined pursuant to the preceding sentence as of the immediately preceding date on which the Common Stock is traded, a bid and ask price is reported or a trading price is reported by any member of NASD selected by the Board. In the event that the price of a share of Common Stock shall not be so reported or furnished, the Fair Market Value shall be determined by the Board in good faith. In any case, the Fair Market Value shall be determined in accordance with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, to the extent applicable.

(t) "Prior Sovereign Plan" means the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. Management Equity Incentive Plan.

(u) "Prior Awards" means awards of Options under the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. Management Equity Incentive Plan.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, if, as of the Grant Date, the Participant is a party to an effective employment with the Company or any Affiliated Entity that contains a different definition of the term "Good Reason" (or any derivation of such term), the definition in such employment agreement shall control. Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, even if an effective employment agreement as of the Grant Date was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Good Reason (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity).

For purposes of clarification, shares of Common Stock that are available for issuance under the Prior Sovereign Plan or that were issued in connection with the expiration, forfeiture of Prior Awards shall not count against the share limit described above.

3.2 Under the Plan, if all or any portion of an Award expires, or is forfeited, terminated or cancelled, without the issuance of shares of Common Stock, or is settled in cash in lieu of shares of Common Stock, or is exchanged with the Committee's permission, prior to the issuance of shares of Common Stock, for an Award not involving shares of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock subject to Awards that have been so forfeited, terminated, cancelled, settled or exchanged or have expired, as the case may be, will again be available for issuance or transfer under the Plan. Shares of Common Stock utilized under the Plan may be either authorized and unissued shares or previously issued Common Stock acquired by the Company, or both, in the sole discretion of the Committee.

4. Administration of the Plan

The Board shall administer the Plan, provided that the Board may appoint a committee to administer the Plan. In the event the Board appoints such a committee, such committee shall have the rights and duties of the Board in respect of the Plan. No member of the Board shall participate in any decision that specifically affects such member's interest in the Plan unless such decision also affects the Awards of other Participants in the same manner.

4.1 Powers of the Board. In addition to the other powers granted to the Board under the Plan, the Board shall have the power: (a) to determine the Eligible Employees to whom Grants shall be made; (b) to determine the time or times when Grants shall be made and to determine the number of shares of Common Stock subject to each such Grant; (c) to prescribe the form of and terms and conditions of any instrument evidencing an Award; (d) to adopt, amend and rescind such rules and regulations as, in its opinion, may be advisable for the administration of the Plan; (e) to construe and interpret the Plan, such rules and regulations and the Grant Agreements; and (f) to make all other determinations necessary or advisable for the administration of the Plan.

4.2 Determinations of the Board. Any Grant, determination, prescription or other act of the Board shall be final and conclusively binding upon all Persons.

4.3 Indemnification of the Board. No member of the Board nor the Majority Stockholder or its employees, partners, directors or associates shall be liable for any action or determination made in good faith with respect to the Plan or any Grant. To the full extent permitted by law, the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless each Person made or threatened to be made a party to any civil or criminal action or proceeding by reason of the fact that such Person, or such Person's testator or intestate, is or was a member of the Board or is or was a Majority Stockholder or an employee, partner, director or associate thereof, to the extent such criminal or civil action or proceeding relates to the Plan.

4.4 Compliance with Applicable Law; Securities Matters; Effectiveness of Option Exercise. The Company shall be under no obligation to effect the registration pursuant to the Securities Act of any shares of Common Stock to be issued hereunder or to effect similar compliance under any state or non-U.S. laws. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Company shall not be required to issue or deliver any certificates evidencing shares of Common Stock underlying any Awards, unless and until the Board has determined, with advice of counsel, that the issuance and delivery of such certificates is in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations of governmental authorities and, if applicable, the requirements of any exchange on which the shares of Common Stock are listed or traded. In addition to the terms and conditions provided herein, the Board may require that a Participant make such reasonable covenants, agreements and representations as the Board, in its sole discretion, deems advisable in order to comply with any such laws, regulations or requirements. The Company may, in its sole discretion, defer the effectiveness of an exercise of an Award hereunder, the issuance or transfer of Common Stock pursuant to any Award, or the lapse of restrictions on shares of Restricted Stock, pending or to ensure compliance under federal, state or non-U.S. securities laws. The Company shall inform the Participant in writing of its decision to defer the effectiveness of the exercise of an Award, the issuance or transfer of Common Stock, or the lapse of restrictions on shares of Restricted Stock pursuant to any Award. During the period that the effectiveness of the exercise of an Option has been deferred, the Participant may, by written notice, withdraw such exercise and obtain the refund of any amount paid with respect thereto.

4.5 Plan Term. The Plan shall terminate automatically on the ten (10) year anniversary of the Effective Date, unless otherwise determined by the Board, and may be terminated on any earlier date as provided in Section 11, but all Grants made on or prior to such date will continue in effect thereafter subject to the terms thereof and of the Plan.

4.6 Employment Agreements. Notwithstanding anything in this Section 4 to the contrary, any action or determination in violation of an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity or any interpretation of any term used in an effective employment agreement with the Company or any Affiliated Entity or any challenge to any good faith determination by the Board hereunder shall be determined, interpreted or challenged pursuant to the dispute resolution provision of such employment agreement, to the extent there is a dispute resolution provision therein.

4.7 Inconsistent Terms. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Plan and the terms of any Grant Agreement, the terms of the Plan shall govern, except as otherwise provided herein.

5. Options

The Committee may from time to time grant Options, subject to the following terms and conditions:

5.1 Identification of Options. The Options granted under the Plan shall be clearly identified in the Grant Agreement as Non-Qualified Stock Options.

5.2 Exercise Price. The Exercise Price of any Option granted under the Plan shall be such price as the Board shall determine (provided that such Exercise Price must be at least equal to the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock on the Grant Date and must be the minimum price otherwise required by applicable law, including Section 409A of the Code) and which shall be specified in the Grant Agreement.

5.3 Grant Date. The Grant Date of the Options shall be the date designated by the Board and specified in the Grant Agreement as of the date the Option is granted.

5.4 Vesting Date of Options. The Board shall specify in the Grant Agreement for an Option the time or times at which, or the conditions upon which, an Option or portion thereof shall become vested and exercisable, provided however, that no Option shall be exercisable after the expiration of 10 years from the Grant Date. Such conditions may relate to service through a specified date, or may be based on the achievement of Performance Measures, a combination of the foregoing, or such other criteria as the Board may establish from time to time. Each Option shall be subject to earlier vesting, expiration, cancellation or termination as provided in the Plan or in the relevant Grant Agreement. Vested portions of the Option (if any) may be exercised only in accordance with Section 5.6 hereof.

In addition, in the event of a Qualifying Termination following a Change in Control, all outstanding Options that vest solely based on continued service through a specified date or dates (the "Time-Based Options") held by a Participant shall immediately vest and become exercisable as of such Qualifying Termination following a Change in Control.

5.5 Exercise of Options. A Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable) may exercise any or all of the vested Options by serving an Exercise Notice on the Company as provided in Section 5.6 hereto.

5.6 Method of Exercise. Subject to Section 5.5, the Option shall be exercised by delivery of written notice to the Company's principal office (the "Exercise Notice"), to the attention of its Secretary, no less than five business days in advance of the effective date of the proposed exercise (the "Exercise Date"). Such notice shall (a) specify the number of shares of Common Stock with respect to which the Option is being exercised, the Grant Date of such Option and the Exercise Date, (b) be signed by the Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable), (c) prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, indicate in writing that the Participant agrees to be bound by the Management Stockholders' Agreement, and (d) if the Option is being exercised by the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s), such Permitted Transferee(s) shall indicate in writing that they agree to and shall be bound by the Plan and Grant Agreement as if they had been original signatories thereto (as provided in Section 10 hereof) and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, by the Management Stockholders' Agreement. The Exercise Notice shall include payment in cash for an amount equal to the Exercise Price multiplied by the number of shares of Common Stock specified in such Exercise Notice or any method otherwise approved by the Board in its sole discretion. In addition, the Participant shall be responsible for the payment of applicable withholding and other taxes in cash that may become due as a result of the exercise of such Option. The Board may, in its sole discretion, permit the person exercising an Option to make the above-described payments in forms other than cash. Notwithstanding the foregoing, except in the case of a Participant (i) whose Employment has been terminated for Cause or (ii) whose Employment has terminated or will terminate and such Participant has Competed or such Participant's subsequent employment is likely to result in such Participant Competing, as determined by the Board in good faith, subject to the Board's discretion, the Company may permit such Participant (or his or her Permitted Transferee, guardian or legal representative, if applicable) to exercise all or any portion of his or her then-exercisable Option through net-physical settlement (to satisfy both the Exercise Price and any applicable withholding taxes), but only to the extent such right or the utilization of such right would not cause the Option to be subject to Section 409A of the Code and to the extent the Board, in its good faith judgment, determines that exercise through net-physical settlement is permitted by, and will not result in any default under, any agreement to which the Company or its Affiliates is a party and that the Company and its Affiliates have sufficient liquidity. The partial exercise of the Option, alone, shall not cause the expiration, termination or cancellation of the remaining Options.

5.7 Certificates of Shares. Subject to Section 4.4 herein, upon the exercise of the Options in accordance with Section 5.6 and, prior to the existence of a Public Market for the Common Stock, upon execution of the Management Stockholders' Agreement, in the Board's sole discretion, certificates of shares of Common Stock may be issued in the name of the Participant and delivered to such Participant or the ownership of such shares shall be otherwise recorded in a book-entry or similar system utilized by the Company as soon as practicable following the Exercise Date. Prior to the existence of a Public Market, no shares of Common Stock shall be issued to or recorded in the name of any Participant until such Participant agrees to be bound by and executes the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

6. Restricted Stock and RSUs

The Committee may from time to time grant awards of Restricted Stock or RSUs, subject to the following terms and conditions:

6.1 Grant Date. The Grant Date of each award of Restricted Stock or RSU shall be the date designated by the Board and specified in the Grant Agreement as the date on which such award of Restricted Stock or RSU is granted.

6.2 Vesting of Restricted Stock and Restricted Stock Units. The Board, in its sole discretion, shall specify in the Grant Agreement the time or times at which, or the conditions upon which, an award of Restricted Stock or portion thereof shall become vested and no longer be forfeitable and the time or times at which, or the conditions upon which, an award of RSUs or portion thereof shall become vested and settled. As of the applicable Vesting Date, each award, or portion thereof, of Restricted Stock granted under the Plan shall cease to be subject to forfeiture and all restrictions shall lapse and each award, or portion thereof, of RSUs shall become subject to settlement at the time or times set forth in the relevant Grant Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, each award of Restricted Stock or RSUs may be subject to earlier vesting, expiration, settlement, cancellation or termination as provided in the Plan or in the relevant Grant Agreement.

6.3 Rights as a Shareholder in Connection with Restricted Stock Awards. Subject to the terms of the Grant Agreement, the Participant will be entitled, at all times on and after the Grant Date, to exercise all rights of a shareholder with respect to the shares of Restricted Stock; provided, however, that unless otherwise determined by the Board at or after the time of grant, the Participant will grant to the Board a proxy to vote the shares of Restricted Stock owned beneficially and of record by the Participant in such manner as shall be determined by the Board in its sole discretion. Subject to the terms of Section 12, prior to the Vesting Date of each award, or portion thereof, of Restricted Stock, all cash, securities and other property paid or otherwise distributed with respect to the Restricted Stock may, at the discretion of the Board (i) be paid out to the holders of awards of Restricted Stock, (ii) be held in custody by the Company and subject to the same vesting and forfeiture conditions described in Section 6 hereof, as specified in the Grant Agreement or such other conditions as the Board may determine or (iii) be forfeited to the Company. For purposes of clarification, Participants shall not have any voting or dividend rights with respect to shares of Common Stock to be issued on vesting and settlement of outstanding RSUs unless otherwise determined by the Board.

6.4. Section 83(b) Election. Unless otherwise determined by the Board in writing in connection with an Award, Participants shall not make an election pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Code with respect to any award, or portion thereof, of shares of Restricted Stock granted pursuant to the Plan. If a Participant makes any such Section 83(b) election following the Grant Date without the prior approval of the Board, the award of Restricted Stock will be immediately and automatically forfeited, without compensation therefor.

7. Performance Based Awards

The Committee may from time to time grant Awards, including, without limitation, Options, shares of Restricted Stock or RSUs, where the Award or portion thereof, shall become vested based on the attainment of certain Performance Measures established by the Board and set forth in the Participant's Grant Agreement. At the time a Performance Award is granted, the Board, in its sole discretion, shall determine and set forth in the relevant Grant Agreement, (i) the length of the Performance Period, (ii) the Performance Measures and (iii) the Performance Targets to be achieved during such Performance Period. If the Board determines that certain Performance Measures or Performance Targets are unsuitable given a change in the operation or structure of the Company, or other events or circumstances, the Board may in its discretion modify such Performance Measures or Performance Targets, in whole or in part, as the Board deems appropriate.

8. Other Stock-Based Awards.

The Board may grant equity-based or equity-related awards not otherwise described herein, in such amounts and subject to such terms and conditions as the Board shall determine (the "Other Stock-Based Awards"). Without limiting the generality of the preceding sentence, each such Other Stock-Based Award may (i) involve the transfer of actual shares of Common Stock to Participants, either at the time of grant or thereafter, or payment in cash or otherwise of amounts based on the value of shares of Common Stock, (ii) be subject to performance-based and/or service-based conditions, (iii) be in the form of stock appreciation rights, phantom stock, performance shares, or share-denominated performance units; provided, that each Other Stock-Based Award shall be denominated in, or shall have a value determined by reference to, a number of shares of Common Stock that is specified at the time of the grant of such award. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent any such Other Stock-Based Award is subject to Section 409A of the Code, the Grant Agreement of such Other Stock-Based Award shall contain terms and conditions that comply with Section 409A of the Code.

9. Expiration of Awards.

With respect to each Participant, such Participant's Award, or portion thereof, which has not become vested shall expire on the date such Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason unless otherwise specified in the Grant Agreement. With respect to each Participant, each Participant's Award that is an Option, or any portion thereof, which has become vested and exercisable on or before the date such Participant's Employment is terminated (or that become exercisable as a result of such termination) shall, unless otherwise provided in the Participant's Grant Agreement, expire on the earlier of (i) the commencement of business on the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for Cause; (ii) 90 days after the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason other than Cause, death or Disability; (iii) one year after the date the Participant's Employment is terminated by reason of death or Disability; or (iv) the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date. All Options, whether vested or unvested, that have not sooner expired shall expire no later than the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date. Any Award that is an Option, or portion thereof, that has become exercisable by a Permitted Transferee on account of the death of a Participant shall expire one year after the date such deceased Participant's Employment terminated by reason of death, unless otherwise provided in the Participant's Grant Agreement, and any Award or portion thereof that has been transferred to a Permitted Transferee during the lifetime of a Participant shall expire in connection with the Participant's termination of Employment at the time set forth under this Section 9 as if the Award were held directly by the Participant, unless otherwise provided in the Participant's Grant Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Board may specify in the Grant Agreement one or more different expiration dates or periods (in the case of Options, not to exceed 10 years from the Grant Date) for any Award granted hereunder, and such expiration date or period shall supersede the foregoing expiration periods.

10. Limitation on Transfer.

10.1 Each Option granted to a Participant shall be exercisable only by such Participant, except that a Participant may assign or transfer his or her rights to exercise with respect to any or all of the Options held by such Participant to: (i) such Participant's beneficiaries or estate upon the death of the Participant (by will, by the laws of descent and distribution or otherwise) and (ii) subject to the prior written approval by the Board and compliance with all applicable tax, securities and other laws, any trust or custodianship created by the Participant, the beneficiaries of which may include only the Participant, the Participant's spouse or the Participant's lineal descendants (by blood or adoption) (each of (i) and (ii), a "Permitted Transferee"). Prior to the applicable Vesting Date or settlement date as the case may be, awards of Restricted Stock, RSUs or Other Stock-Based Awards or any portion thereof, may not be transferred, assigned, pledged, hypothecated, or otherwise encumbered or subject to any lien, obligation, or liability of such Participant unless approved in writing by the Board prior to any such action.

10.2 Condition Precedent to Transfer of Any Award. It shall be a condition precedent to any Transfer of any Option or other Award by any Participant in accordance with the terms of Section 10.1 that the Transferee, shall agree prior to the Transfer in writing with the Company to be bound by the terms of the Plan, the Grant Agreement and the Management Stockholder's Agreement as if he, she or it had been an original signatory thereto, except that any provisions of the Plan based on the Employment (or termination thereof) of the original Participant shall continue to be based on the Employment (or termination thereof) of the original Participant.

10.3 Effect of Void Transfers. In the event of any purported Transfer of any Options in violation of the provisions of the Plan, such purported Transfer shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law, be void and of no effect.

11. Amendment of Terms of Options.

The Board may, in its sole discretion, terminate the Plan or amend the Plan or terms of any Award, provided, however, that any such amendment shall not materially impair or adversely affect the Participants' existing rights under the Plan or such Award without such Participant's written consent.

12. Adjustment upon Changes in Company Stock.

12.1 Increase or Decrease in Issued Shares without Consideration. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of the Company, in the event of any increase or decrease in the number of issued shares of Common Stock resulting from a subdivision or consolidation of shares of Common Stock or the payment of a stock dividend (but only on the shares of Common Stock), or any other increase or decrease in the number of such shares effected without receipt of consideration by the Company, the Board shall make such adjustments with respect to the number of shares of Common Stock subject to grant under this Plan, the number of shares of Common Stock underlying then-outstanding Awards, and/or the Exercise Price per share of Common Stock underlying an Option, as the Board may, in its good faith discretion, consider appropriate to prevent the enlargement or dilution of rights.

12.2 Certain Mergers. Subject to any required action by the stockholders of the Company, in the event that the Company shall be the surviving corporation in any merger or consolidation (except a merger or consolidation as a result of which the holders of shares of Common Stock receive securities of another corporation), the Awards outstanding on the date of such merger or consolidation shall pertain to and apply to (on the same terms and conditions as apply to the Awards, unless otherwise determined by the Board) the securities that a holder of the number of shares of Common Stock underlying any such Award would have received in such merger or consolidation (it being understood that if, in connection with such transaction, the stockholders of the Company retain their shares of Common Stock and are not entitled to any additional or other consideration, the outstanding Awards shall not be affected by such transaction).

12.3 Certain Other Transactions. Except as otherwise provided in a Participant's Grant Agreement, in the event of (i) a dissolution or liquidation of the Company, (ii) a sale of all or substantially all of the Company's assets, (iii) a merger or consolidation involving the Company in which the Company is not the surviving corporation or (iv) a merger or consolidation involving the Company in which the Company is the surviving corporation but the holders of shares of Common Stock receive securities of another corporation and/or other property, including cash, the Board shall, in its good faith discretion, and to the extent such adjustment would not cause the Award to fail to be exempt from Section 409A of the Code and in any event in a manner that complies with Section 409A of the Code, (a) have the power to provide for the exchange of each Award outstanding immediately prior to such event (whether or not then exercisable) for an award on some or all of the property for which the stock underlying such Awards are exchanged and, incident thereto, make an equitable adjustment, as determined by the Board, in the exercise price of the awards, or the number or kind of securities or amount of property underlying the awards and/or, (b) if appropriate, cancel, effective immediately prior to such event, any outstanding Award (whether or not exercisable or vested) and in full consideration of such cancellation pay to the Participant an amount in cash, with respect to each underlying share of Common Stock, equal to the value, as determined by the Board in its good faith discretion, of securities and/or property (including cash) received by such holders of shares of Common Stock as a result of such event, and for awards of Options, equal to the excess of (1) the value, as determined by the Board in its good faith discretion of securities and/or property (including cash) received by such holders of shares of Common Stock as a result of such event over (2) the Exercise Price, in both (1) or (2) above, as the Board may consider appropriate to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

12.4 Extraordinary Dividends. In the event the Company pays an extraordinary cash dividend to the holders of its Common Stock, the Company shall either, at the Company's option, if and only if such right or the utilization of such right would not cause the Award to fail to be exempt from Section 409A of the Code and in any event in a manner that complies with Section 409A of the Code, (i) provide, for the crediting of a notional account (a "Notional Account") of an amount equal to a cash bonus equal to the amount that he or she would have received if he or she owned the shares underlying such Award, or such shares were not subject to forfeiture, as of the record date for such extraordinary dividend, which amount may accrue interest at a reasonable interest rate if determined in good faith by the Board, (ii) adjust the number of shares of Common Stock subject to such Award, and for an Award of Options, adjust either or both of the number of shares of Common Stock subject to such unvested Award and the Exercise Price thereof, in the case of either (i) or (ii), to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights, in such manner as the Board shall determine in good faith, or (iii) provide for a combination of (i) and (ii). For purposes of clarification and not limitation, the Company is not required to treat all Awards in the same manner. Any cash bonus (plus interest thereon) referred to in clause (i) of the preceding sentence will be paid in pro rata installments over the remaining vesting period of any unvested Award to which such bonus relates on each Vesting Date that follows the Payment Date, commencing with the first Vesting Date following the date on which such dividend is paid (the "Payment Date"). A Participant will forfeit any right to any bonus (plus interest thereon) referred to in clause (i) above that has not come due as of his or her termination of Employment, unless the termination of Employment is a Qualifying Termination in which case the Company will pay all remaining bonus payments (plus interest thereon) with respect to the Award on the date of termination of Employment, subject to applicable law. For the avoidance of doubt, an ordinary recurring dividend established by the Company will not be covered by this provision.

12.5 Other Changes. In the event of any change in the capitalization of the Company or a corporate change other than those specifically referred to in Sections 12.1 through 12.4 hereof, or in the event any change in the capitalization of the Company or a corporate change referred to in Sections 12.1 through 12.4 hereof requires it, notwithstanding the provisions of Sections 12.1 through 12.4 above, the Board shall, in its sole discretion, make such adjustments in the number and kind of shares or securities underlying Awards outstanding on the date on which such change occurs, and in the case of Options, in the per-share Exercise Price of each such Option, or to the terms governing such Awards, as the Board may consider appropriate, to prevent dilution or enlargement of rights.

12.6 No Other Rights. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or the Grant Agreements evidencing the Awards, the Participants shall not have any rights by reason of (i) any subdivision or consolidation of shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, (ii) the payment of any dividend, any increase or decrease in the number of shares of Common Stock, or (iii) any dissolution, liquidation, merger or consolidation of the Company or any other corporation. Except as expressly provided in the Plan or the Grant Agreements evidencing the Awards, no issuance by the Company of shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, or securities convertible into shares of Common Stock or shares of stock of any class, shall affect, and no adjustment by reason thereof shall be made with respect to, the number of shares of Common Stock underlying Awards or the Exercise Price of any Options.

13.1 Withholding of Taxes. To satisfy any minimum federal, state, or local taxes or minimum withholding of any kind required by law to be withheld with respect to any vesting, payments, distributions and property transferred under this Plan, the Company shall have the right to (i) deduct an amount from payments of any kind otherwise due to the Participant; (ii) deduct a number of shares of Common Stock that would otherwise be delivered to or held by Participant; or (iii) require the Participant to deliver to the Company an amount in cash, in any case as determined by the Company in its sole discretion, sufficient to satisfy any such obligation.

13.2 No Rights as a Stockholder. Except as otherwise expressly specified herein or in a Grant Agreement, Participants shall not have any rights as stockholders with respect to any shares of Common Stock covered by or relating to an Award under the Plan until the date the Participants become the registered owners (directly or indirectly) of such shares. Except as otherwise expressly provided in Sections 11 and 12 hereof, no adjustment to any Award shall be made for dividends or other rights for which the record date occurs prior to the effective date such Common Stock is registered.

13.3 No Special Employment Rights. Nothing contained in the Plan shall confer upon the Participants any right with respect to the continuation of their Employment or interfere in any way with the right of the Company or any Affiliated Entity, subject to the terms of any separate Employment agreements to the contrary, at any time to terminate such Employment or to increase or decrease the compensation of the Participants from the rate in existence at the time of the grant of any Award.

13.4 Restrictions on Common Stock. The rights and obligations of the Participants with respect to Common Stock underlying any Award granted under the Plan shall be governed by the terms and conditions of the Management Stockholders' Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein or in a Grant Agreement, [prior to the occurrence of an initial public offering] no shares of Common Stock shall be issued to any Participant in connection with the vesting, exercise, settlement or otherwise with respect to any Award until the Participant has first agreed in writing to be bound by the terms and conditions of and become a signatory to the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

13.5 Notices. Each notice and other communication hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given and shall be deemed to have been duly given on the date it is delivered in person, on the next business day if delivered by overnight mail or other reputable overnight courier, or the third business day if sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the parties as follows:

13.6 Descriptive Headings. The headings in the Plan are for convenience of reference only and shall not limit or otherwise affect the meaning of the terms contained herein.

13.7 Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions, subdivisions, words, clauses, phrases or sentences contained herein, or the application thereof in any circumstances, is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect for any reason, the validity, legality and enforceability of any such provision, subdivision, word, clause, phrase or sentence in every other respect and of the remaining provisions, subdivisions, words, clauses, phrases or sentences hereof shall not in any way be impaired, it being intended that all rights, powers and privileges of the Company and Participants shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

(Non-Qualified Stock Options)

THIS AGREEMENT, made as of this day of 20 between Sovereign Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") and (the "Participant").

WHEREAS, the Company has adopted and maintains the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. 2012 Management Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan") to promote the interests of the Company and its Affiliates and stockholders by providing the Company's key employees and others with an appropriate incentive to encourage them to continue in the employ of and provide services for the Company or its Affiliates and to improve the growth and profitability of the Company;

WHEREAS, the Plan provides for the Grant to Participants of Non-Qualified Stock Options to purchase shares of Common Stock of the Company.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of Options. Pursuant to, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the Plan, the Company hereby grants to the Participant a NON-QUALIFIED STOCK OPTION (the "Option") with respect to shares of Common Stock of the Company.

2. Grant Date. The Grant Date of the Option hereby granted is .

3. Vesting of Options. The Options shall vest as follows: 25% shall vest on the first anniversary of the Grant Date, and the remainder shall vest in equal installments of 6.25% at the end of each successive three month period commencing on the first anniversary of the Grant Date, until 100% of the Options are fully vested, subject in all cases to the Participant's continued Employment through each such date (each such date, a "Vesting Date"). In the event of a Qualifying Termination following a Change in Control, the Options shall immediately vest and become exercisable as of such Qualifying Termination following a Change in Control.

4. Expiration of Options. The Participant's Option(s), or portion thereof, which have not become exercisable shall expire on the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason. The Participant's Option(s), or any portion thereof, which have become exercisable on or before the date the Participant's Employment is terminated (or that become exercisable as a result of such termination) shall expire on the earlier of (i) the commencement of business on the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for Cause; (ii) 90 days after the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason other than Cause, death or Disability; (iii) one year after the date the Participant's Employment is terminated by reason of death or Disability; or (iv) the 10th anniversary of the Grant Date for such Option(s). All Options, whether vested or unvested, that have not sooner expired shall expire no later than the tenth anniversary of the Grant Date. Any Option, or portion thereof, that has become exercisable by a Permitted Transferee on account of the death of the Participant shall expire one year after the date the deceased Participant's Employment terminated by reason of death, and any Option or portion thereof that has been transferred to a Permitted Transferee during the lifetime of the Participant shall expire in connection with the Participant's termination of Employment at the time set forth under this Section 4 as if the Option were held directly by the Participant.

5. Incorporation of Plan. All terms, conditions and restrictions of the Plan are incorporated herein and made part hereof as if stated herein. If there is any conflict between the terms and conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Plan, as interpreted by the Board, shall govern. All capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Plan.

6. Exercise Price; Exercisability. The exercise price of each share of Common Stock underlying the Option hereby granted is $. The Participant acknowledges and agrees that the exercise of the Option is subject to the terms of the Plan, including pursuant to Sections 5.5 and 5.6.

7. Construction of Agreement. Any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) which is deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction and subject to this section, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability, without affecting in any way the remaining provisions thereof in such jurisdiction or rendering that or any other provisions of this Agreement invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any other jurisdiction. If any covenant should be deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable because its scope is considered excessive, such covenant shall be modified so that the scope of the covenant is reduced only to the minimum extent necessary to render the modified covenant valid, legal and enforceable. No waiver of any provision or violation of this Agreement by the Company shall be implied by the Company's forbearance or failure to take action. No provision of this Agreement shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code.

8. Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party hereto upon any breach or default of any party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

9. Limitation on Transfer. The Option shall be exercisable only by the Participant or the Participant's Permitted Transferee(s), as determined in accordance with the terms of the Plan (including without limitation the requirement that the Participant obtain the prior written approval by the Board of any proposed Transfer to a Permitted Transferee during the lifetime of the Participant). Each Permitted Transferee shall be subject to all the restrictions, obligations, and responsibilities as apply to the Participant under the Plan and this Grant Agreement and shall be entitled to all the rights of the Participant under the Plan, provided that in respect of any Permitted Transferee which is a trust or custodianship, the Option shall become exercisable and/or expire based on the Employment and termination of Employment of the Participant. All shares of Common Stock obtained pursuant to the Option granted herein shall not be transferred except as provided in the Plan and, where applicable, the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

10. Integration. This Agreement, and the other documents referred to herein or delivered pursuant hereto which form a part hereof contain the entire understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter. There are no restrictions, agreements, promises, representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings with respect to the subject matter hereof other than those expressly set forth herein and in the Plan. This Agreement, including without limitation the Plan, supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to its subject matter.

11. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

12. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the provisions governing conflict of laws.

13. Participant Acknowledgment. The Participant hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Plan. The Participant hereby acknowledges that all decisions, determinations and interpretations of the Board in respect of the Plan, this Agreement and the Option shall be final and conclusive. The Participant further acknowledges that, prior to the existence of a Public Market, no exercise of the Option or any portion thereof shall be effective unless and until the Participant has executed the Management Stockholders' Agreement and the Participant hereby agrees to be bound thereby.

* * * * *

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Agreement to be duly executed by its duly authorized officer and said Participant has hereunto signed this Agreement on his own behalf, thereby representing that he has carefully read and understands this Agreement, the Plan and the Management Stockholders' Agreement as of the day and year first written above.

2. Grant Date. The Grant Date of the RSUs is .

3. Vesting of RSUs. Twenty-five percent (25%) of the RSUs shall vest on March 15 in each of calendar years 2014, 2015, 2016 and 2017 (each, a "Vesting Date") if, as of the end of the Company's most recent fiscal year ending prior to such Vesting Date, the Company has achieved at least ninety-five percent (95%) of the EBITDA target for such fiscal year determined by the Board, consistent with the annual business plan for such fiscal year, on or before the ninetieth (90th) day of such fiscal year, subject in each case to the Participant's continued Employment through each such Vesting Date.

   Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Participant has a Qualifying Termination following a Change in Control and such termination occurs on or after March 15, 2013 , the RSUs that would have vested on the first Vesting Date immediately following such Qualifying Termination will vest on the scheduled Vesting Date if the Company has achieved at least ninety-five percent (95%) of the EBITDA target for the Company's most recent fiscal year ending prior to such Vesting Date, as determined by the Board or the board of directors or compensation committee of the surviving corporation, as applicable.

   In the event that ninety-five percent (95%) of the applicable EBITDA target for any fiscal year is not achieved as determined by the Board or the board of directors or compensation committee of the surviving corporation, as applicable, then the portion of the RSUs that would have vested on such Vesting Date will be forfeited immediately as of such determination. In addition, in the event the Participant's employment terminates prior to the applicable Vesting Date for any RSUs for any reason other than as set forth above in respect of a Qualifying Termination following a Change in Control, such unvested RSUs will be immediately forfeited as of such termination of employment.

Settlement of any RSUs granted hereunder will be made in the form of shares of Common Stock no later than the fifteenth day of the third month following the last day of the year in which the RSUs vest (each such date, a "Settlement Date"), provided that the Participant has executed the Management Stockholders' Agreement in the form provided by the Company. For purposes of clarification, if a Participant's employment terminates after the applicable Vesting Date of any RSUs but prior to the Settlement Date of such RSUs (including as a result of a Qualifying Termination following a Change in Control), such RSUs will remain vested and be subject to settlement by the Company.

4. Rights as a Shareholder. The Participant shall have no rights as a stockholder of the Company with respect to any shares of Common Stock covered by or relating to the RSUs until the date of issuance to the Participant of a certificate or other evidence of ownership representing such shares of Common Stock in settlement thereof. For purposes of clarification, the Participant shall not have any voting or dividend rights with respect to shares of Common Stock to be issued on vesting and settlement of outstanding RSUs.

5. Incorporation of Plan. All terms, conditions and restrictions of the Plan are incorporated herein and made part hereof as if stated herein. If there is any conflict between the terms and conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Plan, as interpreted by the Board, shall govern. All capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Plan.

6. Construction of Agreement. Any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) which is deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction and subject to this section, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability, without affecting in any way the remaining provisions thereof in such jurisdiction or rendering that or any other provisions of this Agreement invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any other jurisdiction. If any covenant should be deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable because its scope is considered excessive, such covenant shall be modified so that the scope of the covenant is reduced only to the minimum extent necessary to render the modified covenant valid, legal and enforceable. No waiver of any provision or violation of this Agreement by the Company shall be implied by the Company's forbearance or failure to take action. No provision of this Agreement shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code.

7. Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party hereto upon any breach or default of any party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

8. Limitation on Transfer. Prior to the applicable Settlement Date, this award of RSUs, or any portion thereof, may not be transferred, assigned, pledged, hypothecated, or otherwise encumbered or subject to any lien, obligation, or liability, unless approved in writing by the Board prior to any such action.

9. Integration. This Agreement, and the other documents referred to herein or delivered pursuant hereto which form a part hereof contain the entire understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter. There are no restrictions, agreements, promises, representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings with respect to the subject matter hereof other than those expressly set forth herein and in the Plan. This Agreement, including without limitation the Plan, supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to its subject matter.

10. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

11. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the provisions governing conflict of laws.

12. Participant Acknowledgment. The Participant hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Plan. The Participant hereby acknowledges that all decisions, determinations and interpretations of the Board in respect of the Plan, this Agreement and the RSUs shall be final and conclusive. The Participant further acknowledges that, prior to the existence of a Public Market, no shares of Common Stock shall be issued or recorded in the name of the Participant unless and until the Participant has executed the Management Stockholders' Agreement and the Participant hereby agrees to be bound thereby. In the event the Participant has not executed or previously become party to the Management Stockholders' Agreement on or before the applicable Settlement Date, the shares of Common Stock that would be issued on such Settlement Date shall be forfeited and the Participant shall have no right to receive any such shares of Common Stock.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Agreement to be duly executed by its duly authorized officer and said Participant has hereunto signed this Agreement on his own behalf, thereby representing that he has carefully read and understands this Agreement, the Plan and the Management Stockholders' Agreement as of the day and year first written above.

Exhibit 10.19

RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT GRANT AGREEMENT

THIS RESTRICTED STOCK UNIT GRANT AGREEMENT (this "Agreement") is made as of this 1st day of November 2012 by and between Sovereign Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") and Carl Sparks (the "Grantee").

WHEREAS, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") has approved the grant of a special equity award in the form of restricted stock units based upon an aggregate value of up to three million dollars ($3,000,000) and able to be settled at the Board's discretion in shares of the Company's common stock, par value US$.00001 per share (the "Common Stock"), subject to the restrictions set forth in this Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement, as defined below (the "RSUs"); and

WHEREAS, the Grantee holds stock appreciation rights related to the appreciation in value of the business of Travelocity Holdings, Inc. ("Travelocity"), as set forth on Schedule 1 hereto (the "Legacy SARs").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Definitions. As used in this Agreement, the following capitalized terms shall have the following meanings:

1.1 "Affiliate" shall mean the Company and any of its direct or indirect subsidiaries.

1.2 "Affiliated Entity" shall mean any entity related to the Company as a member of a controlled group of corporations in accordance with Section 414(b) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") or as a trade or business under common control in accordance with Section 414(c) of the Code, for so long as such entity is so related, including without limitation any Affiliate.

1.3 "Change in Control" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events after the Grant Date: (i) any sale, lease, exchange or other transfer (in one transaction or a series of related transactions) of all or substantially all of the assets of the Company and its Affiliates to any Person or group of related persons for purposes of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act (a "Group"), other than to a Majority Stockholder; (ii) the approval by the holders of the outstanding voting power of the Company of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of the Company; (iii) after taking into account all relevant transactions, (A) any Person or Group (other than the Majority Stockholder) shall become the beneficial owner (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of stock of the Company representing more than 40% of the aggregate outstanding voting power of the Company securities and (B) the Majority Stockholder beneficially owns (within the meaning of Section 13(d) of the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, in the aggregate a lesser percentage of the voting power of the Company than such other Person or Group; (iv) the replacement of a majority of the directors on the Board over a two-year period from the directors who constituted such Board at the beginning of such period, and such replacement shall not have been approved by a vote of at least a majority of the directors on the Board then still in office who either were members of such Board at the beginning of such period or whose election as a member of such Board was previously so approved or who were nominated by, or designees of, a Majority Stockholder; (v) consummation of a merger or consolidation of the Company with another entity in which, after taking into account all relevant transactions, (A) the holders of the stock of the Company immediately prior to the consummation of the transaction hold, directly or indirectly, immediately following the consummation of the transaction, less than 50% of the common equity interests in the surviving corporation in such transaction and (B) the Majority Stockholder holds less than 35% of the common equity interests in the surviving corporation in such transaction; or (vi) an event described in clauses (i), (iii) or (v) above in which all references to the Company in such clauses are replaced with references to Travelocity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if there occurs any spin-off, sale or other similar transaction with respect to Travelocity and one or more RSUs granted to the Grantee remain outstanding following such transaction, then the definition of Change in Control following such transaction for purposes of any such RSU shall be modified by the Board to reference the entity resulting from such transaction rather than the Company or Travelocity.

1.4 "Compete" shall mean, during Employment and for the one year period following the termination of the Grantee's Employment, (A) becoming an employee, director, or independent contractor of, or a consultant to, or performing any services for, any Person engaged in activities competitive to those of the Company or any Affiliated Entity or (B) soliciting or hiring or attempting to solicit or hire (1) any customer or supplier in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company or any Affiliated Entity or (2) any Employee or individual who was an Employee within the six-month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his or her Employment with the Company or any Affiliated Entity. Once an entity ceases to be an Affiliated Entity, (x) "Competing" shall not include activities that Compete with such entity so long as such activities do not Compete with the Company or any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity, and (y) even if an effective employment agreement or an effective non-competition and/or non-solicitation agreement as of the Grant Date was with such entity, such agreement shall continue to apply with regard to defining Competing (and for such purpose references to such entity shall be deemed to be references to the Company and any entity that continues to be an Affiliated Entity). "Competed" and "Competing" shall have correlative meanings.

1.5 "Employment" shall mean employment with the Company or any Affiliated Entity, and shall include the provision of services as a director or consultant for the Company or any Affiliated Entity. The Grantee's Employment shall terminate on the date the Grantee is no longer employed by an entity that is at least one of (i) the Company, (ii) an Affiliate, or (iii) an entity that is an Affiliated Entity as of such date. "Employee" and "Employed" shall have correlative meanings.

1.6 "Fair Market Value" shall mean, as of any date (1) prior to the existence of a Public Market, the value per share of Common Stock as determined in good faith by the Board and taking into account the fair market value of the entire equity of the Company, and any relevant factors determinative of value, without, however, giving effect to any discount attributable to the size of any person's holdings of Common Stock, any control premium or discount or any voting rights or lack thereof; or (2) on which a Public Market exists, (i) closing price on such day of a share of Common Stock, as reported on the principal securities exchange on which shares of Common Stock are then listed or admitted to trading or (ii) if not so reported, the average of the closing bid and ask prices on such day as reported on the National Association of Securities Dealers Automated Quotation System or (iii) if not so reported, as furnished by any member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD") selected by the Board. The Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock as of any such date on which the applicable exchange or inter-dealer quotation system through which trading in the Common Stock or Sovereign Common Stock, as applicable, regularly occurs is closed shall be the Fair Market Value determined pursuant to the preceding sentence as of the immediately preceding date on which the Common Stock is traded, a bid and ask price is reported or a trading price is reported by any member of NASD selected by the Board. In the event that the price of a share of Common Stock shall not be so reported or furnished, the Fair Market Value shall be determined by the Board in good faith.

1.7 "Financing Agreement" shall mean any guarantee, financing or security agreement or document entered into by the Company or any of its Affiliates.

1.8 "Majority Stockholder" shall mean, collectively or individually, as the context requires, TPG Partners IV, L.P., TPG Partners V, L.P., Silver Lake Technology Partners II, L.P., Silver Lake Partners II, L.P. and/or their respective affiliates.

1.9 "Management Stockholders' Agreement" shall mean the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. Management Stockholders' Agreement by and among the Company, the Majority Stockholder and the Management Stockholders (as defined therein).

1.10 "Person" shall mean an individual, partnership, corporation, limited liability company, unincorporated organization, trust or joint venture, or a governmental agency or political subdivision thereof.

1.11 "Public Market" shall be deemed to exist if the Common Stock is registered under Section 12(b) or 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and trading regularly occurs in, on or through the facilities of securities exchanges and/or inter-dealer quotation systems in the United States (within the meaning of Section 902(n) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended) or any designated offshore securities market (within the meaning of Rule 902(a) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended).

1.12 "Tranche Value" shall mean, for each Vesting Event, the applicable dollar value to be provided in settlement, as set forth in Section 5 of this Agreement.

1.13 "Vesting Event" shall mean the vesting of a portion of the RSUs granted under this Agreement as of a date specified in Section 5.1 of this Agreement or as of the occurrence of a Change in Control as provided in Section 5.6 of this Agreement.

2. Grant of Restricted Stock Units. Pursuant to, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement as defined below, the Company hereby grants to the Grantee a number of RSUs having an aggregate value of three million dollars ($3,000,000.00).

3. Grant Date. The Grant Date of the RSUs hereby granted is November 1, 2012.

4. Rights of the Grantee. The Grantee's rights with respect to each respective tranche of RSUs shall not vest and will remain forfeitable at all times prior to the occurrence of the applicable Vesting Event. The Grantee shall not be entitled to exercise the rights of a shareholder with respect to the RSUs unless and until such RSUs are settled and shares of Common Stock are issued in settlement thereof. The Grantee may not be granted any kind of dividend or compensation payment for dividend in respect of any RSUs unless and until such RSUs vest and are settled in shares of Common Stock, subject to the provisions of the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

5. Vesting and Settlement.

5.1 Vesting. The RSUs granted under this Agreement shall vest in six installments, as set forth in the chart below.

Vesting Event	Vesting Date	Tranche Value
1st Vesting:	December 15, 2012	Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000.00)
2nd Vesting:	June 15, 2013	Four Hundred Forty Thousand Dollars ($440,000.00)
3rd Vesting:	December 15, 2013	Four Hundred Eighty Thousand Dollars ($480,000.00)
4th Vesting:	June 15, 2014	Five Hundred Twenty Thousand Dollars ($520,000.00)
5th Vesting:	December 15, 2014	Five Hundred Sixty Thousand Dollars ($560,000.00)
6th Vesting:	June 15, 2015	Six Hundred Thousand Dollars ($600,000.00)

5.2 Settlement. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, RSUs shall be settled in shares of Common Stock, cash or a combination of both shares of Common Stock and cash, as determined by the Board in its sole discretion. If the Company elects to settle the RSUs that vest on a particular Vesting Event in shares of Common Stock, the number of shares of Common Stock delivered to the Grantee in respect of such Vesting Event shall equal the quotient obtained by dividing the applicable Tranche Value by the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock as of the Vesting Event, rounded down to the nearest whole share, with any remainder in respect of a partial share settled in cash. If the Company elects to settle the RSUs that vest on a particular Vesting Event, or any portion thereof, in cash, the amount of cash delivered will equal the Tranche Value set forth above, or a proportionate amount of such Tranche Value, in respect of such Vesting Event.

5.3 SAR Forfeiture. The Grantee agrees, as a condition to the Grantee's right to receive either cash or shares of Common Stock in settlement of the RSUs, that up to thirty percent (30%) of his total Legacy SARs grant in the amount of 879,311 unvested THI SARs and 879,311 unvested T.com SARs shall be forfeited upon the occurrence of the first three Vesting Events, as set forth in the chart below.

Vesting Event	THI SARs Forfeited	T.com SARs Forfeited
December 15, 2012	293,104	293,104
June 15, 2013	293,104	293,104
December 15, 2013	293,103	293,103

The Legacy SARs to be forfeited pursuant to this Agreement shall be those with the nearest future vesting date to the applicable Vesting Event.

If any portion of the Legacy SARs is forfeited pursuant to this Section 5.3, the Grantee shall cease to have any rights with respect to such Legacy SARs.

5.4 Delivery of Shares. In the event that the Board determines to settle a tranche of RSUs in shares of Common Stock, the Company shall issue certificates, or make a "book entry" on the books and records of the Company, representing the shares of Common Stock issued and held by each Grantee. The shares of Common Stock shall at all times be subject to the terms and conditions of the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

5.5 Termination of Employment. Unvested RSUs will expire on the date of termination of the Grantee's Employment for any reason and no consideration will be given in exchange for such unvested RSUs.

5.6 Change in Control. Upon a Change in Control (i) prior to the occurrence of the first two (2) Vesting Events, the vesting of RSUs attributable to the subsequent two (2) Vesting Events scheduled to occur following the Change in Control shall be accelerated; (ii) prior to the occurrence of the first three (3) Vesting Events, but following the occurrence of the first two (2) Vesting Events, the vesting of RSUs attributable to the third (3rd) Vesting Event shall be accelerated; or (iii) after the occurrence of the third (3rd) Vesting Event, no additional unvested RSUs shall be accelerated. After giving effect to the acceleration described in the preceding sentence, any remaining unvested RSUs shall be cancelled upon a Change in Control. Any acceleration of RSUs resulting from a Change in Control shall result in the forfeiture of ten percent (10%) of the Legacy SARs for each accelerated Vesting Event. For the avoidance of doubt, any remaining Legacy SARs following the application of the preceding sentence shall not be forfeited due to this Agreement but will remain subject to the provisions in the definitive documentation for such Legacy SARs, including those relating to Change in Control.

6. Conditions to the Settlement of RSUs with Common Stock.

6.1 Stockholders' Agreement. As a condition to the Grantee's right to receive any shares of Common Stock under this Agreement, the Grantee agrees to be bound by the Management Stockholders' Agreement. This grant of RSUs, and the settlement in shares of Common Stock contemplated hereby, is conditioned upon both (i) the Grantee executing this Agreement and returning the executed agreements to the Company on or before December 1, 2012 and (ii) the Management Stockholders Agreement previously executed by the Grantee effective as of April 25, 2011 remaining in effect.

6.2 Drag Along Rights, Tag Along Rights and Other Restrictions. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, shares of Common Stock issued in settlement of the RSUs will be subject to Sections 4 and 5 (concerning Drag Along Rights, Tag Along Rights and Piggyback Registration Rights) and Section 3(a) (concerning Transfer Restrictions) of the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

7. Call Rights; Put Rights.

7.1 Call Rights. The Company (or its designated assignee) shall have the right, at any time following the date that is one hundred eighty one (181) days following a Vesting Event, or immediately upon the termination of the Grantee's employment, to purchase from the Grantee, and upon the exercise of such right the Grantee shall sell to the Company (or its designated assignee), all or any portion of the shares of Common Stock acquired by the Grantee and held by the Grantee as of the date as of which such right is exercised at a price per Share equal to the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock with respect to any Common Stock to be purchased, determined as of the date as of which such right is exercised; provided, that in the event the Grantee is terminated for Cause or the Grantee Competes, the price per Share with respect to all shares of Common Stock shall be the lesser of (i) Fair Market Value as of the date the call right is exercised; and (ii) Fair Market Value as of the date the applicable tranche of RSUs vested (the "Bad Leaver Price"). The Company (or its designated assignee) shall exercise such right by delivering to the Grantee, as applicable, a written notice specifying its intent to purchase shares of Common Stock held by the Grantee (the "Call Notice"), the date as of which such right is to be exercised and the number of shares of Common Stock to be purchased. Such purchase and sale shall occur on such date as the Company (or its designated assignee) shall specify, which date shall not be later than ninety (90) days after the fiscal quarter-end immediately following the date as of which the Company's right is exercised; provided that the Company may delay any such payment in the event such payment will result in the violation of the terms or provisions of, or result in a default or event of default under, any Financing Agreement in effect on such date; and provided, further, that the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a waiver of any such violation, default or event of default.

7.2 Put Rights. The Grantee shall have the right, at any time following the date that is one hundred eighty one (181) days following a Vesting Event, to require that the Company (or its designated assignee) purchase from the Grantee, and upon the exercise of such right the Grantee shall sell to the Company (or its designated assignee), all of the shares of Common Stock acquired by the Grantee and held by the Grantee as of the date as of which such right is exercised at a price per Share equal to the Fair Market Value of a share of Common Stock with respect to any Common Stock to be purchased, determined as of the date as of which such right is exercised; provided, that in the event the Grantee is terminated for Cause or the Grantee Competes, the price per Share with respect to all shares of Common Stock shall be the lesser of (i) Fair Market Value as of the date the call right is exercised; and (ii) the Bad Leaver

Price. The Grantee shall exercise such right by delivering to the Company (or its designated assignee) a written notice specifying his intent to sell shares of Common Stock held by the Grantee (the "Put Notice"), the date as of which such right is to be exercised and the number of shares of Common Stock to be purchased. Such purchase and sale shall occur on such date as the Company (or its designated assignee) shall specify, which date shall not be later than ninety (90) days after the fiscal quarter-end immediately following the date as of which the Company's right is exercised; provided that the Company may delay any such payment in the event such payment will result in the violation of the terms or provisions of, or result in a default or event of default under, any Financing Agreement in effect on such date; and provided, further, that the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain a waiver of any such violation, default or event of default.

7.3 Payment Delays. In the event the payment of the purchase price in cash would be delayed as a result of a restriction imposed by a Financing Agreement as provided above, such payment may be made without the application of further conditions or impediments no later than two years after the date the Company's purchase right or the Grantee's sale right is exercised in accordance with this Section 7 or, if earlier, as soon as practicable after the payment of such purchase price would no longer result in the violation of the terms or provisions of, or result in a default or event of default under, any Financing Agreement, and such payment shall equal the amount that would have been paid to the Grantee if no delay had occurred plus interest for the period from the date on which the purchase price would have been paid but for the delay in payment provided herein to the date on which such payment is made (the "Delay Period"), calculated at an annual rate equal to the average annual prime rate charged during the Delay Period by a nationally recognized bank designated by the Board (the "Calculated Interest Rate"). Alternatively, the Company may pay the purchase price in the form of a note bearing interest at the Calculated Interest Rate. In the event the Company or the Grantee has exercised its right pursuant to this Section 7 and the Grantee is thereafter deemed terminated for Cause or the Grantee Competes, the Grantee shall be obligated to deliver to the Company, within thirty (30) days of notice thereof, the excess, if any, of the price per share of Common Stock paid by the Company over the Bad Leaver Price.

8. Disclaimer of Rights. No provision in this Agreement shall be construed to confer upon the Grantee the right to remain in the employ or service of the Company or any Affiliated Entity, or to interfere in any way with any contractual or other right or authority of the Company or any Affiliated Entity either to increase or decrease the compensation or other payments to the Grantee at any time, or to terminate the Grantee's Employment with the Company or an Affiliated Entity.

9. Withholding of Taxes. To satisfy any federal, state, or local taxes or withholding of any kind required by law to be withheld with respect to any vesting, payments, distributions and property transferred under this Agreement, the Company shall have the right to (i) deduct an amount from payments of any kind otherwise due to the Grantee; (ii) deduct a number of shares of Common Stock that would otherwise be delivered to or held by Grantee; or (iii) require the Grantee to deliver to the Company an amount in cash, in any case as determined by the Company in its sole discretion, sufficient to satisfy any such obligation.

10. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall be determined to be illegal or unenforceable by any court of law in any jurisdiction, the remaining provisions thereof and hereof shall be severable and enforceable in accordance with their terms, and all provisions shall remain enforceable in any other jurisdiction.

11. Representations. The Grantee hereby represents and warrants to the Company and its Affiliated Entities that: (a) the Grantee is aware that this Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement provide significant restrictions on the ability of the Grantee to sell, transfer, assign, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber the RSUs and any shares of Common Stock issued in settlement thereof; (b) the Grantee has duly executed and delivered this Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement; and (c) the Grantee's authorization, execution, delivery, and performance of this Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement does not conflict with any other agreement or arrangement to which the Grantee is a party or by which he is bound.

12. Integration. This Agreement, and the other documents referred to herein or delivered pursuant hereto, contain the entire understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter and there are no restrictions, agreements, promises, representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings with respect to the subject matter hereof other than those expressly set forth in such documents. This Agreement and the Management Stockholders' Agreement supersede all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to its subject matter.

13. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

14. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the provisions thereof governing conflict of laws.

15. Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, successors, and assigns.

16. Notice. All notices or other communications which may be or are required to be given by any party to any other party pursuant to this Agreement shall be delivered in accordance with the requirements of the Management Stockholders' Agreement.

17. Section 409A. The intent of the parties is that payments and benefits under this Agreement comply with Section 409A of the Code and the regulations and guidance promulgated thereunder (except to the extent exempt as short-term deferrals or otherwise) and, accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted, this Agreement shall be interpreted to be in compliance therewith. If the Grantee notifies the Company (with specificity as to the reason therefor) that the Grantee believes that any provision of this Agreement would cause the Grantee to incur any additional tax or interest under Section 409A of the Code or the Company independently makes such determination, the Company shall, after consulting with the Grantee and solely in the event and to the extent the Company's outside counsel deems it necessary to avoid any such additional tax or interest, reform such provision to comply with Section 409A of the Code. To the extent that any provision hereof is modified in order to comply with Section 409A of the Code, such modification shall be made in good faith and shall, to the maximum extent reasonably possible, maintain the original intent and economic benefit to the Grantee and the Company of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Section 409A of the Code. In no event shall the Company be required to pay the Grantee any "gross-up" or other payment with respect to any taxes or penalties imposed under Section 409A of the Code with respect to any benefit paid or promised to the Grantee hereunder.

18. Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party hereto upon any breach or default of any party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Company has caused this Agreement to be duly executed by its duly authorized officer and the Grantee has hereunto signed this Agreement on his own behalf, thereby representing that he has carefully read and understands this Agreement as of the day and year first written above.

WHEREAS, the Company has adopted and maintains the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. 2012 Management Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan") to promote the interests of the Company and its Affiliates and stockholders by providing the Company's key employees, directors and others with an appropriate incentive to encourage them to continue in the employ of and provide services for the Company or its Affiliates and to improve the growth and profitability of the Company;

WHEREAS, the Plan provides for the Grant to Participants of Restricted Stock Units ("RSUs").

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants hereinafter set forth, the parties hereto hereby agree as follows:

1. Grant of RSUs. Pursuant to, and subject to, the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the Plan, the Company hereby grants to the Participant RSUs.

2. Grant Date. The Grant Date of the RSUs is .

3. Vesting of RSUs. The RSUs shall vest in equal installments of 6.25% at the end of each successive three month period following the Grant Date, until 100% of the RSUs are fully vested, subject in all cases to the Participant's continued Employment (which, as defined in the Plan, includes provision of services as a director) through each such date (each such date, a "Vesting Date"). In the event the Participant has a Qualifying Termination following a Change in Control, the RSUs that would have vested on or before the first anniversary of such Qualifying Termination will vest on the scheduled Vesting Date.

   In addition, in the event the Participant's Employment terminates prior to the applicable Vesting Date for any RSUs for any reason other than as set forth above in respect of a Qualifying Termination following a Change in Control, such unvested RSUs will be immediately forfeited as of such termination of Employment.

   Settlement of any RSUs granted hereunder will be made in the form of shares of Common Stock on each Vesting Date, provided that the Participant has executed the Management Stockholders' Agreement in the form provided by the Company.

4. Rights as a Shareholder. The Participant shall have no rights as a stockholder of the Company with respect to any shares of Common Stock covered by or relating to the RSUs until the date of issuance to the Participant of a certificate or other evidence of ownership representing such shares of Common Stock in settlement thereof. For purposes of clarification, the Participant shall not have any voting or dividend rights with respect to shares of Common Stock to be issued on vesting and settlement of outstanding RSUs.

5. Incorporation of Plan. All terms, conditions and restrictions of the Plan are incorporated herein and made part hereof as if stated herein. If there is any conflict between the terms and conditions of the Plan and this Agreement, the terms and conditions of this Plan, as interpreted by the Board, shall govern. All capitalized terms used and not defined herein shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Plan.

6. Construction of Agreement. Any provision of this Agreement (or portion thereof) which is deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction and subject to this section, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability, without affecting in any way the remaining provisions thereof in such jurisdiction or rendering that or any other provisions of this Agreement invalid, illegal, or unenforceable in any other jurisdiction. If any covenant should be deemed invalid, illegal or unenforceable because its scope is considered excessive, such covenant shall be modified so that the scope of the covenant is reduced only to the minimum extent necessary to render the modified covenant valid, legal and enforceable. No waiver of any provision or violation of this Agreement by the Company shall be implied by the Company's forbearance or failure to take action. No provision of this Agreement shall be given effect to the extent that such provision would cause any tax to become due under Section 409A of the Code.

7. Delays or Omissions. No delay or omission to exercise any right, power or remedy accruing to any party hereto upon any breach or default of any party under this Agreement, shall impair any such right, power or remedy of such party nor shall it be construed to be a waiver of any such breach or default, or an acquiescence therein, or of or in any similar breach or default thereafter occurring nor shall any waiver of any single breach or default be deemed a waiver of any other breach or default theretofore or thereafter occurring. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character on the part of any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, or any waiver on the part of any party or any provisions or conditions of this Agreement, shall be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

8. Limitation on Transfer. Prior to the applicable Vesting Date, this award of RSUs, or any portion thereof, may not be transferred, assigned, pledged, hypothecated, or otherwise encumbered or subject to any lien, obligation, or liability, unless approved in writing by the Board prior to any such action.

9. Integration. This Agreement, and the other documents referred to herein or delivered pursuant hereto which form a part hereof contain the entire understanding of the parties with respect to its subject matter. There are no restrictions, agreements, promises, representations, warranties, covenants or undertakings with respect to the subject matter hereof other than those expressly set forth herein and in the Plan. This Agreement, including without limitation the Plan, supersedes all prior agreements and understandings between the parties with respect to its subject matter.

10. Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

11. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of the State of Delaware without regard to the provisions governing conflict of laws.

12. Participant Acknowledgment. The Participant hereby acknowledges receipt of a copy of the Plan. The Participant hereby acknowledges that all decisions, determinations and interpretations of the Board in respect of the Plan, this Agreement and the RSUs shall be final and conclusive. The Participant further acknowledges that, prior to the existence of a Public Market, no shares of Common Stock shall be issued or recorded in the name of the Participant unless and until the Participant has executed the Management Stockholders' Agreement and the Participant hereby agrees to be bound thereby. In the event the Participant has not executed or previously become party to the Management Stockholders' Agreement on or before the applicable Vesting Date, the shares of Common Stock that would be issued on such Vesting Date shall be forfeited and the Participant shall have no right to receive any such shares of Common Stock.

Dear Tom:

This employment agreement ("Agreement") will confirm our mutual understanding with respect to your employment by Sabre Holdings Corporation ("Sabre Holdings Corp."), Sabre Inc. ("Sabre") and Sovereign Holdings, Inc. ("Holdings", and collectively with Sabre and Sabre Holdings Corp., the "Company"), effective as of August 15, 2013 (the "Effective Date").

1. Job Description / Title / Duties

(a) You will serve as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company and shall report exclusively to the board of directors of Holdings (the "Board"). You shall have all of the authority, and perform all of the functions, that are consistent with such position, subject to lawful direction by the Board. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, you shall abide in all material respects by all the Company policies and directives applicable to you. In addition, as of the Effective Date, you shall be appointed as a member of the Board. In the event of an initial public offering of Sabre, Sabre Holdings Corp. or Holdings, you shall be nominated for election or re-election to the board of directors of the publicly traded company at each regular annual meeting of its shareholders that occurs during the Employment Period (as defined below).

(b) During the Employment Period, excluding any periods of paid time off to which you are entitled, you shall devote your full working time, energy and attention to the performance of your duties and responsibilities hereunder and shall faithfully and diligently endeavor to promote the business and best interests of the Company. During the Employment Period, you may not, directly or indirectly, operate, participate in the management, operations or control of, or act as an executive, officer, consultant, agent or representative of, any type of business or service (other than as an executive of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates). It shall not, however, be a violation of the foregoing provisions of this Section 1(b) for you to (i) continue to serve on the board of directors (and its committees) of Cedar Fair Entertainment Company, (ii) subject to the prior approval of the Board, serve as an officer or director or otherwise participate in educational, welfare, social, religious and civic organizations, or (iii) manage your or your family's personal, financial and legal affairs, so long as, in the case of clause (i), (ii) or (iii), any such activities do not interfere with the performance of your duties and responsibilities to the Company as provided hereunder.

2. Term of Employment

(a) Unless terminated earlier pursuant to Section 7 hereof, the term of this Agreement and your employment shall be for two years, beginning at the Effective Date and ending on the second anniversary of the Effective Date (the "Initial Term"); provided, however, that on the second anniversary of the Effective Date and on each anniversary thereafter, the Executive's employment hereunder shall extend for additional one-year periods (each an "Additional Term") unless either party provides the other with notice of non-renewal at least 90 days before the expiration of the Initial Term or the then-applicable Additional Term, as the case may be. The period of your employment with the Company shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period". Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sections 5, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11, and the defined terms necessary for those Sections, shall survive termination of your employment in accordance with their terms.

(b) Either you or the Company may terminate your employment with the Company at any time, for any reason or no reason, as set forth in Section 7 of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Date of Termination" shall mean (i) if your employment is terminated by your death, the date of your death, (ii) if your employment is terminated as a result of your Disability (as defined in Section 7 below), the date upon which you receive the notice of termination from the Company, or (if any) the future date of termination specified in such notice, (iii) if you voluntarily terminate your employment or terminate your employment for Good Reason or your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause, the date specified in the notice given pursuant to Section 7(a) or (c), as applicable, which shall not be less than 30 days after such notice, unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, (iv) if your employment is terminated as a result of either party's delivery of a notice of non-renewal, as set forth in Section 2(a), the date on which the Initial Term or the Additional Term, as the case may be, expires, and (v) if your employment is terminated for Cause, the date upon which your employment is terminated as specified in the notice given pursuant to Section 7(d). Notwithstanding the foregoing, a termination of employment and the corresponding "Date of Termination" shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits subject to Code Section 409A, upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination is also a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A. For purposes of this Agreement, "Code Section 409A" means the applicable provisions of Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), and Treasury Regulations issued thereunder.

3. Base Salary

During the Employment Period, your annual base salary will be $900,000 ("Base Salary"), less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items, payable in accordance with the Company's payroll practice as in effect from time to time. For employment after the Initial Term, your Base Salary shall be subject to annual review, and possible increase (but not decrease), by the Board or a committee of the Board. If there is an increase, such increased amount shall then be your "Base Salary."

4. Annual Bonus

During the Employment Period, you will be eligible to receive an annual target bonus equal to 125% (the "Target Bonus") of your Base Salary, with a maximum bonus opportunity equal to 200% of your Base Salary, based on your attainment of pre-established performance goals set forth each year by the Board or a committee of the Board, in each case as determined in good faith by the Board or a committee of the Board. The annual bonus for a particular year shall be paid to you between January 1 and March 15 of the year following the year to which such annual bonus relates, subject to your continued employment through the payment date (except as otherwise provided in Section 7).

5. Promotion Special Equity Grant

You will receive on the Effective Date an award totaling $3.5 million in fair market value under the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. 2012 Management Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan"), consisting of stock options and restricted stock units in the ratio of three stock options-to-one restricted stock unit (i.e. $2,625,000 in fair market value of options and $875,000 in fair market value of restricted stock units) (the "New Grant"). The stock options included in the New Grant will vest 25% on the date of grant and then in equal installments of 6.25% at the end of each successive three-month period thereafter, subject to your continued employment through each such vesting date. The New Grant shall otherwise have the terms specified in the Plan, the grant agreements or documents under the Plan, and this Agreement.

6. Benefit Plans and Programs

(a) You will be eligible to participate in the Company's employee benefit plans, policies and other compensation and perquisite programs, subject to the terms, conditions and eligibility requirements of each such benefit plan, policy or other compensation program, including amendments or modifications thereto, as in effect from time to time, to the fullest extent (or at the highest level) that any other employee of the Company may participate. Those benefits or perquisites shall include (i) payment for an annual executive physical examination and evaluation, and (ii) reimbursement of up to $12,000 annually for personal financial or legal services that you determine to obtain, upon your presentation to the Company of evidence of the incurrence of the expenditure satisfactory to the Company corresponding to your request for reimbursement.

(b) During the Employment Period, you shall be entitled to paid time off in accordance with the Company's paid-time-off policies as in effect from time to time.

(c) During the Employment Period, the Company shall reimburse you for all ordinary, necessary, and reasonable travel and other business expenses incurred by you in the performance of your duties to the Company in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy, which shall provide for travel and entertainment at a level commensurate with your position.

7. Termination Provisions

Except as expressly provided under the Plan and in this Section 7, and except for any vested benefits under any tax qualified plan or other benefit plan (to the extent that such benefit plan does not provide for a duplication of the benefits described herein) maintained by the Company, or pursuant to the indemnification and insurance provided or referred to in Section 11(c), you shall not be entitled to any benefits or payments in the event of the termination of your employment with the Company. You agree and acknowledge that you are not entitled to any other payments in the nature of severance or post-employment benefits other than those set forth in this Agreement, the Plan, the Sovereign Holdings, Inc. Management Equity Incentive Plan adopted June 11, 2007 (the "2007 Plan"), and the agreements and documents relating to your awards under the Plan and the 2007 Plan, and that so long as this Agreement remains in effect, you will not be eligible for any other severance or post-employment benefits pursuant to any other agreement, arrangement or understanding with the Company or any of its affiliates, unless the parties to this Agreement expressly agree otherwise.

(a) Termination without Cause or by You for Good Reason. The Company may terminate your employment at any time without Cause (as defined below) or you may terminate your employment for Good Reason (as defined below), in each case upon at least 30 days' notice by the terminating party. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that your employment is terminated by the Company as a result of the giving of a notice of non-renewal of the Agreement as set forth in Section 2(a), such termination shall be deemed to be a termination by the Company without Cause at the end of the Initial Term or the then applicable Additional Term, as the case may be. In the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company shall pay or provide to you the following at the time or times, or during the periods, specified below:

(i). Within 30 days of the Date of Termination: (A) any earned and unpaid Base Salary through the Date of Termination, (B) reimbursement for any unreimbursed business expenses incurred by you in accordance with Company policy prior to the Date of Termination that are subject to reimbursement and (C) payment for paid time off accrued as of the Date of Termination but unused (such amounts under clauses (A), (B) and (C) above, collectively, the "Accrued Obligations").

(ii). Subject to Section 11(b)(ii), (A) an amount equal to twice the sum of your Base Salary, payable in equal installments in accordance with normal Company payroll practices over the 24 month period following the Date of Termination; provided, that the first payment shall be made on the fortieth day following the Date of Termination and shall include any amounts that would have otherwise been due prior to such fortieth day, (B) an amount equal to any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the last full fiscal year immediately preceding the year in which your Date of Termination occurs (if applicable), payable on the date such annual bonus would otherwise be paid by the Company, and (C) if your Date of Termination occurs more than six months following the beginning of a fiscal year of the Company and prior to the date on which bonuses earned in respect of such fiscal year have been paid, a pro-rata bonus for the year of your termination of employment, based on actual performance for the relevant fiscal year and payable on the date such annual bonus would otherwise be paid.

(iii). For the 12 month period commencing on the day after the Date of Termination, the Company shall continue to provide medical, dental and vision benefits) to you and any eligible dependents, which are substantially similar to those provided generally to executive officers of the Company and their eligible dependents (including any required contribution by such executive officers) pursuant to such medical, dental and vision plans as may be in effect from time to time as if your employment had not been terminated and charging you only the active employee rate (it being understood that the Company may provide such coverage by treating this as a COBRA period); provided, however, that if you become re-employed with another employer and are eligible to receive health insurance benefits under another employer provided plan, the benefits described herein shall terminate. In such event, you are obligated to promptly notify the Company of any changes in your benefits coverage. The Company intends that the COBRA coverage arrangement provided for in this Section 7(a)(iii) not result in any adverse tax consequences to you, including that you not become taxable on any of the reimbursements under the plans to which such coverage relates, and if the Company determines that you should be taxable on the amount of the COBRA premiums paid by the Company to achieve that result, the Company will include that amount on your Form W-2 or other applicable tax information return for the period or periods to which the Company's COBRA premium payments relate. To the extent any reimbursements or in-kind payments due to you under this Agreement constitute "deferred compensation" under Code Section 409A, any such reimbursements or in-kind payments shall be paid to you no later than the last day of the taxable year next following the taxable year in which the expenses were incurred, and in a manner consistent with Treas. Reg. §1.409A- 3(i)(1)(iv).

(iv). Any amounts paid under this Section 7(a), other than the Accrued Obligations, shall be paid subject to (A) your resignation from the Board and any other positions you hold by virtue of your employment with the Company, at the Company's request, (B) your execution, delivery and non-revocation of an Agreement and General Release substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Release"), within 35 days following the Date of Termination (which Release shall be delivered to you within two days following the Date of Termination), and such Release becoming effective, it being understood that any payment under this Section 7(a) that would otherwise have been made to you but that is conditioned upon the execution and effectiveness of the Release shall not be made or provided until the fortieth day following the Date of Termination, (C) your not violating any of your obligations to the Company under Section 8 and materially complying with your obligations under Section 9 of this Agreement; provided, that (x) you shall have the opportunity to promptly cure any such violation or non-compliance, to the extent it is reasonably susceptible to cure, after written notice thereof, and (y) the suspension of payments or benefits set forth in Section 7(a) shall cease upon a determination by the Board, in its sole discretion, that such violation or non-compliance of your obligations to the Company under Sections 8 and 9, if reasonably susceptible to cure, have been cured. Further, you agree that suspension of the payments or benefits set forth in Section 7(a) as a consequence of your breach of your obligations under Section 8 does not in any way limit the ability of the Company to pursue injunctive relief or to seek additional damages with respect to your breach of such obligations.

(b) Termination on Death/Disability. The Company may terminate your employment because of Disability, by written notice to you, if the Board reasonably determines that you are Disabled. In the event your employment is terminated as a result of your death or Disability, the Company will pay to you or your beneficiary the Accrued Obligations within 30 days of the Date of Termination. Additionally, if your employment is terminated as a result of your death, your estate or beneficiaries shall be entitled to receive a pro-rata bonus for the year of your termination of employment, based on actual performance for the relevant fiscal year and payable on the date such annual bonus would otherwise be paid.

(c) Voluntary Termination. You may terminate your employment without Good Reason upon 30 days' prior written notice to the Company. If you voluntarily terminate your employment (other than for Good Reason), the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations within 30 days of the Date of Termination.

(d) Termination for Cause. The Company may terminate your employment at any time for Cause by written notice of termination for Cause to you. In the event your employment is terminated for Cause, the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations within 30 days of the Date of Termination.

(e) Resignation from the Board. In the event of any termination of your employment with the Company, you agree to resign from the Board and any other positions you hold by virtue of your employment with the Company, at the Company's request.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean that you have suffered a physical or mental illness or injury that has impaired your ability to substantially perform your full-time duties with the Company with or without reasonable accommodation for a period of 90 consecutive days, or 120 non-consecutive days in any 12-month period, and which qualifies you for benefits under the Company's long-term disability plan, as in effect from time to time. "Disabled" shall have the correlative meaning.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean any of the following: (i) willful misconduct or gross negligence by you which is materially injurious to the Company, any Affiliated Entity (as defined in the Plan), or the Majority Stockholder (as defined in the Plan), whether financially, reputationally or otherwise; (ii) any knowing or deliberate violation by you of any of your covenants in Section 8 during the Employment Period; (iii) any material breach or violation of any material policy of the Board adopted or approved by the Board, if you fail to promptly remedy such breach or violation within a reasonable time after written notice of such breach or violation, to the extent such breach or violation is susceptible to cure; (iv) any deliberate and persistent failure by you to perform or honor an express written directive of the Board to you; or (v) the indictment or a plea of nolo contendere by you of any felony or other serious crime that could reasonably be expected to result in material harm to the Company. Any rights the Company or any Affiliated Entity may have hereunder in respect of the events giving rise to Cause shall be in addition to the rights the Company or Affiliated Entity may have under any other agreement with you or at law or in equity.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events, without your prior written consent: (i) any materially adverse change to your responsibilities, duties, authority or status from those set forth in this Agreement or any materially adverse change in your positions, titles or reporting responsibility; provided, that Sabre, Sabre Holdings Corp. or Holdings becoming publicly traded shall not be deemed such a material adverse change; (ii) a relocation of your principal business location to an area outside a 50-mile radius of its current location or moving of you from the Company's headquarters; (iii) a failure of any successor to the Company (whether direct or indirect and whether by merger, acquisition, consolidation, asset sale or otherwise) to assume in writing any obligations arising out of this Agreement; (iv) a reduction of your Base Salary or Target Bonus or failure to pay any of the compensation provided or under this Agreement to you in on connection with your employment; provided, that, a reduction in Base Salary or Target Bonus of less than 5% that is proportionately applied to employees of the Company generally shall not constitute Good Reason hereunder; or (v) a material breach by the Company of this Agreement or any other material agreement with you relating to your compensation; provided that within 60 days following the occurrence of any of the events set forth therein, you have delivered written notice to the Company of your intention to terminate your employment for Good Reason, and the Company shall not have cured such circumstances (if susceptible to cure) within 30 days following receipt of such notice (or, in the event that such grounds cannot be corrected within such 30-day period, the Company has not taken all reasonable steps within such 30-day period to correct such grounds as promptly as practicable thereafter).

8. Non-solicitation, Non-recruitment and Non-competition

You acknowledge and agree that, in your position as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company (which, for purposes of this Section 8, shall include all of the Company's subsidiaries and all affiliated companies and joint ventures connected by ownership to the Company at any time, but not any other portfolio companies of the Majority Stockholder), it is expected that: (i) you will be materially involved in conducting or overseeing all aspects of the Company's business activities throughout the world, (ii) you will have material contact with a substantial number of the Company's employees, and all or substantially all of the Company's then-current and actively-sought potential customers ("Customers") and suppliers of inventory ("Suppliers"); (iii) you will have access to all or substantially all of the Company's Trade Secrets and Confidential Information (as those terms are defined in Exhibit B). You further acknowledge and agree that activities by you that violate any of subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this Section 8 would be unfair competition and would cause substantial damages to the Company. Consequently, in consideration of your employment with the Company as President and Chief Executive Officer and the Company's covenants in this Agreement, you make the following covenants described in this Section 8:

(a) Non-solicitation of Company Customers and Suppliers. During your employment with the Company and for one year following the termination of your employment with the Company for any reason (including as a result of non-renewal of this Agreement) (the "Restricted Period"), you shall not, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or of anyone other than the Company, solicit or hire or attempt to solicit or hire (or assist any third party in soliciting or hiring or attempting to solicit or hire) any Customer or Supplier in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company.

(b) Non-solicitation of Company Employees. During the Restricted Period, you shall not, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or any third party, solicit or hire or recruit or, other than in the good faith performance of your duties, induce or encourage (or assist any third party in hiring, soliciting, recruiting, inducing or encouraging) any employees of the Company or any individuals who were employees within the six month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his or her employment with the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions contained in this Section 8(b) shall not apply to (i) general solicitations that are not specifically directed to employees of the Company or (ii) serving as a reference at the request of an employee.

(c) Non-competition with the Company. During the Restricted Period , you shall not, directly or indirectly, whether as an employee, director, owner, partner, shareholder (other than the passive ownership of securities in any public enterprise which represent no more than five percent (5%) of the voting power of all securities of such enterprise), consultant, agent, co-venturer, independent contractor or otherwise, or through any other "person" (which, for purposes of this subsection, shall mean an individual, a corporation, a partnership, an association, a joint-stock company, a trust, any unincorporated organization, or a government or political subdivision thereof), perform any services for or on behalf of, any Competitor of the Company. For purposes of this Section 8, a "Competitor" of the Company shall mean (i) any unit, division, line of business, parent, subsidiary, or subsidiary of the parent of any of Travelport, Amadeus, Worldspan, Orbitz, Expedia, Priceline, Hotwire, ITA Software, Cheaptickets, Navitaire, or EDS; or (ii) any individual or entity that competes, or combination of activities that competes, with any business of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any of the above-named entities in clause (i) of this Section 8(c) no longer engages in a line of business that competes with any business of the Company, such entity shall no longer be deemed a "Competitor" of the Company for purposes of this Section 8.

(d) Non-Disparagement. During the Restricted Period, you shall not deliberately defame or disparage the Company or any of its affiliates, or their respective employees, managers, directors or officers in any medium to any person.

(e) Non-disclosure of Confidential Information and Trade Secrets. During the Restricted Period and at all times thereafter, except in the good faith performance of your duties hereunder or where required by law, statute, regulation or rule of any governmental body or agency, or pursuant to a subpoena or court order, you shall not, directly or indirectly, for your own account or for the account of any other person, firm or entity, use or disclose any Confidential Information or proprietary Trade Secrets of the Company to any third person unless such Confidential Information or Trade Secret has been previously disclosed to the public, is in the public domain, or is known in the industry (other than, in any case, by reason of your breach of this paragraph). Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent you are compelled to disclose Confidential Information by lawful service of process, subpoena, court order, or otherwise compelled to do by law, you agree, to the extent legally permitted, to provide the Company with a copy of the document(s) seeking disclosures of such information promptly upon receipt of such document(s) and prior to your disclosure of any such information, so that the Company may, upon notice to you and at its expense, take such action as it deems to be necessary or appropriate in relation to such subpoena or request and you may not disclose any such information until the Company has had the opportunity to take such action.

(f) Enforceability of Covenants. You acknowledge that the Company has a present and future expectation of business from and with the Customers and Suppliers. You acknowledge the reasonableness of the term, geographical territory, and scope of the covenants set forth in this Section 8, and you agree that you will not, in any action, suit or other proceeding, deny the reasonableness of, or assert the unreasonableness of, the premises, consideration or scope of the covenants set forth herein and you hereby waive any such defense. You further acknowledge that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude you from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. You agree that your covenants under this Section 8 are separate and distinct obligations under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of the Company or the Board to perform obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of your covenants and obligations under this Section 8. You agree that any breach of any covenant under this Section 8 will result in irreparable damage and injury to the Company and that in addition to any damages or other relief to which the Company may otherwise be entitled at law, the Company will be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond. If the Company shall institute any action or proceeding to enforce any covenant under this Section 8, you hereby waive the claim or defense that the Company has an adequate remedy at law and agrees not to assert in any such action or proceeding the claim or defense that the Company has an adequate remedy at law.

9. Post-Employment Transition and Cooperation

Upon and after the termination of your employment with the Company for any reason (except your death or, if lacking sufficient physical or mental ability, your Disability), you will execute any and all documents and take any and all actions that the Company may reasonably request to effect the transition of your duties and responsibilities to a successor. You will make yourself reasonably available with respect to, and to cooperate in conjunction with, any litigation or investigation involving the Company and any administrative matters (including the execution of documents, as reasonably requested); provided, that such litigation, investigation or administrative matter is related to your employment with the Company and that any such availability or cooperation does not materially interfere with your then current activities, does not include a conflict between you and the Company or the Majority Stockholder (as determined in good faith by you and the Majority Stockholder) and would not result in a violation of any court order or governmental requirement. The Company and you shall mutually agree as to the compensation to be paid in connection with cooperation pursuant to this Section 9, and the Company agrees to reimburse you for all reasonable expenses actually incurred in connection with such cooperation.

10. Code Section 280G

(a) If, after the Effective Date, Sabre, Sabre Holdings Corp. or Holdings is not an entity whose stock is readily tradable on an established securities market (or otherwise) and a "change of control" under Regulation 1.280G occurs, in the event any of the payments or benefits provided or to be provided by the Company or its affiliates to you or for your benefit pursuant to the terms of this Agreement or otherwise ("Covered Payments") constitute parachute payments ("Parachute Payments") within the meaning of Section 280G of the Code, you will cooperate with Sabre and Sovereign, which shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to take such actions as may be necessary to avoid the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code (or any successor provision thereto) or any similar tax imposed by state or local law or any interest or penalties with respect to such taxes (collectively, the "Excise Tax") or a loss of deductibility for Sabre or Sovereign under Section 280G of the Code, in accordance with the terms of Section 280G(b)(5).

(b) If, after the Effective Date, there occurs a transaction that constitutes a "change of control" under Regulation 1.280G of the Code, and, immediately prior to the consummation of such change of control, Sabre, Sabre Holdings Corp. or Holdings is an entity whose equity securities are readily tradable on an established securities market (or otherwise), the following provisions will apply:

(i). If any of the Covered Payments constitute Parachute Payments and would, but for this Section 10(b), be subject to the Excise Tax, then the Covered Payments shall be payable either (A) in full or (B) reduced to the minimum extent necessary to ensure that no portion of the Covered Payments is subject to the Excise Tax, whichever of the foregoing (A) or (B) results in the your receipt on an after-tax basis of the greatest amount of benefits after taking into account the applicable federal, state, local and foreign income, employment and excise taxes (including the Excise Tax). The Covered Payments shall be reduced in a manner consistent with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, to the extent applicable, and where two or more economically equivalent amounts are subject to reduction but payable at different times, such amounts payable at the later time shall be reduced first but not below zero.

(c) Any determinations required under this Section 10 shall be made in writing by the Company or by an accounting firm selected and paid for by the Company. You shall provide the Company with such information and documents as the Company may reasonably request in order to make a determination under this Section 10.

11. Miscellaneous

(a) Dispute Resolution. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas without reference to its principles of conflicts of law that would apply the law of any other State. The parties agree that any and all claims, disputes, or controversies arising out of or related to this Agreement, any alleged breach of this Agreement, or the termination of the Employment Period or this Agreement shall be resolved by confidential, binding arbitration, except as otherwise provided in Section 8 of this Agreement. The parties will submit the dispute, within 30 business days following service of notice of such dispute by one party on the other, to the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (J*A*M*S/Endispute) for prompt resolution in Dallas, Texas, under its rules for labor and employment disputes. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in accordance with applicable law in any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator shall have the authority to make an award of monetary damages (including, without limitation, punitive and exemplary damages) and interest thereon, or specific performance or an injunction. The arbitrator will have no authority to order a modification or amendment of this Agreement. The arbitrator may award attorney's fees and arbitration expenses to the prevailing party in the arbitration, including the fees of the arbitrator.

(b) Code Section 409A.

(i). If any provision of this Agreement (or of any award of compensation, including equity compensation or benefits) would cause you to incur any additional tax or interest under Code Section 409A or any regulations or Treasury guidance promulgated thereunder, the Company shall, if such reformation is permissible under Code Section 409A and after consulting with you, reform such provision to comply with Code Section 409A; provided, that the Company agrees to maintain, to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to you of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Code Section 409A. This Agreement is intended to be written, administered, interpreted and construed in a manner such that no payment or benefits provided under this Agreement become subject to (a) the gross income inclusion set forth within Section 409A(a)(1)(A) of the Code or (b) the interest and additional tax set forth within Section 409A(a)(1)(B) of the Code (collectively, "Section 409A Penalties"), including, where appropriate, the construction of defined terms to have meanings that would not cause the imposition of Section 409A Penalties. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein is intended to guarantee the tax treatment of any payments or benefits to be paid or provided to you pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise.

(ii). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, the severance payments payable to you pursuant to this Agreement shall be made in reliance upon Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A- 1(b)(9)(iii) (relating to separation pay plans) or Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A- 1(b)(4) (relating to short-term deferrals). However, to the extent any such payments are treated as "non-qualified deferred compensation" subject to Code Section 409A, and notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, if you are deemed on the Date of Termination to be a "specified employee" within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code and the Company is a public company, then the payments specified as being subject to this Section 11(b)(ii) shall not be made or provided (subject to the last sentence hereof) prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six month period measured from the date of your "separation from service" (as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations issued under Code Section 409A) or (B) the date of your death (the "Delay Period"). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments and benefits delayed pursuant to this Section 11(b)(ii) (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) shall be paid or reimbursed to you in a lump sum, and any remaining payments due under this Agreement shall be paid or provided in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them herein.

(iii). A termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits subject to Code Section 409A upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination is also a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and, for purposes of any such provision of this Agreement, references to a "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean "separation from service."

(iv). All expenses or other reimbursements as provided herein shall be payable in accordance with the Company's policies in effect from time to time, but in any event shall be made on or prior to the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expenses were incurred by you (b) no such reimbursement or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any taxable year shall in any way affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year and (c) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchanged for another benefit.

(v). For purposes of Code Section 409A (including for purposes of Treasury Regulation Section 1.409A-2(b)(2)(iii)), your right to receive any installment payments pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments. Whenever a payment under this Agreement specifies a payment period with reference to a number of days (e.g., "payment shall be made within thirty (30) days following the date of termination"), the actual date of payment within the specified period shall be within the sole discretion of the Company.

(c) Indemnification and Insurance.

(i). During the Employment Period and for so long thereafter as potential liability exists with regard to your activities during the Employment Period on behalf of the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, or as a fiduciary of any benefit plan of any of them, the Company shall indemnify you to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (other than in connection with your gross negligence or willful misconduct), shall at the Company's election provide you with legal representation or shall advance to you reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as incurred, and shall advance to you other reasonable expenses of response or defense as incurred (subject to an undertaking from you to repay such advances if it shall be finally determined by a judicial decision which is not subject to further appeal that you were not entitled to the reimbursement of such fees and expenses). If, during the Employment Period, Sabre, Sabre Holdings Corp. or Holdings enters into any standalone indemnification agreement with any member of the Board or the board of directors of Sabre or Sabre Holdings Corp., other than the Chairman of the Board, or any other executive officer of Sabre, Sabre Holdings Corp. or Holdings, Sabre, Sabre Holdings Corp. or Holdings shall promptly enter into substantially the same indemnification agreement with you.

(ii). During the Employment Period and for so long as potential liability exists thereafter you shall be entitled to the protection of all insurance policies (if any) the Company shall elect to maintain generally for the benefit of its directors and officers ("Directors and Officers Insurance") against all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by you in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which you may be made a party by reason of your being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or your serving or having served any other enterprise or benefit plan as a director, officer, fiduciary or employee at the request of the Company (other than any dispute, claim or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement); provided, that you shall, in all cases, be entitled to Directors and Officers Insurance coverage no less favorable than that (if any) provided to any other present director or officer of the Company.

(d) Notices. Any notice or other communication required or permitted under this Agreement shall be effective only if it is in writing and shall be deemed to be given when delivered personally or four days after it is mailed by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested or one day after it is sent by a reputable overnight courier service and, in each case, addressed as follows (or if it is sent through any other method agreed upon by the parties):

Southlake, Texas 76092
Attention: General Counsel

If to the Executive, to the most recent address on record with the Company.

(e) Taxes. The Company may withhold from any amounts payable to you hereunder all federal, state, city or other taxes that the Company may reasonably determine are required to be withheld pursuant to any applicable law or regulation (it being understood that you shall be responsible for payment of all taxes in respect of the payments and benefits provided herein).

(f) No Mitigation. Except as otherwise provided in Section 7(a)(iii), (i) you shall not be required to seek other employment or otherwise mitigate the amount of any payments to be made by the Company pursuant to this Agreement; and (ii) the payments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall not be reduced by any compensation earned or received by you after the Date of Termination.

(g) Entire Agreement. This Agreement, with Exhibits A and B hereto and the other agreements and documents referred to herein, shall constitute the entire agreement among the parties hereto with respect your employment hereunder, and supersedes and is in full substitution for any and all prior understandings or agreements with respect to your employment or termination thereof, including the discussion draft of the Term Sheet dated as of July 18, 2013 and your employment agreement with the Company dated as of June 11, 2007, but this Agreement does not impair or adversely affect any of your rights under the Plan, the 2007 Plan, or any other agreement or document relating to an award under the Plan or the 2007 Plan.

(h) Amendment. Only a writing that has been signed by both you and the Company may modify this Agreement, and any provision hereof may be waived only by an instrument in writing signed by the party or parties against whom or which enforcement of such waiver is sought. The failure of any party hereto at any time to require the performance by any other party hereto of any provision hereof shall in no way affect the full right to require such performance at any time thereafter, nor shall the waiver by any party hereto of a breach of any provision hereof be taken or held to be a waiver of any succeeding breach of such provision or a waiver of the provision itself or a waiver of any other provision of this Agreement.

(i) Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of (i) the heirs, executors and legal representatives of you upon your death and (ii) any successor of the Company. Any such successor of the Company shall be deemed substituted for the Company under the terms of this Agreement for all purposes. As used herein, “successor” shall include any person, firm, corporation, or other business entity which at any time, whether by purchase, merger or otherwise, directly or indirectly acquires all or substantially all of the assets or business of the Company.

(j) Certain Terms. In this Agreement, unless the context clearly otherwise requires, (i) “include” or “including” does not denote or imply any limitation, (ii) “herein,” “hereto,” “hereunder,” and similar terms refer to this Agreement as a whole, and (iii) “Section” refers to a section of this Agreement, unless otherwise expressly stated.

(k) Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument. A facsimile of a signature shall be deemed to be and have the effect of an original signature.

You further acknowledge and agree that your competition with the Company anywhere worldwide, or your attempted solicitation of the Company's employees or Customers or Suppliers, during your employment or within one year after the termination of your employment with the Company, would be unfair competition and would cause substantial damages to the Company. Consequently, in consideration of your employment with the Company as President and CEO of the Company, and the Company's covenants in this Agreement, you make the following covenants described in this Section 8:

(a) Non-solicitation of Company Customers and Suppliers. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any of the above-named entities in clause (i) of this Section 8(c) no longer engages in a line of business that competes with any business of the Company, such entity shall no longer be deemed a Competitor of the Company for purposes of this Section 8.

(d) Non-disclosure of Confidential Information and Trade Secrets. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except in the good faith performance of your duties hereunder or where required by law, statute, regulation or rule of any governmental body or agency, or pursuant to a subpoena or court order, you shall not, directly or indirectly, for your own account or for the account of any other person, firm or entity, use or disclose any Confidential Information or proprietary Trade Secrets of the Company to any third person unless such Confidential Information or Trade Secret has been previously disclosed to the public or is in the public domain (other than by reason of your breach of this paragraph).

(e) Enforceability of Covenants. You acknowledge that the Company has a present and future expectation of business from and with the Customers and Suppliers. You acknowledge the reasonableness of the term, geographical territory, and scope of the covenants set forth in this Section 8, and you agree that you will not, in any action, suit or other proceeding, deny the reasonableness of, or assert the unreasonableness of, the premises, consideration or scope of the covenants set forth herein and you hereby waive any such defense. You further acknowledge that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude you from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. You agree that your covenants under this Section 8 are separate and distinct obligations under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of the Company or the Board to perform obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of your covenants and obligations under this Section 8. You agree that any breach of any covenant under this Section 8 will result in irreparable damage and injury to the Company and that the Company will be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond. Upon a distribution of the Travelocity equity to the shareholders of Sovereign, the Company agrees to renegotiate, in good faith, the term "Competitor" as defined in Section 8 herein.

Whenever a payment under this Agreement specifies a payment period with reference to a number of days (e.g., "payment shall be made within thirty (30) days following the date of termination"), the actual date of payment within the specified period shall be within the sole discretion of the Company.

Any and all previous employment agreements, severance agreements and executive termination benefits agreements are cancelled as of the Effective Time and the benefits under this Agreement are in lieu of, and in full substitution for, any other severance or post-employment benefits pursuant to any other agreement, arrangement or understanding with the Company or any of its affiliates; provided, however, that any prior award of Options shall remain in full force and effect.

(h) Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of (i) the heirs, executors and legal representatives of you upon your death and (ii) any successor of the Company. Base Salary through the date of your termination, (B) reimbursement for any unreimbursed business expenses incurred by you in accordance with Company policy prior to the date of your termination that are subject to reimbursement and (C) payment for vacation time accrued as of the date of your termination but unused (such amounts under clauses (A), (B) and (C) above, collectively the "Accrued Obligations"). In addition, on the date the annual bonuses are otherwise paid to executives who remain employed with the Company, you shall receive, in the year of your termination, an amount equal to any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid.

In addition, in the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company will pay to you, subject to Section 11(b)(ii), as severance, in installments in accordance with normal Company payroll practices over the 18 month period following the Date of Termination, an amount equal to 100% of the sum of (i) your Base Salary for such period (pro-rated over an 18 month period) and (ii) your Target Bonus for such period (pro-rated over an 18 month period).

In addition, for the 18 month period commencing on the day after the Date of Termination, the Company shall continue to provide medical, dental and vision benefits to you and any eligible dependents which are substantially similar to those provided generally to executive officers of the Company and their eligible dependents (including any required contribution by such executive officers) pursuant to such medical, dental and vision plans as may be in effect from time to time as if your employment had not been terminated (it being understood that the Company may provide such coverage by treating this as a COBRA period and charging you only the amount of the contribution that would be required of you as an active employee); provided, however, that if you become re-employed with another employer and are eligible to receive health insurance benefits under another employer provided plan, the benefits described herein shall terminate. In such event, you are obligated to promptly notify the Company of any changes in your benefits coverage. In addition, you will be provided senior executive level outplacement services, at the Company's expense, for a period of one year, using a reputable provider selected by you with the Company's approval (which shall not be unreasonable withheld). To the extent any reimbursements or in-kind payments due to you under this Agreement constitute "deferred compensation" under Code Section 409A, any such reimbursements or in-kind payments shall be paid to you no later than the last day of the taxable year in which the expenses were incurred, and in a manner consistent with Treas. Reg. §1.409A-3(i)(1)(iv).

Any amounts paid under this Section 7(a) shall be paid, and any other accommodation under Sections 5 and this Section 7(a) shall be made, only upon your executing an Agreement and General Release substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Release"), and such Release becoming effective, and, with regard to Section 7(a), subject to your not violating any of your obligations to the Company under Section 8 and subject to your materially complying with your obligations under Section 9 of this Agreement; provided, that you shall have the opportunity to promptly cure any such violation, to the extent such violation is reasonably susceptible to cure, after written notice thereof. Further, you agree that suspension of such termination payments or benefits, as a consequence of your breach of such obligations does not in any way limit the ability of the Company to pursue injunctive relief or to seek additional damages with respect to your breach of such obligations; provided, further, that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, with respect to any penalty arising from your obligation to engage in or to refrain from engaging in any activities that are set forth in the Plan (including any such obligations incorporated by reference to the provisions of this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided above, your Options and RSUs shall be governed by the provisions of the Plan or any applicable grant agreement.

You shall not be required to seek or accept other employment, or otherwise to mitigate damages, as a condition to receipt of any benefits described in this Section 7(a), and such benefit shall not be offset by amounts received from any other source.

(b) Termination on Death/Disability. In the event your employment is terminated as a result of your death or Disability, the Company will pay to you or your beneficiary the Accrued Obligations and any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid in year in which you die or become Disabled.

(c) Voluntarily Termination. You may terminate your employment for any reason upon 60 days notice to the Company. If you voluntarily terminate your employment (other than for Good Reason), the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations within 30 days of such termination of employment.

(d) Termination for Cause. The Company may terminate your employment at any time for Cause. In the event your employment is terminated for Cause, the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations no later than 30 days of such termination of employment.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean that you have suffered a physical or mental illness or injury that has (i) impaired your ability to substantially perform your full-time duties with the Company with or without reasonable accommodation for a period of 180 consecutive or non-consecutive days in a 12-month period; (ii) qualifies you for benefits under the Company's long-term disability plan, including any eligibility or elimination period; and (iii) you shall not have returned to full-time employment with the Company. "Disabled" shall have the correlative meaning.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean the occurrence of the events described in the following clauses (i) or (ii) herein, provided that no act or failure to act by you shall be deemed to constitute Cause if done, or omitted to be done, in good faith and with the reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company: (i) at least a majority of the members of the Board determine that you (A) were guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of your duties for the Company (other than due to your physical or mental incapacity), (B) breached or violated, in any material respect, any agreement between you and the Company or any material policy in the Company's code of conduct or similar employee conduct policy (as amended from time to time), or (C) committed a non-de minimis act of dishonesty or breach of trust with regard to the Company, any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, or (ii) you are indicted of, or plead guilty or nolo contendre to, a felony or other crime of moral turpitude.

For purposes of this Agreement "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events, without your prior written consent (i) any materially adverse change to your responsibilities, duties, authority or status from those set forth in this Agreement or any materially adverse change in your positions, titles or reporting responsibility; provided that the Company becoming or ceasing to be a publicly traded shall not be deemed a material adverse change; (ii) a relocation of your principal business location to an area outside a 50 mile radius of its current location or moving of you from the Company's headquarters; (iii) a failure of any successor to the Company (whether direct or indirect and whether by merger, acquisition, consolidation, asset sale or otherwise) to assume in writing any obligations arising out of this Agreement; (iv) a reduction of your annual Base Salary or Target Bonus or pay any of the compensation provided for under Section 2 above to you in connection with your employment; provided, that, a reduction in Base Salary or Target Bonus of less than 5% that is proportionately applied to employees of the Company generally shall not constitute Good Reason hereunder; or (v) a material breach by the Company of this Agreement or any other material agreement with you relating to your compensation; provided that, within 30 days following the date on which you have knowledge of the occurrence of any of the events set forth therein, you have delivered written notice to the Company of your intention to terminate your employment for Good Reason, and the Company shall not have cured such circumstances (if susceptible to cure) within 30 days following receipt of such notice (or, in the event that such grounds cannot be corrected within such 30 day period, the Company has not taken all reasonable steps within such 30 day period to correct such grounds as promptly as practicable thereafter).

8. Non-solicitation, Non-recruitment and Non-competition

You acknowledge and agree that, in your position as Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer for Sabre Holdings Corporation (which, for purposes of this Section 8, shall include all of the Company's subsidiaries and all affiliated companies and joint ventures connected by ownership to the Company at any time (but not any other portfolio companies of the Majority Stockholder (as defined in the Plan)), it is expected that: (i) you will be materially involved in conducting or overseeing all aspects of the Company's business activities throughout the world, (ii) you will have material contact with a substantial number of the Company's employees, and all or substantially all of the Company's then-current and actively-sought potential customers ("Customers") and suppliers of inventory ("Suppliers"); (iii) you will have access to all or substantially all of the Company's Trade Secrets and Confidential Information

(see Exhibit C for definition of "Trade Secrets" and "Confidential Information"). You further acknowledge and agree that your competition with the Company anywhere worldwide, or your attempted solicitation of the Company's employees or Customers or Suppliers, during your employment or within one year after the termination of your employment with the Company, would be unfair competition and would cause substantial damages to the Company. Consequently, in consideration of your employment with the Company as Executive Vice President and Chief Human Resources Officer and the Company's covenants in this Agreement, you make the following covenants described in this Section 8:

(a) Non-solicitation of Company Customers and Suppliers. During the Employment Period and for one year following any Date of Termination, you shall not, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or of anyone other than the Company, solicit or hire or attempt to solicit or hire (or assist any third party in soliciting or hiring or attempting to solicit or hire) any Customer or Supplier in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company.

(b) Non-solicitation of Company Employees. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not, without the prior written consent of the Chief Executive Officer, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or any third party, solicit or hire or recruit or, other than in the good faith performance of your duties, induce or encourage (or assist any third party in hiring, soliciting, recruiting, inducing or encouraging) any employees of the Company or any individuals who were employees within the six month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his or her employment with the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions contained in this Section 8(b) shall not apply to (i) general solicitations that are not specifically directed to employees of the Company or (ii) serving as a reference at the request of an employee.

(c) Non-competition with the Company. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not become an employee, director, or independent contractor of, or a consultant to, or perform any services for, any Competitor of the Company. For purposes of this Section 8, a Competitor of the Company shall mean (i) any unit, division, line of business, parent, subsidiary, or subsidiary of the parent of any of Travelport, Amadeus, Worldspan, Orbitz, Expedia, Priceline, Hotwire, ITA Software, Cheaptickets, Navitaire, or EDS; or (ii) any individual or entity that within one year after your termination could reasonably be expected to generate more than $100 Million in annualized gross revenue from any activity that competes, or combination of activities that competes, with any business of the Company; provided, that a Competitor of the Company under this clause (ii) shall not include any individual or entity or portion of an entity where (A) you have actual supervisory duties and authority over one or more businesses and (B) less than 20% of the annualized gross revenue of such businesses over which you have actual supervisory duties and authority arise from any activity or combination of activities that competes with any business of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any of the above-named entities in clause (i) of this Section 8(c) no longer engages in a line of business that competes with any business of the Company, such entity shall no longer be deemed a Competitor of the Company for purposes of this Section 8.

(d) Non-disclosure of Confidential Information and Trade Secrets. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except in the good faith performance of your duties hereunder or where required by law, statute, regulation or rule of any governmental body or agency, or pursuant to a subpoena or court order, you shall not, directly or indirectly, for your own account or for the account of any other person, firm or entity, use or disclose any Confidential Information or proprietary Trade Secrets of the Company to any third person unless such Confidential Information or Trade Secret has been previously disclosed to the public or is in the public domain (other than by reason of your breach of this paragraph).

(e) Non-Disparagement. You agree not to defame or disparage any of the Company or any of their respective officers, directors, members, executives or employees. You agree to reasonably cooperate with the Company (at no expense to you) in refuting any defamatory or disparaging remarks by any third party made in respect of the Company or their respective directors, members, officers, executives or employees. The Company will not, and will not permit its board members or executive officers to, defame or disparage you. The foregoing will not restrict you or the Company from making any factual statement or from taking any action you or it deems necessary or appropriate under law or in connection with any legal process.

(f) Enforceability of Covenants. You acknowledge that the Company has a present and future expectation of business from and with the Customers and Suppliers. You acknowledge the reasonableness of the term, geographical territory, and scope of the covenants set forth in this Section 8, and you agree that you will not, in any action, suit or other proceeding, deny the reasonableness of, or assert the unreasonableness of, the premises, consideration or scope of the covenants set forth herein and you hereby waive any such defense. You further acknowledge that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude you from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. You agree that your covenants under this Section 8 are separate and distinct obligations under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of the Company or the Board to perform obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of your covenants and obligations under this Section 8. You agree that any breach of any covenant under this Section 8 will result in irreparable damage and injury to the Company and that the Company will be entitled to seek injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond.

9. Post-Employment Transition and Cooperation

Upon and after the termination of your employment with the Company for any reason (except your death or, if lacking sufficient physical or mental ability, your Disability), you will execute any and all documents and take any and all actions that the Company may reasonably request to effect the transition of your duties and responsibilities to a successor. You will make yourself reasonably available with respect to, and to cooperate in conjunction with, any litigation or investigation involving the Company, and any administrative matters (including the execution of documents, as reasonably requested); provided, that such litigation, investigation or administrative matter is related to your employment with the Company and that any such availability or cooperation does not materially interfere with your then current professional activities, does not include a conflict between you and the Company or the Majority Stockholder as determined in good faith by you and the Majority Stockholder and would not result in a violation of any court order or governmental requirement. The Company agrees to compensate you (other than with respect to the provision of testimony) for such cooperation at an hourly rate commensurate with your Base Salary on the Date of Termination to reimburse you for all reasonable expenses actually incurred in connection with cooperation pursuant to this Section 9, and to provide you with legal representation.

10. Code Section 280G

If, after the Effective Time, Sovereign or the Company is not an entity whose stock is readily tradable on an established securities market (or otherwise) and a "change of control" under Regulation 1280G occurs, the Company and Sovereign shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to take such actions as may be necessary to avoid the imposition of the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or a loss of deductibility under Section 280G of the Code, including seeking to obtain stockholder approval in accordance with the terms of Section 280G(b)(5).

11. Miscellaneous

(a) Dispute Resolution. The laws of the state of Texas will govern the construction, interpretation and enforcement of this Agreement. The parties agree that any and all claims, disputes, or controversies arising out of or related to this Agreement, or the breach of this Agreement, shall be resolved by binding arbitration, except as otherwise provided in Section 8 of this Agreement. The parties will submit the dispute, within 30 business days following service of notice of such dispute by one party on the other, to the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (J*A*M*S/Endispute) for prompt resolution in Dallas, Texas, under its rules for labor and employment disputes. There shall be a single arbitrator, chosen in accordance with such rules, who shall be currently licensed to practice law. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in accordance with applicable law in any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator shall have the authority to make an award of monetary damages and interest thereon. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award, and the parties hereby waive any right to seek or receive, specific performance or an injunction, punitive or exemplary damages. The arbitrator will have no authority to order a modification or amendment of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall have the authority to award costs of arbitration, including reasonable attorney's fees, to the prevailing party, but in the absence of such award the parties shall bear their own attorney fees, and shall bear equally the expenses of the arbitral proceedings, including without limitation the fees of the arbitrator.

(b) Code Section 409A. (i) If any provision of this Agreement (or of any award of compensation, including equity compensation or benefits) would cause you to incur any additional tax or interest under Section 409A of the Code or any regulations or Treasury guidance promulgated thereunder, the Company shall, after consulting with you, reform such provision to comply with Section 409A of the Code; provided, that the Company agrees to maintain, to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to you of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Section 409A of the Code. (ii) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, if you are deemed on the Date of Termination to be a "specified employee" within the meaning of that term under Section 409(a)(2)(B) of the Code and the Company is a public company, then the payments specified as being subject to this Section 11(b)(ii) shall not be made or provided (subject to the last sentence hereof) prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six month period measured from the date of your "separation from service" (as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations issued under Code Section 409A) or (B) the date of your death (the "Delay Period"). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments and benefits delayed pursuant to this Section 11(b)(ii) (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) shall be paid or reimbursed to you in a lump sum, and any remaining payments due under this Agreement shall be paid or provided in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them herein. (iii) A termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits subject to Code Section 409A upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination is also a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and, for purposes of any such provision of this Agreement, references to a "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean "separation from service." (iv) (a) All expenses or other reimbursements as provided herein shall be payable in accordance with the Company's policies in effect from time to time, but in any event shall be made on or prior to the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expenses were incurred by you (b) no such reimbursement or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any taxable year shall in any way affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year and (c) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchanged for another benefit. (v) For purposes of Code Section 409A, your right to receive any installment payment pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments. Whenever a payment under this Agreement specifies a payment period with reference to a number of days (e.g., "payment shall be made within thirty (30) days following the date of termination"), the actual date of payment within the specified period shall be within the sole discretion of the Company.

(c) Indemnification and Insurance. During the Employment Period and for so long thereafter as liability exists with regard to your activities during the Employment Period on behalf of the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, or as a fiduciary of any benefit plan of any of them, the Company shall indemnify you to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (other than in connection with your gross negligence or willful misconduct), and shall at the Company's election provide you with legal representation or shall advance to you reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred (subject to an undertaking from you to repay such advances if it shall be finally determined by a judicial decision which is not subject to further appeal that you were not entitled to the reimbursement of such fees and expenses). During the Employment Period and for so long as liability exists thereafter you shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company shall elect to maintain generally for the benefit of its active directors and officers ("Directors and Officers Insurance") against all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by you in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which you may be made a party by reason of your being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or your serving or having served any other enterprise or benefit plan as a director, officer, fiduciary or employee at the request of the Company (other than any dispute, claim or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement); provided that you shall, in all cases, be entitled to Directors and Officers Insurance coverage no less favorable than that (if any) provided to any other present director or officer of the Company.

(d) Attorneys' Fees. The Company shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements incurred by you in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement. Payment of such fees shall be made promptly and, in any event, in 2013.

(e) No Mitigation. Except as otherwise provided in Section 7(a) hereof, (i) you shall not be required to seek other employment or otherwise mitigate the amount of any payments to be made by the Company pursuant to this Agreement; and (ii) the payments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by you as the result of employment by another employer after the Date of Termination or otherwise.

(f) Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Agreement and the Option Agreements and RSU Agreements represent the entire understanding with respect to their subject matter. Only a writing that has been signed by both you and the Company may modify this Agreement. Any and all previous employment agreements, severance agreements and executive termination benefits agreements are cancelled as of the Effective Time and the benefits under this Agreement are in lieu of, and in full substitution for, any other severance or post-employment benefits pursuant to any other agreement, arrangement or understanding with the Company or any of its affiliates; provided, however, that any prior award of Options shall remain in full force and effect.

(a) Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of (i) the heirs, executors and legal representatives of you upon your death and (ii) any successor of the Company. Any such successor of the Company shall be deemed substituted for the Company under the terms of this Agreement for all purposes. As used herein, “successor” shall include any person, firm, corporation, or other business entity which at any time, whether by purchase, merger or otherwise, directly or indirectly acquires all or substantially all of the assets or business of the Company.

Exhibit 10.25

June 11, 2007

Mr. Michael S. Gilliland
C/O Sabre Inc.
3150 Sabre Drive
Southlake, Texas 76092

Dear Sam:

This agreement ("Agreement") will confirm our mutual understanding with respect to your continued employment by Sabre Inc. ("Sabre"), effective as of the Effective Time (as defined in the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among Sovereign Holdings, Inc. ("Sovereign"), Sovereign Merger Sub, Inc. and Sabre Holdings Corporation ("Sabre Holdings"), dated as of December 12, 2006).

1. Job Description / Title / Duties

(a) You will continue to serve as the President and Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of Sabre Holdings and Sabre (together, the "Company"). You shall continue to perform all of the functions that are consistent with such position, as described in the Bylaws of the Company, and as determined by the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board"). You shall also be appointed as the Chief Executive Officer of any parent holding or operating company, other than any non-public entity that solely holds equity or debt of the Company.

(b) During the Employment Period (as defined below), excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which you are entitled, you shall devote your full working time, energy and attention to the performance of your duties and responsibilities hereunder. During the Employment Period, you may not, without the prior written consent of the Board, directly or indirectly, operate, participate in the management, operations or control of, or act as an executive, officer, consultant, agent or representative of, any type of business or service (other than as an executive of the Company, any of its subsidiaries or affiliates). It shall not, however, be a violation of the foregoing provisions of this Section 1(b) for you to (i) subject to the approval of the Board, serve as a director of the board of directors or as a member of an advisory board of a noncompeting, for-profit company (ii) serve as an officer or director or otherwise participate in educational, welfare, social, religious and civic organizations, including, without limitation, all such positions and participation in effect as of the Effective Time, as set forth on Exhibit A, or (iii) manage your or your family's personal, financial and legal affairs, so long as any such activities in clauses (i), (ii) or (iii) do not interfere with the performance of your duties and responsibilities to the Company as provided hereunder.

2. Director Position

During the Employment Period, you shall serve as a member of the Board and a member of the board of directors of any parent holding or operating company, other than any non-public entity that solely holds equity or debt of the Company; the Majority Stockholder, as such term is defined in the Plan (as defined below), shall cause you to be elected to the Board (or such other board of directors) as soon as practicable after the date hereof.

3. Reporting Relationship

You shall continue to report directly and solely to the Board.

4. Term of Employment

Unless terminated earlier pursuant to Section 9 hereof, the term of this Agreement and your employment shall be for three years, beginning at the Effective Time and ending on the third anniversary of the date of the Effective Time (the "Initial Term"). The term of this Agreement and your employment shall automatically renew for one-year periods following the Initial Term (each, an "Additional Term"); provided, however, that either party may elect not to renew this Agreement and your employment following the Initial Term or any Additional Term by providing written notice of such non-renewal at least 60 days prior to the end of the applicable term. The period of your employment with the Company shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period". Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sections 7, 9, 10, 11, 12 and 13 shall survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with their terms.

Either you or the Board may terminate your employment with the Company at any time, and for any reason or no reason, with or without Cause, as set forth in Section 9 of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Date of Termination" shall mean (a) if your employment is terminated by your death, the date of your death, (b) if your employment is terminated as a result of your Disability (as defined in Section 9 below), the date upon which you receive the notice of termination from the Company, (c) if you voluntarily terminate your employment or your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause, the date specified in the notice given pursuant to Section 9(a) or (c) herein, as applicable, which shall not be less than 60 days after such notice, and (d) if your employment is terminated for any other reason, the date on which the notice of termination is given unless otherwise agreed to by the Company.

5. Base Salary

During the Employment Period, your annual base salary will be $800,000 ("Base Salary"), less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items. Your Base Salary will be determined solely by, and will be reviewed annually for possible increase (but not decrease) by, the Board (such increased Base Salary shall then be referred to as the "Base Salary").

6. Annual Bonus

During the Employment Period, you will be eligible to receive an annual target bonus equal to 150% (the "Target Bonus") of your Base Salary, based on your attainment of pre-established performance goals set forth each year by the Board after consultation with you, and a maximum bonus of up to 200% of your Base Salary based on exceeding such performance goals, in each case as determined in good faith by the Board. The annual bonus for a particular year shall be paid to you in the year following the year in which such bonus was earned, provided that the annual bonus shall be paid not later than March 15 of such following year, subject to your continued employment on such date or as otherwise provided herein.

7. Participation in the Company Management Equity Incentive Plan; Purchase of Equity

As soon as practicable following the Effective Time, the Board shall establish a management equity incentive plan (the "Plan") and shall grant to you 3,175,000 options (the "Options") to purchase shares of Common Stock (as such term is defined in the Plan) of Sovereign (the "Shares") to be provided under the Plan and at an exercise price per Share equal to $5, which exercise price is not less than the fair market value per Share on the date of grant, as determined in accordance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The specific terms and conditions governing all aspects of the Options shall be provided in a separate grant agreement, the Plan and the Management Stockholders' Agreement, each substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B, C and D, respectively (collectively, the "Option Agreements"). The Options shall be comprised of two tranches. Fifty percent of the Options (the "Time-Based Options") will vest and become exercisable as follows: 25% of the Time-Based Options shall vest on the first anniversary of the Effective Time, and the remainder shall vest in equal installments of 4.6875% at the end of each complete quarter thereafter for 16 quarters, subject in each case to your continued employment with the Company through the applicable vesting date or as otherwise provided in the grant agreement. The remaining 50% of the Options (the "Performance-Based Options") will vest and become exercisable only upon achieving at least the minimum applicable MoM in the event of a Liquidity Event, as such terms are defined in, and in accordance with the provisions of, the Plan, in each case subject to your continued employment with the Company through the applicable vesting date or as otherwise provided in the grant agreement:

Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in the Plan, in the event of (a) any Change in Control, in the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason or as the result of your death or Disability (i) within 180 days prior to such Change in Control or (ii) at any time following such a Change in Control, your Time-Based Options shall become 100% vested and exercisable or (b) a Change in Control, other than a Change in Control pursuant to clauses (ii) or (iv) of such definition, where, following such Change in Control, no Public Market exists for any class of common securities of the surviving corporation (a "Qualifying CIC"), then (i) each vested and exercisable Option (including any portion of the Option that vests upon such Qualifying CIC, if any) shall be cancelled and you shall be entitled to receive, in cash or other property depending on, and in the same proportion as, the consideration received by the Majority Stockholder, the excess, if any, of the Fair Market Value of a Share as of the date such Qualifying CIC occurs over the Exercise Price of such Option (such excess, if any, the "Option Spread") for each vested and exercisable Option, and (ii) solely in the event of a Qualifying CIC in which the consideration received by the Majority Stockholder is 100% cash, each unvested Time-Based Option shall be cancelled and you shall be entitled to receive an amount in cash equal to the Option Spread for each such unvested Option, payable as soon as practicable following the date that is the earlier of (1) the date such Time-Based Option would have vested; (2) the one-year anniversary of such Qualifying CIC; or (3) the date upon which your employment with the Company is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason or as the result of your death or Disability; provided, that in the case of (1) and (2) that you are employed with the Company on such date. In no event shall the aggregate percentage of your Time-Based Options that are vested and exercisable exceed 100%. For purposes of this paragraph, each of "Change in Control", "Public Market", "Fair Market Value", and "Exercise Price" shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Plan.

In addition, you shall invest or shall have invested, within five days of the date hereof, an amount equal to at least $5,000,000 in the aggregate into the Shares pursuant to and in accordance with a rollover agreement, by and between you and Sovereign substantially in the form as the rollover agreement by and between you and Sovereign dated March 28, 2007 (the "Rollover Agreement") (without regard to section 11 thereof). You hereby agree to waive any right to exercise the put right in section 11 of the Rollover Agreement.

8. Benefit Plans and Programs

(a) You will be eligible to participate in the Company's employee benefit plans, policies and other compensation and perquisite programs applicable to your position (as reasonably determined by the Board), subject to the terms, conditions and eligibility requirements of each such benefit plan, policy or other compensation program, including amendments or modifications thereto. During the Employment Period, you shall be entitled to vacation and sick leave in accordance with the Company's vacation, holiday and other pay for time not worked policies as in effect from time to time. Except as otherwise provided in the Merger Agreement, such benefit plans, policies or other compensation and perquisite programs may be discontinued or changed from time to time in the Company's sole discretion.

(b) During the Employment Period, the Company shall reimburse you for all reasonable travel and other business expenses incurred by you in the performance of your duties to the Company in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy, which shall provide for travel and entertainment at a level commensurate with your position.

9. Termination Provisions

Except as expressly provided in Section 7 and this Section 9, and except for any vested benefits under any tax qualified plan or other benefit plan (to the extent that such benefit plan does not provide for a duplication of the benefits described herein) maintained by the Company, pursuant to the Option Agreements or indemnification and insurance as provided in Section 13(c), you shall not be entitled to any benefits or payments in the event of the termination of your employment with the Company.

(a) Termination without Cause or by You for Good Reason. The Company may terminate your employment at any time without Cause (as defined below) or you may terminate your employment for Good Reason (as defined below), in each case upon 60 days notice by the terminating party. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that your employment is terminated by the Company as a result of the giving of a notice of non-renewal of the Initial Term or any Additional Term by the Company, such termination shall be deemed for all purposes to be a termination by the Company without Cause at the end of the then-current Term. In the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company shall pay to you: within 30 days of the Date of Termination: (A) your Base Salary through the date of your termination, (B) reimbursement for any unreimbursed business expenses incurred by you in accordance with Company policy prior to the date of your termination that are subject to reimbursement, and (C) payment for vacation time accrued as of the date of your termination but unused (such amounts under clauses (A), (B) and (C) above, collectively the "Accrued Obligations"). In addition, on the date the annual bonuses are otherwise paid to executives who remain employed with the Company in the year of your termination, you shall receive an amount equal to any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid.

In addition, the Company will pay to you, subject to Section 13(b)(2), as severance, in four semiannual installments over the 24-month period following the Date of Termination, an amount equal to 200% of the sum of (i) your Base Salary and (ii) your Target Bonus (the "Severance Amount"); provided, that in the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason on or before the second anniversary of the Effective Time, the Severance Amount shall be an amount equal to 300% of the sum of (i) your Base Salary and (ii) your Target Bonus and such amount shall be payable in six semiannual installments over the 36-month period following the Date of Termination; subject in each case to Section 13(b)(2). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if your employment is terminated in 2007 pursuant to this Section 9(a), the above-referenced severance shall be payable in lump-sum.

In addition, for the two-year period, or, in the event of an applicable termination on or before the second anniversary of the Effective Time, the three-year period, commencing on the day after the Date of Termination, the Company shall continue to provide medical, dental and vision benefits) to you and any eligible dependents which are substantially similar to those provided generally to executive officers and their eligible dependents of the Company (including any required contribution by such executive officers) pursuant to such medical, dental and vision plans as may be in effect from time to time as if your employment had not been terminated (it being understood that the Company may provide such coverage by treating this as a COBRA period and charging you only the amount of the contribution that would be required of you as an active employee); provided, however, that if you become re-employed with another employer and are eligible to receive health insurance benefits under another employer provided plan, the benefits described herein shall terminate. In such event, you are obligated to promptly notify the Company of any changes in your benefits coverage. Coverage for the period after the end of the 18-month period following the Date of Termination shall be deemed to be in-kind payments of the premiums on your behalf and will be taxable income to you.

Any amounts paid under this Section 9(a) shall be paid, and any other accommodation under Section 7 and this Section 9(a) shall be made, only upon your executing an Agreement and General Release substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit E (the "Release") and such Release becoming effective, and, with regard to Section 9(a), if and only if, and only for so long as, you do not violate any of your obligations to the Company under Section 10 and subject to your materially complying with your obligations under Section 11 of this Agreement; provided, that you shall have the opportunity to promptly cure any such violation, to the extent such violation is reasonably susceptible to cure, after written notice thereof and; provided, further, that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, with respect to any penalty arising from your obligation to engage in or to refrain from engaging in any activities that are set forth in the Plan (including any such obligations incorporated by reference to the provisions of this Agreement), your Options shall be governed by the provisions of the Plan or any applicable grant agreement. Further, you agree that suspension of such termination payments or benefits as a consequence of your breach of such obligations does not in any way limit the ability of the Company to pursue injunctive relief or to seek additional damages with respect to your breach of such obligations.

(b) Termination on Death/Disability. The Company shall be entitled to terminate your employment hereunder upon your death or Disability. In the event your employment is terminated as a result of your death or Disability, the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations and any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid in the year in which you die or become Disabled.

(c) Voluntarily Termination. You may terminate your employment for any reason upon 60 days notice to the Company. If you voluntarily terminate your employment (other than for Good Reason), the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations.

(d) Termination for Cause. The Company may terminate your employment at any time for Cause. In the event your employment is terminated for Cause, the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean that (i) you have suffered a physical or mental illness or injury that has impaired your ability to substantially perform your full-time duties with the Company with or without reasonable accommodation for a period of 180 consecutive or non-consecutive days in a 12-month period; (ii) qualifies you for benefits under the Company's long-term disability plan; and (iii) you shall not have returned to full-time employment with the Company. "Disabled" shall have the correlative meaning.

For purposes of this Agreement, “Cause” shall mean the occurrence of the events described in the following clauses (i) and (ii) herein, provided that no act or failure to act by you shall be deemed to constitute Cause if done, or omitted to be done, in good faith and with the reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company: (i) at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Board determine that you (A) were guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of your duties for the Company (other than due to your physical or mental incapacity), (B) breached or violated, in any material respect, any agreement between you and the Company or any material policy in the Company’s code of conduct or similar employee conduct policy (as amended from time to time), or (C) committed a non-de minimis act of dishonesty or breach of trust with regard to the Company, any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, or (ii) you are indicted of, or plead guilty or nolo contendre to, a felony or other crime of moral turpitude. Any determination made pursuant to clause (i) shall be made at a duly convened meeting of the Board (A) of which you received written notice at least five days in advance, which notice shall have set forth in reasonable detail the facts and circumstances claimed to provide a basis for a finding that one of the events described in subsection (i) above occurred, and (B) at which you had a reasonable opportunity to make a statement and answer the allegations against you; and either (A) you were given a reasonable opportunity to take remedial action but failed or refused to do so, or (B) at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the Board also determined in good faith, at such meeting, that an opportunity to take remedial action would not have been meaningful under the circumstances.

For purposes of this Agreement, “Good Reason” shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events, without your prior written consent: (i) any materially adverse change to your responsibilities, duties, authority or status from those set forth in this Agreement or any adverse change in your positions, titles or reporting responsibility (such that you report to a person other than the Board); provided, that, it shall be deemed to be a material adverse change if the Company is acquired by another entity and you are not Chief Executive Officer of the resulting most senior company (other than those that merely hold stock); and provided, further that the Company ceasing to be or becoming a publicly traded shall not be deemed a material adverse change; (ii) a relocation of your principal business location to an area outside a 50 mile radius of its current location or moving of you from the Company’s headquarters; (iii) a failure of any successor to the Company (whether direct or indirect and whether by merger, acquisition, consolidation, asset sale or otherwise) to assume in writing any obligations arising out of this Agreement; (iv) a reduction of your annual Base Salary or Target Bonus or pay any of the compensation provided for under Section 2 above to you in connection with your employment; provided that, a reduction in Base Salary or Target Bonus of less than 5% that is proportionately applied to employees of the Company generally shall not constitute Good Reason hereunder; or (v) a material breach by the Company of this Agreement or any other material agreement with you relating to your compensation; provided, that, within 60 days following the occurrence of any of the events set forth therein, you have delivered written notice to the Company of your intention to terminate your employment for Good Reason, and the Company shall not have cured such circumstances (if susceptible to cure) within 30 days following receipt of such notice (or, in the event that such grounds cannot be corrected within such 30-day period, the Company has not taken all reasonable steps within such 30-day period to correct such grounds as promptly as practicable thereafter).

10. Non-solicitation, Non-recruitment and Non-competition

You acknowledge and agree that, in your position as President and CEO of the Company (which, for purposes of this Section 10, shall include all of the Company's subsidiaries and all affiliated companies and joint ventures connected by ownership to the Company at any time (but not any other portfolio companies of the Majority Stockholder (as defined in the Plan))), it is expected that: (i) you will be materially involved in conducting or overseeing all aspects of the Company's business activities throughout the world, (ii) you will have material contact with a substantial number of the Company's employees, and all or substantially all of the Company's then-current and actively-sought potential customers ("Customers") and suppliers of inventory ("Suppliers"); (iii) you will have access to all or substantially all of the Company's Trade Secrets and Confidential Information (see Exhibit F for definition of "Trade Secrets" and "Confidential Information"). You further acknowledge and agree that your competition with the Company anywhere worldwide, or your attempted solicitation of the Company's employees or Customers or Suppliers, during your employment or within two years after the termination of your employment with the Company, would be unfair competition and would cause substantial damages to the Company. Consequently, in consideration of your employment with the Company as its President and CEO, and the Company's covenants in this Agreement, you make the following covenants described in this Section 10:

(a) Non-solicitation of Company Customers and Suppliers. During the Employment Period and for two years following any Date of Termination, you shall not, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or of anyone other than the Company, solicit or hire or attempt to solicit or hire (or assist any third party in soliciting or hiring or attempting to solicit or hire) any Customer or Supplier in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company.

(b) Non-solicitation of Company Employees. During the Employment Period and for two years following any Date of Termination, you shall not, without the prior written consent of the Board, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or any third party, solicit or hire or recruit or, other than in the good faith performance of your duties, induce or encourage (or assist any third party in hiring, soliciting, recruiting, inducing or encouraging) any employees of the Company or any individuals who were employees within the six-month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his or her employment with the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions contained in this Section 10(b) shall not apply to (i) general solicitations that are not specifically directed to employees of the Company or (ii) serving as a reference at the request of an employee.

(c) Non-competition with the Company. During the Employment Period and for two years following any Date of Termination, you shall not become an employee, director, or independent contractor of, or consultant to, or perform any services for, any Competitor of the Company. For purposes of this Section 10, a Competitor of the Company shall mean (i) any unit, division, line of business, parent, subsidiary or subsidiary of the parent of any of Travelport, Amadeus, Worldspan, Orbitz, Expedia, Priceline, Hotwire, ITA Software, Cheaptickets or EDS; or (ii) any individual or entity that within two years after your termination could reasonably be expected to generate more than $100 Million in annualized gross revenue from any activity that competes, or combination of activities that competes, with any business of the Company; provided, that a Competitor of the Company under this clause (ii) shall not include any individual or entity or portion of an entity where (A) you have actual supervisory duties and authority over one or more businesses and (B) less than 20% of the annualized gross revenue of such businesses over which you have actual supervisory duties and authority arise from any activity or combination of activities that competes with any business of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any of the above-named entities in clause (i) of this Section 10(c) no longer engages in a line of business that competes with any business of the Company, such entity shall no longer be deemed a Competitor of the Company for purposes of this Section 10.

(d) Non-disclosure of Confidential Information and Trade Secrets. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except in the good faith performance of your duties hereunder or where required by law, statute, regulation or rule of any governmental body or agency, or pursuant to a subpoena or court order, you shall not, directly or indirectly, for your own account or for the account of any other person, firm or entity, use or disclose any Confidential Information or proprietary Trade Secrets of the Company to any third person unless such Confidential Information or Trade Secret has been previously disclosed to the public or is in the public domain (other than by reason of your breach of this paragraph).

(e) Enforceability of Covenants. You acknowledge that the Company has a present and future expectation of business from and with the Customers and Suppliers. You acknowledge the reasonableness of the term, geographical territory, and scope of the covenants set forth in this Section 10, and you agree that you will not, in any action, suit or other proceeding, deny the reasonableness of, or assert the unreasonableness of, the premises, consideration or scope of the covenants set forth herein and you hereby waive any such defense. You further acknowledge that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude you from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. You agree that your covenants under this Section 10 are separate and distinct obligations under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of the Company or the Board to perform obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of your covenants and obligations under this Section 10. You agree that any breach of any covenant under this Section 10 will result in irreparable damage and injury to the Company and that the Company will be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond.

11. Post-Employment Transition and Cooperation

Upon and after the termination of your employment with the Company for any reason (except your death or, if lacking sufficient physical or mental ability, your Disability), you will execute any and all documents and take any and all actions that the Company may reasonably request to effect the transition of your duties and responsibilities to a successor. You will make yourself reasonably available with respect to, and to cooperate in conjunction with, any litigation or investigation involving the Company, and any administrative matters (including the execution of documents, as reasonably requested); provided that such litigation, investigation or administrative matter is related to your employment with the Company and that any such availability or cooperation does not materially interfere with your then current professional activities, does not include a conflict between you and the Company or the Majority Stockholder as determined in good faith by you and the Majority Stockholder and would not result in a violation of any court order or governmental requirement. The Company agrees to compensate you (other than with respect to the provision of testimony) for such cooperation at an hourly rate commensurate with your Base Salary on the Date of Termination to reimburse you for all reasonable expenses actually incurred in connection with cooperation pursuant to this Section 11, and to provide you with legal representation.

12. Code Section 280G

(a) If, after the Effective Time, there occurs a transaction that constitutes a "change of control" under Treasury Regulation 1.280G, and, immediately prior to the consummation of such change of control, Sovereign or the Company is an entity whose stock is readily tradable on an established securities market (or otherwise) such that an exemption from the Excise Tax (as defined below) is not available, the following provisions will apply:

(1) In the event it shall be determined that any payment (including without limitation, the issuance of common shares, the granting or vesting of restricted shares, or the granting, vesting, exercise or termination of options therefor) to or for your benefit hereunder is subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or any interest or penalties are incurred by you with respect to such excise tax (such excise tax, together with any such interest and penalties, hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Excise Tax"), you shall be entitled to receive an additional payment or payments (a "Gross-Up Payment") in an amount such that after payment by you of all taxes (including any interest or penalties imposed with respect to such taxes), including, without limitation, any income or employment taxes (and any interest and penalties imposed with respect thereto) and the Excise Tax imposed upon the Gross-Up Payment, you retain an amount of the Gross-Up Payment equal to the Excise Tax imposed upon the payments. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 12(a)(i), if it shall be determined that you are entitled to a Gross-Up Payment, but that the payments do not exceed 110% of the greatest amount that could be paid to you without giving rise to any Excise Tax (the "Safe Harbor Amount"), then no Gross-Up Payment shall be made to you and the amounts payable under this Agreement shall be reduced so that the payments, in the aggregate, are reduced to the Safe Harbor Amount.

(2) All determinations required to be made under this Section 12, including whether and when a Gross-Up Payment is required and the amount of such Gross-Up Payment and the assumptions to be utilized in arriving at such determination, shall be made by a nationally recognized accounting firm selected by the Company (the "Accounting Firm") which shall provide detailed supporting calculations both to the Company and you within ten business days of the receipt of notice from you that there have been payments to which Sections 280G and/or Section 4999 may apply, or such earlier time as is requested by the Company. All fees and expenses of the Accounting Firm shall be borne solely by the Company. Any Gross-Up Payment, as determined pursuant to this Section 12, shall be paid by the Company to you (or to the appropriate taxing authority on your behalf) five business days before the applicable tax is due. If the Accounting Firm determines that no Excise Tax is payable by you, it shall so indicate to you. Any determination by the Accounting Firm shall be binding upon the Company and you, subject to an Internal Revenue Service determination. As a result of the uncertainty in the application of Section 4999 of the Code, it is possible that the amount of the Gross-Up Payment determined by the Accounting Firm to be due to (or on behalf of) you was lower than the amount actually due ("Underpayment"). In the event that the Company exhausts its remedies pursuant to Section 12(b) and you thereafter are required to make a payment of any Excise Tax, the Accounting Firm shall determine the amount of the Underpayment plus any interest and penalties incurred as a result of the Underpayment that has occurred and any such Underpayment shall be promptly paid by the Company to or for your benefit.

(b) You shall notify the Company in writing of any claim by the Internal Revenue Service that, if successful, would require the payment by the Company of any Gross-Up Payment. Such notification shall be given as soon as practicable but no later than ten business days after you are informed in writing of such claim and shall apprise the Company of the nature of such claim and the date on which such claim is requested to be paid. You shall not pay such claim prior to the expiration of the 30-day period following the date on which it gives such notice to the Company (or such shorter period ending on the date that any payment of taxes with respect to such claim is due). If the Company notifies you in writing prior to the expiration of such period that it desires to contest such claim, you shall (i) give the Company any information reasonably requested by the Company relating to such claim, (ii) take such action in connection with contesting such claim as the Company shall reasonably request in writing from time to time, including, without limitation, accepting legal representation with respect to such claim by an attorney reasonably selected by the Company and reasonably acceptable to you, (iii) cooperate with the Company in good faith in order to effectively contest such claim and (iv) permit the Company to participate in any proceedings relating to such claim; provided, however, that the Company shall bear and pay directly all costs and expenses (including additional interest and penalties) incurred in connection with such contest and shall indemnify and hold you harmless, on an after-tax basis, for any Excise Tax or income or employment tax (including interest and penalties with respect thereto) imposed as a result of such representation and payment of costs and expenses. Without limitation on the foregoing provisions of this Section 12, the Company shall control all proceedings taken in connection with such contest and, at its sole option, may pursue or forego any and all administrative appeals, proceedings, hearings and conferences with the taxing authority in respect of such claim and may, at its sole option, either direct you to pay the tax claimed and sue for a refund or contest the claim in any permissible manner, and you agree to prosecute such contest to a determination before any administrative tribunal, in a court of initial jurisdiction and in one or more appellate courts, as the Company shall determine; provided, further, that if the Company directs you to pay such claim and sue for a refund, the Company shall advance the amount of such payment to you, on an interest-free basis, and shall indemnify and hold you harmless, on an after-tax basis, from any Excise Tax or income or employment tax (including interest or penalties with respect thereto) imposed with respect to such advance or with respect to any imputed income with respect to such advance; provided, further, that if you are required to extend the statute of limitations to enable the Company to contest such claim, you may limit this extension solely to such contested amount. The Company's control of the contest shall be limited to issues with respect to which a Gross-Up Payment would be payable hereunder and you shall be entitled to settle or contest, as the case may be, any other issue raised by the Internal Revenue Service or any other taxing authority.

(c) If, after the receipt by you of an amount paid or advanced by the Company pursuant to this Section 12, you become entitled to receive any refund with respect to a Gross-Up Payment, you shall promptly pay to the Company the amount of such refund received (together with any interest paid or credited thereon after taxes applicable thereto).

(d) With respect to any "change of control" under Treasury Regulation 1.280G for which you are not entitled to receive the Gross-Up Payment as set forth in this Section 12, the Company and Sovereign shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to take such actions as may be necessary to avoid the imposition of any Excise Tax, including seeking to obtain stockholder approval in accordance with the terms of Section 280G(b)(5) of the Code.

13. Miscellaneous

(a) Dispute Resolution. The laws of the state of Texas will govern the construction, interpretation and enforcement of this Agreement. The parties agree that any and all claims, disputes, or controversies arising out of or related to this Agreement, or the breach of this Agreement, shall be resolved by binding arbitration, except as otherwise provided in Section 10 of this Agreement. The parties will submit the dispute, within 30 business days following service of notice of such dispute by one party on the other, to the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (J*A*M*S/Endispute) for prompt resolution in Dallas, Texas, under its rules for labor and employment disputes. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in accordance with applicable law in any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator shall have the authority to make an award of monetary damages and interest thereon. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award, and the parties hereby waive any right to seek or receive, specific performance or an injunction, punitive or exemplary damages. The arbitrator will have no authority to order a modification or amendment of this Agreement. The parties shall bear their own attorneys fees and shall bear equally the expenses of the arbitral proceedings; provided that the arbitrator shall have the right to award you reimbursement of reasonable attorneys fees and expenses of the arbitral proceedings in the event you prevail on a material issue.

(b) Code Section 409A.

(1) If any provision of this Agreement (or of any award of compensation, including equity compensation or benefits) would cause you to incur any additional tax or interest under Section 409A of the Code or any regulations or Treasury guidance promulgated thereunder, the Company shall, after consulting with you, reform such provision to comply with Section 409A of the Code; provided that the Company agrees to maintain, to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to you of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Section 409A of the Code.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, if you are deemed on the Date of Termination to be a "specified employee" within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code and the Company is a public company, then the payments specified as being subject to this Section 13{b)(2) shall not be made or provided (subject to the last sentence hereof) prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six month period measured from the date of your "separation from service" (as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations issued under Code Section 409A) or (B) the date of your death (the "Delay Period"). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments and benefits delayed pursuant to this Section 13(b)(2) (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) shall be paid or reimbursed to you in a lump sum, and any remaining payments due under this Agreement shall be paid or provided in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them herein.

(3) With regard to the payment of amounts due as a result of a tax audit or litigation addressing the existence or amount of a tax liability, whether federal, state, local or foreign, the gross-up of such amounts pursuant to Section 6 of the ETBA or Section 12 of this Agreement shall in no event be paid later than the end of your taxable year following the taxable year in which the taxes that are subject of the audit or litigation are remitted to the applicable taxing authority, or where as a result of such audit or litigation no taxes are remitted, the end of your taxable year following the taxable year in which the audit is completed or there is a final and nonappealable settlement or other resolution of the litigation. The foregoing is not intended to extend any earlier time period for payment provided in Section 6 of the ETBA or Section 12 of this Agreement.

(c) Indemnification and Insurance. During the Employment Period and for so long thereafter as liability exists with regard to your activities during the Employment Period on behalf of the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, or as a fiduciary of any benefit plan of any of them, the Company shall indemnify you to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (other than in connection with your gross negligence or willful misconduct), and shall at the Company's election provide you with legal representation or shall advance to you reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred (subject to an undertaking from you to repay such advances if it shall be finally determined by a judicial decision which is not subject to further appeal that you were not entitled to the reimbursement of such fees and expenses). During the Employment Period and for so long as liability exists thereafter you shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company shall elect to maintain generally for the benefit of its directors and officers ("Directors and Officers Insurance") against all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by you in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which you may be made a party by reason of your being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or your serving or having served any other enterprise or benefit plan as a director, officer, fiduciary or employee at the request of the Company (other than any dispute, claim or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement); provided, that you shall, in all cases, be entitled to Directors and Officers Insurance coverage no less favorable than that (if any) provided to any other present director or officer of the Company.

(d) Attorneys' Fees. The Company shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements incurred by you in connection with the negotiation of (A) this Agreement, (B) the Option Agreements and (C) the Rollover Agreement. Payment of such fees shall be made promptly and, in any event, in 2007.

(e) No Mitigation Except as otherwise provided in Section 9(a) hereof, (i) you shall not be required to seek other employment or otherwise mitigate the amount of any payments to be made by the Company pursuant to this Agreement; and (ii) the payments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by you as the result of employment by another employer after the Date of Termination or otherwise.

(f) Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Agreement and the Option Agreements represent the entire understanding with respect to their subject matter. Only a writing that has been signed by both you and the Company may modify this Agreement. Except as otherwise provided below, any and all previous employment agreements, including the employment agreement by and between you and Sabre, dated as of December 1, 2003, as amended effective March 22, 2006, severance agreements and executive termination benefits agreements, including the Executive Termination Benefits Agreement by and between you, Sabre and Sabre Holdings, dated as of January 19, 2004, as amended effective February 22, 2006 (the "ETBA"), are cancelled as of the Effective Time and the benefits under this Agreement are in lieu of, and in full substitution for, any other severance or post-employment benefits pursuant to any other agreement, arrangement or understanding with the Company or any of its affiliates. Notwithstanding the foregoing, section 6 of the ETBA shall remain in full force and effect with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

AMENDMENT NO. 2

This Amendment No. 2 dated June 26, 2009 ("Amendment") to the agreement dated as of June 11, 2007 between the Company and Michael S. Gilliland (the "Agreement") amends the Agreement in the manner set for the below as of April 1, 2009. The purpose of the Amendment is to provide for an orderly and aligned transition plan between Company and Executive. In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The first sentence of Section 4 of the Agreement shall be amended to read as follows:

"Unless terminated earlier pursuant to Section 9 hereof, the term of this Agreement shall be up to and including April 1, 2012 (the "Initial Term")."

2. Section 4 of the Agreement shall be amended by adding the follow new paragraph at the end thereof:

"The Company, through its Board of Directors, and you agree to work together in good faith to provide for an orderly succession to your roles as President/CEO and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company in a manner consistent with ongoing succession planning discussions and processes. A successor to the position of President/CEO will be named at the discretion of the Board of Directors during the period of this Agreement. After such successor is appointed, you will remain with the Company during this time (up to and including April 1, 2012) in the role of Chairman of the Board and will undertake in good faith to coach and mentor the new President/CEO, to meet with customers, remain an active member of the Board of Directors, and otherwise undertake any other reasonable duties or actions as may be requested of you by the Board of Directors or the Company in line with the purpose of training the new President/CEO and advancing the interests of the Company."

3. The second full paragraph of Section 9(a) of the Agreement shall be amended to read as follows:

"In addition, the Company will pay to you, subject to Section 13(b)(2), as severance, in one lump-sum payment due within 30 days following the Date of Termination, an amount equal to the remaining Base Salary and Target Bonus for the period following the Date of Termination up to and including April 1, 2012, and payment of the annual retainer amount of $250,000 for both years 2013 and 2014 as described in Section 11 (the "Severance Amount"). Such amount shall be less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items. By way of example, if you were terminated without cause effective November 30, 2010, you would be entitled to your Base Salary and Target Bonus for the period of December 1, 2010 through April 1, 2012 along with a total retainer payment of $500,000."

4. Section 11 of the Agreement shall be amended by adding the following new paragraph at the end thereof:

"In addition to the above paragraph of this Section 11, Company agrees that following termination of this Agreement on April 1, 2012, you will be appointed to the Board of Directors (though not as Chairman) as described in Section 2 of the Agreement and otherwise remain available for ad hoc advice and support as reasonably requested by the Company for a period of two years, up to and including April 1, 2014. In exchange for such services, you shall receive an annual retainer payment of $250,000, payable in monthly installments less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items. Said retainer payments shall be your sole compensation for such role. Nothing herein shall supersede the ability of the Company to terminate your employment pursuant to the terms of the Agreement."

5. Section 4.5 (ii) of the Plan (Exhibit C of the Agreement) shall be amended to read as follows:

"(ii) two years after the date the Participant's Employment is terminated for any reason other than Cause, death or Disability and for so long as Participant is not in violation of any provision of Section 10 of the Agreement. The Board of Directors shall retain the sole discretion to shorten or terminate this two year period;"

6. Executive shall receive a special award of 750,000 stock options on terms and conditions similar to those provided to other Company Executives on or about April 1, 2009. However, the agreement will reflect that the vesting period for such options shall begin on April 1, 2009 and will do so ratably over a three year period up to and including April 1, 2012. Similarly, as discussed with the Board of Directors, Executive shall have the same right to exchange certain of Executive's Performance-Based Options already awarded on terms and conditions similarly to those provided to other Company Executives in or about March 2009. However, the agreement will reflect that the vesting period for any such exchanged options shall begin on April 1, 2009 and will do so ratably over a three year period up to and including April 1, 2012.

7. In the event of termination of Executive's employment with the Company, Executive shall be permitted to redeem any equity purchased under Section 7 of the Agreement as provided for pursuant to any existing agreements.

8. Except as otherwise specifically amended herein, the Agreement and any amendments thereto shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of any conflict between the Agreement and this Amendment, the terms of this Amendment shall control.

AMENDMENT NO. 3

This Amendment No. 3 dated June 30, 2012 ("Amendment") to the agreement dated as of June 11, 2007 between the Company and Michael S. Gilliland (as amended, the "Agreement") amends the Agreement in the manner set forth. As may be required for the sake of consistency, this Amendment supersedes any specific provisions of Amendment No. 2 dated as of June 26, 2009.

The purpose of the Amendment is to maintain an orderly and aligned transition plan between Company and Executive. In summary, subject to the terms and conditions set forth below, it is the intent of the Board to: (1) employ Executive in his current role for rolling one-year periods so as to ensure Executive completes key projects as otherwise agreed between Executive and the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board of Directors"), provided, however, that either party may terminate Executive's employment as provided for in the Agreement (i.e., 60 days written notice); (2) increase Executive's salary to $1 million per annum (Executive's Target Bonus percentage will remain at 150%); (3) grant Executive 500,000 new stock options at current "fair market value" at the time of grant; and (4) appoint Executive to a two-year term on the Company's Board of Directors once his employment with the Company terminates with an annual retainer of $250,000.

In consideration of the mutual covenants contained herein, and effective as of July 1, 2012, the parties hereto agree as follows:

1. The first two sentences of Section 4 of the Agreement shall be amended and restated in their entirety to read as follows (and replaces the text set forth in Paragraph 1 of Amendment No. 2):

"Unless terminated earlier pursuant to Section 9 hereof, the term of this Agreement shall be up to and including June 30, 2013 (the "Initial Term"). The term of this Agreement and your employment shall automatically renew for one-year periods following the Initial Term (each, an "Additional Term"); provided, however, that either party may terminate this Agreement (other than those provisions that by their terms apply after such or otherwise survive termination) and your employment at any time by providing at least 60 days written notice."

2. Section 4 of the Agreement shall be amended by adding the follow new paragraph at the end thereof (and the text set forth in Paragraph 2 of Amendment No. 2 is hereby amended and restated in entirety):

"The Company, through its Board of Directors, and you agree to work together in good faith to provide for an orderly succession to your roles as CEO and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company in a manner consistent with ongoing succession planning discussions and processes. A successor to the position of CEO will be named at the discretion of the Board of Directors during the period of this Agreement. After such successor is appointed, you will remain with the Company up to the date of termination of your employment in the role of Chairman of the Board and will undertake in good faith to coach and mentor the new CEO, to meet with customers, remain an active member of the Board of Directors, and otherwise undertake any other reasonable duties or actions as may be requested of you by the Board of Directors or the Company in line with the purpose of training the new CEO and advancing the interests of the Company."

3. The first sentence of Section 5 of the Agreement shall be amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

"During the Employment Period, your annual base salary will be $1,000,000 ("Base Salary"), less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items."

4. The second sentence of the first paragraph of Section 9(a) of the Agreement is hereby deleted.

5. The second full paragraph of Section 9(a) of the Agreement (as amended by Paragraph 3 of Amendment No. 3) shall be amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

"In addition, the Company will pay to you, subject to Section 13(b)(2), as severance, in one lump-sum payment due within 30 days following the Date of Termination, an amount equal to the remaining Base Salary and Target Bonus for the period following the Date of Termination up to and including the end of the Initial Term (if such termination occurs during the Initial Term) or the end of the then current Additional Term (if such termination occurs during an Additional Term) and payment of $500,000 representing the annual retainers that would have been paid to you pursuant to Section 11 (the "Severance Amount"). Such amount shall be less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items.

6. Section 11 of the Agreement shall be amended by adding the following new two paragraphs at the end thereof (and the text set forth in Paragraph 4 of Amendment No. 2 is hereby amended and restated in its entirety):

"In addition to the above paragraph of this Section 11, Company agrees that following termination of this Agreement and your employment (which, for the avoidance of doubt, shall constitute the end of the Employment Period), you will be appointed to the Board of Directors (though not as Chairman) as described in Section 2 of the Agreement and otherwise remain available for ad hoc advice and support as reasonably requested by the Company for a period of two years. In exchange for such services, you shall receive an annual retainer payment of $250,000, payable in equal monthly installments less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items. Said retainer payments shall be your sole compensation for such role and you shall be entitled to no other compensation including pursuant to the last sentence of the first paragraph of this Section 11. Nothing herein shall supersede the ability of the Company to terminate your employment pursuant to the terms of the Agreement.

Following the termination of the Employment Period, the Company may elect, at any time, to terminate your appointment to the Board of Directors. In the event of any such termination without Cause, the Company will pay to you, subject to Section 13(b)(2), as severance, in one lump-sum payment due within 30 days following the date of such termination, an amount equal to $500,000 less any retainer payments made prior to the date of such termination pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph. Such amount shall be less withholding for taxes and deduction for other appropriate items. For the avoidance of doubt, in no event shall you be entitled to receive a payment under this paragraph and under the second full paragraph of Section

9(a). Furthermore, the provisions of the last paragraph of Section 9(a) (including the obligation to deliver the Release and such release becoming effective) shall apply to any payments under this paragraph with any necessary modifications."

7. Executive shall receive an award of 500,000 stock options subject to the Company's standard terms and conditions, at Fair Market Value as of the date of grant, on or about June 30, 2012 (or as soon thereafter as practicable). Such options shall vest and become exercisable as follows: 25% of such options shall vest on the first anniversary of the date on which they are granted, and the remainder shall vest in equal installments of 4.6875% at the end of each complete quarter thereafter for 16 quarters, subject in each case to your continued employment with the Company or service as a member of the Board of Directors as contemplated by the penultimate paragraph of Section 11 through the applicable vesting date. In the event that the Company terminates your employment without Cause or you terminate your employment for Good Reason, those options which would have vested within two years from the date of such termination shall accelerate and vest upon such termination. In the event that following the end of the Employment Period, the Company terminates your service on the Board of Directors without Cause, those options which would have vested within two years of the end of the Employment Period shall accelerate and vest upon such termination. Additionally, at the commencement of each Additional Term, the Board of Directors will determine, in its discretion, whether you shall receive a new award of stock options.

8. The phrase "During the Employment Period and for two years following any Date of Termination" appearing in each of Section 10(a), (b), and (c) of the Agreement shall be amended and restated in its entirety to read, in each case, as follows:

"During the Employment Period, the duration of any service on the Board of Directors contemplated by the penultimate paragraph of Section 11 of the Agreement and for two years following the later of the end of the Employment Period and the termination of such service on the Board of Directors."

9. Paragraph 5 of Amendment No. 2 is hereby amended and restated in its entirety to read as follows:

"Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any other agreement (including the Plan or any applicable grant or award agreement), following the termination of Executive's employment for any reason other than Cause, death or Disability and for so long as Executive is not in violation of any provision of Section 10 of the Agreement, Executive shall be permitted to exercise any stock options until the later of (i) the expiration of such stock option by its terms and (ii) two years from the end of the Employment Period, and to the extent not exercised by such time, such options shall be forfeited.

10. Except as otherwise specifically amended herein, the Agreement and any amendments thereto shall remain in full force and effect. In the event of any conflict between the Agreement (and any existing amendments thereto) and this Amendment No. 3, the terms of this Amendment No. 3 shall control.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Amendment as of the date first set forth above.

You further acknowledge and agree that your competition with the Company anywhere worldwide, or your attempted solicitation of the Company's employees or Customers or Suppliers, during your employment or within one year after the termination of your employment with the Company, would be unfair competition and would cause substantial damages to the Company. Consequently, in consideration of your employment with the Company as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and the Company's covenants in this Agreement, you make the following covenants described in this Section 8.

(a) Non-solicitation of Company Customers and Suppliers. During the Employment Period and for one year following any Date of Termination, you shall not, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or of anyone other than the Company, solicit or hire or attempt to solicit or hire (or assist any third party in soliciting or hiring or attempting to solicit or hire) any Customer or Supplier in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company.

(c) Non-competition with the Company. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not become an employee, director, or independent contractor of, or a consultant to, or perform any services for, any Competitor of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any of the above-named entities in clause (i) of this Section 8(c) no longer engages in a line of business that competes with any business of the Company, such entity shall no longer be deemed a Competitor of the Company for purposes of this Section 8.

During the Employment Period and thereafter, except in the good faith performance of your duties hereunder or where required by law, statute, regulation or rule of any governmental body or agency, or pursuant to a subpoena or court order, you shall not, directly or indirectly, for your own account or for the account of any other person, firm or entity, use or disclose any Confidential Information or proprietary Trade Secrets of the Company to any third person unless such Confidential Information or Trade Secret has been previously disclosed to the public or is in the public domain (other than by reason of your breach of this paragraph).

(e) Enforceability of Covenants. You acknowledge that the Company has a present and future expectation of business from and with the Customers and Suppliers. You acknowledge the reasonableness of the term, geographical territory, and scope of the covenants set forth in this Section 8, and you agree that you will not, in any action, suit or other proceeding, deny the reasonableness of, or assert the unreasonableness of, the premises, consideration or scope of the covenants set forth herein and you hereby waive any such defense. You further acknowledge that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude you from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. You agree that your covenants under this Section 8 are separate and distinct obligations under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of the Company or the Board to perform obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of your covenants and obligations under this Section 8. You agree that any breach of any covenant under this Section 8 will result in irreparable damage and injury to the Company and that the Company will be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond.

Upon and after the termination of your employment with the Company for any reason (except your death or, if lacking sufficient physical or mental ability, your Disability), you will execute any and all documents and take any and all actions that the Company may reasonably request to effect the transition of your duties and responsibilities to a successor. You will make yourself reasonably available with respect to, and to cooperate in conjunction with, any litigation or investigation involving the Company, and any administrative matters (including the execution of documents, as reasonably requested); provided, that such litigation, investigation or administrative natter is related to your employment with the Company and that any such availability or cooperation does not materially interfere with your then current professional activities, does not include a conflict between you and the Company or the Majority Stockholder as determined in good faith by you and the Majority Stockholder and would not result in a violation of any court order or governmental requirement. The Company agrees to compensate you (other than with respect to the provision of testimony) for such cooperation at an hourly rate commensurate with your Base Salary on the Date of Termination to reimburse you for all reasonable expenses actually incurred in connection with cooperation pursuant to this Section 9, and to provide you with legal representation.

10. Code Section 280G

If, after the Effective Time, Sovereign or the Company is not an entity whose stock is readily tradable on an established securities market (or otherwise) and a "change of control" under Regulation 1.280G occurs, the Company and Sovereign shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to take such actions as may be necessary to avoid the imposition of the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or a loss of deductibility under Section 280G of the Cod, including seeking to obtain stockholder approval in accordance with the terms of Section 280G(b)(5).

11. Miscellaneous

The parties agree that any and all claims, disputes, or controversies arising out of or related to this Agreement, or the breach of this Agreement, shall be resolved by binding arbitration, except as otherwise provided in Section 8 of this Agreement. The parties will submit the dispute, within 30 business days following service of notice of such dispute by one party on the other, to the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (J*A*M*S/Endispute) for prompt resolution in Dallas, Texas, under its rules for labor and employment disputes. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in accordance with applicable law to any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator shall have the authority to make an award of monetary damages and interest thereon. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award, and the parties hereby waive any right to seek or receive, specific performance or an injunction, punitive or exemplary damages. The arbitrator will have no authority to order a modification or amendment of this Agreement. The parties shall bear their own attorneys fees, and shall bear equally the expenses of the arbitral proceedings, including without limitation the fees of the arbitrator.

(b) Code Section 409A.

(i) If any provision of this Agreement (or of any award of compensation, including equity compensation or benefits) would cause you to incur any additional tax or interest under Section 409A of the Code or any regulations or Treasury guidance promulgated thereunder, the Company shall, after consulting with you, reform such provision to comply with Section 409A of the Code; provided, that the Company agrees to maintain, to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to you of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Section 409A of the Code.

(ii) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, if you are deemed on the Date of Termination to be a "specified employee" within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code and the Company is a public company, then the payments specified as being subject to this Section 11(b)(ii) shall not be made or provided (subject to the last sentence hereof) prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six month period measured from the date of your "separation from service" (as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations issued under Code Section 409A) or (B) the date of your death (the "Delay Period"). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments and benefits delayed pursuant to this Section 11(b)(ii) (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) shall be paid or reimbursed to you in a lump sum, and any remaining payments due under this Agreement shall be paid or provided in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them herein.

(iii) A termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits subject to Code Section 409A upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination is also a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and, for purposes of any such provision of this Agreement, references to a "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean "separation from service."

(iv) (a) All expenses or other reimbursements as provided herein shall be payable in accordance with the Company's policies in effect from time to time, but in any event shall be made on or prior to the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expenses were incurred by you (b) no such reimbursement or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any taxable year shall in any way affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year and (c) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchanged for another benefit.

(v) For purposes of Code Section 409A, your right to receive any installment payments pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments. Whenever a payment under this Agreement specifies a payment period with reference to a number of days (e.g., "payment shall be made within thirty (30) days following the date of termination"), the actual date of payment within the specified period shall be within the sole discretion of the Company.

(c) Indemnification and Insurance. During the Employment Period and for so long thereafter as liability exists with regard to your activities during the Employment Period on behalf of the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, or as a fiduciary of any benefit plan of any of them, the Company shall indemnify you to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (other than in connection with your gross negligence or willful misconduct), and shall at the Company's election provide you with legal representation or shall advance to you reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred (subject to an undertaking from you to repay such advances if it shall be finally determined by a judicial decision which is not subject to further appeal that you were not entitled to the reimbursement of such fees and expenses). During the Employment Period and for so long as liability exists thereafter you shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company shall elect to maintain generally for the benefit of its directors and officers ("Directors and Officers Insurance") against all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by you in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which you may be made a party by reason of your being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or your serving or having served any other enterprise or benefit plan as a director, officer, fiduciary or employee at the request of the Company (other than any dispute, claim or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement); provided that you shall, in all cases, be entitled to Directors and Officers Insurance coverage no less favorable than that (if any) provided to any other present director or officer of the Company.

(d) Attorneys' Fees. The Company shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements incurred by you in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement. Payment of such fees shall be made promptly and, in any event, in 2009.

(e) No Mitigation. Except as otherwise provided in Section 7(a) hereof, (i) you shall not be required to seek other employment or otherwise mitigate the amount of any payments to be made by the Company pursuant to this Agreement; and (ii) the payments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by you as the result of employment by another employer after the Date of Termination or otherwise.

(f) Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Agreement and the Option Agreements represent the entire understanding with respect to their subject matter. Only a writing that has been signed by both you and the Company may modify this Agreement. Any and all previous employment agreements, severance agreements and executive termination benefits agreements are cancelled as of the Effective Time and the benefits under this Agreement are in lieu of, and in full substitution for, any other severance or post-employment benefits pursuant to any other agreement, arrangement or understanding with the Company or any of its affiliates; provided, however, that any prior award of Options shall remain in full force and effect.

(g) Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of (i) the heirs, executors and legal representatives of you upon your death and (ii) any successor of the Company. Any such successor of the Company shall be deemed substituted for the Company under the terms of this Agreement for all purposes. As used herein, "successor" shall include any person, firm, corporation, or other business entity which at any time, whether by purchase, merger or otherwise, directly or indirectly acquires all or substantially all of the assets or business of the Company.

As we discussed, your employment with Sabre Holdings (the "Company") will terminate on or about June 30, 2013. You will receive all benefits to which you are entitled under your Employment Agreement dated July 31, 2009 (the "Agreement"), including relevant severance payments as discussed in Section 7(a) of the Agreement and described on the attached Schedule A. Schedule A sets forth a calculation of monthly severance payments, lump sum accrued but unused vacation payment confirmation, and confirmation of the monthly amount, reimbursement policy for medical benefits as provided for in the Agreement. A list of the Extended Options is set forth on Schedule B. For clarity, capitalized terms used but not defined in this letter have the meanings ascribed to them in the applicable document. Management Stockholders' Agreement as a condition to exercising the Extended Options. Your unvested Options as of June 30, 2013 that will cancel are listed on Schedule C and will be forfeited in accordance with the terms of the Plan.

[1] For purposes of any performance-based options and this paragraph 2, "the Plan" refers to the June 11, 2007 version of the Plan as the current version of the Plan (dated September 14, 2012) does not discuss performance-based options as that type of equity is no longer used by the Company.

set forth in Section 4.4.2 of the Plan are otherwise met. Any Extended Performance-Based Options not vesting by June 30, 2015 under the terms of the Plan will be forfeited. The period of your employment with the Company shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period". Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sections 5, 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11 shall survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with their terms.

Either you or the Company may terminate your employment with the Company at any time, and for any reason or no reason, with or without Cause, as set forth in Section 7 of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Date of Termination" shall mean (a) if your employment is terminated by your death, the date of your death, (b) if your employment is terminated as a result of your Disability (as defined in Section 7 below), the date upon which you receive the notice of termination from the Company, (c) if you terminate your employment or your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause, the date specified in the notice given pursuant to Section 7(a) or (c) herein, as applicable, which shall not be less than 60 days after such notice, and (d) if your employment is terminated for any other reason, the date on which the notice of termination is given unless otherwise agreed to by the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in all events, the Date of Termination described above in (b), (c) and (d) subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") Section 409A, shall occur when you have incurred a separation from service for purposes of Code Section 409A.

3. Base Salary and Sign On Bonus

During the Employment Period, your annual base salary will be $500,000 ("Base Salary"), less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items. Your Base Salary will be determined solely by, and will be reviewed annually for possible increase (but not decrease) by, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or a committee of the Board (such increased Base Salary shall then be referred to as the "Base Salary"). Additionally, you will be paid a one-time sign on bonus in the amount of $225,000 within thirty (30) days of your start date contingent upon your signing of a bonus repayment agreement.

4. Annual Bonus

During the Employment Period, you will be eligible to receive an annual target bonus equal to 80% (the "Target Bonus") of your Base Salary, based on your attainment of pre-established performance goals set forth each year by the Board or a committee of the Board, and potentially a larger bonus based on exceeding such performance goals, in each case as determined in good faith by the Board or a committee of the Board. The annual bonus for a particular year shall be paid to you no later than March 15 of the year following the year in which such bonus was earned, subject to your continued employment on such date.

5. Participation in the Company Management Equity Incentive Plan; Purchase of Equity

At the Effective Time, you will receive a grant of 600,000 stock options ("Options") and 200,000 restricted stock units ("RSUs") of Sovereign Holdings, Inc. ("Sovereign"). In addition, you shall be eligible for future awards in accordance with the provisions of the Sovereign Holdings Inc. 2012 Management Equity Incentive Plan (the "Plan"). The terms and conditions governing these grants (the "Option Agreements" and "RSU Agreements") are attached in Exhibit A.

6. Benefit Plans and Programs

(a) You will be eligible to participate in the Company's employee benefit plans, policies and other compensation and perquisite programs applicable to your position (as reasonably determined by the Board), on the same terms, conditions and eligibility requirements of each such benefit plan, policy or other compensation program, including amendments or modifications thereto, as are applicable to other executive officers of the Company. During the Employment Period, you shall be entitled to vacation and sick leave in accordance with the Company's vacation, holiday and other pay for time not worked policies as in effect from time to time. Except as otherwise provided in the Agreement and Plan of Merger, by and among Sovereign, Sovereign Merger Sub, Inc. and the Company, dated as of December 12, 2006 (the "Merger Agreement"), such benefit plans, policies or other compensation and perquisite programs may be discontinued or changed from time to time in the Company's sole discretion.

(b) In addition, in order to assist you with relocation expenses, the Company will make a lump sum payment of $250,000 within 30 days of your execution of a lease or closing on a residential property in Dallas, Texas, which will occur no later than November 30, 2013, contingent upon your execution of a repayment agreement.

(c) During the Employment Period, the Company shall reimburse you for all reasonable travel and other business expenses incurred by you in the performance of your duties to the Company in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy, which shall provide for travel and entertainment at a level commensurate with your position.

7. Termination Provisions

Except as expressly provided in Section 5 and this Section 7, and except for any vested benefits under any tax qualified plan or other benefit plan (to the extent that such benefit plan does not provide for a duplication of the benefits described herein) maintained by the Company, pursuant to the Option Agreements and RSU Agreements or indemnification and insurance as provided in Section 11(c), and except as may be required by law, you shall not be entitled to any benefits or payments in the event of the termination of your employment with the Company.

(a) Termination without Cause or by You for Good Reason. The Company may terminate your employment at any time without Cause (as defined below) or you may terminate your employment for Good Reason (as defined below), in each case upon 60 days notice by the terminating party. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that your employment is terminated by the Company as a result of the giving of a notice of non-renewal of the Initial Term or any Additional Term by the Company, such termination shall be deemed for all purposes to be a termination by the Company without Cause at the end of the then-current Term. In the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company shall pay to you: within 30 days of the Date of Termination: (A) your Base Salary through the date of your termination, (B) reimbursement for any unreimbursed business expenses incurred by you in accordance with Company policy prior to the date of your termination that are subject to reimbursement and (C) payment for vacation time accrued as of the date of your termination but unused (such amounts under clauses (A), (B) and (C) above, collectively the "Accrued Obligations"). In addition, on the date the annual bonuses are otherwise paid to executives who remain employed with the Company, you shall receive, in the year of your termination, an amount equal to any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid.

In addition, in the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company will pay to you, subject to Section 11(b)(ii), as severance, in installments in accordance with normal Company payroll practices over the 18 month period following the Date of Termination, an amount equal to 150% of the sum of (i) your annual Base Salary as of the commencement of such period and (ii) your annual Target Bonus as of the commencement of such period.

In addition, for the 18 month period commencing on the day after the Date of Termination, the Company shall continue to provide medical, dental and vision benefits) to you and any eligible dependents which are substantially similar to those provided generally to executive officers of the Company and their eligible dependents (including any required contribution by such executive officers) pursuant to such medical, dental and vision plans as may be in effect from time to time as if your employment had not been terminated (it being understood that the Company may provide such coverage by treating this as a COBRA period and charging you only the amount of the contribution that would be required of you as an active employee); provided, however, that if you become re-employed with another employer and are eligible to receive health insurance benefits under another employer provided plan, the benefits described herein shall terminate. In such event, you are obligated to promptly notify the Company of any changes in your benefits coverage. To the extent any reimbursements or in-kind payments due to you under this Agreement constitute "deferred compensation" under Code Section 409A, any such reimbursements or in-kind payments shall be paid to you no later than the last day of the taxable year next following the taxable year in which the expenses were incurred, and in a manner consistent with Treas. Reg. §1.409A-3(i)(1)(iv).

Any amounts paid under this Section 7(a) shall be paid, and any other benefit or accommodation shall be made or provided under Sections 5 (i.e. the post-termination exercise period set forth in the Option Agreement) and this Section 7(a) shall be made, only upon your executing an Agreement and General Release substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Release"), and such Release becoming effective, and, with regard to Section 7(a), subject to your not violating any of your obligations to the Company under Section 8 and subject to your materially complying with your obligations under Section 9 of this Agreement; provided, that you shall have the opportunity to promptly cure any such violation, to the extent such violation is reasonably susceptible to cure, after written notice thereof. Further, you agree that suspension of such termination payments or benefits, as a consequence of your breach of such obligations does not in any way limit the ability of the Company to pursue injunctive relief or to seek additional damages with respect to your breach of such obligations; provided, further, that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, with respect to any penalty arising from your obligation to engage in or to refrain from engaging in any activities that are set forth in the Plan (including any such obligations incorporated by reference to the provisions of this Agreement), your Options shall be governed by the provisions of the Plan or any applicable grant agreement.

(b) Termination on Death/Disability. In the event your employment is terminated as a result of your death or Disability, the Company will pay to you or your beneficiary the Accrued Obligations and any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid in year in which you die or become Disabled.

(c) Voluntarily Termination. You may terminate your employment for any reason upon 60 days notice to the Company. If you voluntarily terminate your employment (other than for Good Reason), the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations within 30 days of such termination of employment.

(d) Termination for Cause. The Company may terminate your employment at any time for Cause. In the event your employment is terminated for Cause, the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations no later than 30 days after such termination of employment.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean that (i) you have suffered a physical or mental illness or injury that has impaired your ability to substantially perform your full-time duties with the Company with or without reasonable accommodation for a period of 180 consecutive or non-consecutive days in a 12-month period; (ii) qualifies you for benefits under the Company's long-term disability plan; and (iii) you shall not have returned to full-time employment with the Company. "Disabled" shall have the correlative meaning.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean the occurrence of the events described in the following clauses (i) or (ii) herein, provided that no act or failure to act by you shall be deemed to constitute Cause if done, or omitted to be done, in good faith and with the reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company: (i) at least a majority of the members of the Board determine that you (A) were guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of your duties for the Company (other than due to your physical or mental incapacity), (B) breached or violated, in any material respect, any agreement between you and the Company or any material policy in the Company's code of conduct or similar employee conduct policy (as amended from time to time), or (C) committed a non-de minimis act of dishonesty or breach of trust with regard to the Company, any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, or (ii) you are indicted of, or plead guilty or nolo contendre to, a felony or other crime of moral turpitude. Notwithstanding, the foregoing, in the case of clause (i)(B) in the preceding sentence, a termination for "Cause" cannot occur unless and until the Board has provided you with written notice of the circumstances setting forth the breach or violation in reasonable detail and you have been afforded an opportunity to cure (if susceptible to cure) such violation or breach within 15 days after the receipt of such notice.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events, without your prior written consent: (i) any materially adverse change to your responsibilities, duties, authority or status from those set forth in this Agreement or any materially adverse change in your positions, titles or reporting responsibility; provided that the Company becoming or ceasing to be a publicly traded shall not be deemed a material adverse change; (ii) a relocation of your principal business location to an area outside a 50 mile radius of its current location in Southlake, Texas or moving of you from the Company's headquarters; (iii) a failure of any successor to the Company (whether direct or indirect and whether by merger, acquisition, consolidation, asset sale or otherwise) to assume in writing any obligations arising out of this Agreement; (iv) a reduction of your annual Base Salary or Target Bonus or the failure to timely pay any of the compensation provided for under Section 2 above to you in connection with your employment; provided, that, a reduction in Base Salary or Target Bonus of less than 5% that is proportionately applied to employees of the Company generally shall not constitute Good Reason hereunder; or (v) a material breach by the Company of this Agreement or any other material agreement with you relating to your compensation; provided that, within 30 days following the date you have knowledge of the occurrence of any of the events set forth herein, you have delivered written notice to the Company of your intention to terminate your employment for Good Reason, and the Company shall not have cured such circumstances (if susceptible to cure) within 30 days following receipt of such notice (or, in the event that such grounds cannot be corrected within such 30-day period, the Company has not taken all reasonable steps within such 30-day period to correct such grounds as promptly as practicable thereafter).

8. Non-solicitation, Non-recruitment and Non-competition

You acknowledge and agree that, in your position as Executive Vice President, Chief Product and Technology Officer for Sabre Holdings Corporation (which, for purposes of this Section 8, shall include all of the Company's subsidiaries and all affiliated companies and joint ventures connected by common ownership to the Company on or after the Effective Time (but not any other portfolio companies of the Majority Stockholder (as defined in the Plan)), it is expected that: (i) you will be materially involved in conducting or overseeing all aspects of the Company's business activities throughout the world, (ii) you will have material contact with a substantial number of the Company's employees, and all or substantially all of the Company's then-current and actively-sought potential customers ("Customers") and suppliers of inventory ("Suppliers"); (iii) you will have access to all or substantially all of the Company's Trade Secrets and Confidential Information (see Exhibit C for definition of "Trade Secrets" and "Confidential Information"). You further acknowledge and agree that your competition with the Company anywhere worldwide, or your attempted solicitation of the Company's employees or Customers or Suppliers, during your employment or within one year after the termination of your employment with the Company, would be unfair competition and would cause substantial damages to the Company. Consequently, in consideration of your employment with the Company as Executive Vice President, Chief Product and Technology Officer and the Company's covenants in this Agreement, you make the following covenants described in this Section 8:

(a) Non-solicitation of Company Customers and Suppliers. During the Employment Period and for one year following any Date of Termination, you shall not, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or of anyone other than the Company, solicit the business of or attempt to solicit the business of (or assist any third party in soliciting or attempting to solicit the business of) any Customer in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company, nor during the Employment Period and for one year following the Date of Termination will you seek to interfere with the Company's relationship with any Supplier.

(b) Non-solicitation of Company Employees. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not, without the prior written consent of the Chief Executive Officer, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or any third party, solicit or hire or recruit or, other than in the good faith performance of your duties, induce or encourage (or assist any third party in hiring, soliciting, recruiting, inducing or encouraging) any employees of the Company or any individuals who were employees within the six month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his or her employment with the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions contained in this Section 8(b) shall not apply to (i) general solicitations that are not specifically directed to employees of the Company, (ii) any employee of the Company who was terminated involuntarily, or (iii) serving as a reference at the request of an employee.

(c) Non-competition with the Company. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not become an employee, director, or independent contractor of, or a consultant to, or perform any services for, any Competitor of the Company. For purposes of this Section 8, a Competitor of the Company shall mean (i) any unit, division, line of business, parent, subsidiary, or subsidiary of the parent of any of Travelport, Amadeus, Worldspan, Orbitz, Expedia, Priceline, Hotwire, ITA Software, Cheaptickets, Navitaire, or EDS; or (ii) any individual or entity that within one year after your Date of Termination could reasonably be expected to generate more than $100 Million in annualized gross revenue from any activity that competes, or combination of activities that competes, with any business of the Company; provided, that a Competitor of the Company under this clause (ii) shall not include any individual or entity or portion of an entity where (A) you have actual supervisory duties and authority over one or more businesses and (B) less than 20% of the annualized gross revenue of such businesses over which you have actual supervisory duties and authority arise from any activity or combination of activities that competes with any business of the Company, and provided further, that clause (ii) shall not apply to any individual or entity that competes with a business of the Company if such business is conducted exclusively by an entity that the Company does not control and with respect to which you have no responsibility. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any of the above-named entities in clause (i) of this Section 8(c) no longer engages in a line of business that competes with any business of the Company, such entity shall no longer be deemed a Competitor of the Company for purposes of this Section 8.

(d) Non-disclosure of Confidential Information and Trade Secrets. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except in the good faith performance of your duties hereunder or where required by law, statute, regulation or rule of any governmental body or agency, or pursuant to a subpoena or court order, you shall not, directly or indirectly, for your own account or for the account of any other person, firm or entity, use or disclose any Confidential Information or proprietary Trade Secrets of the Company to any third person unless such Confidential Information or Trade Secret has been previously disclosed to the public or is in the public domain (other than by reason of your breach of this paragraph).

(e) Enforceability of Covenants. You acknowledge that the Company has a present and future expectation of business from and with the Customers and Suppliers. You acknowledge the reasonableness of the term, geographical territory, and scope of the covenants set forth in this Section 8, and you agree that you will not, in any action, suit or other proceeding, deny the reasonableness of, or assert the unreasonableness of, the premises, consideration or scope of the covenants set forth herein and you hereby waive any such defense. You further acknowledge that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude you from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. You agree that your covenants under this Section 8 are separate and distinct obligations under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of the Company or the Board to perform obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of your covenants and obligations under this Section 8. You agree that any breach of any covenant under this Section 8 will result in irreparable damage and injury to the Company and that the Company will be entitled to seek injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond.

9. Post-Employment Transition and Cooperation

Upon and after the termination of your employment with the Company for any reason (except your death or, if lacking sufficient physical or mental ability, your Disability), you will execute any and all documents and take any and all actions that the Company may reasonably request to effect the transition of your duties and responsibilities to a successor. You will make yourself reasonably available with respect to, and to cooperate in conjunction with, any litigation or investigation involving the Company, and any administrative matters (including the execution of documents, as reasonably requested); provided, that such litigation, investigation or administrative matter is related to your employment with the Company and that any such availability or cooperation does not materially interfere with your then current professional activities, does not include a conflict between you and the Company, Sovereign or the Majority Stockholder as determined in good faith by you and the Majority Stockholder and would not result in a violation of any court order or governmental requirement. The Company agrees to compensate you (other than with respect to the provision of testimony) for such cooperation at an hourly rate commensurate with your Base Salary on the Date of Termination, to reimburse you for all reasonable expenses actually incurred in connection with cooperation pursuant to this Section 9, and to provide you with legal representation.

10. Code Section 280G

If, after the Effective Time, Sovereign or the Company is not an entity whose stock is readily tradable on an established securities market (or otherwise) and a "change of control" under Treasury Regulation 1.280G occurs, the Company and Sovereign shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to take such actions as may be necessary to avoid the imposition of the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or a loss of deductibility under Section 280G of the Code, including seeking to obtain stockholder approval in accordance with the terms of Section 280G(b)(5)(ii). If on the date that a "change of control" under Treasury Regulation 1.280G occurs, either Section 280G(b)(5)(ii)(II) is not applicable or after using commercially reasonable best efforts, the Company is unable to avoid the imposition of the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code as to any payment or benefits provided to you whether made or provided pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise (such payments or benefits which are subject to such excise tax being referred to as the "Parachute Payments"), then, except to the extent you have previously waived your rights with respect to such Parachute Payments, you will be entitled to receive either (A) the full amount of the Parachute Payments, or (B) the maximum amount that may be provided to you without resulting in any portion of such Parachute Payments being subject to the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code, whichever of clauses (A) and (B), after taking into account applicable federal, state, and local taxes and the excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, results in the receipt by you, on an after-tax basis, of the greatest portion of the Parachute Payments. The Parachute Payments shall be reduced in a manner that maximizes the Executive's economic position. Any reduction of Parachute Payments pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be made in a manner consistent with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code, and where two economically equivalent amounts are subject to reduction but payable at different times, such amounts shall be reduced on a pro rata basis but not below zero.

11. Miscellaneous

(a) Dispute Resolution. The laws of the state of Texas will govern the construction, interpretation and enforcement of this Agreement. The parties agree that any and all claims, disputes, or controversies arising out of or related to this Agreement, or the breach of this Agreement, shall be resolved by binding arbitration, except as otherwise provided in Section 8 of this Agreement. The parties will submit the dispute, within 30 business days following service of notice of such dispute by one party on the other, to the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (J*A*M*S/Endispute) for prompt resolution in Dallas, Texas, under its rules for labor and employment disputes. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in accordance with applicable law in any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator shall have the authority to make an award of monetary damages and interest thereon. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award, and the parties hereby waive any right to seek or receive, specific performance or an injunction, punitive or exemplary damages. The arbitrator will have no authority to order a modification or amendment of this Agreement. The parties shall bear their own attorneys fees, and shall bear equally the expenses of the arbitral proceedings, including without limitation the fees of the arbitrator.

(b) Code Section 409A.

(i) The intent of the parties is that the payments and benefits under this Agreement comply with or be exempt from Section 409A of the Code of 1986, and the regulations and guidance promulgated thereunder (collectively, "Code Section 409A") and, accordingly, to the maximum extent permitted, this Agreement shall be interpreted to be in compliance therewith. If any provision of this Agreement (or of any award of compensation, including equity compensation or benefits) would cause you to incur any additional tax or interest under Code Section 409A, the Company shall, after consulting with you, reform such provision to comply with Code Section 409A; provided, that the Company agrees to maintain, to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to you of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Code Section 409A.

(ii) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, if you are deemed on the Date of Termination to be a "specified employee" within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code and the Company is a public company, then the payments specified as being subject to this Section 11(b)(ii) shall not be made or provided (subject to the last sentence hereof) prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six month period measured from the date of your "separation from service" (as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations issued under Code Section 409A) or (B) the date of your death (the "Delay Period"). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments and benefits delayed pursuant to this Section 11(b)(ii) (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) shall be paid or reimbursed to you in a lump sum, and any remaining payments due under this Agreement shall be paid or provided in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them herein.

(iii) A termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits subject to Code Section 409A upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination is also a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and, for purposes of any such provision of this Agreement, references to a "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean "separation from service."

(iv) (a) All expenses or other reimbursements as provided herein shall be payable in accordance with the Company's policies in effect from time to time, but in any event shall be made on or prior to the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expenses were incurred by you (b) no such reimbursement or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any taxable year shall in any way affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year and (c) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchanged for another benefit.

(v) For purposes of Code Section 409A, your right to receive any installment payments pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments. Whenever a payment under this Agreement specifies a payment period with reference to a number of days (e.g., "payment shall be made within thirty (30) days following the date of termination"), the actual date of payment within the specified period shall be within the sole discretion of the Company.

(c) Indemnification and Insurance. During the Employment Period and for so long thereafter as liability exists with regard to your activities during the Employment Period on behalf of the Company, its subsidiaries, affiliates, or joint ventures or as a fiduciary of any benefit plan of any of them, the Company shall indemnify you to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (other than in connection with your gross negligence or willful misconduct), and shall at the Company's election provide you with legal representation or shall advance to you reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred (subject to an undertaking from you to repay such advances if it shall be finally determined by a judicial decision which is not subject to further appeal that you were not entitled to the reimbursement of such fees and expenses). During the Employment Period and for so long as liability exists thereafter you shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company shall elect to maintain generally for the benefit of its directors and officers ("Directors and Officers Insurance") against all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by you in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which you may be made a party by reason of your being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or your serving or having served any other enterprise or benefit plan as a director, officer, fiduciary or employee at the request of the Company (other than any dispute, claim or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement); provided that you shall, in all cases, be entitled to Directors and Officers Insurance coverage no less favorable than that (if any) provided to any other present director or officer of the Company.

(d) Attorneys' Fees. The Company shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements incurred by you in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement. Payment of such fees shall be made promptly and, in any event, within 30 days after a request for payment of such fees is provided to the Company.

(e) No Mitigation. Except as otherwise provided in Section 7(a) hereof, (i) you shall not be required to seek other employment or otherwise mitigate the amount of any payments to be made by the Company pursuant to this Agreement; and (ii) the payments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by you as the result of employment by another employer after the Date of Termination or otherwise.

(f) Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Agreement, the RSU Agreements and the Option Agreements represent the entire understanding with respect to their subject matter. Only a writing that has been signed by both you and the Company may modify this Agreement. Any and all previous employment agreements, severance agreements and executive termination benefits agreements are cancelled as of the Effective Time and the benefits under this Agreement are in lieu of, and in full substitution for, any other severance or post-employment benefits pursuant to any other agreement, arrangement or understanding with the Company or any of its affiliates; provided, however, that any prior award of Options shall remain in full force and effect.

(g) Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of (i) the heirs, executors and legal representatives of you upon your death and (ii) any successor of the Company. Any such successor of the Company shall be deemed substituted for the Company under the terms of this Agreement for all purposes. As used herein, "successor" shall include any person, firm, corporation, or other business entity which at any time, whether by purchase, merger or otherwise, directly or indirectly acquires all or substantially all of the assets or business of the Company.

You shall perform all such duties faithfully, industriously, and to the best of your experience and talent. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, you shall abide in all material respects by all the Company policies and directives applicable to you.

(b) During the Employment Period (as defined below), excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which you are entitled, you shall devote your full working time, energy and attention to the performance of your duties and responsibilities hereunder and shall faithfully and diligently endeavor to promote the business and best interests of the Company. During the Employment Period, you may not, without the prior written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly, operate, participate in the management, operations or control of, or act as an executive, officer, consultant, agent or representative of, any type of business or service (other than as an executive of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates). It shall not, however, be a violation of the foregoing provisions of this Section 1(b) for you to (i) subject to the approval of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, serve as an officer or director or otherwise participate in educational, welfare, social, religious and civic organizations, (ii) serve as a director of Electronic Arts Inc. and Silver Spring Networks, or (iii) manage your or your family's personal, financial and legal affairs, so long as, in the case of clause (i) (ii) or (iii), any such activities do not interfere with the performance of your duties and responsibilities to the Company as provided hereunder.

2. Term of Employment

Unless terminated earlier pursuant to Section 7 hereof, the term of this Agreement and your employment shall be for three years, beginning at the Effective Time and ending on the third anniversary of the date of the Effective Time (the "Initial Term"). The term of this Agreement and your employment shall automatically renew for one-year periods following the Initial Term (each, an "Additional Term"); provided, however, that either party may elect not to renew the term of your employment and this Agreement following the Initial Term or any Additional Term by providing written notice of such non-renewal at least 60 days prior to the end of the applicable term. The period of your employment with the Company shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period". Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sections 5, 7, 8, 9 and 11 shall survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with their terms.

Either you or the Company may terminate your employment with the Company at any time, and for any reason or no reason, with or without Cause, as set forth in Section 7 of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Date of Termination" shall mean (a) if your employment is terminated by your death, the date of your death, (b) if your employment is terminated as a result of your Disability (as defined in Section 7 below), the date upon which you receive the notice of termination from the Company, (c) if you voluntarily terminate your employment or your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause, the date specified in the notice given pursuant to Section 7(a) or (c) herein, as applicable, which shall not be less than 60 days after such notice, and (d) if your employment is terminated for any other reason, the date on which the notice of termination is given unless otherwise agreed to by the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in all events, the Date of Termination described above in (b), (c) and (d) subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") Section 409A, shall occur when you have incurred a separation from service for purposes of Code Section 409A.

3. Base Salary and Sign On Bonus

During the Employment Period, your annual base salary will be $600,000 ("Base Salary"), less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items. Your Base Salary will be determined solely by, and will be reviewed annually for possible increase (but not decrease) by, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or a committee of the Board (such increased Base Salary shall then be referred to as the "Base Salary"). Additionally, you will be paid a one-time sign on bonus in the amount of $120,000 within thirty (30) days of your start date contingent upon your signing of a bonus repayment agreement.

4. Annual Bonus

During the Employment Period, you will be eligible to receive an annual target bonus equal to 80% (the "Target Bonus") of your Base Salary, based on your attainment of pre-established performance goals set forth each year by the Board or a committee of the Board, and potentially a larger bonus based on exceeding such performance goals, in each case as determined in good faith by the Board or a committee of the Board. The annual bonus for a particular year shall be paid to you no later than March 15 of the year following the year in which such bonus was earned, subject to your continued employment on such date.

5. Participation in the Company Management Equity Incentive Plan; Purchase of Equity

After your date of hire, you will be eligible to receive a grant of 600,000 stock options ("Options") and 300,000 restricted stock units ("RSUs") of Sovereign Holdings Inc. ("Sovereign"). The terms and conditions governing these grants (the "Option Agreements" and "RSU Agreements," respectively) are attached in Exhibit A.

6. Benefit Plans and Programs

(a) You will be eligible to participate in the Company's employee benefit plans, policies and other compensation and perquisite programs applicable to your position (as reasonably determined by the Board), subject to the terms, conditions and eligibility requirements of each such benefit plan, policy or other compensation program, including amendments or modifications thereto. During the Employment Period, you shall be entitled to vacation and sick leave in accordance with the Company's vacation, holiday and other pay for time not worked policies as in effect from time to time. Except as otherwise provided in the Agreement and Plan of Merger, by and among Sovereign, Sovereign Merger Sub, Inc. and the Company, dated as of December 12, 2006 (the "Merger Agreement"), such benefit plans, policies or other compensation and perquisite programs may be discontinued or changed from time to time in the Company's sole discretion.

(b) In addition, you will be provided with relocation assistance up to $250,000 contingent upon your execution of a repayment agreement.

(c) During the Employment Period, the Company shall reimburse you for all reasonable travel and other business expenses incurred by you in the performance of your duties to the Company in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy, which shall provide for travel and entertainment at a level commensurate with your position.

7. Termination Provisions

Except as expressly provided in Section 5 and this Section 7, and except for any vested benefits under any tax qualified plan or other benefit plan (to the extent that such benefit plan does not provide for a duplication of the benefits described herein) maintained by the Company, pursuant to the Option Agreements, RSU Agreements or the indemnification and insurance as provided in Section 11(c), you shall not be entitled to any benefits or payments in the event of the termination of your employment with the Company.

(a) Termination without Cause or by You for Good Reason. The Company may terminate your employment at any time without Cause (as defined below) or you may terminate your employment for Good Reason (as defined below), in each case upon 60 days notice by the terminating party. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that your employment is terminated by the Company as a result of the giving of a notice of non-renewal of the Initial Term or any Additional Term by the Company, such termination shall be deemed for all purposes to be a termination by the Company without Cause at the end of the then-current Term. In the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company shall pay to you: within 30 days of the Date of Termination: (A) your Base Salary through the date of your termination, (B) reimbursement for any unreimbursed business expenses incurred by you in accordance with Company policy prior to the date of your termination that are subject to reimbursement and (C) payment for vacation time accrued as of the date of your termination but unused (such amounts under clauses (A), (B) and (C) above, collectively the "Accrued Obligations"). In addition, on the date the annual bonuses are otherwise paid to executives who remain employed with the Company, you shall receive, in the year of your termination, an amount equal to any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid.

In addition, in the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company will pay to you, subject to Section 11(b)(ii), as severance, in installments in accordance with normal Company payroll practices over the 18 month period following the Date of Termination, an amount equal to 150% of the sum of (i) your annual Base Salary as of the commencement of such period and (ii) your annual Target Bonus as of the commencement of such period.

In addition, for the 18 month period commencing on the day after the Date of Termination, the Company shall continue to provide medical, dental and vision benefits to you and any eligible dependents which are substantially similar to those provided generally to executive officers of the Company and their eligible dependents pursuant to such medical, dental and vision plans as may be in effect from time to time as if your employment had not been terminated (it being understood that the Company may provide such coverage by treating this as a COBRA period and charging you only the amount of the contribution that would be required of you as an active employee); provided, however, that if you become re-employed with another employer and are eligible to receive health insurance benefits under another employer provided plan, the benefits described herein shall terminate. In such event, you are obligated to promptly notify the Company of any changes in your benefits coverage. To the extent any reimbursements or in-kind payments due to you under this Agreement constitute "deferred compensation" under Code Section 409A, any such reimbursements or in-kind payments shall be paid to you no later than the last day of the taxable year next following the taxable year in which the expenses were incurred, and in a manner consistent with Treas. Reg. §1.409A-3(i)(1)(iv).

Any amounts paid under this Section 7(a) shall be paid, and any other accommodation under Section 5 and this Section 7(a) shall be made, only upon your executing an Agreement and

General Release substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Release"), and such Release becoming effective, and, with regard to Section 7(a), subject to your not violating any of your obligations to the Company under Section 8 and subject to your materially complying with your obligations under Section 9 of this Agreement; provided, that you shall have the opportunity to promptly cure any such violation, to the extent such violation is reasonably susceptible to cure, after written notice thereof. Further, you agree that suspension of such termination payments or benefits, as a consequence of your breach of such obligations does not in any way limit the ability of the Company to pursue injunctive relief or to seek additional damages with respect to your breach of such obligations; provided, further, that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, with respect to any penalty arising from your obligation to engage in or to refrain from engaging in any activities that are set forth in the Plan (including any such obligations incorporated by reference to the provisions of this Agreement), your Options and RSUs shall be governed by the provisions of the Plan or any applicable grant agreement.

(b) Termination on Death/Disability. In the event your employment is terminated as a result of your death or Disability, the Company will pay to you or your beneficiary the Accrued Obligations and any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid in year in which you die or become Disabled.

(c) Voluntarily Termination. You may terminate your employment for any reason upon 60 days notice to the Company. If you voluntarily terminate your employment (other than for Good Reason), the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations within 30 days of such termination of employment.

(d) Termination for Cause. The Company may terminate your employment at any time for Cause. In the event your employment is terminated for Cause, the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations no later than 30 days of such termination of employment.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean that (i) you have suffered a physical or mental illness or injury that has impaired your ability to substantially perform your full-time duties with the Company with or without reasonable accommodation for a period of 180 consecutive or non-consecutive days in a 12-month period; (ii) qualifies you for benefits under the Company's long-term disability plan; and (iii) you shall not have returned to full-time employment with the Company. "Disabled" shall have the correlative meaning.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean the occurrence of the events described in the following clauses (i) or (ii) herein, provided that no act or failure to act by you shall be deemed to constitute Cause if done, or omitted to be done, in good faith and with the reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company: (i) at least a majority of the members of the Board determine that you (A) were guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of your duties for the Company (other than due to your physical or mental incapacity), (B) breached or violated, in any material respect, any agreement between you and the Company or any material policy in the Company's code of conduct or similar employee conduct policy (as amended from time to time), or (C) committed a non-de minimis act of dishonesty or breach of trust with regard to the Company, any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, or (ii) you are convicted of, or plead guilty or nolo contendre to, a felony or other crime of moral turpitude.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events, without your prior written consent: (i) any materially adverse change to your responsibilities, duties, authority or status from those set forth in this Agreement or any materially adverse change in your positions, titles or reporting responsibility; provided that solely because the Company becomes or ceases to be publicly traded shall not be deemed a material adverse change; (ii) a relocation of your principal business location to an area outside a 50 mile radius of its current location or moving of you from the Company's headquarters; (iii) a failure of any successor to the Company (whether direct or indirect and whether by merger, acquisition, consolidation, asset sale or otherwise) to assume in writing any obligations arising out of this Agreement; (iv) a reduction of your annual Base Salary or Target Bonus or pay any of the compensation provided for under Section 2 above to you in connection with your employment; provided, that, a reduction in Base Salary or Target Bonus of less than 5% that is proportionately applied to employees of the Company generally shall not constitute Good Reason hereunder; or (v) a material breach by the Company of this Agreement or any other material agreement with you relating to your compensation; provided that, within 30 days following the occurrence of any of the events set forth therein, you have delivered written notice to the Company of your intention to terminate your employment for Good Reason, and the Company shall not have cured such circumstances (if susceptible to cure) within 30 days following receipt of such notice (or, in the event that such grounds cannot be corrected within such 30-day period, the Company has not taken all reasonable steps within such 30-day period to correct such grounds as promptly as practicable thereafter).

8. Non-solicitation, Non-recruitment and Non-competition

You acknowledge and agree that, in your position as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for Sabre Holdings Corporation (which, for purposes of this Section 8, shall include all of the Company's subsidiaries and all affiliated companies and joint ventures connected by ownership to the Company at any time (but not any other portfolio companies of the Majority Stockholder (as defined in the Plan)), it is expected that: (i) you will be materially involved in conducting or overseeing all aspects of the Company's business activities throughout the world, (ii) you will have material contact with a substantial number of the Company's employees, and all or substantially all of the Company's then-current and actively-sought potential customers ("Customers") and suppliers of inventory ("Suppliers"); (iii) you will have access to all or substantially all of the Company's Trade Secrets and Confidential Information (see Exhibit C for definition of "Trade Secrets" and "Confidential Information"). You further acknowledge and agree that your competition with the Company anywhere worldwide, or your attempted solicitation of the Company's employees or Customers or Suppliers, during your employment or within one year after the termination of your employment with the Company, would be unfair competition and would cause substantial damages to the Company. Consequently, in consideration of your employment with the Company as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer and the Company's covenants in this Agreement, you make the following covenants described in this Section 8:

(a) Non-solicitation of Company Customers and Suppliers. During the Employment Period and for one year following any Date of Termination, you shall not, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or of anyone other than the Company, solicit or attempt to solicit (or assist any third party in soliciting or attempting to solicit) any Customer or Supplier in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company.

(b) Non-solicitation of Company Employees. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not, without the prior written consent of the Chief Executive Officer, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or any third party, solicit or hire or recruit or, other than in the good faith performance of your duties, induce or encourage (or assist any third party in hiring, soliciting, recruiting, inducing or encouraging) any employees of the Company or any individuals who were employees within the six month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his or her employment with the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions contained in this Section 8(b) shall not apply to (i) general solicitations that are not specifically directed to employees of the Company or (ii) serving as a reference at the request of an employee.

(c) Non-competition with the Company. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not become an employee, director, or independent contractor of, or a consultant to, or perform any services for, any Competitor of the Company. For purposes of this Section 8, a Competitor of the Company shall mean (i) any unit, division, line of business, parent, subsidiary, or subsidiary of the parent of any of Travelport, Amadeus, Worldspan, Orbitz, Expedia, Priceline, Hotwire, ITA Software, Cheaptickets, Navitaire, or EDS; or (ii) any individual or entity that within one year after your termination could reasonably be expected to generate more than $100 Million in annualized gross revenue from any activity that competes, or combination of activities that competes, with any business of the Company; provided, that a Competitor of the Company under this clause (ii) shall not include any individual or entity or portion of an entity where (A) you have actual supervisory duties and authority over one or more businesses and (B) less than 20% of the annualized gross revenue of such businesses over which you have actual supervisory duties and authority arise from any activity or combination of activities that competes with any business of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any of the above-named entities in clause (i) of this Section 8(c) no longer engages in a line of business that competes with any business of the Company, such entity shall no longer be deemed a Competitor of the Company for purposes of this Section 8.

(d) Non-disclosure of Confidential Information and Trade Secrets. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except in the good faith performance of your duties hereunder or where required by law, statute, regulation or rule of any governmental body or agency, or pursuant to a subpoena or court order, you shall not, directly or indirectly, for your own account or for the account of any other person, firm or entity, use or disclose any Confidential Information or proprietary Trade Secrets of the Company to any third person unless such Confidential Information or Trade Secret has been previously disclosed to the public or is in the public domain (other than by reason of your breach of this paragraph).

(e) Non-Disparagement. You agree not to defame or disparage any of the Company or any of their respective officers, directors, members, executives or employees. You agree to reasonably cooperate with the Company (at no expense to you) in refuting any defamatory or disparaging remarks by any third party made in respect of the Company or their respective directors, members, officers, executives or employees. The Company and its current executive officers will not disparage you, but the foregoing will not restrict the Company from making any factual statement or from taking any action it deems necessary or appropriate under law or in connection with any legal process.

(f) Enforceability of Covenants. You acknowledge that the Company has a present and future expectation of business from and with the Customers and Suppliers. You acknowledge the reasonableness of the term, geographical territory, and scope of the covenants set forth in this Section 8, and you agree that you will not, in any action, suit or other proceeding, deny the reasonableness of, or assert the unreasonableness of, the premises, consideration or scope of the covenants set forth herein and you hereby waive any such defense. You further acknowledge that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude you from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. You agree that your covenants under this Section 8 are separate and distinct obligations under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of the Company or the Board to perform obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of your covenants and obligations under this Section 8. You agree that any breach of any covenant under this Section 8 will result in irreparable damage and injury to the Company and that the Company will be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond.

9. Post-Employment Transition and Cooperation

Upon and after the termination of your employment with the Company for any reason (except your death or, if lacking sufficient physical or mental ability, your Disability), you will execute any and all documents and take any and all actions that the Company may reasonably request to effect the transition of your duties and responsibilities to a successor. You will make yourself reasonably available with respect to, and to cooperate in conjunction with, any litigation or investigation involving the Company, and any administrative matters (including the execution of documents, as reasonably requested); provided, that such litigation, investigation or administrative matter is related to your employment with the Company and that any such availability or cooperation does not materially interfere with your then current professional activities, does not include a conflict between you and the Company or the Majority Stockholder as determined in good faith by you and the Majority Stockholder and would not result in a violation of any court order or governmental requirement. The Company agrees to compensate you (other than with respect to the provision of testimony) for such cooperation at an hourly rate commensurate with your Base Salary on the Date of Termination to reimburse you for all reasonable expenses actually incurred in connection with cooperation pursuant to this Section 9, and to provide you with legal representation.

10. Code Section 280G

If, after the Effective Time, Sovereign or the Company is not an entity whose stock is readily tradable on an established securities market (or otherwise) and a "change of control" under Regulation 1.280G occurs, the Company and Sovereign shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to take such actions as may be necessary to avoid the imposition of the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or a loss of deductibility under Section 280G of the Code, including seeking to obtain stockholder approval in accordance with the terms of Section 280G(b)(5).

11. Miscellaneous

(a) Dispute Resolution. The laws of the state of Texas will govern the construction, interpretation and enforcement of this Agreement. The parties agree that any and all claims, disputes, or controversies arising out of or related to this Agreement, or the breach of this Agreement, shall be resolved by binding arbitration, except as otherwise provided in Section 8 of this Agreement. The parties will submit the dispute, within 30 business days following service of notice of such dispute by one party on the other, to the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (J*A*M*S/Endispute) for prompt resolution in Dallas, Texas, under its rules for labor and employment disputes. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in accordance with applicable law in any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator shall have the authority to make an award of monetary damages and interest thereon. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award, and the parties hereby waive any right to seek or receive, specific performance or an injunction, punitive or exemplary damages. The arbitrator will have no authority to order a modification or amendment of this Agreement. The parties shall bear their own attorneys fees, and shall bear equally the expenses of the arbitral proceedings, including without limitation the fees of the arbitrator.

(b) Code Section 409A.

(i) If any provision of this Agreement (or of any award of compensation, including equity compensation or benefits) would cause you to incur any additional tax or interest under Section 409A of the Code or any regulations or Treasury guidance promulgated thereunder, the Company shall, after consulting with you, reform such provision to comply with Section 409A of the Code; provided, that the Company agrees to maintain, to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to you of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Section 409A of the Code.

(ii) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, if you are deemed on the Date of Termination to be a "specified employee" within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code and the Company is a public company, then the payments specified as being subject to this Section 11(b)(ii) shall not be made or provided (subject to the last sentence hereof) prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six month period measured from the date of your "separation from service" (as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations issued under Code Section 409A) or (B) the date of your death (the "Delay Period"). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments and benefits delayed pursuant to this Section 11(b)(ii) (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) shall be paid or reimbursed to you in a lump sum, and any remaining payments due under this Agreement shall be paid or provided in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them herein.

(iii) A termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits subject to Code Section 409A upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination is also a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and, for purposes of any such provision of this Agreement, references to a "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean "separation from service."

(iv) (a) All expenses or other reimbursements as provided herein shall be payable in accordance with the Company's policies in effect from time to time, but in any event shall be made on or prior to the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expenses were incurred by you (b) no such reimbursement or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any taxable year shall in any way affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year and (c) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchanged for another benefit.

(v) For purposes of Code Section 409A, your right to receive any installment payments pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments. Whenever a payment under this Agreement specifies a payment period with reference to a number of days (e.g., "payment shall be made within thirty (30) days following the date of termination"), the actual date of payment within the specified period shall be within the sole discretion of the Company.

(c) Indemnification and Insurance. During the Employment Period and for so long thereafter as liability exists with regard to your activities during the Employment Period on behalf of the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, or as a fiduciary of any benefit plan of any of them, the Company shall indemnify you to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (other than in connection with your gross negligence or willful misconduct), and shall at the Company's election provide you with legal representation or shall advance to you reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred (subject to an undertaking from you to repay such advances if it shall be finally determined by a judicial decision which is not subject to further appeal that you were not entitled to the reimbursement of such fees and expenses). During the Employment Period and for so long as liability exists thereafter you shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company shall elect to maintain generally for the benefit of its directors and officers ("Directors and Officers Insurance") against all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by you in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which you may be made a party by reason of your being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or your serving or having served any other enterprise or benefit plan as a director, officer, fiduciary or employee at the request of the Company (other than any dispute, claim or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement); provided that you shall, in all cases, be entitled to Directors and Officers Insurance coverage no less favorable than that (if any) provided to any other present director or officer of the Company.

(d) Attorneys' Fees. The Company shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements incurred by you in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement. Payment of such fees shall be made promptly and, in any event, in 2013.

(e) No Mitigation. Except as otherwise provided in Section 7(a) hereof, (i) you shall not be required to seek other employment or otherwise mitigate the amount of any payments to be made by the Company pursuant to this Agreement; and (ii) the payments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by you as the result of employment by another employer after the Date of Termination or otherwise.

(f) Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Agreement and the Option Agreements and RSU Agreements represent the entire understanding with respect to their subject matter. Only a writing that has been signed by both you and the Company may modify this Agreement. Any and all previous employment agreements, severance agreements and executive termination benefits agreements are cancelled as of the Effective Time and the benefits under this Agreement are in lieu of, and in full substitution for, any other severance or post-employment benefits pursuant to any other agreement, arrangement or understanding with the Company or any of its affiliates; provided, however, that any prior award of Options shall remain in full force and effect.

(g) Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of (i) the heirs, executors and legal representatives of you upon your death and (ii) any successor of the Company. Any such successor of the Company shall be deemed substituted for the Company under the terms of this Agreement for all purposes. As used herein, "successor" shall include any person, firm, corporation, or other business entity which at any time, whether by purchase, merger or otherwise, directly or indirectly acquires all or substantially all of the assets or business of the Company.

Re: Vesting of Options

Dear Sam:

As you have discussed with the Governance, Nominating, and Compensation Committee, there appears to be some confusion about the vesting schedule of certain of your options post-employment (as discussed in paragraph 7 of Amendment No. 3 to your employment agreement dated June 30, 2012). Pursuant to the succession plan, your employment with Sabre Holdings terminates on September 21, 2013. As planned, you will remain on the Board of Directors for a two-year period, expiring in September 2015. As of the date of termination of employment, you have a number of unvested options. It was the Committee's intention that any unvested options at the time you stepped down as CEO would vest over the remaining two-year period of your Board of Directors service.

To clear up any uncertainty, the unvested options referred above will vest on the schedule set forth in Attachment A. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Sincerely,

/s/ Sterling Miller

Mr. Sterling L. Miller
General Counsel
Sabre Holdings Corporation
3150 Sabre Dr.
Southlake, TX 76092

Dear Sterling:

This agreement ("Agreement") will confirm our mutual understanding with respect to your employment by Sabre Inc. ("Sabre"), effective as of July 30, 2009 ("the Effective Time").

1. Job Description/Title/Duties

(a) You will serve as Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary for Sabre Holdings Corporation (the "Company"). You shall perform all of the functions that are consistent with such position, as determined by the Company. You shall perform all such duties faithfully, industriously, and to the best of your experience and talent. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, you shall abide in all material respects by all the Company policies and directives applicable to you.

(b) During the Employment Period (as defined below), excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which you are entitled, you shall devote your full working time, energy and attention to the performance of your duties and responsibilities hereunder and shall faithfully and diligently endeavor to promote the business and best interests of the Company. During the Employment Period, you may not, without the prior written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly, operate, participate in the management, operations or control of, or act as an executive, officer, consultant, agent or representative of, any type of business or service (other than as an executive of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates). It shall not, however, be a violation of the foregoing provisions of this Section 1(b) for you to (i) subject to the approval of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, serve as an officer or director or otherwise participate in educational, welfare, social, religious and civic organizations, or (ii) manage your or your family's personal, financial and legal affairs, so long as, in the case of clause (i) or (ii), any such activities do not interfere with the performance of your duties and responsibilities to the Company as provided hereunder.

2. Term of Employment

Unless terminated earlier pursuant to Section 7 hereof, the term of this Agreement and your employment shall be for three years, beginning at the Effective Time and ending on the third anniversary of the date of the Effective Time (the "Initial Term"). The term of this Agreement and your employment shall automatically renew for one-year periods following the Initial Term (each, an "Additional Term"); provided, however, that either party may elect not to renew the term of your employment and this Agreement following the Initial Term or any Additional Term by providing written notice of such non-renewal at least 60 days prior to the end of the applicable term. The period of your employment with the Company shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period". Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sections 5,7, 8, 9 and 11 shall survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with their terms.

Either you or the Company may terminate your employment with the Company at any time, and for any reason or no reason, with or without Cause, as set forth in Section 7 of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Date of Termination" shall mean (a) if your employment is terminated by your death, the date of your death, (b) if your employment is terminated as a result of your Disability (as defined in Section 7 below), the date upon which you receive the notice of termination from the Company, (c) if you voluntarily terminate your employment or your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause, the date specified in the notice given pursuant to Section 7(a) or (c) herein, as applicable, which shall not be less than 60 days after such notice, and (d) if your employment is terminated for any other reason, the date on which the notice of termination is given unless otherwise agreed to by the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in all events, the Date of Termination described above in (b), (c) and (d) subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") Section 409A, shall occur when you have incurred a separation from service for purposes of Code Section 409A.

3. Base Salary

During the Employment Period, your annual base salary will be $325,000 ("Base Salary"), less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items. Your Base Salary will be determined solely by, and will be reviewed annually for possible increase (but not decrease) by, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or a committee of the Board (such increased Base Salary shall then be referred to as the "Base Salary").

4. Annual Bonus

During the Employment Period, you will be eligible to receive an annual target bonus equal to 60% (the "Target Bonus") of your Base Salary, based on your attainment of pre-established performance goals set forth each year by the Board or a committee of the Board, and potentially a larger bonus based on exceeding such performance goals, in each case as determined in good faith by the Board or a committee of the Board. The annual bonus for a particular year shall be paid to you no later than March 15 of the year following the year in which such bonus was earned, subject to your continued employment on such date.

5. Participation in the Company Management Equity Incentive Plan; Purchase of Equity

As soon as practicable before or after the Effective Time, the Board shall grant to you options (the "Options") (which Options shall be in addition to any options that the Company has previously awarded to you) in accordance with the terms of the management equity incentive plan (the "Plan") to purchase 250,000 shares of Common Stock (as such term is defined in the Plan) of Sovereign (the "Shares") to be provided under the Plan and at an exercise price per Share equal to $3; provided, that such exercise price is not less than the fair market value per Share on the date of grant, as determined in accordance with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). The specific terms and conditions governing all aspects of the Options shall be governed by the Option Agreement attached hereto as Exhibit A, and by the Plan and the Management Stockholders' Agreement that are already in force between you and the Company, (collectively, these three documents are hereinafter called "Option Agreements"). One-Hundred percent of the Options (the "Time-Based Options") will vest and become exercisable as follows: 25% of the Time-Based Options shall vest on the first anniversary of the Grant Date, and the remainder shall vest in equal installments of 4.6875% at the end of each complete quarter following the first anniversary of the Grant Date for 16 quarters, subject in each case to your continued employment with the Company through the applicable vesting date or as otherwise provided in the grant agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing or anything to the contrary in the Plan, in the event your employment is terminated at any time following a Change in Control (as such term is defined in the Plan) (i) by the Company without Cause, (ii) by you for Good Reason or (iii) as the result of your death or Disability, your Time-Based Options shall become 100% vested and exercisable; provided, that in no event shall the aggregate percentage of your Time-Based Options that are vested and exercisable exceed 100%.

6. Benefit Plans and Programs

(a) You will be eligible to participate in the Company's employee benefit plans, policies and other compensation and perquisite programs applicable to your position (as reasonably determined by the Board), subject to the terms, conditions and eligibility requirements of each such benefit plan, policy or other compensation program, including amendments or modifications thereto. During the Employment Period, you shall be entitled to vacation and sick leave in accordance with the Company's vacation, holiday and other pay for time not worked policies as in effect from time to time. Except as otherwise provided in the Agreement and Plan of Merger, by and among Sovereign Holdings, Inc. ("Sovereign"), Sovereign Merger Sub, Inc. and Sabre Holdings Corporation ("Sabre Holdings"), dated as of December 12, 2006 (the "Merger Agreement"), such benefit plans, policies or other compensation and perquisite programs may be discontinued or changed from time to time in the Company's sole discretion.

(b) During the Employment Period, the Company shall reimburse you for all reasonable travel and other business expenses incurred by you in the performance of your duties to the Company in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy, which shall provide for travel and entertainment at a level commensurate with your position.

7. Termination Provisions

Except as expressly provided in Section 5 and this Section 7, and except for any vested benefits under any tax qualified plan or other benefit plan (to the extent that such benefit plan does not provide for a duplication of the benefits described herein) maintained by the Company, pursuant to the Option Agreements or indemnification and insurance as provided in Section 11(c), you shall not be entitled to any benefits or payments in the event of the termination of your employment with the Company.

(a) Termination without Cause or by You for Good Reason. The Company may terminate your employment at any time without Cause (as defined below) or you may terminate your employment for Good Reason (as defined below), in each case upon 60 days notice by the terminating party. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that your employment is terminated by the Company as a result of the giving of a notice of non-renewal of the Initial Term or any Additional Term by the Company, such termination shall be deemed for all purposes to be a termination by the Company without Cause at the end of the then-current Term. In the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company shall pay to you: within 30 days of the Date of Termination: (A) your Base Salary through the date of your termination, (B) reimbursement for any unreimbursed business expenses incurred by you in accordance with Company policy prior to the date of your termination that are subject to reimbursement and (C) payment for vacation time accrued as of the date of your termination but unused (such amounts under clauses (A), (B) and (C) above, collectively the "Accrued Obligations"). In addition, on the date the annual bonuses are otherwise paid to executives who remain employed with the Company, you shall receive, in the year of your termination, an amount equal to any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid.

In addition, in the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company will pay to you, subject to Section 11(b)(ii), as severance, in installments in accordance with normal Company payroll practices over the 18 month period following the Date of Termination, an amount equal to 100% of the sum of (i) your Base Salary for such period (pro-rated over an 18 month period) and (ii) your Target Bonus for such period (pro-rated over an 18 month period).

In addition, for the 18 month period commencing on the day after the Date of Termination, the Company shall continue to provide medical, dental and vision benefits) to you and any eligible dependents which are substantially similar to those provided generally to executive officers of the Company and their eligible dependents (including any required contribution by such executive officers) pursuant to such medical, dental and vision plans as may be in effect from time to time as if your employment had not been terminated (it being understood that the Company may provide such coverage by treating this as a COBRA period and charging you only the amount of the contribution that would be required of you as an active employee); provided, however, that if you become re-employed with another employer and are eligible to receive health insurance benefits under another employer provided plan, the benefits described herein shall terminate. In such event, you are obligated to promptly notify the Company of any changes in your benefits coverage. To the extent any reimbursements or in-kind payments due to you under this Agreement constitute "deferred compensation" under Code Section 409A, any such reimbursements or in-kind payments shall be paid to you no later than the last day of the taxable year next following the taxable year in which the expenses were incurred, and in a manner consistent with Treas. Reg. §1.409A-3(i)(1)(iv).

Any amounts paid under this Section 7(a) shall be paid, and any other accommodation under Sections 5 and this Section 7(a) shall be made, only upon your executing an Agreement and General Release substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Release"), and such Release becoming effective, and, with regard to Section 7(a), subject to your not violating any of your obligations to the Company under Section 8 and subject to your materially complying with your obligations under Section 9 of this Agreement; provided, that you shall have the opportunity to promptly cure any such violation, to the extent such violation is reasonably susceptible to cure, after written notice thereof. Further, you agree that suspension of such termination payments or benefits, as a consequence of your breach of such obligations does not in any way limit the ability of the Company to pursue injunctive relief or to seek additional damages with respect to your breach of such obligations; provided, further, that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, with respect to any penalty arising from your obligation to engage in or to refrain from engaging in any activities that are set forth in the Plan (including any such obligations incorporated by reference to the provisions of this Agreement), your Options shall be governed by the provisions of the Plan or any applicable grant agreement.

(b) Termination on Death/Disability. In the event your employment is terminated as a result of your death or Disability, the Company will pay to you or your beneficiary the Accrued Obligations and any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid in year in which you die or become Disabled.

(c) Voluntarily Termination. You may terminate your employment for any reason upon 60 days notice to the Company. If you voluntarily terminate your employment (other than for Good Reason), the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations within 30 days of such termination of employment.

(d) Termination for Cause. The Company may terminate your employment at any time for Cause. In the event your employment is terminated for Cause, the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations no later than 30 days of such termination of employment.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean that (i) you have suffered a physical or mental illness or injury that has impaired your ability to substantially perform your full-time duties with the Company with or without reasonable accommodation for a period of 180 consecutive or non-consecutive days in a 12-month period; (ii) qualifies you for benefits under the Company's long-term disability plan; and (iii) you shall not have returned to full-time employment with the Company. "Disabled" shall have the correlative meaning.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean the occurrence of the events described in the following clauses (i) or (ii) herein, provided that no act or failure to act by you shall be deemed to constitute Cause if done, or omitted to be done, in good faith and with the reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company: (i) at least a majority of the members of the Board determine that you (A) were guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of your duties for the Company (other than due to your physical or mental incapacity), (B) breached or violated, in any material respect, any agreement between you and the Company or any material policy in the Company's code of conduct or similar employee conduct policy (as amended from time to time), or (C) committed a non-de minimis act of dishonesty or breach of trust with regard to the Company, any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, or (ii) you are indicted of, or plead guilty or nolo contendre to, a felony or other crime of moral turpitude.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events, without your prior written consent: (i) any materially adverse change to your responsibilities, duties, authority or status from those set forth in this Agreement or any materially adverse change in your positions, titles or reporting responsibility; provided that the Company becoming or ceasing to be a publicly traded shall not be deemed a material adverse change; (ii) a relocation of your principal business location to an area outside a 50 mile radius of its current location or moving of you from the Company's headquarters; (iii) a failure of any successor to the Company (whether direct or indirect and whether by merger, acquisition, consolidation, asset sale or otherwise) to assume in writing any obligations arising out of this Agreement; (iv) a reduction of your annual Base Salary or Target Bonus or pay any of the compensation provided for under Section 2 above to you in connection with your employment; provided, that, a reduction in Base Salary or Target Bonus of less than 5% that is proportionately applied to employees of the Company generally shall not constitute Good Reason hereunder; or (v) a material breach by the Company of this Agreement or any other material agreement with you relating to your compensation; provided that, within 30 days following the occurrence of any of the events set forth therein, you have delivered written notice to the Company of your intention to terminate your employment for Good Reason, and the Company shall not have cured such circumstances (if susceptible to cure) within 30 days following receipt of such notice (or, in the event that such grounds cannot be corrected within such 30-day period, the Company has not taken all reasonable steps within such 30-day period to correct such grounds as promptly as practicable thereafter).

8. Non-solicitation, Non-recruitment and Non competition

You acknowledge and agree that, in your position as Executive Vice-President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary for Sabre Holdings Corporation (which, for purposes of this Section 8, shall include all of the Company's subsidiaries and all affiliated companies and joint ventures connected by ownership to the Company at any time (but not any other portfolio companies of the Majority Stockholder (as defined in the Plan)), it is expected that: (i) you will be materially involved in conducting or overseeing all aspects of the Company's business activities throughout the world, (ii) you will have material contact with a substantial number of the Company's employees, and all or substantially all of the Company's then-current and actively-sought potential customers ("Customers") and suppliers of inventory ("Suppliers"); (iii) you will have access to all or substantially all of the Company's Trade Secrets and Confidential Information (see Exhibit C for definition of "Trade Secrets" and "Confidential Information'). You further acknowledge and agree that your competition with the Company anywhere worldwide, or your attempted solicitation of the Company's employees or Customers or Suppliers, during your employment or within one year after the termination of your employment with the Company, would be unfair competition and would cause substantial damages to the Company. Consequently, in consideration of your employment with the Company as Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, and the Company's covenants in this Agreement, you make the following covenants described in this Section 8:

(a) Non-solicitation of Company Customers and Suppliers. During the Employment Period and for one year following any Date of Termination, you shall not, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or of anyone other than the Company, solicit or hire or attempt to solicit or hire (or assist any third party in soliciting or hiring or attempting to solicit or hire) any Customer or Supplier in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company.

(b) Non-solicitation of Company Employees. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not, without the prior written consent of the Chief Executive Officer, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or any third party, solicit or hire or recruit or, other than in the good faith performance of your duties, induce or encourage (or assist any third party in hiring, soliciting, recruiting, inducing or encouraging) any employees of the Company or any individuals who were employees within the six month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his or her employment with the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions contained in this Section 8(b) shall not apply to (i) general solicitations that are not specifically directed to employees of the Company or (ii) serving as a reference at the request of an employee.

(c) Non-competition with the Company. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not become an employee, director, or independent contractor of, or a consultant to, or perform any services for, any Competitor of the Company. For purposes of this Section 8, a Competitor of the Company shall mean (i) any unit, division, line of business, parent, subsidiary, or subsidiary of the parent of any of Travelport, Amadeus, Worldspan, Orbitz, Expedia, Priceline, Hotwire, ITA Software, Cheaptickets, Navitaire, or EDS; or (ii) any individual or entity that within one year after your termination could reasonably be expected to generate more than $100 Million in annualized gross revenue from any activity that competes, or combination of activities that competes, with any business of the Company; provided, that a Competitor of the Company under this clause (ii) shall not include any individual or entity or portion of an entity where (A) you have actual supervisory duties and authority over one or more businesses and (B) less than 20% of the annualized gross revenue of such businesses over which you have actual supervisory duties and authority arise from any activity or combination of activities that competes with any business of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any of the above-named entities in clause (i) of this Section 8(c) no longer engages in a line of business that competes with any business of the Company, such entity shall no longer be deemed a Competitor of the Company for purposes of this Section 8.

(d) Non-disclosure of Confidential Information and Trade Secrets. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except in the good faith performance of your duties hereunder or where required by law, statute, regulation or rule of any governmental body or agency, or pursuant to a subpoena or court order, you shall not, directly or indirectly, for your own account or for the account of any other person, firm or entity, use or disclose any Confidential Information or proprietary Trade Secrets of the Company to any third person unless such Confidential Information or Trade Secret has been previously disclosed to the public or is in the public domain (other than by reason of your breach of this paragraph).

(e) Enforceability of Covenants. You acknowledge that the Company has a present and future expectation of business from and with the Customers and Suppliers. You acknowledge the reasonableness of the term, geographical territory, and scope of the covenants set forth in this Section 8, and you agree that you will not, in any action, suit or other proceeding, deny the reasonableness of, or assert the unreasonableness of, the premises, consideration or scope of the covenants set forth herein and you hereby waive any such defense. You further acknowledge that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude you from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. You agree that your covenants under this Section 8 are separate and distinct obligations under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of the Company or the Board to perform obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of your covenants and obligations under this Section 8. You agree that any breach of any covenant under this Section 8 will result in irreparable damage and injury to the Company and that the Company will be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond.

9. Post-Employment Transition and Cooperation

Upon and after the termination of your employment with the Company for any reason (except your death or, if lacking sufficient physical or mental ability, your Disability), you will execute any and all documents and take any and all actions that the Company may reasonably request to effect the transition of your duties and responsibilities to a successor. You will make yourself reasonably available with respect to, and to cooperate in conjunction with, any litigation or investigation involving the Company, and any administrative matters (including the execution of documents, as reasonably requested); provided, that such litigation, investigation or administrative matter is related to your employment with the Company and that any such availability or cooperation does not materially interfere with your then current professional activities, does not include a conflict between you and the Company or the Majority Stockholder as determined in good faith by you and the Majority Stockholder and would not result in a violation of any court order or governmental requirement. The Company agrees to compensate you (other than with respect to the provision of testimony) for such cooperation at an hourly rate commensurate with your Base Salary on the Date of Termination to reimburse you for all reasonable expenses actually incurred in connection with cooperation pursuant to this Section 9, and to provide you with legal representation.

10. Code Section 280G

If, after the Effective Time, Sovereign or the Company is not an entity whose stock is readily tradable on an established securities market (or otherwise) and a “change of control” under Regulation 1.280G occurs, the Company and Sovereign shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to take such actions as may be necessary to avoid the imposition of the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or a loss of deductibility under Section 280G of the Code, including seeking to obtain stockholder approval in accordance with the terms of Section 280G(b)(5).

11. Miscellaneous

(a) Dispute Resolution. The laws of the state of Texas will govern the construction, interpretation and enforcement of this Agreement. The parties agree that any and all claims, disputes, or controversies arising out of or related to this Agreement, or the breach of this Agreement, shall be resolved by binding arbitration, except as otherwise provided in Section 8 of this Agreement. The parties will submit the dispute, within 30 business days following service of notice of such dispute by one party on the other, to the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (J*A*M*S/Endispute) for prompt resolution in Dallas, Texas, under its rules for labor and employment disputes. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in accordance with applicable law in any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator shall have the authority to make an award of monetary damages and interest thereon. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award, and the parties hereby waive any right to seek or receive, specific performance or an injunction, punitive or exemplary damages. The arbitrator will have no authority to order a modification or amendment of this Agreement. The parties shall bear their own attorneys fees, and shall bear equally the expenses of the arbitral proceedings, including without limitation the fees of the arbitrator.

(b) Code Section 409A.

(i) If any provision of this Agreement (or of any award of compensation, including equity compensation or benefits) would cause you to incur any additional tax or interest under Section 409A of the Code or any regulations or Treasury guidance promulgated thereunder, the Company shall, after consulting with you, reform such provision to comply with Section 409A of the Code; provided, that the Company agrees to maintain, to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to you of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Section 409A of the Code.

(ii) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, if you are deemed on the Date of Termination to be a "specified employee" within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code and the Company is a public company, then the payments specified as being subject to this Section 11(b)(ii) shall not be made or provided (subject to the last sentence hereof) prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six month period measured from the date of your "separation from service" (as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations issued under Code Section 409A) or (B) the date of your death (the "Delay Period"). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments and benefits delayed pursuant to this Section 11(b)(ii) (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) shall be paid or reimbursed to you in a lump sum, and any remaining payments due under this Agreement shall be paid or provided in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them herein.

(iii) A termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits subject to

Code Section 409A upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination is also a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and, for purposes of any such provision of this Agreement, references to a "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean "separation from service."

(iv) (a) All expenses or other reimbursements as provided herein shall be payable in accordance with the Company's policies in effect from time to time, but in any event shall be made on or prior to the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expenses were incurred by you (b) no such reimbursement or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any taxable year shall in any way affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year and (c) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchanged for another benefit.

(v) For purposes of Code Section 409A, your right to receive any installment payments pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments. Whenever a payment under this Agreement specifies a payment period with reference to a number of days (e.g., "payment shall be made within thirty (30) days following the date of termination"), the actual date of payment within the specified period shall be within the sole discretion of the Company.

(c) Indemnification and Insurance. During the Employment Period and for so long thereafter as liability exists with regard to your activities during the Employment Period on behalf of the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, or as a fiduciary of any benefit plan of any of them, the Company shall indemnify you to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (other than in connection with your gross negligence or willful misconduct), and shall at the Company's election provide you with legal representation or shall advance to you reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred (subject to an undertaking from you to repay such advances if it shall be finally determined by a judicial decision which is not subject to further appeal that you were not entitled to the reimbursement of such fees and expenses). During the Employment Period and for so long as liability exists thereafter you shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company shall elect to maintain generally for the benefit of its directors and officers ("Directors and Officers Insurance") against all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by you in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which you may be made a party by reason of your being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or your serving or having served any other enterprise or benefit plan as a director, officer, fiduciary or employee at the request of the Company (other than any dispute, claim or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement); provided that you shall, in all cases, be entitled to Directors and Officers Insurance coverage no less favorable than that (if any) provided to any other present director or officer of the Company.

(d) Attorneys' Fees. The Company shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements incurred by you in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement. Payment of such fees shall be made promptly and, in any event, in 2009.

(e) No Mitigation. Except as otherwise provided in Section 7(a) hereof, (i) you shall not be required to seek other employment or otherwise mitigate the amount of any payments to be made by the Company pursuant to this Agreement; and (ii) the payments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by you as the result of employment by another employer after the Date of Termination or otherwise.

(f) Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Agreement and the Option Agreements represent the entire understanding with respect to their subject matter. Only a writing that has been signed by both you and the Company may modify this Agreement. Any and all previous employment Agreements, severance agreements and executive termination benefits agreements are cancelled as of the Effective Time and the benefits under this Agreement are in lieu of, and in full substitution for, any other severance or post-employment benefits pursuant to any other agreement, arrangement or understanding with the Company or any of its affiliates; provided, however, that any prior award of Options shall remain in full force and effect.

(g) Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of (i) the heirs, executors and legal representatives of you upon your death and (ii) any successor of the Company. Any such successor of the Company shall be deemed substituted for the Company under the terms of this Agreement for all purposes. As used herein, "successor" shall include any person, firm, corporation, or other business entity which at any time, whether by purchase, merger or otherwise, directly or indirectly acquires all or substantially all of the assets or business of the Company.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, each of the parties hereto has caused this Agreement to be executed as of the day and year first written above.

(a) Termination without Cause or by You for Good Reason. The Company may terminate your employment at any time without Cause (as defined below) or you may terminate your employment for Good Reason (as defined below), in each case upon 60 days notice by the terminating party. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that your employment is terminated by the Company as a result of the giving of a notice of non-renewal of the Initial Term or any Additional Term by the Company, such termination shall be deemed for all purposes to be a termination by the Company without Cause at the end of the then-current Term. You further acknowledge that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude you from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. You agree that your covenants under this Section 8 are separate and distinct obligations under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of the Company or the Board to perform obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of your covenants and obligations under this Section 8. You agree that any breach of any covenant under this Section 8 will result in irreparable damage and injury to the Company and that the Company will be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond.

regulations or Treasury guidance promulgated thereunder, the Company shall, after consulting with you, reform such provision to comply with Section 409A of the Code: provided, that the Company agrees to maintain, to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to you of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Section 409A of the Code.

(ii) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, if you are deemed on the Date of Termination to be a "specified employee" within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code and the Company is a public company, then the payments specified as being subject to this Section 11(b)(ii) shall not be made or provided (subject to the last sentence hereof) prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six month period measured from the date of your "separation from service" (as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations issued under Code Section 409A) or (B) the date of your death (the "Delay Period"). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments and benefits delayed pursuant to this Section 11(b)(ii) (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) shall be paid or reimbursed to you in a lump sum, and any remaining payments due under this Agreement shall be paid or provided in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them herein.

(iii) A termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits subject to Code Section 409A upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination is also a "separation from service" within the meaning of Code Section 409A and, for purposes of any such provision of this Agreement, references to a "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean "separation from service."

(iv) (a) All expenses or other reimbursements as provided herein shall be payable in accordance with the Company's policies in effect from time to time, but in any event shall be made on or prior to the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expenses were incurred by you, (b) no such reimbursement or expenses eligible for reimbursement in any taxable year shall in any way affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement in any other taxable year and (c) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits shall not be subject to liquidation or exchanged for another benefit.

(v) For purposes of Code Section 409A, your right to receive any installment payments pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as a right to receive a series of separate and distinct payments. Whenever a payment under this Agreement specifies a payment period with reference to a number of days (e.g., "payment shall be made within thirty (30) days following the date of termination"), the actual date of payment within the specified period shall be within the sole discretion of the Company.

(c) Indemnification and Insurance. During the Employment Period and for so long thereafter as liability exists with regard to your activities during the Employment Period on behalf of the Company, its subsidiaries or affiliates, or as a fiduciary of any benefit plan of any of them, the Company shall indemnify you to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law (other than in connection with your gross negligence or willful misconduct), and shall at the Company's election provide you with legal representation or shall advance to you reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses as such fees and expenses are incurred (subject to an undertaking from you to repay such advances if it shall be finally determined by a judicial decision which is not subject to further appeal that you were not entitled to the reimbursement of such fees and expenses). During the Employment Period and for so long as liability exists thereafter you shall be entitled to the protection of any insurance policies the Company shall elect to maintain generally for the benefit of its directors and officers ("Directors and Officers Insurance") against all costs, charges and expenses incurred or sustained by you in connection with any action, suit or proceeding to which you may be made a party by reason of your being or having been a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates or your serving or having served any other enterprise or benefit plan as a director, officer, fiduciary or employee at the request of the Company (other than any dispute, claim or controversy arising under or relating to this Agreement); provided that you shall, in all cases, be entitled to Directors and Officers Insurance coverage no less favorable than that (if any) provided to any other present director or officer of the Company.

(d) Attorneys' Fees. The Company shall pay all reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements incurred by you in connection with the negotiation of this Agreement. Payment of such fees shall be made promptly and, in any event, in 2009.

(e) No Mitigation. Except as otherwise provided in Section 7(a) hereof, (i) you shall not be required to seek other employment or otherwise mitigate the amount of any payments to be made by the Company pursuant to this Agreement; and (ii) the payments provided pursuant to this Agreement shall not be reduced by any compensation earned by you as the result of employment by another employer after the Date of Termination or otherwise.

(f) Entire Agreement; Amendment. This Agreement and the Option Agreements represent the entire understanding with respect to their subject matter. Only a writing that has been signed by both you and the Company may modify this Agreement. Any and all previous employment agreements, severance agreements and executive termination benefits agreements are cancelled as of the Effective Time and the benefits under this Agreement are in lieu of, and in full substitution for, any other severance or post-employment benefits pursuant to any other agreement, arrangement or understanding with the Company or any of its affiliates; provided, however, that any prior award of Options shall remain in full force and effect.

(g) Successors. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of (i) the heirs, executors and legal representatives of you upon your death and (ii) any successor of the Company. Any such successor of the Company shall be deemed substituted for the Company under the terms of this Agreement for all purposes. As used herein, "successor" shall include any person, firm, corporation, or other business entity which at any time, whether by purchase, merger or otherwise, directly or indirectly acquires all or substantially all of the assets or business of the Company.

Dear Greg:

This agreement ("Agreement") will confirm our mutual understanding with respect to your employment by Sabre Inc. ("Sabre"), effective as of January 31, 2011 ("the Effective Time").

1. Job Description / Title / Duties

(a) You will serve as Executive Vice President and President — Sabre Travel Network for Sabre Holdings Corporation (the "Company"). You shall perform all of the functions that are consistent with such position, as determined by the Company. You shall perform all such duties faithfully, industriously, and to the best of your experience and talent. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, you shall abide in all material respects by all the Company policies and directives applicable to you.

(b) During the Employment Period (as defined below), excluding any periods of vacation and sick leave to which you are entitled, you shall devote your full working time, energy and attention to the performance of your duties and responsibilities hereunder and shall faithfully and diligently endeavor to promote the business and best interests of the Company. During the Employment Period, you may not, without the prior written consent of the Company, directly or indirectly, operate, participate in the management, operations or control of, or act as an executive, officer, consultant, agent or representative of, any type of business or service (other than as an executive of the Company or any of its subsidiaries or affiliates). It shall not, however, be a violation of the foregoing provisions of this Section 1(b) for you to (i) subject to the approval of the Chief Executive Officer of the Company, serve as an officer or director or otherwise participate in educational, welfare, social, religious and civic organizations, or (ii) manage your or your family's personal, financial and legal affairs, so long as, in the case of clause (i) or (ii), any such activities do not interfere with the performance of your duties and responsibilities to the Company as provided hereunder.

2. Term of Employment

Unless terminated earlier pursuant to Section 7 hereof, the term of this Agreement and your employment shall be for three years, beginning at the Effective Time and ending on the third anniversary of the date of the Effective Time (the "Initial Term"). The term of this Agreement and your employment shall automatically renew for one-year periods following the Initial Term (each, an "Additional Term"); provided, however, that either party may elect not to renew the term of your employment and this Agreement following the Initial Term or any Additional Term by providing written notice of such non-renewal at least 60 days prior to the end of the applicable term. The period of your employment with the Company shall be referred to herein as the "Employment Period". Notwithstanding the foregoing, Sections 5, 7, 8, 9 and 11 shall survive termination of this Agreement in accordance with their terms.

Either you or the Company may terminate your employment with the Company at any time, and for any reason or no reason, with or without Cause, as set forth in Section 7 of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Date of Termination" shall mean (a) if your employment is terminated by your death, the date of your death, (b) if your employment is terminated as a result of your Disability (as defined in Section 7 below), the date upon which you receive the notice of termination from the Company, (c) if you voluntarily terminate your employment or your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause, the date specified in the notice given pursuant to Section 7(a) or (c) herein, as applicable, which shall not be less than 60 days after such notice, and (d) if your employment is terminated for any other reason, the date on which the notice of termination is given unless otherwise agreed to by the Company.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in all events, the Date of Termination described above in (b), (c) and (d) subject to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code") Section 409A, shall occur when you have incurred a separation from service for purposes of Code Section 409A.

3. Base Salary

During the Employment Period, your annual base salary will be $350,000 ("Base Salary"), less withholding for taxes and deductions for other appropriate items. Your Base Salary will be determined solely by, and will be reviewed annually for possible increase (but not decrease) by, the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") or a committee of the Board (such increased Base Salary shall then be referred to as the "Base Salary").

4. Annual Bonus

During the Employment Period, you will be eligible to receive an annual target bonus equal to 60% (the "Target Bonus") of your Base Salary, based on your attainment of pre-established performance goals set forth each year by the Board or a committee of the Board, and potentially a larger bonus based on exceeding such performance goals, in each case as determined in good faith by the Board or a committee of the Board. The annual bonus for a particular year shall be paid to you no later than March 15 of the year following the year in which such bonus was earned, subject to your continued employment on such date.

5. Participation in the Company Management Equity Incentive Plan; Purchase of Equity

6. Benefit Plans and Programs

(a) You will be eligible to participate in the Company's employee benefit plans, policies and other compensation and perquisite programs applicable to your position (as reasonably determined by the Board), subject to the terms, conditions and eligibility requirements of each such benefit plan, policy or other compensation program, including amendments or modifications thereto. During the Employment Period, you shall be entitled to vacation and sick leave in accordance with the Company's vacation, holiday and other pay for time not worked policies as in effect from time to time. Except as otherwise provided in the Agreement and Plan of Merger, by and among Sovereign Holdings, Inc. ("Sovereign"), Sovereign Merger Sub, Inc. and Sabre Holdings Corporation ("Sabre Holdings"), dated as of December 12, 2006 (the "Merger Agreement"), such benefit plans, policies or other compensation and perquisite programs may be discontinued or changed from time to time in the Company's sole discretion.

(b) During the Employment Period, the Company shall reimburse you for all reasonable travel and other business expenses incurred by you in the performance of your duties to the Company in accordance with the Company's expense reimbursement policy, which shall provide for travel and entertainment at a level commensurate with your position.

7. Termination Provisions

Except as expressly provided in Section 5 and this Section 7, and except for any vested benefits under any tax qualified plan or other benefit plan (to the extent that such benefit plan does not provide for a duplication of the benefits described herein) maintained by the Company, pursuant to the Option Agreements or indemnification and insurance as provided in Section 11(c), you shall not be entitled to any benefits or payments in the event of the termination of your employment with the Company.

(a) Termination without Cause or by You for Good Reason. The Company may terminate your employment at any time without Cause (as defined below) or you may terminate your employment for Good Reason (as defined below), in each case upon 60 days notice by the terminating party. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event that your employment is terminated by the Company as a result of the giving of a notice of non-renewal of the Initial Term or any Additional Term by the Company, such termination shall be deemed for all purposes to be a termination by the Company without Cause at the end of the then-current Term. in the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company shall pay to you: within 30 days of the Date of Termination: (A) your Base Salary through the date of your termination, (B) reimbursement for any unreimbursed business expenses incurred by you in accordance with Company policy prior to the date of your termination that are subject to reimbursement and (C) payment for vacation time accrued as of the date of your termination but unused (such amounts under clauses (A), (B) and (C) above, collectively the "Accrued Obligations"). In addition, on the date the annual bonuses are otherwise paid to executives who remain employed with the Company, you shall receive, in the year of your termination, an amount equal to any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid.

In addition, in the event your employment is terminated by the Company without Cause or by you for Good Reason, the Company will pay to you, subject to Section 11(b)(ii), as severance, in installments in accordance with normal Company payroll practices over the 18 month period following the Date of Termination, an amount equal to 100% of the sum of (i) your Base Salary for such period (pro-rated over an 18 month period) and (ii) your Target Bonus for such period (prorated over an 18 month period).

In addition, for the 18 month period commencing on the day after the Date of Termination, the Company shall continue to provide medical, dental and vision benefits) to you and any eligible dependents which are substantially similar to those provided generally to executive officers of the Company and their eligible dependents (including any required contribution by such executive officers) pursuant to such medical, dental and vision plans as may be in effect from time to time as if your employment had not been terminated (it being understood that the Company may provide such coverage by treating this as a COBRA period and charging you only the amount of the contribution that would be required of you as an active employee); provided, however, that if you become re-employed with another employer and are eligible to receive health insurance benefits under another employer provided plan, the benefits described herein shall terminate in such event, you are obligated to promptly notify the Company of any changes in your benefits coverage. To the extent any reimbursements or in-kind payments due to you under this Agreement constitute "deferred compensation" under Code Section 409A, any such reimbursements or in-kind payments shall be paid to you no later than the last day of the taxable year next following the taxable year in which the expenses were incurred, and in a manner consistent with Treas. Reg. §1.409A—3(i)(1)(iv).

Any amounts paid under this Section 7(a) shall be paid, and any other accommodation under Sections 5 and this Section 7(a) shall be made, only upon your executing an Agreement and General Release substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Release"), and such Release becoming effective, and, with regard to Section 7(a), subject to your not violating any of your obligations to the Company under Section 8 and subject to your materially complying with your obligations under Section 9 of this Agreement; provided, that you shall have the opportunity to promptly cure any such violation, to the extent such violation is reasonably susceptible to cure, after written notice thereof. Further, you agree that suspension of such termination payments or benefits, as a consequence of your breach of such obligations does not in any way limit the ability of the Company to pursue injunctive relief or to seek additional damages with respect to your breach of such obligations; provided, further, that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, with respect to any penalty arising from your obligation to engage in or to refrain from engaging in any activities that are set forth in the Plan (including any such obligations incorporated by reference to the provisions of this Agreement), your Options shall be governed by the provisions of the Plan or any applicable grant agreement.

(b) Termination on Death/Disability. In the event your employment is terminated as a result of your death or Disability, the Company will pay to you or your beneficiary the Accrued Obligations and any accrued but unpaid annual bonus for the immediately preceding year that you would have been paid had you remained employed on the date such bonuses are paid in year in which you die or become Disabled.

(c) Voluntarily Termination. You may terminate your employment for any reason upon 60 days notice to the Company. If you voluntarily terminate your employment (other than for Good Reason), the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations within 30 days of such termination of employment.

(d) Termination for Cause. The Company may terminate your employment at any time for Cause. In the event your employment is terminated for Cause, the Company will pay to you the Accrued Obligations no later than 30 days of such termination of employment.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Disability" shall mean that (I) you have suffered a physical or mental illness or injury that has impaired your ability to substantially perform your full-time duties with the Company with or without reasonable accommodation for a period of 180 consecutive or non-consecutive days in a 12-month period; (ii) qualifies you for benefits under the Company's long-term disability plan; and (iii) you shall not have returned to full-time employment with the Company. "Disabled" shall have the correlative meaning.

For purposes of this Agreement, "Cause" shall mean the occurrence of the events described in the following clauses (i) or (ii) herein, provided that no act or failure to act by you shall be deemed to constitute Cause if done, or omitted to be done, in good faith and with the reasonable belief that the action or omission was in the best interests of the Company: (i) at least a majority of the members of the Board determine that you (A) were guilty of gross negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of your duties for the Company (other than due to your physical or mental incapacity), (B) breached or violated, in any material respect, any agreement between you and the Company or any material policy in the Company's code of conduct or similar employee conduct policy (as amended from time to time), or (C) committed a non-de minimis act of dishonesty or breach of trust with regard to the Company, any of its subsidiaries or affiliates, or (ii) you are indicted of, or plead guilty or nob contendre to, a felony or other crime of moral turpitude. For purposes of this Agreement, "Good Reason" shall mean the occurrence of any of the following events, without your prior written consent: (i) any materially adverse change to your responsibilities, duties, authority or status from those set forth in this Agreement or any materially adverse change in your positions, titles or reporting responsibility; provided that the Company becoming or ceasing to be a publicly traded shall not be deemed a material adverse change; (ii) a relocation of your principal business location to an area outside a 50 mile radius of its current location or moving of you from the Company's headquarters; (iii) a failure of any successor to the Company (whether direct or indirect and whether by merger, acquisition, consolidation, asset sale or otherwise) to assume in writing any obligations arising out of this Agreement; (iv) a reduction of your annual Base Salary or Target Bonus or pay any of the compensation provided for under Section 2 above to you in connection with your employment; provided, that, a reduction in Base Salary or Target Bonus of less than 5% that is proportionately applied to employees of the Company generally shall not constitute Good Reason hereunder; or (v) a material breach by the Company of this Agreement or any other material agreement with you relating to your compensation; provided that, within 30 days following the occurrence of any of the events set forth therein, you have delivered written notice to the Company of your intention to terminate your employment for Good Reason, and the Company shall not have cured such circumstances (if susceptible to cure) within 30 days following receipt of such notice (or, in the event that such grounds cannot be corrected within such 30-day period, the Company has not taken all reasonable steps within such 30-day period to correct such grounds as promptly as practicable thereafter).

8. Non-solicitation, Non-recruitment and Non-competition

You acknowledge and agree that, in your position as Executive Vice-President and President — Sabre Travel Network for Sabre Holdings Corporation (which, for purposes of this Section 8, shall include all of the Company's subsidiaries and all affiliated companies and joint ventures connected by ownership to the Company at any time (but not any other portfolio companies of the Majority Stockholder (as defined in the Plan)), it is expected that: (i) you will be materially involved in conducting or overseeing all aspects of the Company's business activities throughout the world, (ii) you will have material contact with a substantial number of the Company's employees, and all or substantially all of the Company's then-current and actively-sought potential customers ("Customers") and suppliers of inventory ("Suppliers"); (iii) you will have access to all or substantially all of the Company's Trade Secrets and Confidential Information (see Exhibit C for definition of "Trade Secrets° and "Confidential information"). You further acknowledge and agree that your competition with the Company anywhere worldwide, or your attempted solicitation of the Company's employees or Customers or Suppliers, during your employment or within one year after the termination of your employment with the Company, would be unfair competition and would cause substantial damages to the Company. Consequently, in consideration of your employment with the Company as Executive Vice President and President — Sabre Travel Network and the Company's covenants in this Agreement, you make the following covenants described in this Section 8:

(a) Non-solicitation of Company Customers and Suppliers. During the Employment Period and for one year following any Date of Termination, you shall not, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or of anyone other than the Company, solicit or hire or attempt to solicit or hire (or assist any third party in soliciting or hiring or attempting to solicit or hire) any Customer or Supplier in connection with any business activity that then competes with the Company.

(b) Non-solicitation of Company Employees. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not, without the prior written consent of the Chief Executive Officer, directly or indirectly, on behalf of yourself or any third party, solicit or hire or recruit or, other than in the good faith performance of your duties, induce or encourage (or assist any third party in hiring, soliciting, recruiting, inducing or encouraging) any employees of the Company or any individuals who were employees within the six month period immediately prior thereto to terminate or otherwise alter his or her employment with the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the restrictions contained in this Section 8(b) shall not apply to (i) general solicitations that are not specifically directed to employees of the Company or (ii) serving as a reference at the request of an employee.

(c) Non-competition with the Company. During the Employment Period and for 18 months following any Date of Termination, you shall not become an employee, director, or independent contractor of, or a consultant to, or perform any services for, any Competitor of the Company. For purposes of this Section 8, a Competitor of the Company shall mean (i) any unit, division, line of business, parent, subsidiary, or subsidiary of the parent of any of Travelport, Amadeus, Worldspan, Orbitz, Expedia, Priceline, Hotwire, ITA Software, Cheaptickets, Navitaire, or EDS; or (ii) any individual or entity that within one year after your termination could reasonably be expected to generate more than $100 Million in annualized gross revenue from any activity that competes, or combination of activities that competes, with any business of the Company; provided, that a Competitor of the Company under this clause (ii) shall not include any individual or entity or portion of an entity where (A) you have actual supervisory duties and authority over one or more (c) businesses and (B) less than 20% of the annualized gross revenue of such businesses over which you have actual supervisory duties and authority arise from any activity or combination of activities that competes with any business of the Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event any of the above-named entities in clause (i) of this Section 8(c) no longer engages in a line of business that competes with any business of the Company, such entity shall no longer be deemed a Competitor of the Company for purposes of this Section 8.

(d) Non-disclosure of Confidential Information and Trade Secrets. During the Employment Period and thereafter, except in the good faith performance of your duties hereunder or where required by law, statute, regulation or rule of any governmental body or agency, or pursuant to a subpoena or court order, you shall not directly or indirectly, for your own account or for the account of any other person, firm or entity, use or disclose any Confidential Information or proprietary Trade Secrets of the Company to any third person unless such Confidential Information or Trade Secret has been previously disclosed to the public or is in the public domain (other than by reason of your breach of this paragraph).

(e) Enforceability of Covenants. You acknowledge that the Company has a present and future expectation of business from and with the Customers and Suppliers. You acknowledge the reasonableness of the term, geographical territory, and scope of the covenants set forth in this Section 8, and you agree that you will not, in any action, suit or other proceeding, deny the reasonableness of, or assert the unreasonableness of, the premises, consideration or scope of the covenants set forth herein and you hereby waive any such defense. You further acknowledge that complying with the provisions contained in this Agreement will not preclude you from engaging in a lawful profession, trade or business, or from becoming gainfully employed. You agree that your covenants under this Section 8 are separate and distinct obligations under this Agreement, and the failure or alleged failure of the Company or the Board to perform obligations under any other provisions of this Agreement shall not constitute a defense to the enforceability of your covenants and obligations under this Section 8. You agree that any breach of any covenant under this Section 8 will result in irreparable damage and injury to the Company and that the Company will be entitled to injunctive relief in any court of competent jurisdiction without the necessity of posting any bond.

9. Post-Employment Transition and Cooperation

Upon and after the termination of your employment with the Company for any reason (except your death or, if lacking sufficient physical or mental ability, your Disability), you will execute any and all documents and take any and all actions that the Company may reasonably request to effect the transition of your duties and responsibilities to a successor. You will make yourself reasonably available with respect to, and to cooperate in conjunction with, any litigation or investigation involving the Company, and any administrative matters (including the execution of documents, as reasonably requested); provided, that such litigation, investigation or administrative matter is related to your employment with the Company and that any such availability or cooperation does not materially interfere with your then current professional activities, does not include a conflict between you and the Company or the Majority Stockholder as determined in good faith by you and the Majority Stockholder and would not result in a violation of any court order or governmental requirement. The Company agrees to compensate you (other than with respect to the provision of testimony) for such cooperation at an hourly rate commensurate with your Base Salary on the Date of Termination to reimburse you for all reasonable expenses actually incurred in connection with cooperation pursuant to this Section 9, and to provide you with legal representation.

10. Code Section 280G

If, after the Effective Time, Sovereign or the Company is not an entity whose stock is readily tradable on an established securities market (or otherwise) and a "change of control" under Regulation 1.280G occurs, the Company and Sovereign shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to take such actions as may be necessary to avoid the imposition of the excise tax imposed by Section 4999 of the Code or a loss of deductibility under Section 280G of the Code, including seeking to obtain stockholder approval in accordance with the terms of Section 280G(b)(5).

11. Miscellaneous

(a) Dispute Resolution. The laws of the state of Texas will govern the construction, interpretation and enforcement of this Agreement. The parties agree that any and all claims, disputes, or controversies arising out of or related to this Agreement, or the breach of this Agreement, shall be resolved by binding arbitration, except as otherwise provided in Section 8 of this Agreement. The parties will submit the dispute, within 30 business days following service of notice of such dispute by one party on the other, to the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services (J*A*M*S/Endispute) for prompt resolution in Dallas, Texas, under its rules for labor and employment disputes. The decision of the arbitrator will be final and binding upon the parties, and judgment may be entered thereon in accordance with applicable law in any court having jurisdiction. The arbitrator shall have the authority to make an award of monetary damages and interest thereon. The arbitrator shall have no authority to award, and the parties hereby waive any right to seek or receive, specific performance or an injunction, punitive or exemplary damages. The arbitrator will have no authority to order a modification or amendment of this Agreement. The parties shall bear their own attorneys fees, and shall bear equally the expenses of the arbitral proceedings, including without limitation the fees of the arbitrator.

(b) Code Section 409A.

(i) If any provision of this Agreement (or of any award of compensation, including equity compensation or benefits) would cause you to incur any additional tax or interest under Section 409A of the Code or any regulations or Treasury guidance promulgated thereunder, the Company shall, after consulting with you, reform such provision to comply with Section 409A of the Code; provided, that the Company agrees to maintain, to the maximum extent practicable, the original intent and economic benefit to you of the applicable provision without violating the provisions of Section 409A of the Code.

(ii) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in this Agreement, if you are deemed on the Date of Termination to be a "specified employee" within the meaning of that term under Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code and the Company is a public company, then the payments specified as being subject to this Section 11(b)(ii) shall not be made or provided (subject to the last sentence hereof) prior to the earlier of (A) the expiration of the six month period measured from the date of your "separation from service" (as such term is defined in Treasury Regulations issued under Code Section 409A) or (B) the date of your death (the "Delay Period"). Upon the expiration of the Delay Period, all payments and benefits delayed pursuant to this Section 11(b)(ii) (whether they would have otherwise been payable in a single sum or in installments in the absence of such delay) shall be paid or reimbursed to you in a lump sum, and any remaining payments due under this Agreement shall be paid or provided in accordance with the normal payment dates specified for them herein.

(iii) A termination of employment shall not be deemed to have occurred for purposes of any provision of this Agreement providing for the payment of any amounts or benefits subject to Code Section 409A upon or following a termination of employment unless such termination is also a "separation from service' within the meaning of Code Section 409A and, for purposes of any such provision of this Agreement, references to a "termination," "termination of employment" or like terms shall mean "separation from service."
